Dr. TRAPP's Discourse, &c.

 I G H T I follow the Bent of my own Mind, my Pen, such as it is, should be wholly employ'd in setting forth the infinite Love of God to Mankind in Christ Jesus, and in endeavouring to draw all Men to the Belief and Acknowledgment of it. This one great Mercy of God, which makes the one only Happiness of all Mankind, so justly deserves all our Thoughts and Meditations, so highly enlightens, and improves every Mind that is attentive to it, so removes all the Evils of this present World, so sweetens every State of Life, so inflames the Heart with the Love of every divine and human Virtue, that he is no small Loser, whose Mind is, either by Writing or Reading, detain'd from the View and Contemplation of it.

When this Mystery of Divine Love was first manifested to the World, it produced its proper Effects, it put an End to all Selfishness and Division; for *all that believed were of one heart, and one Spirit, and had all things common. And indeed under the real Influence, and full Belief of this great Myſtery of Divine Love, there ſeems to be no Room left for any thing elſe amongſt Chriſtians, but Returns of Love to God, and Flowings out of Love towards one another.

But now it is ſo difficult to enter into Controverſy without being, or at leaſt ſeeming in ſome Degree unkind to the Perſon that one opposes, that it is with great Reluctance that I have enter'd upon my preſent Undertaking; having nothing more deeply rivetted in my Heart, than an univerſal Love and Kindneſs for all Mankind, and more eſpecially for thoſe whom God has called to be my Fellow-Labourers in promoting the Salvation of Mankind. But however unwilling, yet I find myſelf obliged to conſider, and lay open many grievous Faults in the Doctor's Diſcourſe; and to ſhew to all Chriſtians, that the deareſt Interests of their Souls are much endanger'd by it.

And this I muſt do with great Plainneſs and Sincerity, in the Love of Truth, and under the Direction of Charity, ſaying nothing in the Spirit of an Adverſary, ſparing nothing through Reſpect of Perſons, ſacrificing nothing to the Taſte or Temper of the World, but ſetting forth every Thing in that naked Light, in which the Spirit of God repreſents it to my own Mind.

The

* Acts iii.

The Doctor undertakes to stir up, and alarm Mankind with the Sin, Folly, and Danger, of being righteous over-much. The Text from which he has the Title of his Discourse is very unhappily chosen, and must be looked upon rather as a severe Reproach, than any kind of Justification of it. The Text is indeed in the Writings of Solomon, and as it stands there, has no Hurt in it; because as the Royal Preacher sometimes introduces Fools, and sometimes Infidels, making their Speeches, so there is a Necessity of supposing that to be the Case in the Doctor's Text; not only from the Context, which plainly shews there are Two Persons introduced, the one for, the other against Righteousness; but because the Words, unless stripped of all their proper Meaning, cannot be taken in a Sense that is tolerable, or consistent with the common Notions of Piety.

Is it not therefore strange, that the Doctor should chuse to have a Discourse and Title to it, conformable to a Text of this kind; For if his Discourse is of a Piece with his Text, must not all sensible People find it as hard to reconcile his Discourse, as to reconcile the Text with the common Notions of Piety? Is it not strange, that he should think it right and just, to limit, explain, and model, both the Letter and Spirit of the Gospel by such a Saying in the Writings of Solomon, as must be ascrib'd to the Spirit and Mouth of an Infidel? Is it not still stranger, that such a Text, so offensive to Piety, should have not only been so long dwelt upon in the Doctör's Three Churches, but sent abroad into the Christian World, as a proper Key to all the practical Sayings, Parables, and Doctrines, of Jesus Christ?

Supported by this Text, the Doctör endeavours to deter and fright Christians from the Sin, Folly, and Danger, of being righteous overmuch, and from what he calls the baneful Plague of Enthusiasm. But then it is Matter of just Complaint, that he does all this, without ever shewing in any Part of his Discourse, wherein true Righteousness, or the right and sober Spirit of Piety consists. If he supposed his Readers to be already well acquainted with the Nature and Extent of Christian Holiness, and to have just and distinct Ideas of Religion, what it is in itself, what Change, Purification, and Perfection, it aims at in human Nature, how, and by what Means, a Man may make himself a full Partaker of all that Benefit, Change, and Perfection, that is intended by it, there would then have been little Occasion for his present Undertaking.

For if they may be supposed thus to know what is right in Religion, they would by such Knowledge be in the best State of Security against that which is wrong.

But the Doctör overlooks this important Matter. He neither supposes them to have this Knowledge, nor endeavours to help them to it; but in a Flow of Zeal, in a loose, declamatory Stile, reflects at large upon all Attempts towards a Piety, that is not modern, common, and
according

according to the present Power and Fashion of Religion in the World. Thus, you every-where find hard and severe Reflections cast upon Pretenders to Piety, pretended Spiritualists, and Righteous over-much; great Accufation of Excesses, Extraordinaries, and By-paths; but no-where a Word, or a Hint, in Favour of those, who would only be so excessive, so extraordinary, and so much out of the common Paths, as the blessed Saints, and Martyrs of the Primitive Church were; no-where are such People told, that he wishes them God Speed, that their Zeal is much wanted both amongst Clergy and Laity, and that the Gospel suffers, because we know not where to find living Examples of its Purity and Perfection. No-where are such People told, that he writes not against them, that He loves their Spirit, and should be glad to add new Fervours to it; no-where are they told, what Christian Perfection is, what a Holiness of Body, Soul and Spirit it requires, and what Blessedness of Life it gives; how powerfully all are called to it; how earnestly all ought to aspire after it; and how sadly they are mistaken, what Enemies to themselves, who for the Sake of any, or all the Things in the World, die less purified and perfect, than they might have been.

If we had to do only with one single Person, sincerely good, yet seeming to carry Matters too high in some Parts of his Duty, if we intended privately to dissuade him from such Heights; yet even this, thus privately done, and to a Person of Piety, would be exceeding dangerous, and very unjustifiable; unless we took the utmost Care at the same Time, to keep up the pious Zeal of his Mind, to shew him wherein the true Point of Perfection consisted, and to encourage his utmost Endeavours after it.

But if this Caution, Instruction, and Encouragement, cannot be omitted without great Hurt to Religion, when we speak only to a Person of Piety, and in private, about any religious Extreams. What must be said of the Doctor's Conduct? who to the World dead in Trespasses and Sin, preaches up the Sin, Folly, and Danger, of being Righteous over-much. To the World Eating and Drinking, and rising up to Play, he harangues upon the Madness, Danger, and Folly, of too much Temperance, Abstinence, Mortification, and Severity of Life. To the World asleep, insensible, and careless, not only of the Purity and Perfection, but of the First Principles of the Gospel, he boldly, rashly reproaches all Appearances of Holiness, that are uncommon and extraordinary. To no Part of the World does he represent or propose the Perfection of the Gospel, or recommend it as that, which Deserves all that they can do, or suffer, for Sake of it.

This, therefore, I am obliged to point out, as a fundamental Defect in the Doctor's Discourse, and such as renders it an evil Temptation, a dangerous Snare, and fatal Delusion, to all those, who do not read it with a full and thorough Dislike. Cold-

Coldness, Indifference, and a lifeless outward Compliance with all the Duties of Religion; a Slavery to Ease, Softness, and sensible Pleasures; a criminal Conformity to the Spirit, Fashions, and Corruptions, of the World; unmortified Passions; a conniving at favourite Sins; deep Roots of Pride, Partiality, and Self-Love; an unawakened Conscience; an Insensibility of their corrupt, unreformed, unregenerate State; a Proneness to be content and satisfied with poor Beginnings, Names and Appearances of Virtue; is perhaps the State of more than Two-thirds of those that are looked upon to be the Religious amongst us.

Now the Doctor's Discourse has a direct and natural Fitness to lull all these People asleep, to suppress all Stirrings and Intentions of Amendment, to keep up and nourish every Disorder of their Hearts, to increase their Blindness, and awaken nothing in them, but a hurtful Zeal to censure and condemn all those, that are endeavouring to practice the uncommon Piety of the Gospel.

There is scarce a Reader amongst this Number of People, whether he be Layman or Clergyman, but will find this Effect from the Doctor's Instructions; he will begin to take fresh Comfort in his State, to think himself happy for having had no aspirings after high Improvements in Piety; he will not only be content with his Corruptions, but be fixed, and hardened against all inward and outward Calls to a solid Piety; he will approve of the Deadness and
In-

Insensibility of his own Heart, and acquiesce in it, as his true and just Security, from the Sin and Folly and Danger of being Righteous over-much.

Again, others there are, I make no doubt, in all Parts of this Kingdom, both amongst Clergy and Laity, Men and Women, rich and poor, whose Consciences are greatly awaken'd, who see the general Apostacy from the Religion of the Gospel, whose Souls are wanting, and wishing nothing so much, as to know how, all that they are, all that they have, and all that they do, may be one continual Sacrifice, and Service of Love unto God; to know how, and in what Manner, and to what Extent, and by what Means, they may and ought to be perfect, even as their Father which is in Heaven is perfect.

Now who can help looking with Love, Pity, and Compassion, upon these poor Souls, longing for that, which has been so long lost; asking after that, which scarce any one will tell them any thing of, and wanting to enter upon Paths, where there are few or no Footsteps to be seen, nor any Travellers in Motion!

Now had these awaken'd Souls liv'd in the First Ages of the Church, nay, I may say almost any till these very last Ages of it, their Zeal had not been in vain; they could have been at no Loss to know how they were to proceed in their heavenly Purpose; because they could have always been immediately directed to some living Examples of the perfect Spirit of the Gospel, who were publicly known and acknowledged by all to be such, and who had the same undisputed Right to point out every Degree of Christian Perfection, as John the Baptist had to preach up Mortification and Self-denial. Every Age, and every Sex, consecrated Virgins, holy Widows, Converts, and Penitents, Priests and People of all Conditions, had their open, known and public Standards to resort to, where every one was sure to be guided and directed, assisted and encouraged to live up to that Height of Holiness and Perfection, which was proper to their State and Condition.

But now how does the Doctor deal with this Sort of People? What Love, Instruction, Assistance, and Encouragement, does he reach out to them? Why, truly, he considers them as a deluded, weak, or hypocritical, or half-thinking People, that disturb the Christian Church with their Projects about Perfection, who are to be set right by returning to the Instruction of common Sense. He ridicules and exposes every Step they must take in their intended Progress, by adding Absurdities of his own Invention to it. There is nothing for such People throughout his whole Discourse, but Reproaches, Ridicule, and Discouragement.

Are they desirous of all that Self-denial, all that Mortification of bodily Appetites and sensual Passions, as may best fit them to be Temples of the Holy Spirit, he ridicules them as holding the Sinfulness of *smelling a Rose?

Do

Do they begin to discover the deep Corruption of their Nature, the Superficialness and Weakness of their Virtues, and to fear they have as yet scarce come up to the Righteousness of the Scribes and Pharisees? He tells them, The great Enemy of Souls adapts his Temptations to all Sorts of Tempers and Dispositions.—Those who are dispos'd to be good and virtuous, if he cannot prevail with them to be vicious, commonly so called, he labours to make them over-virtuous, that is vicious, tho' not commonly so called; and so involves them in Dangers and Mischiefs.*

Are they such as are only desirous of reforming their own Lives, by bringing all their Actions to the Standard of the Gospel, and wholly intent upon their own Advancement in merely practical Piety?

To these he shews, that they are in the very Paths that lead, and always did lead, to Fanatic Madness.

Thus, says he, “To what a Height of Fanatic Madness in Doctrine, as well as Practice, are some advanced, who set out at first with an Appearance of more than ordinary Sanctity in Practice only?” And again, “I do say, that in all Ages Enthusiasts have been Righteous over-much; they began with the last mention'd, and ended with the other. And is it not so now†?”

Further, are there others, who begin to feel the Mystery of their Redemption discovered in their own Souls, so that they hunger and

and thirst after the Manifestation of the Divine Life in them, desiring that Christ may be wholly form'd and reveal'd in them, that they may put on Christ, be in him new Creatures, led by his Spirit, growing in him as Branches in the Vine, hearing the Word of God written and spoken in their Hearts, in his Light seeing Light, and tasting in the inward Man the Powers of the World to come.

For such as these, the Doctor has this Instruction: “ That there is, says he, such a “ Thing as the Operation and Influence of the “ Holy Spirit upon our Souls, tho’ we cannot “ distinguish it from the Operations of our “ own Minds, is not only granted, but insisted “ upon, by all sincere and sober Christians. But “ what Reason, what Scripture, is there for this “ inward Seeing, Hearing, *Feeling?”

According therefore to the Doctor’s Divinity, both Reason and Scripture require, that the true Christian be inwardly blind, inwardly deaf, and void of all inward Feeling. For if neither Scripture nor Reason will allow of any inward Senses, then they must both of them require an inward Insensibility. But Scripture, from Genesis to the Revelations, is full of Proof of these inward Senses. I shall not now produce them. I shall here only observe, that Hardness of Heart is a common and well-known Phrase of Scripture, and every-where signifies some Degree of Blindness, Deafness, and Loss of Feeling†. I suppose it will not be said, that it signifies Blindness, or Loss of outward Eyes and Ears, or Feeling: Neither does it signify a Want of human Reason, or natural Sagacity; for learned, polite, and ingenious Men are full as subject as others are, to this Hardness of Heart. Therefore the Scripture is as open, as plain and express, in declaring for inward Senses, as it is in declaring against such a Thing as Hardness of Heart.

Hardness of Heart is that to the inward Senses which a deep, or, as we call it, a dead Sleep, is to the outward. It keeps our inward Eyes and Ears clos'd and stopp'd, just as Sleep does our outward Eyes, and Ears, and Feeling.

A broken and a contrite Heart unlocks all our inward Senses, and makes us see, and hear, and feel the Things, which could no more be seen, heard, or felt before, than a Man in a deep sleep can hear, and see, and feel the Things that are said and done about him.

Water violently frozen into a Rock of Ice, is very different from the same Water melted, rarify'd, warm'd, and moving under the Influences of the Sun and the Air.

Now if this Water was a sensible Being, we might well suppose, that when it was a soft, yielding, transparent, flowing Substance, full of Light and Air, that it had certain Senses in that State; which Senses were lost, and locked up, as soon as it became a hard, rough, thick, dark, immoveable Rock of Ice, made so by Coldness, or for the Want of the Motion of Light

Light and Air in it. And that the Ice must of all Necessity be first melted, before these Senses could be found again.

Now this Difference between Water flowing full of Light and Air, and the same Water frozen into a dark hard Rock of Ice, is but a small Resemblance of the Difference between a hardened Heart, and the same Heart become broken.

And a Lump of Ice would be as well qualified to deny that sweet Sensibility of Water flowing full of Light and Air, as the natural Man is to dispute those Senses, which arise in the Heart, that is broken and penetrated by the Light, and Spirit of God in it.

But no more of this at present. I now return to the Doctor. His further Instruction to this Sort of People stands thus: They are told by him, that their high Notions of Spiritual Improvements have this Effect: On the one Hand, they lead to Presumption; on the other, to Desperation. He has been told, he says, that some have been actually thrown into Despair. They have been made stark mark, and received into Bedlam, as such. And then he cries out, Was the Religion of Jesus Christ intended to make People mad? Is this for the Honour of Christianity?

I shall not here question the Doctor's Information. I shall only observe, that when our Saviour was upon Earth, there were Two Sorts of mad People about him. The one Sort ran about about in Disorder, tore their Cloaths, and cut their own Flesh ; the other Sort raved in Malice, threw Dust into the Air, stop't their Ears, and cried out, Crucify him, crucify him.

Now it may be ask'd, which of these Two Sorts of People were in the most disorder'd and distemper'd State ? Whose Madness was the most shocking, that of the Lunatics, or that of the High Priests, Scribes, and Pharisees ? Those who only mangled their own Bodies, or those that thirsted after the Blood of Christ, and would have no Rest, till they saw his Body nail'd to the Cross ? To me the Lunatics seem to be in a less Degree of Disorder ; and the Reason is this ; because I see that our Saviour could heal them, but not the Priests, Scribes, and Pharises.

Now is it reasonable, on the account of the Madness of these Priests, Scribes, and Doctors of the Law, to say, Is this for the Honour of the Jewish Law ? Was the Law and the Prophets intended to make People mad ? Now if the Doctor knows how to excuse the Law and the Prophets, though these great Students of them were in such a desperate State of Phrenzy and Madness, then Christianity may be blameless ; though here and there a Christian may be fit for Bedlam.

Again, there are others, who desire to bring the whole Form of their Lives under Rules of Religion, to let the Spirit of the Gospel give Laws to the most ordinary, indifferent, innocent and lawful Things and Enjoyments, so that that as the Apottle speaks, whether they eat or drink, or whatever they do, they may do all to the Glory of God ?

These People are told by the Doctor, That *wholly abstaining from Things indifferent and innocent in themselves, as forbidden and unlawful, is a signal Instance of being Righteous over-much; and so, on the other hand, is making Things indifferent to be necessary, and Matters of Duty.

What is here said has some Truth in it, and might be useful in its proper Place, and under right Limitations. But as it here stands in the Discourse, it is a grievous Snare and Deceit to the Reader. For it is to signify to him, that wholly abstaining from Things in themselves indifferent and innocent cannot be made a Matter of true religious Advancement; but is a blameable Instance of a Piety in Excess. If the Doctor had meant only to teach, that we should not wholly abstain from Things indifferent and innocent, as if they were in themselves unlawful, he should have told his Readers that he meant no more; he should have told them, that such Things might be abstain'd from justly, and piously upon a better Principle, and so become very expedient and edifying; and that he did not condemn the abstaining wholly from such Things, when it was done upon a Motive of Piety, for the better fulfilling any Duty, but only when it was done from a superstitious Notion, of the Things being in themselves sinful.

Had he done this, he had prevented the Snare and Deceit that is now in his Assertion; but then he would, at the same time, have made it useless and insignificant to the Design of his Discourse, and would have left a Door open for such Advances of Piety as he is here opposing.

It might easily be shewn, if this was the Place for it, that no one can truly fulfil, or live up to the Two First and greatest of all Laws, that of loving God with all our Heart, all our Strength, and all our Mind; and that of loving our Neighbour as ourselves; unless he be willing and glad, in many Instances, wholly to abstain from Things in themselves indifferent and innocent; and also to make Things that in themselves are indifferent, to be Matters of Duty.

St. Paul's Doctrine is this: All Things are lawful for me, but all Things are not expedient. This sets the Matter right on both Sides. It leaves Things in their own State of Indifference and Lawfulness, and yet carries us to a higher Rule of acting. It directs us wholly to abstain from some Things innocent in themselves, and to do some Things to which the Law calls us not, because they are expedient; because by so doing, we shew a higher Love of God, and a greater Desire of doing every thing to his Honour and Glory; because we thereby attain a greater Purity and Perfection of Heart, a greater Conquest over all our inward and outward Enemies, and in a greater Degree help forward the Edification of our Neighbour.

Let us look at St. Paul's Doctrine and Example in the Two following remarkable Instances. First, where he declares it to be lawful for those that preach the Gospel to live by the Gospel, and yet makes it Matter of the greatest Comfort and Joy to himself, that he had wholly abstain'd from this lawful Thing. And declares, it were better for him to die, than that this Rejoicing should be taken from him. He appeals to his daily and nightly labouring with his own Hands, that so he might preach the Gospel freely, and not be chargeable to those that heard him. And this he said he did, not for want of Authority to do otherwise, but that he might make himself an Ensample unto them to follow him.

What fine and awakening Instructions are here given to us of the Clergy, in a practical Matter of the greatest Moment! How ought every one to be frighted at the Thought of desiring or seeking a Second Living, or of rejoicing at great Pay where there is but little Duty, when the Apostle's Rejoicing consisted in this, that he had pass'd thro' all the Fatigues and Perils of preaching the Gospel without any Pay at all! How cautious, nay, how fearful ought we to be, of going so far as the secular Laws permit us, when the Apostle thought it more desirable to lose his Life, than to go so far as the very Laws of the Gospel would have suffer'd him!

It is lawful to receive more for doing the Work of the Ministry in any Parish, and to spend more upon ourselves than our bare Subsistence requires.—It is look'd upon as lawful to get several Preferments, and to make a Gain of the Gospel, by hiring others to do Duty for us at a lower Rate.—It is looked upon as lawful to quit a Cure of Souls of a small Income, for no other Reason but because we can get another of a greater.—It is looked upon as lawful for a Clergyman to take the Revenue of the Church, which he serves, to his own Use, tho' he has more than a sufficient Competency of his own, and much more than the Apostle could get by his Labour.—It is looked upon as lawful for the Clergy to live in State and Equipage, to buy Purple and fine Linen, out of the Revenues of the Church.—It is looked upon as lawful for Clergymen to enrich their Families and bring up their Children in the fashionable Vanities, and corrupting Methods of a wordly and expensive Life, by Money got by preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

But now supposing all this to be lawful, what Comfort and Joy might we treasure up for ourselves, what Glory and Honour might we bring to Religion, what Force and Power might we give to the Gospel, what Benefit and Edification should we do to our Neighbour, if we wholly abstained from all these Things, not by working Day and Night with our own Hands, as the great Apofile did, but by limiting our Wants and Desires according to the plain Demands of Nature, and a religious Self-denial?

The other Instance of the Apostle's, I appeal to, is that, where he says, it is good neither to eat *flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy Brother stumbleth and is offended. And again, If meat make my Brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my Brother†. Hence it appears, that to abstain from Things indifferent, as if they were in themselves sinful, is wrong; but wholly to abstain from them upon other Motives, may be the highest Piety, and oftentimes Matter of necessary Duty and Edification. But since the Doctor has not looked at this Matter in this twofold View, in which it can only be justly apprehended, he can't well be excused from that Half-Thinking, which he so much reproaches in others.

But I must farther observe, that there is yet more of Snare and Deception, in what the Doctor has here said of this Matter. For the Reader may thereby be easily brought into a Belief, that Things in themselves indifferent and Innocent, &c. are not the proper Subjects of Religion, or Means of advancing in Piety, and that he need not bring himself under any Laws of Religion concerning such Things.

Whereas

Whereas nothing can be more contrary to Truth, or more hurtful to his Piety, than such a Belief.

Eating, Drinking, Sleeping, Dressing, Resting, Labour, Conversation, Trade, Diversion, and Money, are in themselves indifferent, innocent, and useful. But it is in the religious, or irreligious Use of these Things, that some People live up to the Spirit of the Gospel, and other wholly die to it. And it is from strict Laws of Religion made concerning these indifferent and innocent Things, that the spiritual Life of every one is to be built up.

And it is for want of religious Laws in the Use of innocent and lawful Things that the Spirit of the Gospel cannot get Possession of our Hearts. For our Souls may receive an infinite Hurt, and be render'd incapable of all true Virtue, merely by the Use of innocent and lawful Things.

What is more innocent than Rest and Retirement? And yet what more dangerous than Sloth and Idleness? How lawful and praiseworthy is the Care of a Family? And yet how certainly are many people render'd incapable of all Virtue, and dead to all the Calls of God, by a worldly solicitous Temper? How lawful and beneficial is it to us, to eat and drink in such Quantity and Quality, as may render the Body healthful, subservient and useful to the Soul? And yet, what Danger is there in eating and drinking, if we are not under this strict

strict Law of Religion, to seek only Health, and not the Pleasure of various Tastes in our Food. What Sensuality of Discourse shall we not every Day fall into, unless it be a fix'd Law to us, to speak of no other Joy in our Food, but that which is expressed by our Grace before and after our Meals.

How indifferent a Thing, and innocent in itself, is Dress. And yet what more hurtful and abounding with Sin? It reaches and Infects the Heart and Soul, both of the Wearer and Beholder. Its Evils are innumerable. It has destroyed, and does destroy, like a Pestilence.

If the lustful Eye is in the Scripture deem'd to be an Adultery, we may see plainly the Reason why the Apostle requires Women to be cover'd, not to beautify their outward Person with costly Ornaments of Dress, or curled Hair, but to be adorn'd with Shamefacedness and Modesty. For it is only saying, in other Words, that it becomes not the Piety of Christian Women, to carry and hold out Snares and Temptations to the unwary Eye, that can so easily be betray'd into so great a Sin.

Now how can all these Evils, which arise from the Use of these Things indifferent and lawful in themselves, be avoided, but by making every Thing in our common and ordinary Life to be Matter of Conscience; which is, to have its Rule, and Measure, and End, from the Spirit of Religion. And indeed what other End or Intent is there in Religion, but to govern every Motion and Desire of our Hearts, to make all the Actions of our common Life, pure and holy, by being done in strict Conformity to the Will of God, and under the Light and Guidance of his Holy Spirit? So that every outward Form of our Lives, and the whole Manner of our living in the World, whether in Estates, Titles, Shops, or Farms, whether in Eating, Drinking, Dressing, &c. may make it known to all the World, that we do every Thing in the Name of Jesus Christ, suitably to that high Vocation wherewith we are called.

The Apostle directs Servants to this Degree of Piety; that is, *to be obedient to their masters, in singleness of heart, as unto Christ. Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart. With good-will doing service, as unto the Lord, and not to men. Surely, if poor Slaves, by reason of their Christian Profession, are not to comply with their Business, as Men-pleasers, if they are to look wholly unto God in all their Actions, and serve in Singleness of Heart, as unto the Lord, surely all Christians of other Employments and Conditions, must be as much obliged to go through their Business with the same Singleness of Heart, not as pleasing the Vanity of their own Minds, not as gratifying their own selfish, worldly Passions, but as the

Servants

* Eph. vi. 5. Col. iii. 22.

Servants of God, that are to live wholly unto him in every thing that they do. It is therefore absolutely certain, that no Christian is to enter any further into Business, nor seek any worldly Profit, nor do any thing in any other Measure, nor for any other End, than such as he can in Singleness of Heart do unto God, as a reasonable Service.

No Folly of Life whatever can be rightly removed, but by being thus wholly cut up by the Roots, by making every thing subject to the Spirit of Religion.

That which is to direct our Prayers, and govern us at Church, must, with the same Strictness, direct our Conversation, and govern our Dealings in common Life. We must Dress with the same Spirit that we give Alms, or go to Prayers; that is, we must no more Dress to be seen and admired by others, than we must give Alms, or make Prayers for the same Reasons.

And when Religion has its Seat in our Hearts, and is the Work of God's Spirit in us, this acting according to its Direction in all Things, will be so far from seeming to be a hard Lesson, that it would be a Pain to act otherwise. It is no Hardship to a Miser, to do every thing suitable to the greedy Desires of his Heart. The ambitious Man is not troubled with acting always agreeably to his Ambition. If these Persons are in Trouble or Distress, or under any Dejection, you can only

comfort the one with Honour and Power, and the other with filthy Lucre and Gain.

Yet the Doctor complains of the Treatise upon Christian Perfection, because Christians in Sickness, Distress, and Dejection of Spirit, are there solely directed to seek for Comfort and Refreshment in God alone. Our Blessed Lord is very short, and yet very full, upon this Article; he only says, Be of good Comfort, I have overcome the World. And the Doctor might as well be angry at the Gospel for having made no mention of worldly Amusements proper for sick and distressed Christians, as at the Treatise of Christian Perfection, for not having done the same.

If I should see a sick Man smelling a Rose, eating an agreeable Fruit, or diverting himself with a Child, I should not call him from such sinful Indulgences. But if he wanted Comfort in his State, I would no more direct him to any thing, but the great and solid Comforts, that are to be found in the Love and Goodness of God, than I would direct him to another Saviour than Jesus Christ.

For to tell Christians, that in some kinds of Trouble, they might justly seek for Relief, by reading a Play, or wanton Bucolic, instead of the Gospel, would be the same Absurdity, as to have told People in our Saviour's Time, that, in some Sorts of Distress, they might justly have Recourse to Simon Magus, instead of Jesus Christ.

But

But now to look back a little. I have consider'd the Bulk of those Christians that are the most likely to be the Doctor's Readers, under Two Characters. The one, as living some Way or other in a partial, false, superficial, or half State of Piety; the other as an awaken'd People, called by the Spirit of God to come out of the common Corruptions of the Times. I have shewn, that the Doctor's Discourse (where it is not disliked) must do great Hurt, and have dreadful Effects upon these Two Sorts of People; the one Sort it seals up in a false Security, sleeping in the Chambers of Death, without any Oil in their Vessels; the other it frightens, and discourages from their pious Intentions of trimming their Lamps with all Diligence, and living upon the Watch for the midnight Call of the Bridegroom's Voice.

That I may therefore do all the Good that I can to both these Sorts of People, that I may awaken the one from their false Security in their half Form of Godliness, and assist and encourage the other to proceed with all Earnestness, after every Degree of Christian Holiness; I shall, before I proceed any further, lay down a short, but plain Account of the whole Nature and Ground of the Christian Religion, that every one may clearly see, why we want the Christian Religion to save us: What it is to do for us; and how it is done. By this Means every one will best judge of the Importance of this Enquiry, and how he ought to be affected with what is said on either Side of the Matter.

(1.) Man was created a living, real, perfect Image of the Holy Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. This I have largely explained, and proved elsewhere*.

(2.) This whole visible World, as far as the Stars and Elements, or any corporeal Being reaches, stands in the Place, or takes up that Extent of Space, where Lucifer and his Angels, before their Fall, had their glorious Kingdom. So far as this visible Frame of Nature extends itself, so far was the Extent of their Kingdom.

(3.) That the Place or Extent of this World, was the Place or Extent of their Kingdom, is plain, from the Two following Reasons: First, Because the Place of this World is now their Habitation. For we must by no Means suppose, that God brought them from some other Region into this World only to tempt Man, and make his Life dangerous; but they are here now, because they were created to dwell here. For fallen Angels cannot possibly leave the Place of their Sin and Fall, they must live in the Defilements and Disorders of their spoiled Kingdom; and in that Place they must find their Hell and Torment, where they extinguish'd their Light and Joy. Secondly, Because the whole Extent of this World, every thing in it, Sun, Moon, Stars, Fire, Air, Water, and Earth, Stones, Minerals, must all be dissolved, and pass thro' a purifying Fire. Therefore all these Things are polluted, and have in them some Grossness and Disorder from the Fall of the Angels. Therefore we may see where they have lived, and how far the Place of their Kingdom extended, by the Extent of those Things that are to be dissolved and purified.

(4.) When the Angels had, by their Rebellion against God, lost the Divine Life within themselves, and brought their whole outward Kingdom into Darknes, Grossness, Wrath, and Disorder, so that, as Moses speaketh, Darkness was upon the Face of the Deep, that is, the whole Deep, or Extent of the Place of this World; then, at the Fall of the Angels, and in the Place where they were fallen, and out of the Materials of their ruin'd angelical Kingdom, did God begin the Creation of this present, material, temporary, visible World.

(5.) In the beginning, saith Moses, God created the Heaven and the Earth; here, at this Instant, ended the Devil's Power over the Place or Kingdom in which he was created: As soon as the whole of his outward, disorder'd Kingdom was thus divided into a created Heaven and Earth, all was taken out of his Hands, he was shut out of every thing, and he and all his Hosts became only poor Prisoners in their lost Kingdom, that could only wander about in Chains of Darknes; looking with impotent Rage and Anger at the created Heaven and Earth,

Earth, which was sprung up in their own Place of Habitation, and which they could not rule over, because their Nature had no Communion with this new created Heaven and Earth.

(6.) Thus was this outward Kingdom, of the whole Extent of this World, taken out of the Hands of Lucifer and his Angels; all its Wrath, Darknes, Grossness, Disharmony, Fire, and Disorder, was, by the Six Days Creation, changed into a temporary State, restored to a certain, but low Resemblance of its first State, and put into that Form and Order of Sun, Stars, Fire, Air, Light, Water, and Earth, in which we now see it.

(7.) Into this World, thus created out of the Ruins of the Kingdom of the fallen Angels, and made paradifical, by the Goodness of God, was Man introduced on the Sixth Day of the Creation, to take his Place, as Lord and Prince of it, to have Power over all outward Things, to discover and manifest the Wonders of this new created World, and to bring forth such an holy Offspring, as might fill up the Places of the fallen Angels. And when that was done, and certain Periods of Time had produced these great Effects, then this whole Frame of Things was, by the last purifying Fire, to have been raised from its paradifical State, into which it was put at the Creation, into that first heavenly Brightness, and high Degree of Glory, in which it stood before the Fall of Lucifer.

(8.) But the first Man, thus created to be a Prince and Father of a new angelical Kingdom, stood not out his Trial for this glorious State.

(9.) He came into this World in that same glorious Body, in which, after the Resurrection, he shall be like the Angels in Heaven. For no other Body, but that which was at first created, and died in Adam's Sin, shall rise in Jesus Christ. He only saves and restores that which was lost. The Resurrection will only take away what Sin, and Death, and Earth, had added to the first created Body.

(10.) In this Body, which shall rise triumphant over Death and Hell, did the first created Man stand in this World, incapable of receiving any Hurt, or knowing Evil from outward Nature. The Holy Ghost was the Breath of his Life, and the Son of God was the Light, that illuminated all both within and without him.

(11.) Had he fix'd his Will to be absolutely and eternally what he was, had he desired only to eat of the Tree of Life, to live by the Word of God, he had been establish'd, and confirm'd to be an eternal Angel, or divine Man.

(12.) But his Imagination wander'd after the Secrets of this outward World, after the Fruit and Knowledge of such good and Evil, as wrought an intire Change in his Nature. For every thing must have the Nature of that which it chuses for its Food.

His

His own strong Will (a Spark of the Divine Omnipotence) was to be his Maker; for he could not be an Angel of Light with less Freedom. What he desired, that he had: as his Imagination work'd, so he became to be. He turn'd from the Tree and Light of Life, and took in the Fruit and Darkness of the earthly Nature. And so he fell from his Height of Glory as deep into an earthly Life, and the Miseries of the Earth, as the Devil fell into a hellish Life, and the Miseries of Hell.

(13.) Imagine a most precious Pearl, infinitely more bright, infinitely more transparent, infinitely more illuminated, than any that mortal Eyes ever saw. Imagine this Pearl to be in a Moment penetrated, thickened, darkened, deformed in every Part, and thro' every Pore, with something as hard as Iron, as heavy as Lead, and rough as Earth, as dark as Soot, and then you have but a Shadow of that which happen'd only to the Body of Adam, when, by desiring and eating the earthly Fruit, he drew in the earthly Nature of this World into his pearly, paradifical Body. And here, by the by, we may see as in a Glass, what it is that earthly Desires now do to every Son of Adam; they do all that which they did to the first Man, they carry on, keep up, and continue, that same Death in us, which he died in Paradise.

(14.) Here it was that his eternal Soul, the immortal Fire of Life in him, being swallowed up, and smother'd by an earthly dark Body, lost the Light of the Sun of God, and the Breath

Breath of the Holy Spirit. And this was the great and immediate Death that he died in Paradise, before he became the Father of Mankind, a Death much more grievous than that which is to bring us all to our Graves. It was a Death that extinguish'd all that was Divine and Holy in the Human Nature, just as the Sin of Angels had turn'd them into Devils. Now in looking at this Death, or the Extinction of this first divine Life, we have the clearest, fullest View, of what we are to understand by our Regeneration by the Second Adam. For what can it possibly be, but the Restoration of that same divine Life which was lost in Adam the First, and to which he absolutely died in Paradise? Must not that which is regenerated in the Human Nature, be something that had been generated in it before? If we want to be redeem'd, or regenerated only, because Adam died in Paradise, and lost the First Birth of Human Nature, must not Regeneration be only and solely the bringing forth again that First Birth in the Human Nature? Or will any one say, that Christ is not in as high a Degree the Restorer of our First Birth, as Adam was the Destroyer of it? Now, tho' this great Truth, seated in the very Heart of the Christian Religion, speaks at once the whole Nature of Regeneration, and leaves no room to mistake about it; yet many learned Men, either not seeing, or not loving, or being afraid to own it, have been forced, not only to mistake, but wholly to sink the most solid, substantial, edifying, and glorious rious Article of the Christian Faith ; and, instead of telling us the Height and Depth of the Benefit and Blessing of having the Nature and Life of Christ derived into, or regenerated in us, they can only teach us, what Kind of Word Regeneration is——that it is a Figurative Expression——And that our Saviour may be justified for having made use of it. What learned Pains do some People take to root up the Belief of our having a Life and Birth from Jesus Christ, in the same Truth and Reality, that we had lost a Life and Birth in Adam ? They run from Book to Book, from Language to Language, they call upon every Disputant, consult all Critics, search all Lexicons, to shew us, that according to Scripture, and Antiquity, and the Rules of true Criticism, Regeneration need signify no more, than what is meant by the federal Right of Baptism. Nay, what is still worse, they appeal to the poor Notions of the blind, infatuated Jews ; they produce the Opinions which they had of a Regeneration talked of, and a Baptism used amongst them, when they rejected and crucified our Saviour, to teach us, what we are to understand by our divine Birth in Christ Jesus. But if this be the Use of Learning amongst ourselves, we need not look at Rome or Geneva, or the ancient Rabbi's of the Jewish Sanhedrim, to see what miserable Work Learning can make with the Holy Scriptures. For it must be said, that the true Messiah is not rightly owned, the Christian Religion is not truly known, nor its Benefits rightly sought, till

the Soul is all Love, and Faith, and Hunger, and Thirst, after this new Life, Birth, and real Formation of Jesus Christ in it, till without Fear of Enthusiasm it seeks and expects all its Redemption from it. But to return

(15.) Man, thus dead to the divine Life, thus destitute of the Son, and Holy Spirit of God, thus fallen into an earthly Nature, under the Dominion of an earthly World, which would afford him for a while a miserable Life, and then leave him to a more miserable Death, thus fallen, he could do no more to re-place himself in Paradise, or to regain his first Nature, than the Devil could do, to restore to himself his lost Glory.

(16.) But in this State the infinite Mercy of God met him. That Love which at the first breathed, or spoke out of the Mouth of God, a living, holy and divine Soul and Spirit into him, now again breathed, or inspoke a Spark, or Seed, or Ray of Divine Light into him, in the Declaration of a Serpent-Treacher; which Seed or Spark of Life should in Time do all that, which Adam should have done; that is, should raise up and bring forth a Generation of Men, that should become Sons of God, and take Possession of that Kingdom from which the Angels had fallen.

(17.) Here now began the merciful Mystery of Man's Redemption; for this Seed of a Divine Life, or inspoken Word of Grace, or Treacher of the Serpent, was the Holy Jesus, the Second

Adam, who from that Time, stood in the Place of the first Man, and became the Father and Regenerator of Adam himself, and all his Posterity. And from that Time it may be said in a certain and true Sense, that the Incarnation of the Son of God began; because he was from that Time enter'd again into the human Nature, as a Seed, or Beginning of its Salvation, hidden under the Veil of the Law, and not made manifest, till he was born in the Holy, and highly Blessed Virgin Mary. And in this Sense it is, that our Blessed Lord said of himself, that he was the Light of the Word, as Adam might have said of himself, that he was the Sin and Death of the World; because, as Sin and Death came wholly from him upon all Men, so the Light of Life came as wholly and universally from Jesus Christ. And in this Sense also St. John says of him, that he was the true Light which lighteth every Man that cometh into the World. Because every Man, where-ever born, has from him this Light of Life, this inward Saviour, or Seed of his Salvation, in the Birth of his own Life, which is to overcome the Darknes, resist the Evil, and bruise the Serpent that is in his fallen Nature. This Beginning of the Divine Birth in our Souls, if it is not stifled and suppressed by us, but inwardly revered, and attended to, as the Voice and Call of God within us, is our certain Guide and Leader to Christ, born in the

Fulness

Fulness of Time, and sacrificed for us upon the Cross.

(18.) What we want from Jesus Christ, as our Redeemer, is manifest by that which he offers and gives to us, namely, a Birth from Himself, a Birth from the Holy Spirit, a Redemption from the Hell that is in our Souls, and from the Death and Corruption that is in our Bodies.

(19.) We were no more created to be in the Sorrows, Burdens, and Anguish, of an earthly Life, than the Angels were created to be in the Wrath and Darkness of Hell. It is as contrary to the Will and Goodness of God towards us, that we are out of Paradise, as it is contrary to the Designs and Goodness of God towards the Angels, that some of them are out of Heaven, Prisoners of Darkness.

The Grossness, Impurity, Sickness, Pain and Corruption of our Bodies, is brought upon us by ourselves in the same Manner as the dark, hideous serpentine Forms of the Devils are brought upon them. How absurd, and even blasphemous, would it be, to say with the Scripture and the Church, that we are by Nature Children of Wrath, and born in Sin, if we had that Nature which God at first gave us? What a Reproach upon God to say, that this World is a Valley of Misery, a Shadow of Death, an Habitation of Disorders, Snares, Evils, and Temptations, if this was an original Creation, or that State of Things for which God created us? Is it not as consistent with the Goodness and Perfections of God, to speak of the Misery and Disorder that holy Angels find above, and of the Vanity, Emptiness and Sorrow of the heavenly State, as to speak of the Misery of Men, and the Sorrows of this World, if Men and the World were in that Order in which God at first had placed them? If God could make any Place poor, and vain, and miserable, or create any Beings into a State of Vanity and Vexation of Spirit, he might do so in all Places, and to all Beings.

(20.) But by the Mercy of God in Christ Jesus, this Prison of an earthly Life is turned into a State of Purification, it is made a Time and Place of putting off our filthy and Defiled Garments, and of slaying and sacrificing that corrupt old Man of Sin that is hid under them. And God suffers the Sun to shine upon us, and the Elements to afford us Nourishment, for no other End, but that we may all have Time and Opportunity to hear the Call of the Son of God, to embrace a second Adam, to be born again of him, to be renewed by the Holy Spirit, and be made capable of that Kingdom from which Lucifer and his Angels fell.

(21.) Look at our Saviour's Sermon on the Mount, and indeed at all his Instructions, and you will find them pointing at nothing else on our Side, but a Denial of ourselves, and a Renunciation of the World. And indeed how could it be otherwise? For if we are ourselves something which we were not created to be, and if this is our Misery, that we have raised and awakened a Nature and Life in us, which is not our first, that we had from God; must not the First Step towards our Salvation be, a denying and departing with our whole Will and Inclination from that which we have made ourselves to be, from that Life which we have awakened in us? If Self is our Misery and Captivity, must not our Deliverance require a total, continual Self-denial? If we want a Redeemer, only because we have wander'd out of Paradise, and could not get back to it ourselves; if we are overcome by this World, only because the Will and Desire of our first Father sought after it, what Wonder is it that he who is to replace us in Paradise should call us to a Renunciation of the World? If this World has got its Dominion over us, merely because the Will and Desire of Man turned itself towards the Earth; how can its Dominion over us be destroy'd, but by our turning our whole Will and Desire towards Heaven?

(22.) Vain Man, taken with the Sound of heavenly Things, and Prospects of future Glory, yet at the same Time a fast Friend to all the Interests and Passions of Flesh and Blood, would fain compound Matters between God and Mammon. He is very willing to acknowledge a Saviour, that died on the Cross to save him; he is ready to receive outward Ordinances, and Forms of Divine Worship, and to contend with Zeal for the Observance of them.

He likes Heaven, and future Glory, on these Conditions. He is also ready to put on an outward Morality of Behaviour, to let Religion polish his Manners, that he may have the Credit and Ornament of a prudential Piety, well-order'd Passions, and a Decency of outward Life; this gives no Hurt, or at least no Death's-Blow to the old Man. But to lay the Ax to the whole Root of our Disease, to cut all those filken Cords afunder, which tie us to the World, and the World to us, to deny every Temper and Passion that cannot be made Holy, Wise, and Heavenly; to die to every Gratification which keeps up, and strengthens the Folly, Vanity, Pride and Blindness of our fallen Nature; to leave no little Morsels of Sensuality, Avarice and Ambition, for the old Man to feed upon, however well covered under his Mantle; this, tho' it be the very Effence of Religion on our Part, is what he flies from with as much Aversion as from Heresy and Schism. Here he makes learned Appeals to Reason and Common Sense to judge betwixt him and the Gospel; which is just as wise, as to ask the learned Greek, and the worldly Jew, whether the Cross of Christ be not Foolishness, and a just Rock of Offence; or to appeal to Flesh and Blood about the narrow Way to that Kingdom of Heaven, into which itself cannot possibly have any Entrance.

(23.) To seek for any thing in Religion, but a new Nature fitted for a new World, is knowing knowing neither it, nor ourselves. To be born again, is to be fit for Paradise, in whatever Part of the Universe we live. Not to be born again, is continuing where the Sin and Death of Adam left us, whatever Church, or Seēt of Religion we have Fellowship with. All Ways and Opinions, all Forms and Modes of Divine Worship, stand on the Outside of Religion. They may be, and certainly are, great and desirable Helps to the Kingdom of God, when we consider them only as the Gate, or Guide to that inward Life, which wants to be raised, and brought forth in us. But this is unquestionably true, that our Salvation consists wholly and solely in the Birth of the Son of God, and the Renewal of the Holy Ghost, in our Souls. When this begins, our Salvation begins; as this goes on, our Salvation goes on; when this is finish'd, our Salvation is finish'd. This alone saves the Soul; because this alone restores the First Paradisical, Divine Nature, which is the true Image of God, and which alone can enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

(24.) If we had only a notional Knowledge that our First Father had sinned, and knew no more of his sinful Condition than History tells us of it; if we had only certain instituted Types and Figures to keep up the Remembrance of it in our Minds, we should never be the worse for his Sins; we should have no Hurt by owning ourselves to be Children of a sinful Father, if his Nature, Life and Spirit was not

propagated in us: So, if we have only a notional Belief that Jesus is become the Second Adam, to redeem or regenerate the fallen Nature; if we know this only in the Notion and History kept up in our Minds by outward Figures and Ordinances, tho' we contend ever so much for this Belief of a Saviour, and write Volumes in Defence of it; yet he is not our Saviour, till his Nature, Life, and Spirit, be born in us. If there be any Man in the World, in whom the Nature of Adam is not, he has no Sin from Adam. If there be any Man, in whom the Life of Jesus is not, he has no Righteousness from him. We must have Life and Righteousness in the same Truth and Reality in us from the Second Adam, as we have Sin and Death in us from the First.

(25.) The Whole of the Matter is this: This World is our Curse and Separation from God; by the Mystery of our Redemption it is turn'd into a short State of Purification, and can only be made so, by our going with our whole Will and Desire out of it, and away from it, as Adam by his Will and Desire fought after, and fell into it, The Second Adam must take us out, as the First Adam brought us into this World. Our Bodies are our Burdens which Sin has laid upon us: Our stinging, wounding Passions are the Nails which must fasten our Hands and Feet to the Cross on which we are to die, and commend our Spirit into the Hands of God, as our Lord did. But yet, all this Turning

Turning with our whole Will, and Desire towards God, and Paradise, all this Bearing our Cross, and passing through the fiery Trials of this Life, is still but preparatory to our Salvation, which wholly consists in the Incarnation of the Son of God in the Soul, or Life of Man. That must be done, and born in us, which was done, and born in the Virgin Mary. As our Sin and Death is, Adam in us, so our Life and Salvation is, Christ in us. This is it alone that saves us, that delivers us from the Fall, that restores all that was lost in Adam; by this alone what died in Adam, is brought to Life again in us; by this alone we can be taken out of an earthly Life, Nature, and World, and translated into a heavenly Life, Nature, and World.

(26.) Christ by the over-shadowing of the Holy Spirit, became in the Body of the holy Virgin Mary, of the same Nature with that First Man, which was created in Paradise, who, according to the Purpose of God, was to have been the Father of an holy paradifical Race of Men. Now the First Purpose of God must stand, and that which God designed must come to pass. But seeing the First Adam failed in this Design of God, and was not the Generator of such a Race of Men, therefore the Wisdom of God provided a Second Adam, who was born of the Virgin Mary in the same Degree of Perfection, in which the first Man was created. To this holy, paradifical, human Nature, the Son

Son of God was personally united; and thus Christ, the Second Adam, took the Place of the First, and stands as the Regenerator, Redeemer, Second Father of all the Sons of Adam. Now as we are earthly, corrupt, and worldly Men, by having the Nature and Life of the First Adam propagated in us, so we must become holy, paradifical, and heavenly Men, by having the Life and Nature of the Second Adam derived into, or regenerated in us; or, as the Scripture speaks, by being born again of him. Therefore if we are to have the Nature of Christ regenerated in us, as the Life of Adam is born in us; if we are to be like him in Nature, as we are like to Adam in Nature; if we are to be the heavenly Sons of the one, as we are the earthly Sons of the other, then there is an absolute Necessity, that That which was done and born in the Virgin Mary, be also by the same Power of the Holy Ghost done and born in us, by a Seed of Life derived into us from Christ our Regenerator. The Mystery of Christ's Birth must be the Mystery of our Birth; we cannot be his Sons, but by having the Birth of his Life derived into us; for the new paradifical Man must be brought forth in the same manner in every individual Person; that which brought forth this holy Birth in the First Adam at his Creation, and in the Second Adam in the Virgin Mary, that alone can bring it forth in any one of their Offspring. Jesus Christ therefore stands as our Regenerator, to help us by a

Second

Second Birth from him, to such an holy, pure, and undefiled Nature, as he himself received in the Blessed Virgin, and which we should have received in Paradise from our First Father.

From the Time of the Fall of Adam, the incorruptible Seed of Christ is in us all, in the whole human Nature; he has Power, as the Son of God, to quicken and raise it up, till it comes to be that First holy Image of the Blessed Trinity. And when a Divine Faith arises in this Seed of Life, by which it lays hold on Christ as the Author, Preserver, and Finisher of its Life, as the Atonement, Saviour and Deliverer from the Death and Hell that surrounds it, then it grows up into a new, inward Man, of the same Nature with that which appeared in Paradise, and with that which was born in the Virgin Mary. Then the Birth of the Son of God, the Birth of the Spirit, and that First holy Humanity which Adam lost, are all restored to us, but in a Mystery in the inward Man hid in God, till the Resurrection shall separate every thing that is earthly, dark, and corruptible, from it. Thus by Faith in Christ we put on Christ, he becomes formed in us, we eat his Flesh, and drink his Blood, and have his Nature and Life in us; that is, we have a Flesh and Blood, a holy Humanity, derived into us from Christ, in the same Reality as we have Flesh and Blood, a corrupt Humanity from Adam, our First Father. Thus we are real Members, living Branches, and new-born Children, of Christ,

Christ, our Regenerator ; he is our Father, and as such, as certainly brings us into the Kingdom of Heaven, Heirs of all his Glory, as Adam brought us into the Prison of this World, Heirs of all his Sin and Misery. This is the Whole of the Christian Redemption. Let us look where we will, and talk of what we will, there is no Possibility of Salvation for any one Son of Adam, but in this Divine Birth, nor can this Birth be had any other way. And to this great Truth all the Writings of the New Testament bear undeniable Witness. For the further and full View of this important Matter, I refer the Reader to another *little Book, which, if I could afford it, should be sent gratis into all Parts of the Kingdom. Look now at yourselves, at the World, at Religion, in this true Light, and surely you must enough see and feel the desirable Nature of every Virtue, and every Degree of it, which the Gospel sets before you. Surely you must awaken into a strong Abhorrence of every thing, that the Fall has brought upon you, whether it be in your Souls, your Bodies, or the State of the World into which you are fallen. To renounce the poor Interests of a Worldly Life, to be content with a Pilgrim's Fare in it, to live looking and longing after that which you have lost ; to have no more of Covetousness, of Pride, of Vanity, and Ambition, than John the Baptist had ; to live unto God in your Shops, your

* Grounds and Reasons of Christian Regeneration, &c.

Employments and Estates, with such Thoughts and Desires of going to your heavenly Father, as the lost Son had when he saw his poor Condition, eating Husks among Swine, is only a Proof that you are, like him, come to yourselves, that you begin to see what, and how, and where you are. Surely you can need no Exhortations to hasten and run to your Redeemer, to ask and beseech him in Faith and Love to do every thing in you and for you, that your darken'd corrupted Heart, and polluted Body, stands in need of. He now stands as near you, as full of Love over you, as he did to Lazarus when he raised him from the Dead. He is no farther from your Call, than he was from the Call of blind Bartimæus, whose Eyes he immediately opened. Surely it should now be more needless to exhort you to look earnestly and diligently after every Means of recovering your first glorious State, than to exhort the Blind to receive their Sight, the Sick to accept of Health, or the Captive to suffer his Chains to be taken off. For when you thus see your Misery and your Redemption in this strong Light, both of them so exceeding great, you see something that must needs penetrate and awaken the inmost Depth of your Soul, that leaves you no room to doubt about the Nature of any Virtue, no Liberty to indulge one vain Passion, or to think it any Hardship that the Gospel calls you to be perfect. For in this Light every Virtue of the Gospel stands known and recommended to us, just as Health, Purity and Sight, stand recommended to a sickly, noisome, blind Leper, who was shut up in a Place that continually increased all his Evils. It strips us of nothing but the Uncleanness of Leprosies, the Miseries of Sores, Pains, and Blindness. It takes nothing from the World which is about us, but its Poison and Power of infecting us. So that to be called to the Height of all Virtue attainable in this Life, however excessive it may seem to the Reasonings of Flesh and Blood, is only being called away from every Misery and Evil that can be avoided by us. Jesus Christ is become our Regenerator, that we may again be made like unto God, have the Purity and Perfection of an angelic Nature, and be made capable of enjoying the infinite Riches and Treasures of the Divine Nature to all Eternity. No Virtue therefore has any blameable Extreme in it, till it contradicts this general End of Religion, till it hinders the Restoration of the Divine Image in us, or makes us less fit to appear amongst the Inhabitants of Heaven. Abstinence, Temperance, Mortification of the Senses and Passions, can have no Excess till they hinder the Purification of the Soul, and make the Body less useful and subservient to it. Charity can have no Excess till it contradicts that Love which we are to have in Heaven, till it is more than that which would lay down its Life even for an Enemy, till it exceeds that which the first Christians

ffians practised, when they had all things common ; till it exceeds that of St. John, who requires him that has Two Coats, to give to him that has none, and he that has Meat to do likewise ; till it is loving our poor Brethren more than Christ has loved us ; till it goes beyond the Command of loving our Neighbour as we love ourselves ; till it forgets that our own Life is to be preserved.

See now how the Doctor instructs and enlightens his Readers on these Two great Articles, Christian Temperance, and Charity. To remove the Restraints of the First, he says, “ Our Blessed Saviour came eating and drinking, was present, at Weddings, and other Entertainments ; nay, at one of them worked a Miracle to make Wine, when it is plain, there had been more drank than was absolutely necessary for the Support of Nature, and consequently something had been indulged to Pleasure and Chearfulness*.”

O Holy Jesus, that thy Divine Life should, by a Preacher of thy Gospel, be made a Plea for Liberties of Indulgence ! The Doctor’s Argument lies in this ; that our Saviour work’d a Miracle to help them to more Wine, when they had already drank to the Indulgence of Pleasure and Chearfulness, therefore he could be no Enemy to such pleasant Indulgences ; therefore it is lawful for us Christians to delight in them. Now if this Lawfulness is well proved, the

Doctor may go on, and prove these Indulgences to be good and pious; because what our Saviour work'd a Miracle to promote, must needs be esteem'd to be so. And so the adding another Bottle, when Friends are rejoicing, may be made to be a Christian Duty. But the Doctor should have remember'd, that the Wine here spoken of, was not common Wine, and therefore has not the least Relation to our common Drinking—that it was not Wine from the Juice of the Grape—that it had nothing in it, but what came from a heavenly Hand—that it must have in it the Purity and Virtue of him that made it—that it had as good Qualities in it, and was fitted to have the same Effects upon some that drank it, as the Clay, which he moistened with his Spittle, had upon the Eyes of the Blind. He should have remember'd, that it was Water, only so alter'd, and endued with such Qualities, as he pleased to put into it; and therefore we may be sure, it was Water as highly bless'd for their Use, as they were capable of; we may be sure it was fitter to allay the Heat and Disorder of their Drinking, than if it had been Water unalter'd by our Saviour. How suitable was this Miracle to a Feast! How worthy of so Divine a Person! To make them cooler, by giving them Water made fitter for that Purpose, and to raise their Faith by its miraculously seeming to be turn'd into the best of Wine. Well might it be said of this Miracle, that he thereby manifested shewed forth his Glory, and his Disciples believed on him. But according to the Doctor's horrid Account of this Miracle, it must be said, that he thereby shew'd his Approbation of continuing such Pleasures of Drinking, and has left us a Proof, that we may do the same. But I must further vindicate the Life and Example of our Blessed Lord from the Indignity and Irreverence done to it by the Doctor. Our Blessed Lord came indeed, as he says of himself, eating and drinking. But how, or in what Manner, or in what Sense, did he say this of himself? Why, it was in Opposition to, and Distinction from, John the Baptist, who came eating only one Sort of Food. And it was to shew the Jews their great Guilt in this respect, that nothing could do them any good. For the Mortification of the Baptist they condemned, as coming from the Devil; and the Condescension of the Holy Jesus in coming to their Tables, they accused as Gluttony and Wine-bibbing. Now the Doctor is plainly doing what our Lord accused the Jews of; he with them condemns the Mortification of the Baptist, as coming from the Devil. But he differs from the Jews in this, that he does not condemn, but approves of our Lord, as a Friend to Feasts, and merry Meetings.

Our Saviour, suitable to his gracious Love, in coming into the World, sought the Conversation of Sinners and Publicans; because he came to save that which was lost, and because he knew that some among such Sinners were more moveable, than the proud Sanctity of the learned Pharisees. But may we thence conclude, that the Lives of such Sinners were not blameable in his Sight? Is not this as well, as to imagine he favour'd the Indulgences of Feasting and good Fellowship, because he was found there? The Holy Jesus conversed more freely, spoke of himself, and of the Kingdom of God, more divinely to a wicked Woman of Samaria, than he appears to have done to his Disciples. May we thence conclude, that he approved of a Woman of that Character, or that he thereby set his Seal to the Goodness and Lawfulness of her Way of living? Is not this as well, as to make his Presence at a Wedding, an Approbation of the Freedom and Indulgences of such Feasts?

O Holy Jesus, thou didst nothing of thyself, thou soughtest only the Glory of thy Father, from the Beginning to the End of thy Life; thou spentest whole Nights in Prayer in Mountains and Desert Places; thou hadst not where to lay thy Head; thy common poor Fare with thy Disciples was barely Bread and dried Fish; thy miraculous Power never help'd thee to any Dainties of Refreshment, tho' ever so much fatigued, and fainted with Labour. But yet, because this Holy Jesus came into the World to save all Sorts of Sinners, and to shew that every Kind and Degree of Sin could be taken away, and forgiven by him, therefore fore he came into all Places, and entered into all Sorts of Companies. He did not, as the Baptist, tie himself to one Sort of Food, but he came eating and drinking. But why did he so? It was, that he might reprove and convert Sinners at their own Tables. He came, not to indulge himself, or to find such Gratifications as the Baptist abstain'd from, but to work Miracles, to awaken and astonish Sinners in the Midst of their Indulgences.

It is said, that where-ever the King is, there is the Court. But with much more Reason may it be said, that where-ever our Saviour came, there was the Temple, or the Church. He came to Feasts and Entertainments with the same Spirit, for the same End, and in the same Divine Power, as he went to raise a dead Corpse; namely, to shew forth the Glory of God. Where-ever he came, it was in the Spirit and Power of the Redeemer of Mankind; every thing he did, was only to destroy the Works of the Devil, to deliver Men from his Power, raise the Dead, and give Sight to the Blind, and Ears to the Deaf; it made no Difference to him, whether he did this in the Temple, or in the Streets, at a Feast, or at a Funeral. As he was every-where God, so every Place became Holy to him. Lastly, If our Saviour came Eating and Drinking, and was present, as is pretended, at chearful Entertainments, to shew his Approbation of such Indulgences, and to leave us a Proof, that we may do so too;

how came John the Baptist, that severe Master of Mortification, to be a fit Preparer of the Way to the Kingdom of Heaven? Surely his Voice must cry wrong, if such Mortification was not right. And if our Saviour disapproved of the Severity of his Life and Manners, how came he to point him out to the Jews, as a burning and shining Light? Thus much may serve to vindicate our Saviour's holy Life and Example from the shocking Misapplication the Doctor has made of it.

Let us now see how he treats and instructs the charitable Christian in these Words:
 “ What! says the Half-Thinker, is not Charity to the Poor, a most excellent Thing?
 “ And can I be too charitable? Can I therefore bestow too much upon the Poor? I answer, Would you consider the other Side,
 “ you would perceive, that tho' you cannot be too charitable, yet you may bestow too much upon the Poor, to the Ruin of your Wife and Children, which is not Charity, but Madness, and a great and most grievous Sin. Did you never hear, that Charity begins at Home? Did you never read that of St. Paul? If any provide not for his own, and especially those of his own House; he hath denied the Faith, and is worse than an Infidel.*”

The Doctor's Proverb I shall leave to himself. But the Text of St. Paul, which he has

as grossly mistaken and misapplied, as he did our Saviour's Miracle, I must take out of his Hands. St. Paul's Words are quoted to prove, that it is Madness, a great and grievous Sin, for any one, through Charity to the Poor, to render himself unable to provide for his Wife and Children. Now the Apostle in this Place speaks no more about this Sin, than he speaks against the Sin of Watching and Prayer. Nay, what is more, there is not in all his Writings, or in the whole New Testament, the least Supposition or Hint that such a Sin ever was, or would be committed by any charitable Man. The Apostle was singly speaking of such Women as were to be taken into the Order of Widows, for the Service of the Church, and to be maintained by it*. Verse 4, he says, that such Widows as had Children or Nephews that could support them, such were not to be maintained by the Church. And to such Sons and Nephews who have Mothers and Aunts that thus want their Assistance, he says, If any one provide not for his own, especially for those of his own House, i. e. If any Sons or Nephews, having Mothers or Aunts become desolate Widows, and take not care to assist them, especially if they live with them, such have renounced the Piety of the Gospel, and have not so much Humanity as Infidels. This alone is the plain Doctrine of the Apostle, which the Doctor has grossly perverted, to the condemning of that which he never

* 1 Tim. v. 5. 8.

thought of, either there, or in any Part of Scripture. On the contrary, the Scripture abounds with Passages that might persuade us, that no Family could ever be ruin'd by the Alms and Charity of its Father. I have been young, and now am old, saith the Psalmist, yet never saw I the Righteous forsaken, or their Seed begging their Bread. The liberal Soul shall be made fat, and he that watereth, shall be watered again. They that cannot believe this, want the Faith of Christians. Had any one in the Apostle's Time reduced his Wife and Children to Want, by his great Charity to the Poor. the Apostle would have been so far from rebuking him, as a half-thinking Fool, or exposing him to others, as guilty of Madness and grievous Sin, that he would have told them, that he had consecrated himself and Family to the Church, that he and they were thereby become the dear Objects of the Church's Care and Love, since their present Distress was brought upon them by a boundless Love and Compassion for the Poor. I will now suppose that the Apostle had condemn'd a Charity in a Father that was to the Detriment of his Wife and Children; I will put the following case in as high Terms as the Doctor can well desire. Let it be supposed that some good Bishop, possessed of as rich a Bishoprick as that of Winchester, should through his extensive Love and Charity for the Poor throughout his whole Diocese, be forced to use the utmost Frugality in Family-Expence, and to bring up his Children in Employments

of Labour, to help themselves to Food and Raiment; one a Carpenter, in which Business our Saviour is said to have labour'd in his Youth; another a Maker of Tents, the Trade of the great Apostle; and the rest in the like manner. Let it be supposed, that when he died, he left only Twenty Pounds a Year amongst them, not to be possessed by any one of them, but only to be used by every one, as Sickness or Age made them stand in need of it, with this Injunction, that it should be given to other sick and helpless People, when there was no such among themselves. Let it be supposed that by his Life and Conversation, he had filled his Wife and Children with the true and perfect Spirit of the Gospel, that they loved and rejoiced in his Memory for all the Good that he had done to them, desiring nothing but to go through the World in that same Humility, Piety, Charity, Love of God, and Renunciation of the World, as he had done. Will the Doctor say, that this Bishop had ruin'd his Wife and Children? that half-thinking had betray'd him into a most grievous Sin, that he had by this Life deny'd the Faith, and become worse than an Infidel? I will venture to say, that if such a Bishop should ever appear in this Kingdom, he would bid fair to put an End to Infidelity through all his Diocese, tho' it were the largest in the Nation. Now if the Doctor does not know of any one, either amongst the Laity or Clergy, who is ruining his Wife and Children by a greater and more blameable blameable Charity than that of this Bishop, it must be said, that he has been in too much Haste; that his Zeal has not proceeded from Knowledge; and that he has been throwing cold Water upon Charity, before there was any Flame in it.

I now proceed to shew in a more general Way, the blameable Nature and Design of the Doctor's Discourse. The whole Christian World, from the Time of our Saviour to this Day, has been praying, Thy Kingdom come, thy Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Sacraments, Divine Worship, and the Order of the Clergy, are appointed as ministerial Helps for this End, to raise, set up, and establish, this Kingdom of God on Earth. The Fall of Man brought forth the Kingdom of this World; Sin in all Shapes is nothing else but the Will of Man driving on in a State of Self-Motion, and Self-Government, following the Workings of a Nature broken off from its Dependency upon, and Union with, the Divine Will. All the Evil and Misery in the Creation arises only and solely from this one Cause. There is not the smallest Degree of Distraction, Pain, or Punishment, either within us, or without us, but what is owing to this, viz. that Man stands out of his Place, is not in, and under, and united to God as he should be, as the Nature of Things require. God created every thing to partake of his own Nature, to have some Degree and Share of his own Life and Happiness. Nothing can be good or evil, happy or unhappy, but as it does or does not stand in the same Degree of Divine Life in which it was created, receiving in God, and from God, all that Good that it is capable of, and co-operating with, and under him, according to the Nature of its Powers and Perfections. As soon as it turns to itself, and would, as it were, have a Sound of its own, it breaks off from the Divine Harmony, and falls into the Misery of its own Discord; and all its Workings then are only so many Sorts of Torment, or Ways of feeling its own Poverty. The Redemption of Mankind can then only be effected, the Harmony of the Creation can only then be restored, when the Will of God is the Will of every Creature. For this Reason our Blessed Lord having taken upon him a created Nature, so continually declares against the doing any thing of himself, and always appeals to the Will of God, as the only Motive and End of every thing he did, saying, that it was his Meat and Drink to do the Will of him that sent him.

What now can be so desirable to a sober, sensible Man, as to have the vain, disorderly Passions of his own corrupted Heart removed from him, to be filled with such Unity, Love, and Concord, as flows from God, to stand united to, and co-operating with the Divine Goodness, willing nothing, but what God wills, loving nothing, but what God loves, and doing all the Good that he can to every Creature, from a Principle of Love and Conformity to God. Then the Kingdom of God is come, and his Will is done in that Soul, as it is done in Heaven. Then Heaven itself is in the Soul, and the Life, and Conversation of the Soul is in Heaven. From such a Man the Curse of this World is removed; he walks upon consecrated Ground, and every thing he meets, every thing that happens to him, helps forward his Union, and Communion with God. For it is the State of our Will, that makes the State of our Life; when we receive every thing from God, and do every thing for God, every thing does us the same Good, and helps us to the same Degree of Happiness. Sickness and Health, Prosperity and Adversity, bless and purify such a Soul in the same Degree; as it turns every thing towards God, so every Thing becomes divine to it. For he that seeks God in every thing, is sure to find God in every thing. When we thus live wholly unto God, God is wholly ours, and we are then happy in all the Happiness of God; for by uniting with him in Heart, and Will, and Spirit, we are united to all that he is, and has in himself. This is the Purity and Perfection of Life, that we pray for in the Lord's Prayer, that God's Kingdom may come, and his Will be done in us, as it is in Heaven. And this we may be sure is not only necessary, but attainable by us, or our Saviour would not have made it a Part of our daily Prayer. It may now then justly be asked, have we yet obtain'd that, which we have been so long, long, and so universally praying for? Can we look upon the Church of this Nation, as drawing near, or even tending to this State of Perfection? Can we be carried to any one Parish, either in Town or Country, where it can with Truth be said of any one Pastor and his Flock, that there the Kingdom of God is coming, and his Will begins to be done on Earth, as it is done in Heaven? Can we therefore find any one Parish, where the Pastor has not great Reason to reject the Doctor's Discourse, and to pray both for himself and his Flock, that they may enter much farther into the Spirit and Practise of Christianity, than they have yet enter'd, that the Gospel may have much greater Power over them, than it hath yet had, and that they all may, with a most awakening Conviction, see and understand what it is, that has made so divine and powerful a Religion, so without its proper Effect upon them? For if the Case be thus, if we stand at this amazing Distance from that State of Perfection to which Christ has called us, tho' we have his infallible Promise to be with us to the End of the World, to assist us with such Power and Strength from above, as to obtain, and do every thing that we pray for, through a right Faith in him, and Conformity to his Laws and Example; if the Case be thus, does not Heaven and Earth seem to call upon every Minister of the Gospel, to take some Share to himself of this miserable State of Things, and to endeavour to convince both himself and his Flock, that they have not yet been Christians in true earnest, that they have professed Christ with the Tempers of Jews and Heathens, that they have not yet entered into the narrow Way that leads to Life; that they have not yet enough renounced the World; not enough denied themselves; not enough emptied their Hearts of Passions hurtful to Piety; not enough offer'd and devoted themselves to God; not enough made the Spirit of Religion the Spirit of their Lives; not enough sought for Strength and Deliverance from Sin, by a firm and living Faith in Jesus Christ, who is made Righteousness and Sanctification to every Sinner that turns to God thro' Faith in him; not enough pray'd, and desired that they might be born again of God by the awakening and quickening the incorruptible Seed of Divine Life in their Souls, so that Christ may be truly said to be form'd in them; not enough pray'd, and desired to be every-where, and on all Occasions, under the perpetual Influence and Guidance of the Holy Spirit, that they may think, and say, and do every thing by his Holy Inspiration; not enough look'd to that first and great Commandment, of loving God with our whole Heart and whole Strength; not enough endeavour'd to keep the next, which is like unto it, that of loving our Neighbour, as we love ourselves; not enough renounced such Fashions, Customs, and Conformities, to the World, as greatly corrupt the Heart, and grieve

and separate the Holy Spirit from it. Now which way soever we consider the lamentable State of Religion amongst us, whether they be Evils within or without the Church, no Evil can be removed, nor any Remedy be procured by us of the Clergy, but in this one Way, That every Individual of the Order, from the highest to the lowest, begin in right Earnest with himself, open the Book of his own Heart and Life, and consider seriously in the Presence of God, whether, according to his Degree in the Ecclesiastical Function, the World has had its due Share of Salt and Light from him ; whether all that is in the World, the Lust of the Flesh, the Lust of the Eyes, and the Pride of Life, have been so openly, so constantly discouraged and renounced by him, that the whole Form of his Life has been one loud, continual Call to all Orders of Christians, to set their Affections on Things above, to mind only the one Thing needful ; to have nothing at Heart, but to be in Christ new Creatures, seeking, intending, desiring nothing through the Pilgrimage of this Life, but to live unspotted from the World, and to obtain every Height of Holiness, and heavenly Affection, which becomes those who are to be called Sons and Heirs of God with Christ Jesus. If Religion was at this Time in a most flourishing State amongst us, abounding with such Congregations as made up the primitive Church, it would be great Injustice to suppose that the Clergy had not, not, under God, been the chief Instruments of building it up to such a State of Perfection, since they are consider'd by our Saviour himself, as the Salt and Light of the World, which are to preserve it both from Darknes and Corruption. Seeing then that an universal Corruption of Manners is on all Hands confess'd to have overspread this Christian Nation, and the true Spirit of Religion hardly any-where to be seen, nothing can be more reasonable in itself, more suitable to the present State of Things, than for every Clergyman, where-ever his Lot is fallen, to suspect himself to have, in some Degree or other, contributed to this common Calamity, and to be more or less chargeable with the Guilt of it, and to try to discover his own State, by such like Questions as these, laid home to his Conscience. If Christianity has not done that to my Flock which is the only End and Intent of it, is there nothing of this Failure chargeable upon my Conduct over it? Can my righteous Judge lay nothing grievous to my Charge on that Account? Can my own Heart bear me Witness that I did not run in my own Will, was not driven by human Passions, but staid and waited till the Holy Spirit called me to this Office? Have I not undertaken the Care of other Souls, before I had ever any true and real Care of my own? Have I not presumed to convert and strengthen others, before I was converted myself? To preach by hearsay of the Grace, and Mercy,

Mercy, and Salvation, of the Gospel, whilst I myself was an obedient Slave to Sin? Have I not taken upon me to explain and lay open the Mysteries of God's Love in Christ Jesus, before they had had their proper Entrance into my own Soul? Has my own Repentance, Compunction, deep Sensibility of the Burden of Sin, and want of a Saviour, taught me how to make the Terrors of the Lord known in the Deep of every Man's Heart, and to awaken and pierce the Consciences of Sinners? Has my own true and living Faith in Christ my Saviour, my own Experience of the atoning, cleansing, sanctifying Power of his precious Blood, enabled me with great Boldness to tell all Sinners, that to the Faith which worketh by Love, Christ always and infallibly saith, what he said in the Gospel, Thy Sins are forgiven: thy Faith hath saved thee; go in Peace?

Can my own Heart, and God, who is greater than our Hearts, bear me Witness that in my sacred Office I have not sought myself, or my own Things, but the Things of Jesus Christ? If I have changed one Flock or Station for another, or added one Cure to another, have I done it in Singleness of Heart, as unto the Lord, and not for myself? Has all that I have sought or done of this Kind, been only from this Motive, and in this View, that I might be more truly faithful to him that hath called me, and be more and more spent and sacrificed for the Salvation of Souls? Have I neglected no Means of fitting and preparing myself for the Illuminations of God's Holy Spirit, which alone can enable me in any Measure to speak to, and work upon, the Hearts and Consciences of Men? Have I earnestly longed, and laboured after every Kind and Degree of inward and outward Holiness, and Purity of Body, Soul, and Spirit, that my standing at the Altar may be acceptable to God, and my Prayers and Intercessions for my Flock avail much before him? Has my own Self-denial, Renunciation of the World, and Love of the Cross of Christ, enabled me to preach up those Duties in their full Extent? Has my own strictly pious Use of the Things of this World, my own Readiness to relieve and assist every Creature to the utmost Extent of my Ability, fitted me to call others to these Things with Power and Authority? Have all Ages and Conditions of People under my Care had their proper Instruction and Warning from me, so that I have spared no Folly, Vanity, Indulgence, or Conformity to the World, that hurts Mens Souls, and hinders their Progress in Piety? Have I done all that by my Prayers and Preaching, Life and Example, which Christ expects from those whom he has enjoined to feed his Sheep? Can my Flock by looking at me see what Virtues they want? Can they by following me, be led to every Kind and Degree of Christian Perfection? Lastly, has the Will of God and the Spirit of the Gospel been the Beginning and End, the Reason and Motive, the Rule

Rule and Measure, of my liking or disliking, doing or not doing, every thing among those People with whom I have lived as their Minister? These are a few of such Questions as the present State of Religion in this Island calls upon every Minister of the Gospel to sift and try himself by. For as the Order of the Clergy is instituted for no other End, but for the preserving of Religion and true Piety in the World; so when any Age is more than ordinarily sunk in Vice and Impiety, the whole Order of the Clergy, and every Member of it, have great reason not only to be deeply afflicted, but greatly affrighted at it, and to suspect and fear their own Conduct, since that which is their particular Work, has had so little Success. They have great reason to apprehend, that it is some Degeneracy of Spirit, some common Misbehaviour, some general Negligence, some want of Example, some Failure in Doctrine, some Defect in Zeal and Care of their particular Flocks, that too much contributes to so general a Corruption of Manners. This does not suppose, that it is in the Power of our Order to regulate the Manners of People as we please; it only supposes, that of all human Means it has the greatest Effect; and that when any Nation or People are either very good or very bad, the Behaviour of the Clergy may reasonably be reckon'd to have greatly contributed to it. Let us all therefore of the Clergy, who have any right Sense of the Nature of our Order, any true Love for our Brethren of it, awaken and stir up one another to a faithful Diligence in our Callings, not such as may secure us from public Scandal, and the Laws of the Land, but such a faithful Diligence as the Nature of our Office, the Spirit of the Gospel, and the present Decay of Religion, calls for. Let us beseech and intreat one another deeply to consider the great Need this poor Nation hath of a zealous, pious, exemplary, disinterested and laborious Clergy; to consider the dreadful Judgments of God, that may justly be expected to fall first upon our own Heads, if this true, only Relief and Remedy is not procured by all of us, according to the utmost of our Ability. It is now no time for Ease, Indulgence, or worldly Repose; all is to be renounced, all is to be sacrificed; and we must in the Spirit of Martyrdom awaken the World into a Faith and Love of the Gospel. Now is the Time that we must give up all our worldly Regards, forsake all that we have; that we must hate Father and Mother, Wife and Children, and Brothers and Sisters, yea, and our own Lives also, or we cannot be faithful Ministers of Jesus Christ. The same Spirit which first planted the Gospel, is now required to recover and restore it amongst us. We must break off our Chains of worldly Prudence, and come forth in the Spirit and Power of the Gospel; so live, and speak, and act, whether in the Pulpit or out of it, that all who see and hear us may be forced forced to confess that God is in us of a Truth, and that his Holy Spirit hath sent us. A Ministry that hath not this Power, that have not full Proof, both to themselves and others, that the Holy Spirit is thus with them, opening the Kingdom of God in their own Souls, and enabling them to preach it to others with Spirit and Power, are to answer to God for their Want of it.

To ask whether the Assistance of the Holy Spirit is to be ordinary or extraordinary, is as needless and groundless a Distinction, as to ask whether a Minister of the Gospel ought to be an ordinary or extraordinary good Man. The Operation of the Holy Spirit in us since the Fall, is a supernatural Power, and therefore in a just Sense always extraordinary, because enabling us to be and do that, which the ordinary Power of fallen Nature is insufficient for; but it is more or less restored to us, as we are more or less fitted to receive it. And all that Assistance or Renovation of the Holy Spirit which an Apostle might expect, for the raising his own personal Holiness to its greatest Height, or for enabling him with Spirit and Power to move, affect, and convert the Hearts of Men to the Faith of the Gospel, may be justly expected now by such Ministers of the Gospel, as do all that which an Apostle did to obtain and receive it. Our Religion is founded on this Doctrine,—that we are to be born again of the Holy Spirit,—that it is to be the Breath and

Life of our new-born, inward Man,—that there is no Sanctification of the Heart, no Illumination of the Mind, no Knowledge of Divine Myſteries, no Love of Holy Things, poſſible to be had, but in and by the Motion and Life of this Holy Spirit renew'd or born again in us;—that its Life, Motion, and Power, in us, increaſeth according to our Faith, Prayers, and Deſires of it.

Is it not now a flat Denial of all this to ſay, as is ſaid by ſome, that the Eſtabliſhment of the Goſpel in the World, together with the Aſſiſtances of human Learning and Languages, has been the Occaſion why the Aſſiſtance of the Holy Ghoſt is abated, and become only ſuch as may be called ordinary? For if we conſult either Scripture or Experience, muſt it not be ſaid, that worldly Peace and Proſperity wants as much to be ſanctified by the Holy Spirit, as Perſecution and Diſtreſs? That human Learning and Knowledge need as high Degrees of Divine Grace and Help, as human Ignorance? Is not the Blindneſs, the Infatuation and Corruption of Men of Letters, as notorious as that of unlearned Men? Does an Editor of Terence, Horace, or Virgil, receive ſuch Illumination from Plays and Poetry? Do Cardinals and Pluraliſts receive ſo much Unction and Aſſiſtance from human Eſtabliſhments, as to need leſs to be led and govern'd by the Holy Spirit of God? Or will we ſay, that a critical Study of divided Languages, and a Religion eſtabliſh'd in worldly

Ease and Peace, are not only in themselves free from Danger and Corruption, but have so much of the Nature of the Holy Spirit of God in them, that they can be to us in his Stead, and make his sanctifying Operations upon us needless in a less Degree ?

On the Part of God, our Redemption in Jesus Christ, and our Sanctification by the Holy Ghost, stand always in the same Degree of Nearness and Fulness to all of us ; there is hardly a Chapter in the New Testament that can be understood, or its Doctrines observed, but upon the Supposition of this great Truth. If Christ is less form'd in us than he was in the first Saints of the Church, if we come not to the perfect Man, to the Measure of the Stature of the Fulness of Christ, it is not because Christ is now become only our Redeemer in an ordinary Way or Degree, but it is because we have not so turn'd to him, not so turn'd from ourselves, not so counted all Things but Dung, that we might win Christ, and be found in him, as the first Saints did. If the Holy Spirit does not now in such a Degree renew, quicken, move, and sanctify our Hearts, and fill us with such Degrees of Divine Light and Love, as was done in the first Age of the Church, it is not because this sanctifying Spirit has committed some Part of his Work to human Learning, and so is become only our Sanctifier in a lesser and ordinary Degree, but it is because we ourselves have forsaken this Fountain of living Waters, Waters, and hew'd out broken Cisterns for ourselves; it is because we have grieved this holy Spirit, resisted his Motions, quench'd his holy Fire, and under an outward Profession of Christ have kept up that Old Man, with his Deeds, which cannot be the Temple and Habitation of the Holy Spirit.

If therefore we have any true Sense of the Nature and Weight of our Ecclesiastical Calling, any Desire to do the full Work of the Ministry, to satisfy the Wants and Necessities of our Flocks; if we have any Fear of being condemn'd as useless insignificant Labourers in Christ's Vineyard, it is high time to awake from this Dream of an ordinary and extraordinary Sanctification of the Holy Spirit; it serves only to keep us unsanctified, shut up in Death, in the dead Workings of our own corrupted Nature, to keep us learnedly content with our State, as if we were rich, and increased in Goods, and *had Need of nothing, and hinders us from knowing that we are wretched and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.

Several of the Clergy, whose Lot is fallen in this corrupt Age, may be supposed to have taken upon them the sacred Office, and to have lived in it, not enough according to the Nature and Spirit of it, merely through the Degeneracy of the Times, and from a Consideration that they are well enough, according to the Measure of Religion that now passes in the

* Rev. iii. 17.

World. And perhaps there are few, if any, of the Order, however eminent for good Works, whose Virtues have not received some Abatement from the same Cause. This therefore may be added as another Reason why all the Clergy of this Land should search into their Lives and Conduct with the utmost Severity, and bring every thing to the Test of the Letter and Spirit of the Gospel.

The Christian Religion has not had its proper Effect, nor obtain'd its intended End, till it has so set up the Kingdom of God amongst us, that his Will is done on Earth, as it is done in Heaven. This is the Perfection that every Christian, when advancing forward in the several Degrees of Holiness and Purification, is to tend to, and aspire after. And if they who are to be taught, are to be thus separated from an earthly Nature, thus emptied of all worldly Passions, thus dead to the Workings of Self-will, and Self-love, that the Spirit of God may be all in all in them, what Manner of Men ought they to be, who are to teach, promote, advance, and lead the Way to this Purity and Perfection? What a Distance ought he to be from every Appearance of Pride, that is to draw others to love and practise the profound Humility of the Blessed Jesus? How ought he to deny his Appetites, to humble his Body, and be steady in all Kinds of Self-Denial, who would convince his Flock that they who sow to the Flesh, shall of the Flesh reap Destruction?
How

How heavenly-minded, how devoted to God, how attentive to the one Thing needful, how unspotted from the World ought he to be, who is to persuade others that they cannot possibly serve God and Mammon? How empty ought he to be of all selfish Cunning, all worldly Policy, all Arts and Methods of Ambition; who is to fix it deep in the Hearts of his Hearers, that unless they become as little Children, they cannot see, nor enter into the Kingdom of God? What open Hands, and open Heart ought he to have, what an Extent of Charity ought to be visible in him, who is to bring his Flock to this Faith, that it is more blessed to give than to receive? How remarkably, undeniably plain, open, sincere, undefigning, and faithful, should he be, who is to recommend, plant, and establish Sincerity, Plainness, Simplicity, Truth, and Innocence, amongst his Flock? There is such a necessary Fitness in these Things, that the Force and Power of Religion must be much prevented, when its precepts are recommended to the World by such as excuse themselves from the plain and open Practice of them?

The Office of the Ministry is of the highest Nature; it is a Trust which no Language can sufficiently express; and the unfaithful Discharge of it is, of all Conditions in Life, the most dreadful. To be charged with the Death and Blood of Souls, by that God who laid down his Life to redeem them, is a Condemnation that will carry more of Guilt and Punishment in it than any other. Would you know the Office of a Christian Pastor, you must look at the Office of Christ; would you know what Manner of Spirit he ought to be of, you must look at the Spirit of Christ. For the Work of the Ministry is only the Work of Christ committed to other Hands, who are to supply his Absence, to be here in his Stead, to be doing the same Things, and with the same Spirit that he did, till the End of the World.

Nothing is so highly honourable as to bear a Part in the Priesthood of Christ, and be employ'd in the Work of the Ministry; but then it should be well consider'd, that it is only honourable in the same Sense as it may be said that nothing is more honourable than to suffer as a Martyr. It is an Honour that is as different from all worldly Figure and Distinction, as the Glory of Christ upon the Cross is different from the Triumph of an earthly Prince. When therefore we think of the Honour and Dignity of the Pastoral Function, we should be careful to remember, that it is only the Honour of dying a Martyr, an Honour of humbling, abasing, and sacrificing ourselves with Christ, and continuing the Exercise of his suffering Priesthood for the Salvation of the World. The holy Function is often consider'd only as an authoritative Commission to minister in holy Things; but it is much more than this; it is a Call and Command to act with the Spirit of Christ, to represent his Purity, to continue tinue his Holiness, to bear a Part of his Sacrifice, and devote themselves for the Good of others, as he did. A Priest that has only his Ordination to distinguish him, wants as much to make him a true Priest, as Judas wanted to make him a true Apostle. For tho' Holiness gives no Man a Commission to exercise the Pastoral Office, yet all who are called to it, are as much ordained and appointed to a peculiar Holiness of Life, as to the Administration of the Sacraments; and when they cease to be as Light and Salt to the rest of the World, they sin against the Pastoral Office in as high a degree as they that enter upon it without any Authority.

For the sacred Office is God's Appointment, to continue through all Ages of the World, the Spirit and Power of Christ, for reconciling Men to God, in the same Manner, and by the same Means of Holiness, Sacrifice, and Devotion, which Christ exercised when he was upon Earth. We need no other Proof of this, than this one Saying of our Blessed Lord: As my Father hath sent me, so send I you. That is, for all the Ends for which I am come into the World, for all the same Ends I send you into it, to be there in my stead, to supply my Absence, to carry on the Work that I have begun, to exercise my Power, to act with my Spirit, to continue the Exercise of my Love, and Labour, and Suffering, for the Salvation of Mankind. To be sent by our Blessed Lord for the same Ends as he was sent into the World, is such an Appointment of us to all Kinds and Degrees of Holiness, as can never be rightly discharged, but by our giving and devoting ourselves wholly and absolutely unto God.

Imagine that you had lived with our Blessed Lord when he was upon Earth, that you had learn'd the Dignity and Divinity of his Person, that you had seen the Love which he bore to Mankind, that you had entered into the glorious Designs of his Kingdom; which was, to convert the Inhabitants of the Earth, poor Creatures of Flesh and Blood, into Sons of God, and Heirs of eternal Glory.

Imagine that you had seen him after his Resurrection; when he had redeem'd the World, conquer'd Sin, Death, and Hell, and was about to take Possession of his Throne; imagine that then, in that State, you had seen him commission some of his Followers to be Priests and Intercessors with God on Earth, as he had been, to feed, and nourish, and watch over his Flock, as he had done, to go before them in such exemplary Holiness, such Love of God, such Compassion for Sinners, such Contempt of the World, such Poverty of Spirit, such Obedience and Resignation, as they had him for an Example; had you been present at all this, how would you then have heard and felt these Words: As my father hath sent me, so send I you?

you have expected of those, who were called to succeed so great a Master in so great a Work? Could you think they could be fit for this Office, or were enough like him that had called them to it, unless they had renounced and sacrificed every thing for the Sake of it? Could you think that any Care but that of the Church of God was proper for them; Would you not own that the Conversion of Sinners to God, ought to have been their one only Labour and Pains? that they were to seek for no other Happiness in this World, than such as their Lord and Master had done, but consider themselves as called from the common Affairs, Ease and Pleasures of Life, to be in Christ's Stead towards the rest of Mankind, to conduct them safely to eternal Happiness? Now when we consider the Apostles in this Light, as being the first that were entrusted with the Care of Souls, and from Christ himself, we can see no Degree of Zeal, no Height of Piety, no Compassion for Sinners, no Concern for the Honour of God, no Contempt of Sufferings, no Disregard of worldly Interest, no Watchings or Mortifications, no Fervours of Devotion, to which we of the Clergy are not equally obliged. For the Salvation of Mankind is still the same glorious, great and necessary Work that it was in their Days, is still to be carried on by the same Means, and is now in the Hands of the Clergy as it was then in theirs. If it was their

their Happiness and Glory to be faithful to him that called them, to forget the little Interests of Flesh and Blood, and have nothing at Heart, but the Advancement of God's Kingdom, we shall fail both of Happiness and Glory, if we seek it any other way. If an Apostle considering the Weight of reconciling Souls unto God, is forced to cry out, Who is sufficient for these things? shall we think any Care but that which is the greatest, sufficient to make us stand uncondemned before God? It is a fatal Deception to imagine, that the Life of a Minister of God is ever to be a Life of Ease or worldly Repose. For tho' the temporal Sword be not always drawn against them, nor they forced to flee from one City to another, yet the World, the Flesh, and the Devil, have perhaps never so much Difficulty to be resisted, as in temporal Prosperity, nor have the Ministers of Christ ever more Occasion to put on all their Armour, than when the World is given up to Ease, and Peace, and Plenty. Swarms of Vice steal upon us in these Seasons, the Spirit and Life of Religion is in danger of being lost, and the Salvation of Souls is made more difficult, than in the most perilous Times. And how is such a State of Temptation to be resisted, such a Torrent of Vice to be opposed, but by the Clergy's shewing themselves visible and notorious Examples of all the contrary Virtues. When Mankind are wallowing in Debauchery, wantoning in Pleasures, and given up to Vanity

Vanity and Luxury in all Shapes, it is then the Duty of the faithful Minister, by his being crucified to the World, to proclaim himself the Messenger of a crucified Saviour, and to make his own self-denying, mortified, and heavenly Life, a plain, open, and constant Re-proof of all vain Indulgences. For to yield to, or fall in with the Softness, Vanity, Luxury, Indulgence, or Avarice of the World, is the same Infidelity and Breach of Trust in the sacred Office, as to depart from the true Faith, and fall in with some abominable Heresy.

I believe I need not now help the Reader to observe, that the Doctor's Undertaking is further liable to these great Objections against it; First, That it calls us from the Sin and Danger of being Righteous over-much, when we are always to own, that we are not yet Righteous enough. Secondly, That it proposes to stir us up against this Sin and Danger, at a time, when this Nation is in Danger of the severest Judgments of God upon it, for a general Irreligion and Profaneness. Thirdly, That it tends to lead the Clergy from a just Sense of what the Nature of their Office, the Nature of Religion, and the present State of this Nation, requires of them. That it tends to raise an ill Spirit in them, not only to be content with an ordinary common Degree of Piety in themselves, and their Flocks, but with a watchful and jealous Eye to guard against all the Beginnings of an uncommon, or more than ordinary nary Sanctity of Life, either in themselves or others.

Thus, says he, “To what a Height of Fanatic Madness in Doctrine, as well as Practice, are some advanced, who set out at first with an Appearance of *more than ordinary Sanctity in Practice only?” Is not this calling upon the Clergy to beware, how they admit these Beginnings of a more than ordinary Sanctity of Life, either in themselves, or those committed to their Care? Is it not plainly telling them, that they must stick closely and steadily to such Sanctity of Practice, as may be called ordinary, or else they will be in Fanatic Madness? Here is no Force put upon his Words, a more than ordinary Sanctity in Practice only, is mark’d out as the genuine natural Cause of Fanatic Madness; and therefore the Cause is equally condemn’d with the Effect. Had he meant that his Reader should not have the same Dislike of the one, as of the other, or had he been afraid of his doing so, would he not have put in a Word in Favour of a more than ordinary Sanctity of Life? would he not have said; that he did not intend to blame that, or at least not so much as the other? But not a Word of this, a more than ordinary Sanctity in Practice only, and Fanatic Madness, are consider’d as Cause and Effect, and left in the same State of Condemnation, to be equally guarded against, and avoided by the Reader.

So that in a Nation over-run with all Manner of Corruption both of Principle and Practice, where the ordinary State of Religion has hardly the Form of Godliness, People are in this State of Things to content themselves with such a Sanctity of Life, as may be deemed to be ordinary.

And here I can't help addressing myself with great Affection to all my younger Brethren of the Clergy. According to the Course of Nature, you are likely to have the Care of the Church wholly upon your Hands in a short time; and therefore it is chiefly from you that the Restoration of true Piety is to be expected in this Nation. I beseech you, therefore, for your own Sakes, for the Gospel's Sake, for the Sake of Mankind, to devote yourselves wholly to the Love and Service of God. As you are yet but Beginners in this great Office, you have it in your Power to make your Lives the greatest Happiness, both to yourselves, and the whole Nation. You are enter'd into Holy Orders in degenerate Times, where Trade and Traffic have seized upon all holy Things; and it will be easy for you, without Fear, to swim along with the corrupt Stream, and to look upon him as an Enemy, or Enthusiast, that would save you from being lost in it. But think, my dear Brethren, think in time, what Remorse you are treasuring up for yourselves, if you live to look back upon a loose, negligent, corrupt, disorderly, worldly, unedifying Life, spent spent amongst those whose Blood will be required at your Hands. Think, on the other Hand, how blessedly your Employment will end, if by your Voices, your Lives, and Labours, you put a Stop to the Overflowings of Iniquity, restore the Spirit of the Primitive Clergy, and make all your Flock bless and praise God, for having sent you amongst them. Lay this down as an infallible Principle, that an intire, absolute Renunciation of all worldly Interest, is the only possible Foundation of that exalted Virtue which your Station requires. Without this, all Attempts after an exemplary Piety are in vain. If you want any thing from the World by way of Figure and Exaltation, you shut the Power of your Redeemer out of your own Souls; and instead of converting, you corrupt the Hearts of those that are about you. Detest therefore, with the utmost Abhorrence, all Desires of making your Fortunes, either by Preferments or rich Marriages, and let it be your only Ambition to stand at the Top of every Virtue, as visible Guides and Patterns to all that aspire after the Perfection of Holiness. Consider yourselves merely as the Messengers of God, that are solely sent into the World on his Errand, and think it Happiness enough, that you are called to the same Business, for which the Son of God was born into the World. I don't call you from a sober Use of human Learning, but I would fain persuade you to think nothing worthy of your Notice in Books and Study, but that which directly applies to the Amendment of the Heart, which makes you more holy, more divine, more heavenly, than you would be without it. You want nothing, but to have the Corruption of your natural Birth removed, to have the Nature, Life and Spirit of Jesus Christ derived into you; as this is all that you want, so let this be all that you seek from Books, Study, or Men. This is the only, certain Way to become eminent Divines, instructed to the Kingdom of Heaven. And above all, let me tell you, that the Book of all Books is your own Heart, in which are written and engraven the deepest Lessons of Divine Instruction; learn, therefore, to be deeply attentive to the Presence of God in your Hearts, who is always speaking, always instructing, always illuminating that Heart that is attentive to him. Here you will meet the Divine Light in its proper Place, in that Depth of your Souls, where the Birth of the Son of God, and the Proceeding of the Holy Ghost, are always ready to spring up in you: And be assured of this, that so much as you have of inward Attention to God in your Hearts, of inward Love and Adherence to his holy Light and Spirit within you, so much as you have of real, unaffected Humility and Meekness, so much as you are dead to your own Will and Self-love, so much as you have of Purity of Heart, so much, and no more, nor any further, do you see and know the Truths of God. These Virtues are the only

Eyes, and Ears, and Senses, and Heart, by which you will know and understand every thing in Scripture, in that Manner, and in that Degree, in which God would have it understood, both for your own Good, and the Good of other People. It was owing to this Purity of Heart, and Attendance upon God, that an ancient Widow, named *Anna, knew him to be the true Messiah, whom the Rulers, Chief Priests, and Doctors of the Law, condemn'd as an Impostor. Had they, instead of their Adherence to critical Knowledge, and rabbinical Learning, been devoted to God in such Purity of Heart as she was, they had known as much of the Kingdom of God as she did. Place therefore all your Hope and Confidence, all your learned Help and Skill, in the ardent Love and Practice of these Virtues, and then, and then only, you will be able Ministers, holy Priests, and Messengers of God; your cleansed Hearts, like so many purified Mirrors, will be always penetrated, always illuminated, by the Rays of Divine Light, and you will no more need the Critics, to tell you what God speaks to you in the Scriptures, than to tell you what God speaks to you in your own Hearts. There are indeed in the Scriptures Secrets and Mysteries, only fully to be known in God's own Time, and not a Minute sooner; but of all Men in the World, the critical Dealers in Words and Particles, know the least of them, and make the vainest Attempts to understand them. But Scripture, consider'd as a Doctrine of Life, Faith, and Salvation in Jesus Christ, is a sealed or unsealed, an open or shut up Book to every Heart, in the same Proportion as it stands turn'd to the World, or turn'd to God. Nothing understands God, but the Spirit of God; nothing brings the Spirit of God into any Mind, but the renouncing all for it, the turning wholly to it, and the depending wholly upon it. Human Learning is by no means to be rejected from Religion; for it is of the same good Use and Service, and affords the same Assistance to Religion, that the Alphabet, Writing, and Printing does. But if it is raised from this Kind and Degree of Assistance, if it is consider'd as a Key, or the Key, to the Mysteries of our Redemption in Jesus Christ, instead of opening to us the Kingdom of God, it locks us up in our own Darknes. It is a Truth confessed on all Hands, that the Kingdom of Grace is the Beginning of the Kingdom of Glory, and that they differ only in degree. Is not this plainly confessing, that the Light of the Kingdom of Grace must be one and the same with that of the Kingdom of Glory? How else can one be the Beginning of the other? And must not that, which is to be our one only Light in Heaven in a full Degree, be now our one only Light of all heavenly Things in a lower Degree? Therefore all that we see and know of the Kingdom of God now, must be by that same.

same Light by which we shall see and know the Kingdom of God hereafter. God is an all-speaking, all-working, all-illuminating Essence, possessing the Depth, and bringing forth the Life of every Creature according to its Nature. Our Life is out of this Divine Essence, and is itself a creaturely Similitude of it; and when we turn from all Impediments, this Divine Essence becomes as certainly the true Light of our Minds here, as it will be hereafter. This is not Enthusiasm, but the Words of Truth and Soberness; and it is the running away from this Enthusiasm, that has made so many great Scholars as useless to the Church as tinkling Cymbals, and all Christendom a mere Babel of learned Confusion. I shall now only add one Word more: A composed Gravity of Life, a suitable Decency of outward Behaviour, is not the Thing that is demanded of you; your Piety must be solid, your Lives exemplary, the Perfection of your Virtues must shine before Men, or you will all of you in your several Degrees, stand chargeable with the ill State of Religion, that is about you.

I must now take Notice of an injurious Quotation or two that the Doctor has made from the Treatise of Christian Perfection. The Doctor quotes me as affirming, That not only the Wickedness and Vanity of this World, but even its most lawful and allowed Concerns, render Men unable to enter, and unworthy to be received into the true State of Christianity. And again, that the Wisdom from above condemns all Labour as equally fruitless, but that which labours after everlasting Life. Then the Doctor affirms thus; *Here's an utter Condemnation of all Trades, and of all Professions, of all Business, and secular Concerns whatever. Does the Doctor then believe that I bought Pen, Ink, and Paper, and wrote that Book, to shew that no Christian ought to make, buy or sell Pen, Ink, and Paper? And that I publish'd that Book to prove that it was my Opinion that it was utterly unlawful for a Christian to be a Printer, a Bookbinder, or a Bookseller? Does not the Doctor know, that the Christian Perfection in the Two first Pages, to prevent all Mistake, openly declares for the Continuance of Mankind in their several States and Conditions, openly declares against a Cloyster, or any singular State of Life, openly asserts Christian Perfection to consist in the holy and religious Conduct of ourselves in every State of Life†? Does he not know that in the Serious Call to a devout Life, &c. which presently followed the other Book, the very Title declares solely for a Piety adapted to the State and Condition of all Orders of Men? But there is something still more wonderful, more regardless of Right and Wrong in the Doctor's Charge against me; for in this very Passage quoted by him, secular Business is expressly affirm'd to be most lawful and allow'd Concerns. And yet from this Passage affirming the Lawfulness

fulness of worldly Business, and proceeding upon it as a certain Truth, the Doctor has extracted the Unlawfulness of all secular Concerns whatever. Again, Does not the Doctor know that he designedly mangled the Words he quoted, and left out that Part which shew'd the Reason of my so expressing myself? That I was there speaking to that Parable of our Lord's, where all that were bidden to the Feast, refused to come. The First, because he had bought a Piece of Ground; the other, because he must try his Oxen; the Third, because he had married a Wife. Then the Master in Anger said, None of these Men shall taste of my Supper. Whence I thus observed, This Parable teaches us, that not only the Vices and the Vanities of the World, but its most lawful and allow'd Concerns, render Men unable to enter, and unworthy to be received into the true State of Christianity. And does not every one see this to be the plain, necessary, and inoffensive Sense of the Parable? Had I not made Nonsense of it, if I had said, that lawful Business could not become a Hindrance of Men's Salvation? For are there not here Three lawful Concerns become Three Hindrances of their coming to the Feast, and Three Reasons of their being declared unworthy of it? Then I go on to shew, that it is not the Employment itself that is condemn'd, but its being made a Reason, or Excuse, as in the Parable, for not living wholly unto God, adding these Words, the true Wisdom from above condemns all Labour

as equally fruitless, but that which labours after everlasting Life. Let but Religion determine the Point, and what can it signify, whether a Man forgets God in his Farm, or a Shop, or at a Gaming Table? Now what is there here condemned, but the forgetting God? Or will any one say, that a Shop, and a Farm, are here condemned, because God is to be remembered in them, or because they are to be made Employments of Piety, that labour after everlasting Life? The Doctor proceeds to charge me with positively asserting, that all Christians are, in all Ages, obliged to sell all they have, and give it to the Poor. I have been so far from asserting this, that I have with all my Might said, and proved the direct contrary, that no Christians of any Age are obliged to it. Speaking of the Command of our Saviour's to the young Man, to sell all, and give it to the Poor, I have shewn by Variety of Arguments, and Texts of Scripture, that that Command calls no rich Man to sell what he has; that it calls him only to do that with his Estate, which he is called to, by the whole Tenour of Scripture, as having Riches, that are not his own, of which he is only a Steward, and not a Proprietor, as being obliged to love his Neighbour as himself in the Use of them. That the Command of selling all, implies only such heavenly Affection, such Disregard of Riches, as is express'd, by being dead to the World, having our Conversation in Heaven, being born again from above, and having overcome the World. From the Beginning to the End of this Matter, I have utterly rejected all selling, and shewn, that it means only a perfect Charity, a parting with the Self-Enjoyment of our Estates, to make them, as far as we are able, the common Support of those People whom we are to love, as we love ourselves, and as Christ has loved us. The Doctor, therefore, in this Accufation, must be allowed to have stuck closely to his Text; he has not been Righteous over-much. The Doctor makes not an Inference or two from this Doctrine of Charity. According to this Divinity, says he, it is a Sin to be rich. Here he is just as wrong as he could possibly be. For, according to the Divinity in the Book of Christian Perfection, and the Serious Call, &c. the Blessedness, the Piety, the Happiness arising from the Possession of Riches, is demonstrated from Chapter to Chapter, and visibly painted in a great Variety of Characters. Those two Books were publish'd chiefly to shew to rich Men their exceeding Happiness. And I can consistently say, that I should reckon it a Happiness to myself, to be one of the Number, supported only by this one Saying of our Lord's; that it is more blessed to give, than to receive. Another Inference the Doctor makes, is this; that according to this Divinity, if a Man sues you for your House or Land, without the least Pretence of Right, you are bound to recede from your Right, and let him have have it, rather than defend it*. There had been as much Truth, and more Wit, if he had said, when Thieves have any Design of entering into your House, you are obliged to have no Locks or Bolts upon your Doors. For I have said no more of the Unlawfulness of appealing to Courts of Justice, to secure us in the just Possession of our House and Land, than of the Unlawfulness of going to a Smith for Locks and Bolts, when Thieves want to have our Goods. I take it to be as lawful to live under human Government, and to enjoy the Benefit of it, as to live under the Light and Benefit of the Sun. And I look upon Courts of Justice, which are to protect People in the Enjoyment of their Property, to be the first and chief Benefit of Government. And if they were absolutely unlawful, for the same Reason would all Locks, and Doors, and Fences be so too. On the other hand, I have said, that the abstaining from Contentions at Law, chusing to suffer, and bear with Variety of Injuries, where we might legally defend ourselves, and bring Punishment upon those that injure us, is a proper Part of Christian Self-denial, a just Conformity to the Meekness, and suffering Spirit of our Blessed Lord, and highly beneficial to our own spiritual Advancement, And must not every one, that owns the Gospel, say the same? Has not our Saviour himself first said so? But does it therefore follow, that a Man has no Rights, or none that he may own; because it may be often, and in many Cases, a Matter of great Piety to suffer wrongfully with Patience? The short of the Matter is this: All Things that are lawful, are not expedient, nor edifying. Of Contentions at Law, most of them are very apt to do us great Hurt, many of them are piously to be avoided, through Patience and Meek-suffering of Wrong; but some may be necessary, even as Parts of our Duty. Is there any thing more plain, or self-evident, than this? The Doctor might have observed, that I spoke of Law-Suits only under the Article of Self-denial, and therefore was only to speak of the Duty, Piety and Benefit, of forbearing from them; that there was great Necessity that this Doctrine of Meekness, and patient Suffering of ill Usage, should be fully set forth, both to Clergy and Laity; that I had no more Reason to tell People that Courts of Justice were, in themselves lawful, and such as might justly be appealed to in some Cases, than to tell them that it was lawful to live in this Island, and that they need not seek for a Country where there was no Laws nor Government to protect them. The Doctor has something like an Excuse for the Weakness and Injustice of all the foregoing Remarks and Censures; they are to be consider'd only as little Dashes of his Pen upon Books, which he says *are not considerable enough to be formally refuted. Something like this I remember was formerly said by the Bishop of Bangor, now Lord Bishop of Winchester, concerning my Letters to him. But his Lordship had the Prudence and Equity not to make inconsiderate Remarks upon Books, that he thought not considerable enough to be formally refuted by him. Into whose Head could it enter to think of formally confuting Thomas a Kempis, Taylor's Life of Christ, or his Holy Living and Dying? Or what must we think of his Piety, who should say, that he only forbore such a Work, because the Reasonings in those Books were too inconsiderable to be formally refuted? I desire no Authority for what I have written, but the Gospel, or I could soon shew that every thing in my Books that offends the Doctor, is again and again to be found, not only in these pious Authors, but in the Writings of the most eminent Saints through all Ages of the Church.

I Have Nothing to say by way of Preface or Introduction. I only ask this Favour of the Reader, that he would not pass any Censure upon this Book, from only dipping into this or that particular Part of it, but give it one fair Perusal in the Order it is written, and then I shall have neither Right nor Inclination to complain of any Judgment, he shall think fit to pass upon it.

C H A P. I.

Of Creation in general. Of the Origin of the Soul Whence Will and Thought are in the Creature. Why the Will is free. The Origin of Evil solely from the Creature. This World not a first immediate Creation of God. How the World comes to be in its present State. The first Perfection of Man. All Things prove a Trinity in God. Man hath the trine Nature of God in Him. Arianism and Deism confuted by Nature. That Life is uniform through all Creatures. That there is but one kind of Death to be found in all Nature. The fallen Soul hath the Nature of Hell in it. Regeneration is a real Birth of a Divine Life in the Soul. That there is but one Salvation possible in Nature. This Salvation only to be had from Jesus Christ. All the Devils Faith and Hope proved to be false.

1.  T has been an Opinion commonly received, though without any Foundation in the Light of Nature, or Scripture, that God created this whole visible World and all Things in it out of Nothing; nay, that the souls of Men and the highest Orders of Beings were created in the same Manner. The Scripture is very decisive against this Origin of the Souls of Men. For Moses saith, God breathed into Man (Spiraculum Vitarum) the Breath of Lives, and Man became a Living Soul. Here the Notion of a Soul created out of Nothing is in the plainest, strongest Manner rejected by the first Written Word of God; and no Jew or Christian can have the least Excuse for falling into such an Error: Here the highest and most Divine Original is not darkly, but openly, absolutely, and in the strongest Form of Expression ascribed to the Soul; it came forth as a Breath of Life, or Lives, out from the Mouth of God, and therefore did not come out of the Womb of Nothing, but is what it is, and has what it has in itself, from and out of the first and highest of all Beings.

For to say that God breathed forth into Man the Breath of Lives, by which He became a Living Soul, is directly saying, that That which was Life, Light, and Spirit in the living God, was breathed forth from Him to become the Life, Light, and Spirit of a Creature. The Soul therefore being declared to be an Effluence from God, a Breath of God, must have have the Nature and Likeness of God in it, and is and can be nothing else, but something or so much of the Divine Nature, become creaturely existing, or breathed forth from God, to stand before Him in the Form of a Creature.

When the Animals of this World were to be created, it was only said, Let the Earth, the Air, the Water, bring forth Creatures after their kinds; but when Man was to be brought forth, it was said, Let us make Man in our own Image and Likeness. Is not this directly saying, Let Man have his Beginning and Being out of us, that He may be so related to us in his Soul and Spirit, as the Animals of this World are related to the Elements from which they are produced. Let Him so come forth from us, be so breathed out of us, that our Tri-une divine Nature may be manifested in Him, that he may stand before us as a creaturely Image, Likeness, and Representative of that which we are in ourselves.

Now from this original Doctrine of the Creation of Man, known to all the first Inhabitants of the World, and published in the Front of the first Written Word of God; these great Truths have been more or less declared to all the Nations of the World. First, That all Mankind are the created Offspring of the One

God. Secondly, That in all Men there is a Spirit or Breath of Lives, that did not begin to be out of Nothing, or was created out of Nothing; but came from the true God into Man, as his own Breath of Life breathed into Him. Thirdly, That therefore there is in all Men, wherever dispersed over the Earth, a divine, immortal, never-ending Spirit, that can have nothing of Death in it, but must live for-ever, because it is the Breath of the everliving God. Fourthly, That by this immortal Breath, or Spirit of God in Man, all Mankind stand in the same Nearness of Relation to God, are all equally his Children, are all under the same Necessity of paying the same Homage of Love and Obedience to Him, all fitted to receive the same Blessing and Happiness from Him, all created for the same eternal Enjoyment of his Love and Presence with them, all equally called to worship and adore Him in Spirit and Truth, all equally capable of seeking and finding Him, of having a Blessed Union and Communion with Him.

These great Truths, the first Pillars of all true and Spiritual Religion, on which the Holy and Divine Lives of the antient Patriarchs were supported, by which they worshipped God in a true and right Faith, these Truths, I say, were were most eminent and plainly declared in the express Letter of the Mosaic Writings here quoted. And no Writer, whether Jewish or Christian, has so plainly, so fully, so deeply laid open the true Ground and Necessity of an Eternal, never-ceasing Relation between God and all the Human Nature; no one has so incontestibly asserted the Immortality of the Soul, or Spirit of Man, or so deeply laid open and proved the Necessity of one Religion, common to all Human Nature, as the Legislator of the Jewish Theocracy has done. Life and Immortality are indeed justly said to be brought to Light by the Gospel, not only because they there stand in a new Degree of Light, largely explained, and much appealed to, and absolutely promised by the Son of God Himself, but chiefly because the precious Means and Mysteries of obtaining a blessed Life, and a blessed Immortality, were only revealed or brought to Light by the Gospel.

But the incontestible Ground and Reason of an immortal Life, and eternal Relation between God and the whole Human Nature, and which lays all Mankind under the same Obligations to the same true Worship of God, is most fully set forth by Moses, who alone tells us the true Fact, How, and Why Man is immortal in his Nature; viz. because the Beginning of his Life was a Breath, breathed into Him from God, and for this End, that he might be a living Image and Likeness of God, created to partake of the Nature and Immortality of God.

This is the great Doctrine of the Jewish Legislator, which justly places Him among the greatest Preachers of true Religion. St. Paul used a very powerful Argument to persuade the Athenians to own the true God, and the true Religion, when he told them, “ that “ God made the World and all Things there“ in; that He giveth Life, and Breath, and “ all Things; that He hath made of one “ Blood all Nations of Men to dwell on the “ Earth; that they should all seek the Lord,
 “ if haply they might feel after and find “ Him, seeing He is not far from any of us, “ because in Him we live, move, and have our “ Being *.” And yet this Doctrine, which St. Paul preaches to the Athenians, is nothing else but that same Divine and Heavenly Instruction, which He had learnt from Moses, which Moses openly and plainly taught all the Jews. The Jewish Theocracy therefore was by no means an Intimation to that People, that

that they had no Concern with the true God but as Children of this World, under his temporal Protection or Punishment; for their Lawgiver left them no room for such a Thought, because He had plainly taught them their eternal Nature and eternal Relation, which they had to God in common with all Mankind, as St. Paul did to the Athenians, who only set before them that very Doctrine that Moses taught all the Jews. The great End of the Jewish Theocracy was to shew, both to Jew and Gentile, the absolute uncontrollable Power of the one God, by such a Covenanted Interposition of his Providence, that all the World might know, that the one God, from whom both Jew and Gentile were fallen away, by departing from the Faith and Religion of their First Fathers, was the only God, from whom all Mankind could receive either Blessing or Cursing.

This was the great Thing intended to be proclaimed to all the World by this Theocracy, viz. that only the God of Israel had Power to save or destroy, to punish or reward, according to his Pleasure; and that therefore all the Gods of the Heathens were mere Vanity.

If therefore any Jews, by reason of those extraordinary Temporal Blessings and Cursings which they received under their Theocracy, grew grossly ignorant, or dully senseless of their eternal Nature and eternal Relation to God, and of that one true Religion, which by Nature they were obliged to observe in common with all Mankind; if they took God only to be their local or tutelary Deity, and themselves to be only Animals of this World; such a Grossness of Belief was no more to be charged upon their great Lawgiver, Moses, than if they had believed that a Golden Calf was their true God. But to return to their Creation.

2. It is the same Impossibility for a Thing to be created out of Nothing, as to be created *by Nothing. It is no more a Part or Prerogative of God's Omnipotence to create a Being out of Nothing, than to make a Thing to be, without any one Quality of Being in it; or to make that there should be Three, where there is neither Two, nor One. Every Creature is nothing else but Nature put into a certain Form of Existence; and therefore a Creature not formed out of Nature is a Contradiction. A Circle, or a Square, cannot be made out of Nothing, nor could any Power bring them into Existence, but because there is an Extension in Nature, that can be put into the Form of a Circle,

* See Spirit of Prayer, Part II. Page 58, &c.
Way to divine Knowledge, Page 247, &c.

Circle, or a Square : But if dead Figures cannot by any Power be made out of Nothing, who sees not the Impossibility of making Living Creatures, Angels, and the Souls of Men, out of Nothing ?

3. Thinking and Willing are Eternal, they never began to be. Nothing can think, or will now, in which there was not Will and Thought from all Eternity. For it is as possible for Thought in General to begin to be, as for That which thinks in a particular Creature to begin to be of a Thinking Nature : Therefore the Soul, which is a Thinking Willing Being is come forth, or created out of That which hath Willed and Thought in God from all Eternity. The created Soul is a Creature of Time, and had its Beginning on the Sixth Day of the Creation ; but the Essences of the Soul, which were then formed into a Creature, and into a State of Distinction from God, had been in God from all Eternity, or they could not have been breathed forth from God into the Form of a living Creature.

And herein lies the true Ground and Depth of the uncontroulable Freedom of our Will and Thoughts : They must have a Self-motion, and Self-direction, because they came out of the Self-existent God. They are eternal, divine Powers, Powers, that never began to be, and therefore cannot begin to be in Subjection to any Thing, That which thinks and wills in the Soul, is That very same unbeginning Breath which thought and willed in God, before it was breathed into the Form of an human Soul; and therefore it is, that Will and Thought cannot be bounded or constrained.

Herein also appears the high Dignity, and never-ceasing Perpetuity of our Nature. The Essences of our Souls can never cease to be, because they never began to be; and nothing can live eternally, but that which hath lived from all Eternity. The Essences of our Soul were a Breath in God before they became a Living Soul, they lived in God before they lived in the created Soul, and therefore the Soul is a Partaker of the Eternity of God, and can never cease to be. Here, O Man, behold the great Original, and the high State of thy Birth: Here let all that is within thee praise thy God, who has brought Thee into so high a State of Being, who has given Thee Powers as eternal, and boundless as his own Attributes, that there might be no End or Limits of thy happiness in Him. Thou beganest as Time began, but as Time was in Eternity before it became Days and Years, so thou wast in God before Thou wast brought into the Creation: And as Time is neither a Part of Eternity nor broken off from it, yet come out of it, so thou art not a Part of God, nor broken off from Him, yet born out of Him. Thou shouldst only will that which God willeth, only love that which He loveth, co-operate and unite with Him in the whole Form of thy Life; because all that Thou art, all that Thou hast, is only a Spark of his own Life and Spirit derived into Thee. If thou desirest, inclinest, and turnest to God, as the Flowers of the Field desire, and turn towards the Sun, all the Blessings of the Deity will spring up in Thee; Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, will make their Abode with Thee. If thou turnest in towards thyself, to live to thyself, to be happy in the Workings of an own Will, to be rich in the Sharpness and Acuteness of thy own Reason, thou chusest to be a Weed, and canst only have such a Life, Spirit, and Blessing from God, as a Thistle has from the Sun. But to return.

4. To suppose a Willing Understanding Being created out of Nothing is a great Absurdity. For as Thinking and Willing must have always been from all Eternity, or they could never have been either in Eternity, or Time,
so,

so, wherever they are found in any particular finite Beings, they must of all Necessity be direct Communications, or Propagations of that Thinking and Willing, which never could begin to be.

The Creation therefore of a Soul is not the Creation of Thinking and Willing, or the making That to be, and to think, which before had nothing of Being or Thought; but it is the Bringing the Powers of Thinking and Willing out of their Eternal State in the One God, into a Beginning State of a Self-conscious Life, distinct from God. And this is God's omnipotent, creating Ability, that He can make the Powers of his own Nature become Creatural, Living, Personal Images of what He is in Himself, in a State of distinct Personality from Him: So that the Creature is one, in its finite, limited State, as God is one, and yet hath nothing in it, but that which was in God before it came into it: For the Creature, be it what it will, high or low, can be Nothing else but a limited Participation of the Nature of the Creator. Nothing can be in the Creature but what came from the Creator, and the Creator can give nothing to the Creature but that which it hath in itself to give. And if Beings could be created out of Nothing,

Nothing, the Whole Creation could be no more a Proof of the Being of God, than if it had sprung up of itself out of Nothing: For if they are brought into Being out of Nothing, then they can have Nothing of God in them, and so can bear no Testimony of God, but are as good a Proof that there is no God, as that there is one. But if they have any Thing of God in them, then they cannot be said to be created out of Nothing.

5. That the Souls of Men were not created out of Nothing, but are born out of an Eternal Original, is plain from hence; from that Delight in, and Desire of Eternal Existence, which are so strong and natural to the Soul of Man. For nothing can delight in or desire Eternity, or so much as form a Notion of it, or think upon it, or any way reach after it, but that alone which is generated from it, and come out of it. For it is a Self-evident Truth, that Nothing can look higher, or further back, than into its own Original; and therefore, Nothing can look or reach back into Eternity, but that which came out of it. This is as certain, as that a Line reaches and can reach no further back, than to that Point from whence it arose.

Our bodily Eyes are born out of the firmamental Light of this World, and therefore they can look no further than the Firmament: But our thoughts know no Bounds, therefore they are come out of that which is boundless. The Eyes of our Minds can look as easily backwards into that Eternity which always hath been, as into that which ever shall be; and therefore it is plain, that That which Thinks and Wills in us, which so easily, so delightfully, so naturally penetrates into all Eternity, has always had an Eternal Existence, and is only a Ray or Spark of the Divine Nature, brought out into the Form of a Creature, or a limited, personal Existence, by the Creating Power of God.

6. Again. Every Soul shrinks back, and is frightened at the very Thought of falling into Nothing. Now this undeniably proves, that the Soul was not created out of Nothing. For it is an Eternal Truth, spoken by all Nature, that every Thing strongly aspires after, and cannot be easy till it finds and enjoys that Original out of which it arose. If the Soul therefore was brought forth out of Nothing, all its Being would be a Burden to it; it would want to be dissolved, and to be delivered from every kind and Degree of Sensibility; and nothing could be so sweet and agreeable to it as to think of falling back into That Nothingness, out of which it was called forth by its Creation. Thus is the Eternal, immortal, divine Nature of the Soul, which the Schools prove with so much Difficulty, one of the most obvious self-evident Truths in all Nature. For Nothing but that which is Eternal in its own Nature can have the least Thought about Eternity in it.

If a Beast had not the Nature of the Earth in it, Nothing that is on the Earth, or springs out of it, could be in the least Degree agreeable to it, or desired by it. If the Soul had not the Nature of Eternity in it, Nothing that is eternal could give it the smallest Pleasure, or be able to make any kind of Impression upon it. For as Nothing can taste, or relish, or enter into the agreeable Sensations of this World, but that which hath the Nature of this World in it; so Nothing can taste, or relish, or look into Eternity with any kind of Pleasure, but that which hath the Nature of Eternity in it.

7. If the Soul was not born, or created out of God, it could have no Happiness in God, no Desire, nor any Possibility of enjoying Him. If it had nothing of God in it, it must stand in the utmost Distance of Contrariety to him, and be utterly incapable of living, moving, and having its Being in God : For every Thing must have the Nature of That out of which it was created, and must live, and have its Being in that Root or Ground from whence it sprung. If therefore there was nothing of God in the Soul, nothing that is in God could do the Soul any Good, or have any kind of Communication with it; but the Gulph of Separation between God and the Soul would be even greater than that which is between Heaven and Hell.

8. But let us rejoice, that our Soul is a Thinking Willing Being, full of Thoughts, Cares, Longings, and Desires of Eternity; for this is our full Proof, that our Descent is from God Himself, that we are born out of Him, breathed forth from him; that our Soul is of an Eternal Nature, made a Thinking, Willing, Understanding Creature out of That which hath Willed and Thought in God from all Eternity; and therefore must, for ever and ever, be a Partaker of the Eternity of God.

And here you may behold the sure Ground of the absolute Impossibility of the Annihilation of the Soul. Its Essences never began to be, and therefore can never cease to be; they had an Eternal Reality before they were in or became a distinct Soul, and therefore they must have the same Eternal Reality in it. It was the Eternal Breath of God before it came into Man, and therefore the Eternity of God must be inseparable from it. It is no more a Property of the divine Omnipotence to be able to annihilate a Soul, than to be able to make an Eternal Truth become a Fiction of Yesterday: And to think it a Lessening of the Power of God, to say that he cannot annihilate the Soul, is as absurd, as to say that it is a Lessening of the Light of the Sun, if it cannot destroy, or darken its own Rays of Light.

O, dear Reader, stay a while in this important Place, and learn to know thyself: All thy Senses make Thee know and feel, that thou standest in the Vanity of Time; but every Motion, Stirring, Imagination, and Thought of thy Mind, whether in fantysing, fearing, or loving Everlasting Life, is the same infallible Proof, that Thou standest in the Midst of Eternity, art an Offspring and Inhabitant of it, and must be for ever inseparable from it. Ask when the first Thought sprung up, find out the Birth-Day of Truth, and then thou wilt have found out when the Essences of thy Soul first began to be. Were not the Essences of thy Soul as old, as Unbeginning, as unchangeable, as Everlasting as Truth itself, Truth would be at the same Distance from Thee, as absolutely unfit for Thee, as utterly unable to have any Communion with Thee, as to be the Food of a Worm.

The Ox could not feed upon the Grass, or received any Delight or Nourishment from it, unless Grass and the Ox had one and the same Earthly Nature and Origin: Thy Mind could receive no Truth, feel no Delight and Satisfaction in the Certainty, Beauty, and Harmony of it, unless Truth and the Mind stood both in the same Place, had one and the same unchangeable Nature, Unbeginning Original. If there will come a Time when Thought itself shall cease, when all the Relations and Connections of Truth shall be untied, then, but not till then, shall the Knot or Band of thy Soul's Life be unloosed. It is a Spark of the Deity, and therefore has the Unbeginning Unending Life of God in it. It knows nothing of Youth or Age, because it is born Eternal. It is a Life that must burn for ever, either as a Flame of Light and Love in the Glory of the Divine Majesty, or as a miserable Fireband in that God, which is a Consuming Fire.

9. It is impossible that this World, in the State and Condition it is now in, should have been an immediate and Original Creation of God : This is as impossible, as that God should create Evil, either Natural or Moral. That this World hath Evil in all its Parts, that its Matter is in a corrupt, disordered State, full of Grossness, Disease, Impurity, Wrath, Death, and Darkness, is as evident, as that there is Light, Beauty, Order, and Harmony, every where to be found in it. Therefore it is as impossible that this outward State and Condition of Things should be a first and immediate Work of God, as that there should be Good and Evil in God Himself. All Storms and Tempests, every Fierceness of Heat, every Wrath of Cold, prove with the same Certainty that outward Nature is not a first Work of God, as the Selfishness, Envy, Pride, Wrath, and Malice of Devils and Men prove, that they are not in the first State of their Creation. As no Kind or Degree of Moral Evil could possibly have its Cause in or from God, so there cannot be the least Shadow of Imperfection and Disorder in outward Nature, but what must have sprung up in the same manner, and from the same Causes, as Sickness and Corrupt Flesh are come into the Human Body, namely, from the Sin of the Creature. Storms, Tempests, Gravel, Stone, four and dead Earth are the same Things, the same Diseases, the same Effects of Sin, produced in the same manner in the outward Body of Nature, as corrupt Flesh, Fevers, Dropsies, Plagues, Gravel, Stone, and Gout, are produced in the outward Body of Man. For That, and That only, which produces Stone in the Body of Man, did produce Stone in the outward Nature, as shall plainly appear by and by. For Nature within and without Man is one and the same, and has but one and the same way of Working; a Stone in the Body, and a Stone out of the Body of Man, proceeds from one and the same Disorder of Nature.

When therefore you see a diseased, gouty, leprous, asthmatical, scorbutick Man, you can with the utmost Certainty say, this is not that Human Body which God first created in Paradise; so when you see the Disorders of Heat and Cold, the poisonous Earth, unfruitful Seasons, and malignant Qualities of outward Nature, you can with the same Certainty affirm, this State of Nature is not a first Creation of God, but that same must have happened to it, which has happened to the Body of Man. For dark, sour, hard, dead Earth, can no more be a first, immediate Creation of God, than a Wrathful Devil, as such, can be created by Him.

For

For dark, four, dead Earth is as disordered in its kind, as the Devils are, and has as certainly lost its first heavenly Condition and Nature, as the Devils have lost theirs. But now, as in Man, the little World, there is Excellency and Perfection enough to prove, that Human Nature is the Work of an all-perfect Being, yet so much Impurity and Disease of corrupt Flesh and Blood, as undeniably shews that, Sin has almost quite spoiled the Work of God ; so, in the great World, the Footsteps of an infinite Wisdom in the Order and Harmony of the Whole sufficiently appear, yet the Disorders, Tumults, and Evils of Nature, plainly demonstrate that the present Condition of this World is only the Remains or Ruins, first, of a Heaven spoiled by the Fall of Angels, and then of a Paradise lost by the Sin of Man. So that Man and the World in which He lives lie both in the same State of Disorder and Impurity, have both the same Marks of Life and Death in them, both bring forth the same sort of Evils, both want a Redeemer, and have need of the same kind of Death, and Resurrection, before they can come to their first State of Purity and Perfection.

10. That this outward World was not created out of Nothing, is plainly taught by St. Paul, who declares, Rom i. 20. that the Creation of the World is out of the Invisible Things of God; so that the outward Condition and Frame of Visible Nature is a plain Manifestation of that Spiritual World from whence it is descended. For as every Outside necessarily supposes an In-side, and as temporal Light and Darkness must be the Product of Eternal Light and Darkness, so this outward visible State of Things necessarily supposes some inward invisible State, from whence it is come into this Degree of Outwardness. Thus all that is on Earth is only a Change or Alteration of something that was in Heaven: And Heaven itself is Nothing else but the first glorious Out-birth, the Majestick Manifestation, the beatific Visibility, of the One God in Trinity. And thus we find out how this temporal Nature is related to God; it is only a gross Out-birth of that which is an Eternal Nature, or a blessed Heaven, and stands only in such a Degree of Distance from it, as Water does to Air; and this is the Reason why the last Fire will, and must turn this gross Temporal Nature into its first heavenly State. But to suppose the gross Matter of this World to be made out of Nothing, or to be a Grossness that has proceeded from Nothing, or compacted Nothing, is more

absurd than to suppose Ice that has congealed Nothing, a Yard that is not made up of Inches, or a Pound that is not the Product of Ounces.

II. And indeed to suppose this, or any other material World, to be made out of Nothing, has all the same Absurdities in it, as the supposing Angels and Spirits to be created out of Nothing.

All the Qualities of all Beings are Eternal; no real Quality or Power can appear in any Creature, but what has its eternal Root or generating Cause in the Creator. If a Quality could begin to be in a Creature, which did not always exist in the Creator, it would be no Absurdity to say, that a Thing might begin to be without any Cause either of its Beginning or Being. All Qualities, Properties, or what ever can be affirmed of God, are self-existent, and necessary existent. Self and necessary Existence is not a particular Attribute of God, but is the general Nature of every Thing that can be affirmed of God. All Qualities and Properties are self-existent in God: Now, they cannot change their Nature when they are derived, or formed into Creatures, but must have the same Self-Birth, and necessary Existence in the Creature, which they had in the Creator. The Creature begins to be, when, and as it pleased

God ; but the Qualities which are become Creaturely, and which constitute the Creature, are self-existent, just as the same Qualities are in God. Thus, Thinking, Willing, and Desire, can have no outward Maker ; their Maker is in themselves, they are self-existent Powers wherever they are, whether in God, or in the Creature, and as they form themselves in God, so they form themselves in the Creature. But now if no Quality can begin to be, if all the Qualities and Powers of Creatures must be eternal and necessary existent in God before they can have any Existence in any Creature, then it undeniably follows, that every created Thing must have its whole Nature from and out of the Divine Nature.

All Qualities are not only good but infinitely perfect as they are in God ; and it is absolutely impossible that they should have any Evil or Defect in them, as they are in the One God, who is the great and Universal All. Because where all Properties are there must necessarily be an all possible Perfection ; and that by an absolute Necessity be always all Perfect. But the same Qualities, thus infinitely good and perfect in God, may become imperfect and evil in the Creature ; because in the Creature, being limited and finite, they may be divided and separated from one another by the Creature itself. Thus Strength and Fire in the Divine Nature are Nothing else but the Strength and Flame of Love, and never can be any thing else; but in the Creature, Strength and Fire may be separated from Love, and then they are become an Evil; they are Wrath, and Darkness, and all Mischief: And thus that same Strength and Quality, which in Creatures making a right Use of their own Will, or Self-motion, becomes their Goodness and Perfection, does in Creatures making a wrong Use of their Will become their evil and mischievous Nature: And it is a Truth that deserves well to be considered, that there is no Goodness in any Creature, from the highest to the lowest, but in its continuing to be such an Union of Qualities and Powers, as God has brought together in its Creation.

In the highest Order of created Beings this is their standing in their first Perfection, this is their Fulfilling the whole Will or Law of God, this is their Piety, their Song of Praise, their Eternal Adoration of their great Creator. On the other hand, there is no Evil, no Guilt, no Deformity in any Creature, but in its dividing and separating itself from something which God had given to be in Union with it. This, and This alone, is the Whole Nature of all Good,

Good, and all Evil in the Creature, both in the moral and natural World, in Spiritual and Material Things. For Instance, Dark fiery Wrath in the Soul, is not only very like, but it is the very self-same Thing in the Soul, which a Wrathful Poison is in the Flesh. Now the Qualities of Poison are in themselves, all of them, good Qualities, and necessary to every Life; but they are become a Poisonous Evil, because they are separated from some other Qualities. Thus also the Qualities of Fire and Strength, that constitute an Evil Wrath in the Soul, are in themselves very good Qualities, and necessary to every good Life; but they are become an evil Wrath, because separated from some other Qualities with which they should be united.

The Qualities of the Devil and all fallen Angels are good Qualities; they are the very same which they received from their infinitely perfect Creator, the very same which are and must be in all heavenly Angels; but they are an hellish abominable Malignity in them now, because they have, by their own Self-motion, separated them from the Light and Love which should have kept them glorious Angels.

And here may be seen at once, in the clearest Light, the true Origin of all Evil in the Creation, without the least Imputation upon

the Creator. God could not possibly create a Creature to be an infinite All, like Himself: God could not bring any Creature into Existence, but by deriving into it the self-existent, self-generating, self-moving Qualities of his own Nature: For the Qualities must be in the Creature that which they were in the Creator, only in a State of Limitation; and therefore, every Creature must be finite, and must have a Self-motion, and so must be capable of moving right and wrong, of uniting or dividing from what it will, or of falling from that State in which it ought to stand: But as every Quality, in every Creature, both within and without itself, is equally good, and equally necessary to the Perfection of the Creature, since there is nothing that is evil in it, nor can become evil to the Creature, but from itself, by its separating That from itself with which it can and ought to be united, it plainly follows, that Evil can no more be charged upon God, than Darkness can be charged upon the Sun; because every Quality is equally good, every Quality of Fire is as good as every Quality of Light, and only becomes an Evil to that Creature, who, by his own Self-motion, has separated Fire from the Light in his own Nature.

12. If a delicious fragrant Fruit had a Power of separating itself from that rich Spirit, fine Taste, Smell, and Colour, which it receives from the Virtue of the Sun, and the Spirit of the Air; or if it could in the Beginning of its Growth turn away from the Sun, and receive no Virtue from it, then it would stand in its own first Birth of Wrath, Sourness, Bitterness; and Astringency, just as the Devils do, who have turned back into their own dark Root, and rejected the Light and Spirit of God: So that the hellish Nature of a Devil is Nothing else but its own first Forms of Life, withdrawn, or separated from the heavenly Light and Love; just as the Sourness, Astringency, and Bitterness of a Fruit, are Nothing else but the first Forms of its own vegetable Life, before it has reached the Virtue of the Sun, and the Spirit of the Air.

And as a Fruit, if it had a Sensibility of itself, would be full of Torment as soon as it was shut up in the first Forms of its Life, in its own Astringency, Sourness, and Stinging Bitterness, so the Angels, when they had turned back into these very same first Forms of their own Life, and broke off from the Heavenly Light and Love of God, became their own Hell. No Hell was made for them, no new Qualities came into them, no Vengeance or Pains from the God of Love fell upon them; they only stood in that State of Divisjon and Separation from the Son, and Holy Spirit of God, which by their own Motion they had made for themselves. They had nothing in them but what they had from God, the first Forms of an Heavenly Life; Nothing but what the most heavenly Beings have, and must have, to all Eternity; but they had them in a State of Self-torment, because they had separated them from that Birth of Light and Love, which alone could make them glorious Sons, and blessed Images of the Holy Trinity.

The same strong Desire, fiery Wrath, and Stinging Motion are in Holy Angels, that are in Devils, just as the same Sourness, Astringency, and biting Bitterness are in a full ripened Fruit, which were there before it received the Riches of the Light and Spirit of the Air. In a ripened Fruit, its first Sourness, Astringency, and Bitterness are not lost, nor destroyed, but become the real Cause of all its rich Spirit, fine Taste, fragrant Smell, and beautiful Colour; take away the working, contending Nature of these first Qualities, and you annihilate the Spirit, Taste, Smell, and Virtue of the Fruit, and there would be nothing left for the Sun and Spirit of the Air to enrich.

Just in the same manner, that which in a Devil is an evil Selfishness, a wrathful Fire, a Stinging Motion, is in an Holy Angel the everlasting Kindling of a divine Life, the strong Birth of an Heavenly Love, it is a real Cause of an ever-springing, ever-triumphing Joyfulness, an ever-increasing Sensibility of Bliss.

Take away the working contending Nature of these first Qualities, which in a Devil are only a Serpentine Selfishness, Wrath, Fire, and Stinging Motion; take away these, I say, from Holy Angels, and you leave them neither Light, nor Love, nor heavenly Glory, Nothing for the Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God to rise up in.

So that here you may see this glorious Truth, that the Love and Goodness of God is as plain and undeniable, in having given to the fallen Angels those very Qualities and Powers which are now their Hell, as in giving the first Sourness, Astringency, and Bitterness to Fruits, which alone make them capable of their delicious Spirit, Taste, Colour, and Smell.

13. And thus you see the uniform Life of all the Creatures of God; how they are all raised, enriched, and blessed by the same Life of God, derived into different Kingdoms of Creatures. For the Beginnings and Progress of a perfect Life in Fruits, and the Beginnings and Progress of a perfect Life in Angels, are not only like to one another, but are the very same Thing, or the working of the very same Qualities, only in different Kingdoms. Astringency in a Fruit is the very same Quality, and does the same Work in a Fruit, that attracting Desire does in a Spiritual Being; it is the same Beginner, Former, and Supporter of a Creaturely Life in the one as in the other. No Creature in Heaven, or Earth, can begin to be, but by this Astringency, or Desire, being made the Ground of it: And yet this Astringency, kept from the Virtue of the Sun, can only produce a poisonous Fruit, and this astringent Desire in an Angel, turned from the Light of God, can only make a Devil. The biting stinging Bitterness of a Fruit, if you could add Thought to it, would be the very gnawing Envy of the Devil: And the envious Motion in the Devil's Nature, would be Nothing else but that Stinging Bitterness which is in a Fruit, if you could take Thought from the Devil's Motion.

14. From this Attraction, Astringency, or Desire, which is one and the same Quality in every individual Thing, which is the first Form of Being and Life, the very Ground of every Creature, from the highest Angel to the lowest Vegetable, we are led by an unerring Thread to the first Desire, or that Desire which is in the Divine Nature. For as this Attraction, or astringent Desire, is in Spiritual and corporeal Things one and the same Quality, working in the same Manner, so is it one and the same Quality with that first unbeginning Desire, which is in the Divine Nature.

That there is an attracting Desire in the Divine Nature is undeniable, because Attraction is essential to all Bodies; and Desire, which is the same Quality, is absolutely inseparable from all intelligible Beings; therefore, that which is necessarily existent in the Creature, upon the Supposition of its Creation, must necessarily be in the Creator, because no inherent operative Quality can be in the Creature, unless the same kind of Quality had always been in the Creator: Therefore Attraction or Desire, which are inseparable from every created Being and Life, are only various Participations of the Divine Desire, or Emanations from it, formed into different Kingdoms of Creatures, and working in all of them according to their respective Natures.

In Vegetables it is that Attraction, or Desire, which brings every growing Thing to its highest Perfection: In Angels it is that blessed Hunger, by which they are filled with the Divine Nature: In Devils it is turned into that Serpentine Selfishness, or crooked Desire, which makes them a Hell and Torment to themselves.

15. On the other hand, as we thus prove a posteriori, from a View of the Creature, that there must be an attracting Desire in the Divine Nature, so we can prove a priori also, from a Consideration of God, that there must be an attracting Desire in every Thing that ever was or can be created by God: For nothing can come into Being, but because God wills and desires it; therefore the Desire of God is the Creator, the Original of every Thing. The Creating Will, or Desire of God, is not a distant, or separate Thing, as when a Man wills or desires something to be done, or removed at a Distance from him; but it is an Omnipresent working Will and Desire, which is itself, the Beginning and Forming of the Thing desired. Our own Will, and desirous Imagination, when they work and create in us a settled Aversion, or fixed Love of any thing, resemble in some Degree the Creating Power of God, which makes Things out of itself, or its own working Desire. And our Will and working Imagination could not have the Power that it has now even after the Fall, but because it is a Product, or Spark of that first Divine Will or Desire which is omnipotent.

16. Here therefore we have plainly found the true Original, or first Source of all Things, The Desire in God is the first Former, Generator, and Creator of all Things; they are all the Births of this omnipotent working Desire; for every Thing that comes into Being must have the Nature of that Power that formed it, and therefore the Nature of every Creature must stand in an attractive Desire, that is, every Thing must be a Created attractive Power; because it is the Birth or Product of a Desire, or attractive Power, and could neither come into, nor continue in Being, but because it was generated not only by, but out of an attracting Desire. And herein lies the Band or Knot of all created Being and Life.

17. Will or Desire in the Deity is justly considered as God the Father, who from Eternity to Eternity wills or generates only the Son, from which eternal Generating the Holy Spirit eternally proceeds: And this is the infinite Perfection

Perfection or Fullness of Beatitude of the Life of the Tri-une God.

Now as the unbeginning eternal Desire is in God, so is the created Desire in the Creature; it stands in the same Tendency, hath the Nature of the Divine Desire, because it is a Branch out of it or created from it. In the Deity the Eternal Will or Desire is a Desiring or Generating the Son, whence the Holy Spirit proceeds; the Desire that is come out of God into the Form of a Creature has the same Tendency, it is a Desire of the Son and Holy Spirit. And every created Thing in Heaven and Earth attains its Perfection by its Gaining, in some Degree, the Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God in it: For all Attraction and Desire in the Creature generates in them as it did in God; and so the Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God arises, in some Degree or other, in all Creatures that are in their proper State of Perfection.

18. And here lies the Ground of that plain and most fundamental Doctrine of Scripture, that the Father is the Creator, the Son the Re-generator, and the Holy Spirit the Sanctifier. For what is this but saying in the plainest manner, that as there are Three in God, so there must be Three in the Creature, that as the Three stand related to one another in God, so they must stand in the same Relation in the Creature. For if a threefold Life of God must have distinct Shares in the Creation, Blessing, and Perfection of Man, is not a Demonstration, that the Life of Man must stand in the same threefold State, and have such a Trinity in it, as has its true Likeness to that Trinity which is in God?

That which generates in God must generate in the Creature; and that which is generated in God must be generated in the Creature; and that which proceeds from this Generation in the Deity must proceed from this Generation in the Creature: And therefore the same threefold Life must be in the Creature in the same manner as it is in God. For a Creature that can only exist, and be blessed by the distinct Operation of a Tri-une God upon it, must have the same Tri-une Nature that is answerable to it. And herein lies our true, and easy, and found, and edifying Knowledge and Belief of the Mystery of a Trinity in Unity: And this is all that the Scripture teaches us concerning it. It is not a Doctrine that requires learned or nice Speculations in order to be rightly apprehended by us. But when with the Scriptures we believe the Father to be our Creator,

Creator, the Son our Regenerator, and the Holy Spirit the Sanctifier, then we are learned enough in this Mystery, and begin to know the Tri-une God in the same Manner in Time that we shall know him in Eternity.

And the Reason why this great Mystery of a Trinity in the Deity is thus revealed to us, and the Necessity of a Baptism in the Name of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, laid upon us, is this; it is to shew us, that the Divine Tri-une Life of God is lost in us, and that nothing less than a Birth from the Son and Holy Spirit of God in us can restore us to our first Likeness to that Tri-une God, who at first created us. This I have fully shewn in the little Treatise upon Regeneration.

19. When Man was created in his Original Perfection, the Holy Trinity was his Creator; the Breath of Lives, which became a Living Soul, was the Breath of the Tri-une God: But when Man began to will and desire, that is, to generate contrary to the Deity, then the Life of the Tri-une God extinguished in him.

The Desire in Man being turned from God lost the Birth of the Son, and the Proceeding of the Holy Spirit, and so fell into, or under the Light and Spirit of this World: That is, of a Paradical Man, enjoying Union and Communion with Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and living on Earth in such Enjoyment of God as the Angels live in Heaven, he became an Earthly Creature, subject to the Dominion of this outward World, capable of all its evil Influences, subject to its Vanity and Mortality, and as to his outward Life stood only in the highest Rank of Animals. This, and This alone, is the true Nature and Degree of the Fall of Man; it was neither more nor less than this. It was a Falling out of one World or Kingdom into another, it was changing the Life, Light, and Spirit of God, for the Light and Spirit of this World. Thus it was that Adam died the very Day of his Transgression, he died to all the Influences and Operations of the Kingdom of God upon him, as we die to the Influences of this World when the Soul leaves the Body; and on the other hand, all the Influences, Operations, and Powers of the Elements of this Life became opened in him, as they are in every Animal at its Birth into this World.

All other Accounts of that Fall, which only suppose the Loss of some Moral Perfection, or Natural Acuteness of his Rational Powers, are not only senseless Fictions, but are an express Denial of the Old and New Testament Account count of it ; for the Old Testament expressly says, that Adam was to die the Day of his Transgression, and therefore it is certain, that He then did die, and that the Fall was his losing his first Life : And to say that he did not die to that first Life in which he was created, is the same Denial of Scripture, as to say, that he did not eat of the forbidden Tree.

Again, the same Scripture assures us, that after the Fall his Eyes were opened ; I suppose this is a Proof, that before the Fall they were shut. And what is this but saying in the plainest manner, that before the Fall the Life, Light, and Spirit of this World, were shut out of him, and that the Opening of his Eyes was only another way of saying, that the Life and Light of this World were opened in him ?

If an Angel, or any Inhabitant of Heaven, was to be sent on a Message into this World, it must be supposed, that neither the Darkness, nor Light of this World, could act according to their Nature upon him ; and therefore though he was here, he must be said not to have the opened Eyes of this World : But if this Heavenly Messenger should be taken with our Manner of Life, should be in Doubts about returning to Heaven, and long to have such Flesh and Blood as ours is, as earnestly as

Adam longed to eat of the earthly Tree, and if by this Longing, he should actually obtain that which he desired, must it not then be said of him, when he had got this new Nature, his Eyes were opened to see Light and Darkness; and that only for this Reason, because the Heavenly Life was departed from him, and the Earthly Life of this World were opened in Him? And thus it was that Adam died, and thus his Eyes were opened.

Again, when his Eyes were thus opened, or the Light and Life of this World thus opened in him, he was immediately ashamed and shocked at the Sight of his own Body, and wanted to hide it from himself, and from the Sight of the Sun. Now, how could this have happened to him, if his Body had not undergone some very extraordinary Change, from a State of Glory and Perfection to a lamentable Degree of Vileness and Impurity?

All the Terror at his fallen State seems to arise from the sad Condition, in which he saw and felt his outward Body. This made him ashamed of himself; this made him tremble at hearing the Voice of God; this made him creep behind the Trees, and endeavour to hide and cover his Body with Leaves.

And is not all this the same Thing, as if Adam

Adam had said, All my Sin, my Guilt, my Misery, and Shame, are published before Heaven and Earth, by this sad State and Condition in which my Body now appears.

But now, what was this sad State and Condition of his Body? What did Adam see in the Manner and Form of it that filled him with such Confusion? Why, he only saw that he was fallen from his Paradisical Glory to have the same gross Flesh and Blood as the Beasts and Animals of this World have; which was to bring forth an Offspring in the same earthly Manner as they did. He could see, and be ashamed of no other Deformity in his Body, but that which he had in common with the Animals of this World; and therefore there was nothing else in his outward Form that He could be ashamed of; and yet it was his outward Form that filled him with Confusion. And is not this the greatest of all Proofs, that before his Fall his Body had not this Nature and Condition of the Beasts in it? Is it not the same Thing, as if he had said, This Body which now makes me ashamed, and which I want to hide, though it be only with thin Leaves, because it brings me down amongst the Animals of this World, is not that first Body of Glory into which God at first breathed the Breath of Lives, and in which I became a Living Soul.

Again, if Adam's Body had been of the same kind of Flesh and Blood as ours is now, only in a better State of Health and Vigour, how could he have been created Immortal? If he was not created Immortal, how can it be said, that Sin alone brought Mortality or Death into Human Nature? But if he had Immortality in his first created State, then he must have such a Body as none of the Elements, or Elementary Things of this World, could act upon; for there is no Death in any Creature of this-World, but what is brought upon it by that Strife and Destruction which the four Elements bring up on one another. But if Sin alone gave the Elements, and all Elementary Things their first Power of acting upon the Body of Adam, then it is plain, that before his Sin he had not, could not have, a Body of such Flesh and Blood as we now have, but that he stood, as to the State, Nature, and Condition of his outward Body, at as great a Distance and Difference from the Animals of this World, as Heaven does from Earth, and was created with Flesh and Blood as much exalted above, and superior to the Nature and Power of all the Elements, as the Beasts of this World are under them.

And

And herein plainly appears the true Sense of that saying, God made not Death, that is, he made not That which is mortal, or dying in the Human Nature, but Sin alone formed and produced That in Man, which could and must die like the Bodies of Beasts. Death, and the Grave, and the Resurrection, are all three standing Proofs, that the Body of bestial Flesh and Blood, which we now have, at the Sight of which Adam was ashamed, which must die, which can rot in the Grave, which must not be seen after the Resurrection, was not that first Body in which Adam appeared before God in Paradise: For if it is an undeniable Truth of Scripture, that this Flesh and Blood cannot enter into the Kingdom of God; it must be a Truth of the same Certainty, that this Flesh and Blood could not by God Himself be brought into Paradise, but that it must have the same Original with every other polluted Thing that is an Abomination in his Sight, or incapable of entering into the Kingdom of God.

20. That the Gospel also plainly shews, that Man was created in the Dignity and glorious Enjoyment of the Tri-une Life of God, and that his Fall was a falling into the earthly Life of the Light and Spirit of this World, I have sufficiently proved from the greatest Articles of our Christian Faith, concerning the Necessity, Nature, and Manner of our Redemption, in the Book of Christian Regeneration. I have there shewn, that Baptism in the Name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, signifies Nothing but our being born again into this Tri-une Life of God.—That the Necessity of being born again of the Word or Son of God, of being born of the Spirit, or receiving Him as a Sanctifier of our new raised Nature, plainly proves that what we lost by the Fall was this Tri-une Life of God: He that denies this, denies the whole of the Christian Redemption*.

21. It has been already observed, that when Man was created in his Original Perfection the Holy Trinity was his Creator; but when Man was fallen, or had lost his first Divine Life, then there began a new Language of a Redeeming Religion. Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, were now to be considered, not as creating every Man as they created the First, but as differently concerned in raising the fallen Race of Mankind to that first Likeness of the Holy Trinity, in which their first Father was created: Hence it is, that the Scriptures speak of the Father as Drawing and Calling Men, because because the Desire, which is from the Father's Nature, must be the first Mover, Stirrer, and Beginner. This Desire must be moved and brought into an anguishing State, and have the Agitation of a Fire that is kindling; and then Men are truly drawn by the Father.

The Son of God is now considered as the Regenerator or Raiser of a new Birth in us, because he enters a second Time into the Life of the Soul, that his own Nature and Likeness may be again generated in it, and that he may be That to the Soul in its State, which he is to the Father in the Deity.

The Holy Ghost is represented as the Sanc-tifier, or Finisher of the Divine Life restored in us, because as in the Deity the Holy Ghost proceeds from the Father and the Son, as the amiable blessed Finisher of the Tri-une Life of God; so the fallen Nature of Man cannot be raised out of its unholy State, cannot be blessed and sanctified with its true Degree of the Divine Life, till the Holy Spirit arises up in it.

Since then the Tri-une God, or the three Persons in the one God, must have this Difference of Shares, must reach out this different Help to the Raising up of fallen Man, it is undeniable, that the first created Man stood in the Image and real Likeness of the one God; not only representing, but really having in his Birth and Life, the Birth and Life of the Holy Trinity. God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, had such a Unity in Trinity in Man, as they had in the Deity itself: How else could Man be the Image and Likeness of the Holy Trinity, if it was not such a Birth in Man, as it was in itself? Or, how could the Holy Trinity dwell and operate in Man, each Person according to its respective Nature, unless there was the same threefold Life in Man as there is in God? How could the Holy Trinity be an Object of Man's Worship and Adoration, if the Holy Trinity had not produced itself in Man? The Creature is only to own and worship its Creator; therefore Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, must have each of them their Creaturely Offspring, or Product in Man, if Man is to worship Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. If therefore you deny Angels, and the Souls of perfect Men, to have the tri-une Nature, or Life of God in them, if you deny that Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, have such Union and Relation in the Soul, as they have out of it, you are guilty of as great Heresy and Apostacy from the Gospel, as if you denied the Father to be the Creator, or Him that
in

calletb and draweth, the Son to be the Redeemer, or Him that regenerates, and the Holy Spirit to be Him that sanctifieth Human Nature.

22. Again : Consider this great Truth which will much illustrate this Matter ; you can be an Inhabitant of no World, or a Partaker of its Life, but by its being inwardly the Birth of your own Life, or by having the Nature and Condition of that World born in you. As thus, Hell must be inwardly born in the Soul, it must arise up within it, as it does without it, before the Soul can become an Inhabitant of it.

Again : That which is the Life of this outward World, viz. its Fire, and Light, and Air, must have such a State and Birth within you, as they have without you, before you can be an Inhabitant or Partaker of the Life of this World ; that is, Fire must be in you, must be the same Fire, have the same Place and Nature within you, have the same Relation to the Light and Air that is within you, as it has without you, or else the Fire of the outward World cannot keep up, or have any Communion with your own Life.

The Light of this World can signify nothing to you, cannot reach or enrich you with its Powers

Powers and Virtues, if the same Light is not arisen in the same Manner in the kindling of your own Life, as it arises in the outward World.

The Air also of this World can do you no Good, can be no Blower up and Preserver of your Life, but because it has the same Birth in you that it has in an outward Nature. And therefore it must be a Truth of the greatest Certainty, that so it must of all Necessity be with respect to the Kingdom of God, or that Life which is to be had in the Beatifick Presence of God; it must, by an absolute Necessity, have the same Birth within you as it has without you, before you can enter into it, or become an Inhabitant of it: If you are to live, and be eternally blessed in the tri-une Life or Beatifick Presence of God, that Tri-une Life must, of the utmost Necessity, first make itself creaturely in you; it must be and arise in you, as it does without you, before you can possibly enter into any Communion with it.

Now is there any Thing more plain and Scriptural, more easy to be conceived, more pious to be believed, and more impossible to be denied, than all this? And yet this is all that I have said in two Propositions in the Treatise upon

upon Christian Regeneration: It is there said, “ Man was created by God after his own Image,
 “ and in his own Likeness, a Living Mirror of “ the Divine Nature, where Father, Son, and “ Holy Ghost, each brought forth their own “ Nature in a Creaturely Manner.” Now what is this but saying, That the Holy Trinity brought forth a Creature in its own Likeness, standing in a creaturely Birth of the divine Tri-une Life? If it did not stand thus, how could it have a Likeness of the Holy Trinity? Or how could it have its Form or Crea- tion from the Holy Trinity? Or how could it, without this Tri-une Life in itself, enter into, or be a Partaker of the Tri-une Life or Presence of God? In the next Proposition it is said;
 “ In it, that is, in this created Image of the “ Holy Trinity, the Father’s Nature genera“ ted the Divine Word, or Son of God, and “ the Holy Ghost proceeded from them both
 “ as an amiable moving Life of both. This “ was the Likeness or Image of God, in which “ the first Man was created, a true Offspring
 “ of God, in whom the Divine Birth sprung “ up as in the Deity, where Father, Son, and

Now what is this but saying, in the plainest Manner, only thus much, that the tri-une, creaturely Life stood in the same Birth and Generation of its threefold Life, as the Deity does, whose Image, Likeness, and Offspring it is? And can it possibly be otherwise? For if the Creature cometh from the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, as their created Image and Likeness, must not That which it hath from the Father be of the Nature of the Father, That which it hath from the Son be of the Nature of the Son, and That which it hath from the Holy Ghost be of the Nature of the Holy Ghost? And must they not therefore stand in the Creature in such Relation to one another, as they do in the Creator? If it is the Nature of the Father to generate, if it is the Nature of the Son to be generated, if it is the Nature of the Holy Ghost to proceed from both, must not That which you have from the Father generate in you, That which you have from the Son be generated in you, and that which you have from the Holy Ghost proceed from both in you? All which is only saying this plain and obvious Truth, that That Being, or created Life, which you have from Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, must stand in such a tri-une Relation within you as it does without you; that having this threefold Likeness of God, you may be capable of entering into an Enjoyment of his tri-une, beatifick Life or Presence.

For, consider again this Instance, with regard to the Life of this World. The Fire, and Light, and Air of outward Nature must become creaturely in you; that is, you must have a Fire that is your own creaturely Fire, you must have a Light that is generated by or from your own Fire, a Breath that proceeds from your own Fire, and Light, as the Air of outward Nature proceeds from its Fire and Light: You must have all this Nature and Birth of Fire, and Light, and Air, in your own creaturely Being, or you cannot possibly live in, or have a Life from the Fire, and Light, and Air of outward Nature: No Omnipotence can make you a Partaker of the Life of this outward World, without having the Life of this outward World born in your own creaturely Being. And therefore no Omnipotence can make you a Partaker of the Beatifick Life or Presence of the Holy Trinity, unless that Life stands in the same tri-une State within you, as it does without you.

The Nature of this World must become creaturely in you, before you can live, or have a Share in the Life of this World; the tri-une Nature of God must breathe forth itself to stand creaturely in you, before you can live, or have a Share in the Beatifick Life or Presence of the Tri-une God.

Now is not all this strictly according to the very outward Letter, and inward Truth of the most important Articles of the Christian Religion? For what else can be meant by the Necessity of our being born again of the Word, or Son of God, being born of the Spirit of God, in order to our Entrance into the Kingdom of Heaven? Is not this saying, that the Tri-une Life of God must first have its Birth in us, before we can enter into the tri-une, beatifick Life, or Presence of God? What else is taught us by that new Birth sought for by a Baptism, in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost? Does it not plainly tell us, that the Tri-une Nature of the Deity is That which wants to be born in us, and that our Redemption consists in Nothing else but in the Bringing forth this new Birth in us, and that, being thus born again in the Likeness of the Holy Trinity, we may be capable of its three-fold Blessing and Happiness? The New Testament tells us of the Impossibility of our being redeemed but by the Son of God, of the Impossibility of our being made holy but by the Holy Spirit of God: Now how could we want any distinct Thing particularly from the Son of God, any distinct Thing particularly from the Holy Ghost, in order to raise and repair our fallen Nature; how could this Particularity be thus absolutely necessary, but because the holy threefold Life of the Deity must stand within us, in the Birth of our own Life, as it does without us, that so we may be capable of living in God, and God in us.

Search to Eternity, why no Devil or Beast can possibly be a Partaker of the Kingdom of Heaven, and there can only this one Reason be assigned for it, because neither of them have the Tri-une Holy Life of God in them: For every created Thing does, and must, and can only want, seek, unite with, and enjoy That outwardly, which is of the same Nature with itself. Remove a Devil where you will, he is still in Hell, and always at the same Distance from Heaven; he can touch, or taste, or reach Nothing but what is in Hell. Carry a Beast where you please, either to Court, or to Church, he is yet at the same infinite Distance from the Joys and Fears either of Church, or Court, as the Beasts that never saw any Thing else but their own Kind: and all this is grounded solely on this Eternal Truth, namely, That no Being can rise higher than its own Life reaches. The Circle of the Birth of Life in every Creature is its necessary Circumference, and it cannot possibly reach any farther; and therefore it is a joyful Truth, that Beings created to worship and adore the Holy Trinity, and to enter into the beatifick Life and Presence of the Tri-une God, must of all Necessity have the same Tri-une Life in their own Creaturely Being. And now, what can be so glorious, so edifying, so ravishing, as this Knowledge of God and ourselves? The very Thought of our standing in this Likeness and Relation to the Infinite Creator and Being of all Beings is enough to kindle the Divine Life within us, and melt us into a continual Love and Adoration: For how can we enough love and adore that Holy Trinity which has created us in its own Likeness, that we might live in an Eternal Union and Communion with it? Will any one call this an irreverend Familiarity, or bold Looking into the Holy Trinity, which is nothing else but a thankful Adoration of it, as our Glorious Father and Creator? It is our best and only Acknowledgment of the greatest Truths of the Holy Scriptures; it is the Scripture Doctrine of the Trinity kept in its own Simplicity,

Simplicity, separated from Scholastick Speculations, where the three in God are only distinguished by that threefold Share that they have in the Creation and Redemption of Man. When we thus know the Trinity in ourselves, and adore its high Original in the Deity, we are possessed of a Truth of the greatest Moment, that enlightens the Mind with the most solid and edifying Knowledge, and opens to us the fullest Understanding of all that concerns the Creation, Fall, and Redemption of Man.

Without this Knowledge, all the Scripture will be used as a dead Letter, and formed only into a figurative, historical System of Things, that has no Ground in Nature: And learned Divines can only be learned in the Explication of Phrases and verbal Distinctions.

The first Chapters of Genesis will be a Knot that cannot be untied; the Mysteries of the Gospel will be only called fæderal Rites, and their inward Ground reproached as enthusiastick Dreams: But when it is known, that the Tri-une Nature of God was brought forth in the Creation of Man, that it was lost in his Fall, that it is restored in his Redemption, a never-failing Light arises in all Scripture from Genesis to the Revelations. Every Thing that is said of God, as Father, Regenerator, or

Sanctifier of Man ; every Thing that is said of Jesus Christ, as Redeeming, forming, dwelling in, and quickening ; and of the Holy Spirit, as moving and sanctifying us ; every Thing that is said of the Holy Sacraments, or promised in and by them, has its deep and inward Ground fully discovered ; and the whole Christian Religion is built upon a Rock, and that Rock is Nature, and God will appear to be doing every Good to us, that the God of all Nature can possibly do. The Doctrine of the Holy Trinity is wholly practical ; it is revealed to us, to discover our high Original, and the Greatness of our Fall, to shew us the deep and profound Operation of the Tri-une God in the Recovery of the Divine Life in our Souls ; that by the Means of this Mystery thus discovered, our Piety may be rightly directed, our Faith and Prayer have their proper Objects, that the Workings and Aspirings of our own Hearts may co-operate and correspond with that Tri-une Life in the Deity, which is always desiring to manifest itself in us ; for as every Thing that is in us, whether it be Heaven, or Hell, rises up in us by a Birth, and is generated in us by the Will-spirit of our Souls, which kindles itself either in Heaven, or Hell, so this Mystery of a Tri-une Deity manifesting itself, as a Father creating, as a Son or Word regenerating, as a Holy Spirit sanctifying us, is not to entertain our Speculation with dry metaphysical Distinctions of the Deity, but to shew us from what a Height and Depth we are fallen, and to excite such a Prayer and Faith, such a Hungring and Thirsting after this Triune Fountain of all Good, as may help to generate and bring forth in us that first Image of the Holy Trinity in which we were created, and which must be born in us before we can enter into the State of the Blessed : Here we may see the Reason, why the learned World has had so many fruitless Disputes about this Mystery, and why it has been so often a Stone of Stumbling to Philosophers and Critics ; it is because they began to Reason about that, which never was proposed to their Reason, and which no more belongs to human Learning and Philosophy, than Light belongs to our Ears, or Sounds to our Eyes. No Person has any Fitness, nor any Pretence, nor any Ground from Scripture, to think, or say any Thing of the Trinity, till such Time as he stands in the State of the Penitent Returning Prodigal, weary of his own sinful shameful Nature, and desiring to renounce the World, the Flesh, and the Devil ; and then is he first permitted to be baptized into the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost: This is the first Time the Gospel teaches, or calls any one to the Acknowledgment of the Holy Trinity. Now as this Knowledge is first given in Baptism, and there only as a Signification of a Tri-une Life of the Deity, which must be regenerated in the Soul; so the Scriptures say Nothing afterwards to this Baptized Penitent concerning the Trinity, but only with Regard to Regeneration, every where only shewing him how Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, all equally divine, must draw, awaken, quicken, enlighten, move, guide, cleanse, and sanctify the new-born Christian: Is it not therefore undeniably plain, that all abstract Speculations of this Mystery, how it is in itself, how it is to be ideally conceived, or Scholastically expressed by us, are a Wandring from that true Light, in which the Trinity of God is set before us, which is only revealed as a Key, or Direction to the true Depths of that Regeneration, which is to be sought for from the Tri-une Deity? But to go on in a farther Account of the Creation.

23. Now as all Creatures, whether intellectual, animate or inanimate, are Products or Emanations of the Divine Desire, created

out of the Father, who from Eternity to Eternity generates the Son, whence the Holy Spirit eternally proceeds; so every intelligent created Being, not fallen from its State, stands in the same Birth or generating Desire, it generates in its Degree, as God the Father generates eternally the Son, and is blessed and perfected in the Divine Life by having the Holy Spirit arise up in it.

Hence it is, that those Angels which stood, and continued in the same Will and Desire in which they came out from God, willing and desiring as God from all Eternity had willed and desired, were by the Rising up of the Holy Spirit in them confirmed and established in the Divine Life, and so became eternally and inseparably united with the ever-blessed Tri-une Deity.

On the other hand, those Angels which did not keep their Will and Desire in its first created Tendency, but raised up an own Will and Desire, which own Will and Desire was their direct full chusing and desiring to be and do something, which they could not be and do in God, and is therefore properly called their aspiring to be above God, or to be without any Dependance upon him; these Angels, by thus going backwards with their Will and Desire

out of or from God and the Divine Truth, could only find or generate That which had the utmost Contrariety to God and the Divine Birth, and so became under a necessity of finding themselves in an Eternal State, Spirit, and Life that was directly contrary to all that is good, holy, amiable, blessed, and divine.

Now the Will and Desire in every Creature is generating and efficacious, strictly according to the State and Nature of that Creature*; therefore Eternal Beings, in an Eternal State, must have an Eternal Power and Efficacy in the Working of their Wills and Desires: When therefore those Angels, with all the Strength of their Eternal Desires, turned away from, and contrary to God and the Divine Birth, they could become Nothing else but Beings eternally separated and broken off from all that was God and Goodness: For Eternal Beings that stood only in an eternal State, acting with all their Vigour, not doubting, but strongly willing, could not do any thing that had only a Temporal Nature and Effect, because they stood not in such a Nature or such a World, and therefore what they willed and generated with all their Nature (which was a Contrariety to God) that became the Eternal State of their Nature.

Nature. And this is the Birth and Origin of Hellish Beings.

God had done all to them and for them that he had done to and for the Angels that stood; he had given them the same holy Beginning of their Lives, had brought them forth out of himself in the same Tendency; that which was the Nature of other Angels was theirs; he could not make any established, fixed, and unchangeable Angels, because the Life of every Thing must be a Birth; and willing Beings must have a Birth of their Wills; he could not make them fixed, because every Thing that comes from God must so come from him, as it was in him, a self-existent and self-moving Power, and therefore no Goodness of God could hinder their having a Self-motion, because they were, and could be Nothing else but Creatures brought forth by, and out of his own self-existent and self-moving Nature.

God is all Good, and every Thing that comes out from him, as his Creature, Product, or Offspring, must come forth in that State of Goodness which it had in Him; and every Creature, however high in its Birth from God, must in the Beginning of its Life have a Power of joining with or departing from God, because the Beginning of its Life is nothing else else but the Beginning of its own Self-motion as a Creature; and therefore no Creature can have its State or Condition fixed, till it gives itself up either wholly unto God, or turns wholly from him; for if it is an Intelligent Creature, it can only be so, by having the Intelligent Will of God derived into it, or made creaturely in it; but the Intelligent Will brought into a creaturely Form must be That which it was in the Creator, and therefore must be the same self-existent and self-moving Power that it was before it became creaturely in any Angel or Spirit. And thus the Cause and Origin of Evil where-ever it is, is absolutely and eternally separated from God.

24. Again: As all Intelligent Beings can no way attain their Happiness and Perfection, but by standing with their Will and Desire united to God, in the same Tendency in which the Father eternally generateth the Son, from whence the Holy Spirit proceedeth as the Finisher of the tri-une beatifick Life, so the same Thing is manifestly proved to us by the lowest kind of Beings that are in this visible World; for all Vegetables, by their Attraction or Astringency, which is their Desire, and it is an Out-birth of the Divine Desire, reach their utmost Perfection by the same Progress, that is, by getting a Birth of the Light and Spirit of this outward World into them, and so become infallible though remote Proofs, that no Life can be brought to its proper Perfection in the Creature, till the Image of the Tri-une Life of God is, according to the State and Capacity of the Creature, formed in it: Look where you will, every Thing proclaims and proves this great Truth. The Christian Doctrine of the Salvation of Mankind by a Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God in them, is not only written in Scripture, but in the whole State and Frame of Nature, and of every Life in this World; for every perfect Fruit openly declares, that it can have no Goodness in it, till the Light and Spirit of this World has done that to it and in it, which the Light and Spirit of God must do to the Soul of Man, and therefore is a full Proof, that it is as absolutely necessary for every Human Creature to desire, believe, and receive the Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God to save it from its own Wrath and Darkness, as it is necessary for every Fruit of the Earth to be raised and regenerated from its own Bitterness and Sourness, by receiving the Light and Spirit of this World into it.

25. Some Learned Men, willing to discover the Image of the Holy Trinity in the Creation, ation, have observed three Properties both in Body and Spirit, which they supposed to be a proper Likeness of the Trinity. But all this is Nothing to the Matter.

For as the Holy Trinity is a threefold Life in God, so the Image of the Trinity is only found in a threefold Life in the Creature; for it is the whole Birth, or Generation of the Thing itself, whether it be corporeal or spiritual, that stands in such a threefold State as the Holy Trinity doth, that is the proper Likeness or Image of the Trinity. As there is one infinitely perfect Deity, because this one Deity is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, so every Creature that is an original Production of the Deity, or in its proper State of Perfection, stands in its whole Being or generating as the Deity doth, and neither hath, or ever can have any Perfection, but because the Tri-une Nature of God is manifested and brought forth in it; for Perfection of Life in God, and a Perfection of Life derived from God, must stand in the same threefold State; and that which is a Life from the Deity must have a Life of the Trinity in it.

26. Take away Attraction or Desire from the Creature of this World, and you annihilate the Creature; for where there is no
Attraction

Attraction or Desire, there can be no Nature or Being ; and therefore Attraction or Desire shews the Work of the Creator in every Thing, or what is meant by the divine Fiat, or Creating Power. Now what is it which this Attraction or Desire wants, hungers, draws, and reaches after ? Nothing else but the Light and Spirit of this World. What is the true, deep, and infallible Ground of this ? Why does this Desire thus work in every Life of this World ? It is because the Eternal Will in the Deity is a Desiring or Generating the Son, from whence the Holy Spirit of God proceeds : And therefore Attraction, which is an Out-birth of the Divine Desire, stands in a perpetual Desiring of the Light and Spirit of this World, because they are the two Out-births of the Light and Holy Spirit of God. What rational Mind can help being charmed with this wonderful Harmony and Relation betwixt God, Nature, and Creature ?

27. And now, my dear Reader, if you are either Arian or Deist, be so no longer : The Ground is dug up from under you, and neither Opinion has any Thing left to stand upon ; you may wrangle and wrest the Doctrine of Scripture, because it is only taught in Words ; but the Veil is now taken off from Nature, and every Plant and Fruit will teach you, with the Clearness of a Noon-day Sun, these two great Truths; First, That Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, are one Being, one Life, one God: Secondly, That the Soul, which is dead to the Paradifical Life, must be made alive again by the Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God in it, in the same Manner as a dead Seed is, and only can be brought to Life in this World, by the Light and Spirit of this World.

If you are an Arian, do not content yourself with the Numbers that are with you, or with a Learned Name or two that are on your Side: Arianism has never yet been recommended by the Genius and Learning of a Baronius, or Bellarmin; and nothing but a poor groping, purblind Philosophy, that is not able to look either at God, Nature, or Creature, hath ever led any Man into it: For it is a Truth proclaimed by all Nature and Creature, that there is a threefold Life in God, and every Thing that is, whether it be happy, or miserable, perfect or imperfect, is only so, because it has, or has not the Tri-une Nature of God in it.

A beginning Fruit is like a Poison; a Seed, for a while, is shut up in a hard Death. Why are they both at first in this State? It is because each of them stands as yet only in that first Birth of Nature, which is but a Beginning Manifestation of the Deity. Let the Light of the Sun, and the Spirit of this World, be born in them, and then the four astringent Fruit, and the dead Seed becomes a perfect vegetable Life, and is in its kind perfect, for this one only Reason, because the Tri-une Life of the Deity is truly manifested in it.

28. If you are a Deist, made so either by the disorderly State of your own Heart, or by Prejudices taken from the Corruptions and Divisions of Christians, or from a Dislike of the Language of Scripture, or from an Opinion of the Sufficiency of a Religion of Human Reason, or from whatever else it may be, look well to yourself, Christianity is no Fiction of Enthusiasm, or Invention of Priests.

If you can shew, that the Gospel proposes to bring Men into the Kingdom of Heaven by any other Method, than that which Nature requires to make any Creature a living Member of this World, then I will acknowledge the Gospel not to be founded in Nature.

But if what the Gospel saith of the absolute Necessity, that the fallen Soul be born again of the Son and Holy Spirit of God, is the very same which all temporal Nature saith of every Thing that is to enter into the Life of this World, viz. that it cannot partake of the Life of this World, till the Light and Spirit of this World is born in it ; then does not all Nature in this World, and every Life in it, declare, that the Christian Method of Salvation is as necessary to raise fallen Man, as the Sun and Spirit of this World are to bring a Creature alive into it ?

Now as there is but one God, so there is but one Nature, as unalterable as that God from whom it arises, and whose Manifestation it is ; so also there is but one Religion founded in Nature, and but one Salvation possible in Nature. Revealed Religion is nothing else but a Revelation of the Mysteries of Nature, for God cannot reveal, or require any Thing by a spoken or written Word, but that which he reveals and requires by Nature ; for Nature is his great Book of Revelation, and he that can only read its Capital Letters, will have found so many Demonstrations of the Truth of the written Revelation of God *.

But to shew that there is but one Salvation possible in Nature, and that Possibility solely contained in the Christian Method : Look from the Top to the Bottom of all Creatures,

from the highest to the lowest Beings, and you will find that Death has but one Nature in all Worlds, and in all Creatures: Look at Life in an Angel, and Life in a Vegetable, and you will find that Life has but one and the same Form, one and the same Ground in the whole Scale of Beings: No Omnipotence of God can make that to be Life which is not Life, or that to be Death which is not Death, according to Nature; and the Reason is, because Nature is nothing else but God's own outward Manifestation of what he inwardly is, and can do; and therefore no Revelation from God can teach, or require any Thing but that which is taught and required by God in and through Nature. The Mysteries of Religion therefore are no higher, nor deeper than the Mysteries of Nature, and all the Rites, Laws, Ceremonies, Types, Institutions, and Ordinances given by God from Adam to the Apostles, are only typical of something that is to be done, or instrumental to the doing of that, which the unchangeable Working of Nature requires to be done. As sure therefore as there is but one and the same Thing that is Death, and one and the same Thing that is Life throughout all Nature, whether temporal or eternal, so sure is it, that there is but one Way to Life or Salvation for fallen Man. And this Way, let it be what it will, must and can be only that which has its Reason and Foundation in that one Universal Nature, which is the one unchangeable Manifestation of the Deity. For if there is but one Thing that is Life, and one thing that is Death throughout all Nature, from the highest Angel to the hardest Flint upon Earth, then it must be plain, that the Life which is to be raised or restored by Religion must and can only be restored according to Nature: And therefore true Religion can only be the Religion of Nature, and Divine Revelation can do nothing else, but reveal and manifest the Demands and Workings of Nature.

29. Now the one great Doctrine of the Christian Religion, and which includes all the rest, is this, that Adam by his Sin died to the Kingdom of Heaven, or that the Divine Life extinguished in him; that he cannot be redeemed, or restored to its first Divine Life, but by having it kindled or regenerated in him by the Son and Holy Spirit of God: Now that which is here called Death, his losing the Light and Spirit of the Kingdom of Heaven, and that which is here made necessary to make him alive again to the Kingdom of Heaven, are the very same which are called, and are Death and Life throughout all Nature, both temporal and eternal : And therefore, the Christian Religion, requiring this Method of raising Man to a Divine Life, has its infallible Proof from all Nature*. Consider Death, or the Deadness that is in a hard Flint, and you will see what is the Eternal Death of a fallen Angel : The Flint is dead, or in a State of Death, because its Fire is bound, compacted, shut up, and imprisoned ; this are its Chains and Bands of Death : A Steel struck against a Flint will shew you, that every Particle of the Flint consists of this compacted Fire.

Now a fallen Angel is in no other State of Death, knows no other Death than this : It is in its whole Spiritual Intelligent Being, nothing else but that very same which the Flint is, in its insensible Materiality, viz. an imprisoned compacted darkened Fire-spirit, shut up, and tyed in its own Chains of Darknes as the Fire of the Flint ; and you shall see by and by, that the Flint is changed from its first State into its present Hardness of Death, in the same Manner, and by the same Means, as the Heavenly Angel is become a fiery Serpent in the State of Eternal Death.

Now, look at every Death that can be found betwixt that of a fallen Angel, and that of a hard Flint, and you will find that Death enters no where, into no kind of Vegetable,

* Spirit of Love, Part II. Page 117, &c.

Plant, or Animal, but as it has entered into the Angel, and the Flint, and stands in the same manner in every Thing where-ever it is.

Now that a fallen Angel is nothing else but a Fire-spirit imprisoned in the same manner as a Flint is an imprisoned Fire, is plain from the Scripture Account of them; not only because all the wrathful Properties of a Fire without Light are ascribed to them as their essential Qualities, but because the Place of their Habitation, or the State of their Life, is a Fire of Hell. For how could it be possible, that a bellish Fire should be the Eternal State of their Life, unless their Nature was such a Fire? Must not their painful Condition arise from their Nature, and their Misery be only a Sensibility of themselves, of that which they have made themselves to be? Therefore if Fire shut up in Darkness is the Nature of Hell, it can only be so, because such a darkened Fire is the very Nature of a fallen Angel. Or how again could the Human Soul, which has withstood its Salvation in this Life, be said to fall into Eternal Death, or the Fire of Hell, if the Soul itself did not become that Fire of Hell? For when you say the Soul enters into Hell, you say neither more nor less, than if, you had said, that Hell enters into the Soul; therefore, therefore, the State of Hell, and the State of the Soul in Hell, is one and the same Thing. If therefore Hell is a State of Fire shut up and imprisoned from all Communion with Light, then the same dark imprisoned Fire must be the Nature of the fallen Angel and lost Soul; and thus what your Eyes see to be the Death or Deadness of a Flint is that same Thing, or that same State of the Thing, which the Scripture assures you to be the Eternal Death of a fallen Angel, and a lost Soul. Here also you may see a plain Proof of what I have elsewhere declared concerning the fallen Soul, that considered without its Redeemer in it (or the Word of Life which was reserved and treasured up in Adam at his Fall) it is in itself, as a fallen Soul, the same dark fiery Spirit as the Devils are; and that the Reason why Men wholly given up to Wickedness, and who have suppressed the Redeeming Power of God in their Souls, do not become fully sensible of this State of their Souls, is this, because the Soul, while it is in this Flesh and Blood, is capable of being softened, asswaged, and comforted, in some Degree or other, by the Influences of the Sun and Spirit of this World, as all other Creatures and Beings are. And if it was not thus, how could it be a plain constant Doctrine of Scripture, ture, that when the Unredeemed Soul departs this Life, it is incapable of any thing but Hell? Is not this directly saying, that Hell, or the Sensibility of Hell was only hid and suppressed in such a Soul by the Life and Light of this World shining upon it?

Now what I have said of the sad Condition of the Soul at the Fall, that it lost the Divine Life, or the Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God in it, and so became of the same dark fiery Nature as the Devils, is not possible to be denied, without denying the most universally received Doctrine of Scripture.

Is it not a fundamental Doctrine of Scripture, that Adam and all his Posterity had been left in a State of Eternal Death, or Damnation, unless Jesus Christ had become their Redeemer, and taken them out of their natural State? But how can you believe or own they had been left in this State, without believing and owning that they were in it? Or, how can you with the Scripture believe, that by the Fall they became Heirs of Eternal Death and Damnation with the Devils, unless you believe and affirm, that by the Fall they became of a hellish diabolical Nature? Or how can you hold, that by the Fall they wanted to be delivered from the State of the Devils, and yet not not allow, that by the Fall they got the Nature of the Devils? Can any Thing be more absurd and inconsistent? Is it not the same Thing as saying, that God made them Heirs of Eternal Death and Hell, before they were by Nature fit for it, or before they had extinguished in themselves the Divine Life which was at first brought forth in them?

Again: It is a Scripture Doctrine of the utmost Certainty and Importance, that those Souls which have totally resisted and withstood all that God has done in them and for them by his Son Jesus Christ, will, at their Departure from the Body, be incapable of any Thing but Eternal Death, or a hellish Condition. Now, how can you possibly hold this Doctrine of Scripture, without holding at the same Time, that the Soul was in that State by the Fall, before it had received its Redeemer, as it is then in, when it has refused to receive him; for all that you can say of a lost Soul is only this, that it has lost its Redeemer, and therefore is only in the Condition of that Soul which has not received him: And therefore, if a lost Soul is only an unredeemed Soul, it must be plain, that the Soul, before it had received its Redeemer, was in the miserable Condition, and had the miserable Nature of a lost Soul; and therefore, therefore the only Difference between the fallen Soul, and the lost Soul is this, they are both in the same need of a Saviour, both have the same miserable Nature, because they have him not; but the one has the Offer of him, and the other has refused to accept of Him: But by its final Refusal of him, it has only left him in Possession of that fallen State of a hellish Condition, which it had before a Saviour was given to it; and therefore, it is a Truth of the utmost Certainty, that Adam, by his Fall, died to the Divine Life, and that by this Death, his Soul became of the same Nature and Condition with the fallen Angels; and that therefore that new Birth or Regeneration, which he is to obtain by his Redeemer Jesus Christ, is nothing else but the bringing back his Soul into the Kingdom of Heaven, by a Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God brought forth in it, that so the Life of the Tri-une God may be in him again, as it was at his Creation, when his Soul was first breathed forth from the Tri-une God. Is there any Thing more great, more glorious, or more consistent than these Truths? Or is there any Possibility of denying any Part of them, without giving up the whole? Or is there any Reason, why a Christian should be loth to believe this, and this alone, to be the true State of that Regeneration which is so absolutely required by the Gospel? Is it an unreasonable or uncomfortable Thing to be told, that our Regeneration is a true and real Regaining that heavenly, divine, immortal Life, which at first came forth from God, and which alone can enter into the Kingdom of Heaven?

Say that Adam did not die a real Death at his Transgression, that he did not lose a divine immortal Life, Light, and Spirit, that he did not then first become a mere earthly, mortal, Diabolical Animal in the true and proper Sense of the Words, but that these Things could only be affirmed of him in a figurative Form of Speech; say this, and then tell me what Reality you have left in any Article of our Salvation?

But if all these Things must be said of fallen Man according to the strictest Truth of the Expression, then the Gospel Regeneration, by a Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God arising a second Time in the Soul of Man, must mean such a real Birth of a new heavenly Life, as the proper Sense of the Words denote.

30. But to return now to my Argumentation with the Deist.

I have plainly shewn you, that there is and can be but one kind of Death through all Nature, whether temporal or eternal; and this I have done, by shewing that Eternal Death in an Angel is the same Thing, and has the same Nature, as the hard Death that is in a senseless Flint. But if it be a certain Truth, that Death has but one Way of entering into, or possessing any Being from the highest of spiritual to the lowest of material Creatures, then, though nothing else could be offered, it must be an infallible Consequence, that Life has but one Way of being kindled throughout all Nature, and that therefore there can be but one true Religion, and that only can be it, which hath the one only way of kindling the heavenly Life in the Soul.

Now look where you will, the Birth or kindling of Life through all Nature shews you, that the Way of Gospel Regeneration; or raising the Divine Life again in the fallen Soul, is that one and the same Way by which every kind of Life is, and must be raised; wherever it is found. The Gospel saith, unless the fallen Soul be born again from above, be born again of the Word, or Son, and the Spirit of God, it cannot see, or enter into the Kingdom of Heaven: Now here it says a Truth, as much confirmed and ratified by all Nature, as when it is said, except a Creature hath the Light and Spirit of this World born in it, it cannot become a living Animal of this World; or, except a Seed has the Light and Spirit of this World incorporated in it, it cannot become a Vegetable of this World, either as Plant, Fruit, or Flower. Ask now wherein lies the absolute Impossibility that the fallen Soul should be raised to its Divine Life, without a Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God in it, and the true Ground of this Impossibility is only this, because a Seed shut up in its own cold Hardness cannot possibly be raised in its highest Vegetable Life, but by a Birth of the Light and Spirit of this World rising up in it.

On the other hand, ask why a Seed cannot possibly become a Vegetable Life, till the Light and Spirit of this World has been incorporated, or generated in it; and the only true Ground of it is, because a fallen Soul can only be raised to a Divine Life, or become a Plant of the Kingdom of Heaven, by receiving the Birth of the Light and Spirit of God into it. For the true Reason, why Life is in such a Form, and rises in such a Manner in the lowest Creature living, is because it does and must arise in the same manner, and stand in the same Form in the highest of Living Creatures: For Nature does, and must always act and generate in one and the same unchangeable Manner, because it is nothing else but the Manifestation of one unchangeable God.

It is one and the same Operation of Light and Spirit, that turns Fire into every Degree and kind of Life, that can be found either in temporal or eternal Nature: It is one and the same Operation of Light and Spirit, that upon one State of Fire raises only a vegetable Life, upon another State of Fire raises an animal Life, upon another State of Fire raises an intellectual and angelical Life.

There is no State or Form of Death in any Creature, but where some kind of Fire is shut up from Light and Spirit, nor is there any kind of Life, but what is kindled by the same Operation of Light and Spirit upon some sort of Fire.

A Fruit must first stand in a poisonous, sour, astringent, bitter, and fiery Agitation of all its Parts, before the Light and Spirit of this World can be generated in it. And thus Light and Spirit operate upon one sort of Fire in the Production of a vegetable Life.

An Animal must be conceived in the same manner, it must begin in the same Poison, and when Nature is in its fiery Strife, the Light and Spirit of this World kindles up the true animal Life.

Thus also there is but one kind or State of Death that can fall upon any Creature, which is nothing else but its losing the Birth of Light and Spirit in itself, by which it becomes an imprisoned, dark Fire. In an Animal, Vegetable, or mere Matter, it is a senseless State of imprisoned Fire; in an Angel, or intellectual Being, as the Soul of Man, it is a self-tormenting, self-generating, fiery Worm, that cannot lose its Sensibility, but is in a State of Eternal Death, because it is separated eternally from that Light and Spirit, which alone can raise a divine Life in any intellectual Creature.

And thus it is plain, beyond all Possibility of Doubt, that there is neither Life nor Death to be found in any Part of the Creation but what sets its infallible Seal to this Gospel Truth, that fallen Man cannot enter into the Kingdom of Heaven any other Way, than by being born again of the Son and Holy Spirit of God.

31. And here, my Friend, you may with Certainty see what a poor groundless Fiction

your Religion of Human Reason is ; its Insignificance and Emptiness are shewn you by every Thing you can look upon.

Salvation is a Birth of Life, but Reason can no more bring forth this Birth, than it can kindle Life in a Plant, or Animal: You might as well write the Word, Flame, upon the out-side of a Flint, and then expect that its imprisoned Fire should be kindled by it, as to imagine that any Images, or Ideal Speculations of Reason painted in your Brain, should raise your Soul out of its State of Death, and kindle the Divine Life in it. No: Would you have Fire from a Flint, its House of Death must be shaken, and its Chains of Darkness broken off by the Strokes of a Steel upon it. This must of all Necessity be done to your Soul, its imprisoned Fire must be awakened by the sharp Strokes of Steel, or no true Light of Life can arise in it: All Nature and Creature tell you, that the Heavenly Life must begin in you from the same Causes, and the same Operation as every earthly Life, whether vegetable or animal, does in this World*.

Now, look where you will, all Life must be generated in this Manner: First, an Attraction, or an astringing Desire, must work itself into an anguishing Agitation, or painful Strife;

Strife; this Attraction, become restless and highly agitated, is that first Poison, or Strife of the Properties of Nature, which is and must be the Beginning of every Vegetable or Animal Life; it is by this Strife or inward Agitation, that it reaches and gets a Birth of the Light and Spirit of this World into it, and so becomes a Living Member, either of the animal, or vegetable World.

Now this must be your Process; a Desire brought into an anguishing State, or the bitter Sorrows and fery Agitations of Repentance, must be the Beginning of a Divine Life in your Soul; it is by this awakened Fire, or inward Agitation, that it becomes capable of being regenerated, or turned into an heavenly Life, by the Light and Holy Spirit of God.

Nothing is, or can possibly be Salvation, but this regenerated Life of the Soul: How vain and absurd would it be, to talk of a Creature's being made a Member of a vegetable or animal Kingdom, through an outward Grace or Favour, or by any outward Thing of any kind? For do not Sense, Reason, and all Nature, force you to confess, that it is absolutely impossible for any Thing to become a Living Member of the animal or vegetable Kingdom, but by having the animal or vegetable Life raised or brought forth in it? Therefore, do not Sense and Reason, and all Nature join with the Gospel in affirming, that no Man can enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, till the Heavenly Life, or that which is the Life in Heaven, be born in him?

The Gospel says to the fallen earthly Man, that he must be born again from above, before he can see, enter into, or become a Living Member of the Kingdom that is above.

Now he that understands this to be a figurative Saying, that requires no real Birth of a real Life that is only above, but that an earthly Man may enter into the Life of Heaven, by only carrying this figurative Saying along with him, is as absurd, as ignorant, and offends as much against Sense, Reason and all Nature, as he who holds that it is a figurative Expression, when we say that nothing can enter into the vegetable Kingdom, till it has the vegetable Life in it, or be a Member of the Animal Kingdom, till it hath the Animal Life born in it *.

And if some Learned Men will say, that it is Religious Enthusiasm to place our Salvation, or Capacity for the Kingdom of Heaven, in the inward Life or Birth of Heaven derived into our Souls, they are only as learned as those who should call it Philosophical Enthusiasm to place the true Nature of a Vegetable, or Animal, in its getting the inward real Birth of a Vegetable and Animal Life. But to return to the Deist.

You act as if God was a Being that had an arbitrary discretionary Will or Wisdom, like that of a great Prince over his Subjects, who will reward Mankind according as their Services appeared to him. And so you fancy, that your Religion of Reason may appear as valuable as a Religion that consists of Forms, and Modes, Ordinances, and Doctrines of Revelation; but your Idea of the last Judgment is a Fiction of Reason that knows nothing rightly of God. God's last rewarding is only his last separating every Thing into its own Eternal Place; it is only putting an end to all temporary Nature, to the Mixture of Good and Evil that is in Time, and leaving every Thing to be That in Eternity, which it has made itself to be in Time. Thus it is that our Works follow us, and thus God rewards every Man according to his Deeds *.

During the Time of this World God may be considered as the good Husbandman; he sows the Seed, the End of the World is the Harvest, the Angels are the Reapers; if you are Wheat, you are to be gathered into the the Barn ; if you are Tares, it signifies nothing whence, or how, or by what Means you are become so ; Tares are to be rejected because they are Tares, and Wheat to be gathered by the Angels because it is Wheat: This is the Mercy, and Goodness, and Discretionary Justice of God, that you are to expect at the last Day. If you are not Wheat, that is, if the heavenly Life or the Kingdom of God is not grown up in you, it signifies nothing what you have chose in the stead of it, or why you have chose it ; you are not That which alone can help you to a Place in the Divine Granary.

God wants no Services of Men to reward, he only wants to have such a Life quickened and raised up in you, as may make it possible for you to enter into, and live in Heaven.

He has created you out of his own Eternal Nature, and therefore you must have either an Eternal Life, or Eternal Death according to it. If eternal Nature standeth in you, as it doth without you, then you are born again to the Kingdom of Heaven ; but if Nature works contrary in you to what it does in Heaven, then you are in Eternal Death: And here lies the Necessity of our being born again of the Word and Spirit of God, in order to the Kingdom of Heaven. It is because we are created out of that eternal Nature which is the Kingdom of Heaven ; it is because we are fallen out of it into a Life of temporal Nature, and therefore must have the Life of eternal Nature re-kindled in us, before we can possibly enter into the Kingdom of Heaven : Therefore, look where you will, or at what you will, there is only one Thing to be done, we want Nothing else but to have the Light World, or the Life of Eternal Nature, kindled again in our Souls, that Life, and Light, and Spirit may be That in our Souls which they are in Eternal Nature, out of which our Souls were created ; that so we may be heavenly Plants growing up to the Kingdom of Heaven*.

You deceive yourself with fancied Notions of the Goodness of God ; you imagine that so perfect a Being cannot damn you for so small a Matter, as choosing a Religion according to your own Notions, or for not joining yourself with this or that Religious Society.

But all this is great Ignorance of God, and Nature, and Religion. God has appointed a Religion, by which Salvation is to be had according to the Possibility of Nature, where no Creature will be saved or lost, but as it works with or contrary to Nature. For as the God of Nature cannot himself act contrary to Nature, because Nature is the Manifestation of himself, so every Creature having its Life in and from Nature, can have only such a Life, or such a Death, as is according to the Possibility of Nature: And therefore no Creature will be saved by an arbitrary Goodness of God, but because of its Conformity to Nature, nor any Creature lost by a Want of Compassion in God, but because of its Salvation being impossible according to the whole State of Nature.

It is not for Notional or Speculative Mistakes that Man will be rejected by God at the last Day, or for any Crimes that God could over-look, if he was so pleased; but because Man has continued in his unregenerate State, and has resisted and suppressed that Birth of Life, by which alone he could become a Member of the Kingdom of Heaven. The Goodness and Love of God have no Limits or Bounds, but such as his Omnipotence hath: And every Thing, that hath a Possibility of partaking of the Kingdom of Heaven, will infallibly find a Place in it.

God comes not to Judgment to display any Wrath of his own, or to inflict any Punishment as from Himself upon Man: He only comes to declare, that all temporary Nature is at an End, and that therefore all Things must be and stand in their own Places in Eternal Nature: His Sentence of Condemnation is only a leaving them that are lost in such a Misery of their own Nature, as has finally rejected all that was possible to relieve it.

You fancy that God will not reject you at the last Day for having not received this, or that Mode, or Kind of Religion: But here all is Mistake again. You might as well imagine, that no particular kind of Element was necessary to extinguish Fire, or that Water can supply the Place of Air in kindling it, as suppose that no particular kind of Religion is absolutely necessary to raise up such a Divine Life in the Soul, as can only be its Salvation; for Nature is the Ground of all Creatures, it is God's Manifestation of himself, it is his Instrument in and by which he acts in the Production and Government of every Life; and therefore a Life that is to belong to this World must be raised according to temporal Nature, and a Life that is to live in the next World must be raised according to Eternal Nature.

Therefore all the particular Doctrines, Institutions, Mysteries, and Ordinances of a revealed Religion that comes from the God of Nature, must have their Reason, Foundation, and Necessity in Nature ; and then your renouncing such a revealed Religion is renouncing all that the God of Nature can do to save you.

When I speak of Nature as the true Ground and Foundation of Religion, I mean nothing like that which you call the Religion of Human Reason, or Nature ; for I speak here of Eternal Nature, which is the Nature of the Kingdom of Heaven, or that Eternal State, where all redeemed Souls must have their Eternal Life, and live in Eternal Nature by a Life derived from it, as Men and Animals live in temporal Nature by a Life derived from it ; for seeing Man stands with his Soul in Eternal Nature, as certainly as he lives outwardly in temporal Nature, and seeing Man can have nothing in this World, neither Happiness, nor Misery from it, but what is according to temporal Nature, he can with his Soul attain nothing, nor suffer any Thing in the next World, but what is according to the Eternal Nature of that World ; and therefore it is an infallible Truth, that that particular Religion can alone do us any Good, or help us to the Happiness of the next World ; which works with and according to Eternal Nature, and is able to generate that Eternal Life in us. But your Notion of a Goodness of God that may be expected

at the last Day, is as groundless, as if you imagined that God would then stand over his Creatures in a compassionate kind of weighing or considering who should be saved, and who damned, because a good-natured Prince might do so towards Variety of Offenders.

But hear how the God of Nature himself speaks of this Matter: Behold, I have set before thee, Life and Death, Fire and Water;—choose which thou wilt. Here lies the Whole of the Divine Mercy; it is all on this side the Day of Judgment: Till the End of Time, God is compassionate and long-suffering, and continues to every Creature a Power of choosing Life or Death, Water or Fire; but when the End of Time is come, there is an End of Choice, and the last Judgment is only a putting every one into the full and sole Possession of That which he has chose.

But your Notion of a Goodness of God at the last Day supposes, that if a Man has erroneously chosen Death instead of Life, and Fire instead of Water, that God will not suffer such a Creature to be deprived of Salvation through a mistaken Choice; but that in such a Creature, he will make Death to be Life, and Fire to be Water. But you might as well expect, that God should make a Thing to be and not to be

be at the same Time ; for this is as possible as to make Hell to be Heaven, or Death to be Life : For Darknefs can no more be Light, Death can no more be Life, Fire can no more be Water, in any Being through a Compassion of God towards it, than a Circle could be a Square, a Falshood a Truth, or two to be more than three, by God's looking upon them.

32. Our Salvation is an Entrance into the Kingdom of Heaven ; now the Life, Light, and Spirit of Heaven, must as necessarily be in a Creature before it can live in Heaven, as the Life, Light, and Spirit of this World, must be in a Creature before it can live in this World : Therefore the one only Religion, that can save any one Son of fallen Adam, must be that which can raise or generate the Life, Light, and Spirit of Heaven in his Soul, that when the Light and Spirit of this World leave him, he may not find himself in Eternal Death and Darknefs.

Now if the Light and Spirit of Heaven are generated in your Soul as they are generated in Heaven, if they rise up in your Nature within you, as they do in eternal Nature without you (which is the Christian new Birth, or Regeneration) then you are become capable of the Kingdom of Heaven, and nothing can keep keep you out of it; but if you die without this Birth of the Eternal Light and Spirit of God, then your Soul stands in the same Distance from, and Contrariety to the Kingdom of Heaven, as Hell does: If you die in this unregenerate State, it signifies nothing how you have lived, or what Religion you have owned, all is left undone that was to have saved you: It matters not what Form of Life you have appeared in, what a Number of decent, engaging, or glorious Exploits you have done, either as a Scholar, a Statesman, or a Philosopher; if they have proceeded only from the Light and Spirit of this World, they must die with it, and leave your Soul in that Eternal Darkneſs, which it muſt have ſo long as the Light and Spirit of Eternity are not generated in it.

And this is the true Ground and Reason, why an outward Morality, a Decency and Beauty of Life and Conduct with reſpect to this World, ariſing only from a Worldly Spirit, has nothing of Salvation in it: He that has his Virtue only from this World is only a Trader of this World, and can only have a Worldly Benefit from it. For it is an undoubted Truth, that every Thing is neceſſarily bounded by, or kept within the Sphere of its own Activity; and therefore to expect Heavenly Effects from a Worldly Spirit is Nonsense : As Water cannot rise higher in its Streams than the Spring from whence it cometh, so no Actions can ascend farther in their Efficacy, or rise higher in their Value, than the Spirit from whence they proceed. The Spirit that comes from Heaven is always in Heaven, and whatsoever it does, tends to and reaches Heaven : The Spirit that arises from this World is always in it; it is as worldly when it gives Alms, or prays in the Church, as when it makes Bargains in the Market. When therefore the Gospel saith, He that gives Alms to be seen of Men hath his Reward, it is grounded on this general Truth, That every Thing, every Shape, or Kind, or Degree of Virtue that arises from the Spirit of this World, has nothing to expect but That which it can receive from this World : For every Action must have its Nature and Efficacy according to the Spirit from whence it proceeds. He that loves to see a Crucifix, a worthless Image, solely from this Principle, because from his Heart he embraces Christ as his suffering Lord and Pattern, does an Action poor and needless in itself, which yet by the Spirit from whence it proceeds reaches Heaven, and helps to kindle the heavenly Life in the Soul. On the other hand, he that from a selfish Heart, a Worldly Spirit, a Love of Esteem, distinguishes himself by the most rational Virtues of an exemplary Life, has only a Piety that may be reckoned amongst the perishable Things of this World.

33. You (the Deist) think it a Partiality unworthy of God, when you hear that the Salvation of Mankind is attributed and appropriated to Faith and Prayer in the Name of Jesus Christ. It must be answered, First. That there is no Partiality of any kind in God; every Thing is accepted by him according to its own Nature, and receives all the Good from him that it can possibly receive: Secondly. That a Morality of Life, not arising from the Power and Spirit of Jesus Christ, but brought forth by the Spirit of this World, is the same Thing, has the same Nature and Efficacy in a Heathen as a Christian does, only the same worldly Good to the one as it does to the other; therefore there is not the least Partiality in God, with respect to the Moral Works of Mankind, considered as arising from, and directed by the Spirit of this World.

Now were these the only Works that Man could do, could he only act from the Spirit of this World, no Flesh could be saved, that is, no earthly Creature, such as Man is, could possibly begin to be of a heavenly Nature, or have a heavenly Life brought forth in him; for it is only a Spirit from Heaven derived into the fallen Nature, that makes any Beginning of a heavenly Life in it, that can lay the Possibility of its having the least Ability, Tendency, and Disposition towards the Kingdom of Heaven. This Spirit derived from Heaven is the Birth of the Son of God, given to the Soul as its Saviour, Regenerator, or Beginner of its Return to Heaven; it is that Word of Life, or Bruiser of the Serpent, that was reserved or treasured up in the first fallen Father of Men; it is this alone that gives to all the Race of Adam their Capacity for Salvation, their Power of being again Sons of God; and therefore Faith and Prayer in the Name of Jesus Christ, or Works done in the Spirit and Power of Jesus Christ, can alone save the Soul, because the Soul can have no Relation to Heaven, no Communion with it, no Beginning or Power of Growth in the heavenly Life, but solely by the Nature and Name of Jesus Christ derived into it. God's Redemption of Mankind is as universal as the Fall: It was the one Father of all Men that fell, therefore, all his Children were born into his fallen State: It was the one Father of all Men that was redeemed by the Word of Life reserved or treasured up up in him, therefore all his Children are born into his State of Redemption, and have as certainly the same Bruiser of the Serpent in the Birth of their Life from him, as they have from him a Serpentine Nature that is to be bruised.

Hence it was, that this Bruiser of the Serpent, when born of a Virgin, and come to die for the World, saith of himself, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life; no Man cometh unto the Father but by me. Hence also the Apostle saith, There is none other Name under Heaven given among Men, whereby we must be saved,—because he is that same saving Name, or Power of Salvation which from the Beginning was given to Adam, as a Word of Life reserved and treasured up in his Soul, or Bruiser of the Serpent: And therefore, as sure as Adam had any Power of Salvation derived into him from Jesus Christ, so sure was it, that the Apostle must tell both Jews and Heathens, that there was no Salvation in any other.

Therefore, though Jesus Christ is the one only Saviour of all that can any where, or at any Time, be saved, yet there is no Partiality in God, because this same Jesus Christ, who came in Human Flesh to the Jews in a certain Age, was that same Saviour who was given to Adam, when all Mankind were in his Loins; and who, through all Ages, and in all Countries, from the first Patriarchs to the End of the World, is the common Saviour, as he is the common Light that lighteth every Man that cometh into the World, and that Principle of Life both in Jews and Heathens, by which they had any Relation to God, or any Power, or Right to call him Father. When therefore you look upon the Gospel as narrowing the Way of Salvation, or limiting it to those, who only know and believe in Jesus Christ since his Appearance in the Flesh, you mistake the whole Nature of the Christian Redemption.

And when you reject this Saviour that then appeared, and died as a Sacrifice upon the Cross, you do not renounce a particular kind of Religion, that was given only at a certain Time to one Part of the World, but you renounce the one Source and Fountain of all the Grace and Mercy that God can bestow upon Mankind, you renounce your Share of that first Covenant which God made with all Men in Adam, you go back into his first fallen State, and so put yourself into that Condition of Eternal Death, from which there is no Possibility of Deliverance, but by that one Saviour whom you have renounced.

And now, my dear Friend, beware of Prejudice, or Hardness of Heart: One careless, or one relenting Thought upon all that is here laid before you, may either quite shut out, or quite open an Entrance for true Conviction. I have shewn you what is meant by Christian Redemption, and the absolute Necessity of a new and heavenly Birth, in order to obtain your Share of a heavenly Life in the next World: I have confirmed the Truths of the Gospel, by Proofs taken from what is undeniable in Nature: And I readily grant you that nothing can be true in revealed Religion, but what has its Foundation in Nature; because a Religion coming from the God of Nature, can have no other End but to reform, and set right the Failings, Transgressions, and Violations of Nature. When the Gospel saith, that Man fallen from the State of his Creation, and become an earthly Animal of this temporal World, must be born again of the Son and Holy Spirit of God, in order to be a heavenly Creature, it is because all Nature saith, that an immortal eternal Soul must have an immortal eternal Light and Spirit to make it live in Eternal Nature, as every Animal must have a temporal Light and Spirit in order to live in temporary Nature. Must you not therefore either deny the Im- mortality of the Soul, or acknowledge the Necessity of its having an Eternal Light and Spirit? When the Gospel saith, that nothing can kindle or generate the heavenly Life but the Operation of the Light and Spirit of Heaven, it is because all Nature saith, that no temporal Life can be raised but in the same manner in temporary Nature. Must you not therefore be forced to confess, that Nature and the Gospel both preach the same Truths.

Light and Spirit must be where-ever there are living Beings: And there must be the same Difference betwixt the Light and Spirit of different Worlds, as there is betwixt the Worlds themselves. Hell must have its Light, or it could have no living Inhabitants, but its Light is not so refreshing, not so gentle, not so delightful, not so comfortable, as flashing Points of Fire in the thickest Darkness of Night; and therefore their Light is called an Eternal Darkness, because it can never disperse, but only horribly discover Darkness: Hell also must have its Spirit; but it is only an incessant Sensibility of wrathful Agitations, of which the Thunder and Rage of a Tempest is but a low shadowy Resemblance, as being only a little outward Eruption of That Wrath, which is the inward restless Essence of the Spirit of Hell;

Hell; and therefore that Life, though it be a living Spirit, is justly called an Eternal Death.

The Light and Spirit of God admit of no Delineation or Comparison, they are only so far known to any one, as they are brought into the Soul by a Birth of themselves in it.

Now consider, I pray you: The Light and Spirit of this World can no more be the Light and Spirit of immortal Souls, than Grass and Hay can be the Food of Angels, but are as different from the Light and Spirit of Heaven, as an Angel is different from a Beast of the Field. When therefore the Soul of a Man departs from his Body, and is eternally cut off from all temporal Light and Spirit, what is it that can keep such a Soul from falling into Eternal Darknes, unless it has in itself that Light and Spirit, which are of the same Nature with the Light and Spirit of Eternity, so that it may be in the Light of Heaven or Eternal Nature, as it was in the Light of this World in temporary Nature.

Light and Spirit must be in every Thing that lives, but the Death of the Body takes away the Light and Spirit of this World; if therefore the Light and Spirit of Heaven be not born in the Soul when it loses the Body, it can only have that Light and Spirit which are the very Death and Darknes of Hell.

When Man lost the Light and Spirit of his Creation, he lost it by turning the Will and Desire of his Soul into an Earthly Life; this was his Desire of knowing Good and Evil in this World. His Fall therefore consisted in this, his Soul lost its first innate in-breathed Light and Spirit of Heaven, and instead of it, had only the Light and Spirit of Temporary Nature, to keep up for a Time such a Life in him from this World, as the proper Creatures of this World have: And this is the Reason, why Man, the noblest Creature that is in this World, has yet various Circumstances of Necessity, Poverty, Distress and Shame, that are not common to other Animals of this World. It is because the Creatures of this Life are here at home, are the proper Inhabitants of this World, and therefore that Womb out of which they are born, has provided them with all that they want; but Man being only fallen into it, and as a Transgressor, must in many Respects find himself in such Wants as other Creatures have not. Transitory Time has brought them forth, and therefore they can have no Pain, nor Concern, nor Danger in passing away; because it is the very Form of their Nature, to begin, and to have an End: And therefore the
 God

God of Nature has no outward Laws, or Directions for the Creatures of this World.

But the Soul of Man being not born of the Light and Spirit of this transitory World, but only standing a while as a Stranger upon Earth, and being under a Necessity of having either the Nature of an Angel, or a Devil, when it leaves this World, is met by the Mercy and Goodness of the God of Nature, is inwardly and outwardly called, warned, directed, and assisted how to regain that Light and Spirit of Heaven which it lost, when it fell under the temporary Light and Spirit of this World. And this is the whole Ground and End of revealed Religion, viz. to kindle such a Beginning or Birth of the Divine Light and Spirit in the Soul, that when Man must take an Eternal Leave of the Light and Spirit of this World, he may not be in a State of Eternal Death and Darknes.

Now seeing the Light and Spirit of Heaven or Eternal Nature is as different from the Light and Spirit of this World, as an Angel is from an Animal of the Field, if you have lived here only to the Spirit and Temper of this World, governed by its Goods and Evils, and only wise according to its Wisdom, you must die as destitute of the Light and Spirit of Heaven as the Beasts that perish. You have now an Aversion and Dislike, or at least a Disbelief of the Doctrines of Christian Regeneration, you struggle against this Kind of Redemption, you would have no Salvation from the Light and Spirit of Eternity regenerated in your Soul: Where then must you be, when the Light and Spirit of this World leave you?

Do you think that the Light and Spirit of God will then seize upon you, shine up in you by an outward Force, though they never could be born in you? Or do you think, that the Light and Spirit of God can now be generating themselves in you, and ready to appear, as soon as you have ended a Life that has continually resisted them, and would have no new Birth from them? Or that God, by a compassionate Goodness, will not suffer you to be in that Condition, into which your own Will has brought you? No, my Friend, the Will that is in you must do That for you, which the Will that was in Angels did for those that stood, and for those that fell.

God's Goodness or Compassion is always in the same infinite State, always flowing forth in and through all Nature, in the same infinite Manner, and nothing wants it, but that which cannot receive it: Whilst the Angels stood, they

they stood incompass'd with the infinite Source of all Goodness and Compassion, God was communicated to them in as high a Degree as their Nature could receive; and they fell, not because he ceased to be an infinite open Fountain of all Good to them, but because they had a Will which must direct itself.

For the Will, at its first arising in the Creature, can be subject to no outward Power, because it has no outward Maker; as it stands in a creaturely Form, God is its true Creator; but as a Will, it has no outward Maker; but is a Ray, or Spark, derived from the Unbeginning Will of the Creator, and is of the same Nature in the Creature as it was in the Creator, self-existent, self-generating, self-moving, and uncontroulable from without; and there could not possibly be a free Will in the Creature, but by its being directly derived, or propagated from the same Will in the Creator, for Nothing can be free now, but that which always was so.

But if the free Will of God, which is above and superior to Nature, be communicated to the Creature, then the Creatures free Will must have the same Power over its own Nature, that the Will of God has over that Eternal Nature, which is his own Manifestation: And therefore therefore every free Creature must have and find its own Nature in this, or that State, as a Birth from the free Working of its own Will. And here appears the true Reason why no Creatures of this World can commit Sin; it is because they have no Will that is superior to Nature: Their Will in every one of them is only the Will of Nature; and therefore let them do what they will, they are always doing that which is natural, and consequently not sinful. But the Will of Angels and Men being an Offspring, or Ray, derived from the Will of God, which is superior to Nature, stands chargeable with the State and Condition of their Nature; and therefore it is that the Nature of the Devil, and the Nature of fallen Man is imputed to both of them as their Sin, which could not be, but because their Will was uncontroulable, and gave Birth and Being to that State and Condition of Nature, which is called and is their Sin.

Therefore, O Man! look well to thyself, and see what Birth thou art bringing forth, what Nature is growing up in Thee, and be assured, that stand thou must in that State in Nature, which the Working of thy own Will has brought forth in Thee, whether it be happy or miserable. Expect no arbitrary Goodness of God towards Thee, when thou leaveſt this World; for that muſt grow for ever which hath grown here. God hath created thee in Nature, his Mercy hath ſhewn Thee all the Laws and Neceſſities of Nature, and how Thou may'ſt riſe from Thy Corruption, according to the Poſſibilities of Nature, and He can only ſave Thee by thy conforming to the Demands of Nature: The Greatneſs of the Divine Mercy and Favour towards all Men appears in this, that when all Nature had failed, and Mankind could from Nature have Nothing but Eternal Death, that God brought ſuch a Second Adam into the World, as being God and Man could make Nature begin its Work again, where it failed in the firſt Adam.

The free Grace and Mercy by which we are ſaid in the Scripture to be ſaved, is not an arbitrary Good Will in God, which ſaves whom he pleaſes; as a Prince may forgive ſome, and not forgive others, merely through his own Sovereign Grace and Favour: Nothing of this Kind hath any Place in God, or in the Myſtery of our Redemption; but the Mercy and Grace, by which we are ſaved, are therefore free, becauſe God hath freely, and from his own Goodneſs, put us into a State and Poſſibility of Salvation, by freely giving us Jeſus
Chriſt

Christ (the Divine and Human Nature united in one Person) as the only Means of regenerating that first Divine and Human Life, which the whole Race of Mankind had lost. In this Sense alone it is, that all our Salvation is wholly owing to the free Grace of God, that is, our State, and Possibility, and Means of attaining Salvation, are wholly owing to his free Grace in giving us Jesus Christ; but our Salvation considered as a finished Thing, is not, cannot be found by any Act of God's free Grace towards us, but because all That is done, altered, removed, suppressed, quickened, and recovered by us in the State of our Nature, which the free Grace of God had furnished us with the Possibility and Means of doing. If Nature and Creature had no Share in working out our Salvation; if it was all free Grace, effected against, and without the Powers of Nature, how comes it, that the fallen Angels are not to be redeemed as well as Man? Must we say that God is less good to them than he is to us? Or if they are not redeemed, can there be any other Reason for it, but because it is an Impossibility in Nature? Must not an infinite Good do all the Good that is wanted, and is possible to be done? If free Grace can do what it pleases, if it wants no Concurrence of Nature and Creature, how can any Being, whether Man or Angel, be eternally miserable, but through an Eternal Defect in the Goodness of God towards it? Shall we call that infinite Goodness, which sets Bounds and Limits to itself, and which could do more Good, but will not.

The Truth of the Matter is this, God is as infinite and boundless in Love and Goodness, as he is in Power, but his Omnipotence can only do that which is possible, and nothing is possible but that which hath its Possibility in Nature; because Nature is God's first Power, his great universal Manifestation of his Deity, in, and through, and by which, all his infinite Attributes break forth and display themselves: So that to expect, that God should do any Thing that is above, or contrary to this Nature, is as absurd as to expect that God should act above, or contrary to himself: As God can only make a Creature to be in, and through, and by Nature, so the Reason why he cannot make a Creature to be, and not to be at the same Time, is only this, because it is contrary to Nature. Let no Man therefore trust to be saved at the last Day by any arbitrary Goodness, or free Grace of God; for Salvation is, and can be nothing else, but the having put off all that is damnable and hellish in our Nature, which Salvation can be found by no Creature, but by its own full conforming to, and concurring with those mysterious Means, which the free Grace of God hath afforded for the Recovery of our first, perfect, glorious State in Nature.

C H A P. II.

Of Eternal and Temporal Nature. How Nature is from God, and the Scene of his Action. How the Creatures are out of it. Temporal Nature created out of that which is eternal. The fallen Angels brought the first Disorders into Nature. This World created to repair those Disorders. Whence Good and Evil are in every Thing of this World. How Heaven and Hell make up the Whole of this World. How the Fire of this World differs from eternal Fire; and the Matter of this World from the Materiality of Heaven. Eternal Nature is the Kingdom of Heaven, the beatific Manifestation of the Tri-une God. God is mere Love and Goodness. How Wrath and Anger come to be ascribed to him. Of Fire in general. Of the Unbeginning Fire. Of the Spirituality of Fire. How Fire comes to be in material Things. Whence the Possibility of kindling Fire in the Things of this World. Every Man is, and must be the Kindler of his own Eternal Fire, &c.

- I. WAS there no Nature, there could be no Creature, because the Life of every Creature is, and can be nothing else, but the Life of that Nature out of

of which it was created, and in which it has its Being. Eternal Beings must have their Qualities, Nature, Form and Manner of Existence out of Eternal Nature, and temporal Beings out of temporary Nature: Was there no Eternity, there could be no Time, was there nothing infinite, there could be nothing finite; therefore we have here two great fundamental Truths that cannot be shaken; First, That there is and must be, an Eternal Nature; because there is a Nature that is temporary, and that it must be that to Eternal Creatures, which temporary Nature is to temporal Creatures: Secondly, That every where, and in all Worlds, Nature must stand between God and the Creature as the Foundation of all mutual Intercourse; God can transact nothing with the Creature, nor the Creature have any Communion with God, but in and by that Nature in which it stands.

I hope no one will here ask me for Scripture Proofs of this, or call these Truths Novstrums, because they are not to be found in the same Form of Expression in some particular Text of Scripture. Where do the Holy Writings tell us, that a Thing cannot be and not be at the same Time? Or that every Consequence must arise from Premises? And yet the Scripture

ture is continually supposing both these Truths, and there could be no Truth in the Scripture, or any where else, if these Things were not undeniable.

There is nothing said of Man throughout all Scripture, but what supposes him to stand in Nature, under a Necessity of choosing something that is natural, either Life or Death, Fire or Water. There is nothing said of God with relation to Creatures, but what supposes him to be the God of Nature, manifesting himself in and through Nature, calling, assisting, and directing every Thing to its highest natural State. Nature is the Scene of his Providence, and all the Variety of his governing Attributes display themselves by his various Operations in and through Nature: Therefore it is equally certain, that what God does to any Creature, must be done through the Medium of Nature, and also what the Creature does toward God, must be done in and through the Powers of that Nature in which it stands. No temporary Creature can turn to God, or reach after him, or have any Communion with him, but in and according to that Relation which temporary Nature bears to God; nor can any Eternal Beings draw near to, or unite with God in any other manner, than that in which Eternal Nature is united with him: Would you know, why no Omnipotence of God can create Temporal Animals but out of temporary Nature, nor eternal Animals but out of Eternal Nature; it is because no Omnipotence of God can produce a visible Triangle, but out of, and by three visible Lines; for, as Lines must be before there can be any lineal Figures, so Nature must be before there can be natural Creatures.

2. Every Thing that is in Being is either God, or Nature, or Creature; and every Thing that is not God is only a Manifestation of God; for as there is nothing, neither Nature, nor Creature, but what must have its Being in and from God, so every Thing is, and must be, according to its Nature more or less a Manifestation of God. Every thing therefore by its Form and Condition speaks so much of God, and God in every Thing speaks and manifests so much of himself. Temporary Nature is this beginning created System of Sun, Stars, and Element; it is temporary Nature, because it begins and has an End, and therefore is only a temporary Manifestation of God, or God manifested according to transitory Things.

3. Properly and strictly speaking, nothing can begin to be: The Beginning of every Thing

Thing is nothing more than its beginning to be in a new State. Thus Time itself does not begin to be, but Duration, which always was, began to be measured by the Earth's turning round, or the rising and setting of the Sun, and that is called the Beginning of Time, which is, properly speaking, only the Beginning of the Measure of Duration: Thus it is with all temporal Nature, and all the Qualities and Powers of temporal Beings that live in it: No Quality or Power of Nature then began to be, but such Qualities and Powers as had been from all Eternity, began then to be in a new State. Ask what Time is; it is nothing else but something of Eternal Duration become finite, measurable, and transitory. Ask what Fire, Light, Darkness, Air, Water, and Earth are; they are, and can be nothing else, but some eternal Things become gross, finite, measurable, divisible, and transitory. For if there could be a temporal Fire that did not spring out of Eternal Fire, then there might be Time that did not come out of Eternity.

It is thus with every temporary Thing and the Qualities of it; it is the Beginning of Nothing, but only of a new State of something that existed before: Therefore all temporary Nature is a Product, Offspring, or Out-birth of Eternal Nature, and is nothing else but so much of Eternal Nature changed from its eternal to a temporal Condition. Fire did not begin to be, Darkness did not begin to be, Light did not begin to be, Water and Earth did not begin to be, when this temporary World first appeared, but all these Things came out of their Eternal State, into a lower, divided, compacted, created, and transitory State, Hearing, Seeing, Tasting, Smelling, Feeling, did not then begin to be, when God first created the Creatures of this World, they only came to be Qualities and Powers of a lower, and more imperfect Order of Beings, than they had been before.

Figures, and their Relations, did not then begin to be, when Material Circles and Squares, &c. were first made, but these Figures and Relations began then to appear in a lower State than they had done before: And so it must be said of all temporal Nature, and every Thing in it. It is only something of Eternal Nature separated, changed, or created into a new temporary State and Condition.

4. Now it may be asked, Why was Eternal Nature thus degraded, debased, and changed from its Eternal State of Perfection? Will any one say, that God of his own Will changed
Eternal

Eternal Nature, which is the Glorious Manifestation of his Power and Godhead, the Seat of his holy Residence, his Majestic Kingdom of Heaven, into this poor miserable Mixture of Good and Evil, into this impure State of Division, Grossness, Death, and Darknes? No. It is the highest of all Absurdities, to say so. Now we sufficiently know from Scripture, that a whole Hierarchy, or Host of Angels, renounced their Heavenly Life, and therefore raised up a Kingdom that was not Heavenly. Could they not have inflamed and disordered outward Nature in which they lived, they could not have destroyed the Heavenly Nature in themselves: For every Thing must be according to the State of that World in which it lives; and therefore the State of outward Nature, and the State of inward Nature in the Angels, must stand and fall together; and as sure as a whole Kingdom of Angels lost their heavenly Life, so sure is it, that their whole Kingdom lost its heavenly State and Condition: And therefore it is an undeniable Truth, founded on Scripture Evidence, that some Part of Eternal Nature was changed from its first State of Glory and Perfection, before the Creation of Temporary Nature; therefore in the Creation of this poor, gross, disordered, perishable, perishable, material World, one of these two Things was done, either God took the spoiled Part of Heaven or Eternal Nature, and created it into this Temporary State of Good and Evil; or he degraded and brought down some Part of the Kingdom of Heaven from its Glory and Perfection, into this Mixture of Good and Evil, Order and Disorder, in which the World stands. He could not do this latter, without bringing Evil into Nature, as the Devil had done, and therefore we may be sure he did not do it; but if he did the former, then the Creation of this lower World was a glorious Act, and worthy of the infinite Goodness of God, it was putting an End to the Devil's working Evil in Nature, and it was putting the Evil that was brought into Nature in a way of being finally overcome, and turned into Good again. Will any one now call these Things whimsical Speculations? Can any Thing be thought of more worthy of God, more conformable to Nature, or more consonant to all revealed Religion? But perhaps you will say, How could the Angels spoil or destroy that glorious Kingdom of Eternal Nature in which they dwelt? It may be answered, How could it possibly be otherwise? How could they live in Eternal Nature, unless Nature without them, and Nature within them, mutually mixed and qualified with each other? Would you have such mighty Spirits, with their eternal Energies, have less Power in that Nature or Kingdom in which they dwelt, than a kindled Piece of Coal hath in this World? For every Piece of Coal set on Fire adds so much Heat to outward Nature, and so far alters and changes the State of it.

5. Now let it be supposed, not only that a Piece of Coal, but that the Whole of every Thing in this World, that could either give or receive Fire, was made to burn; what Effect would it have upon the whole Frame of Nature? Would not the whole State of Things, the Regions, Places, and Divisions of the Elements, and all the Order of temporal Nature, be quite destroyed.

When therefore every Angelical Life kindled itself in Wrath, and became thereby divided, darkened, and separated from God, the same Kindling, Darkening, Dividing, and Confusion must be brought forth in their Natural Kingdom, because they lived in Nature, and could have neither Love, nor Wrath, but such as they could exert in and by the Powers of Nature.

Now all Fire, where-ever it is, is either a Fire of Wrath, or a Fire of Love: Fire, not overcome or governed by Light, is the Fire of Wrath, which only tears in Pieces, consumes and devours, all that it can lay hold of, and it wills nothing else: But Light is the Fire of Love, it is meek, amiable, full of kind Embraces, lovingly spreading itself, and giving itself with all its Riches, into every Thing that can receive it. These are the two Fires of Eternal Nature, which were but one in Heaven, and can be only one where-ever Heaven is: And it was the Separation of these two Fires that changed the Angels into Devils, and made their Kingdom a Beginning of Hell.

Now either of these two Fires, where-ever it is kindled in animate or lifeless Things, communicates its own kind of Heat in some Degree to outward Nature, and so far alters and changes the State of it: The Wrath of a Man and the Wrath of a Tempest do one and the same Thing to outward Nature, alter its State in the same Manner, and only differ in their Degree of doing it.

Fire kindled in a material Thing can only communicate with the Materiality of Nature; but the Fire of a wrathfully inflamed Man, being a Fire both of Body and Soul, communicates a twofold Heat; it stirs up the Fire of outward Nature, as Fire does in a Coal, and it stirs up the Wrath of Hell as the Devils do.

The Fire of Love, kindled by the Light and Spirit of God, in a truly regenerated Man, communicates a twofold Blessing, it outwardly joins with the meek Light of the Sun, and helps to overcome the Wrath of outward Nature; it inwardly co-operates with the Power of Good Angels, in resisting the Wrath and Darknes of Hell: And it would be no Folly to suppose, that if all human Breath was become a mere, unmixed Wrath, that all the Fire in outward Nature would immediately break forth, and bring that Dissolution upon outward Nature, which will arise from the last Fire. Therefore it is necessary, that a whole Kingdom of Angels should kindle the same Wrath and Disorder in outward Nature that was in themselves; for being in eternal Nature, and communicating with it, as temporal Beings do in temporal Nature, what they did in themselves must be done in that Nature or Kingdom in which they lived and moved, and had their Being.

What a powerful Fire there is in the Wrath of a Spirit, may be seen by the Effects of human Wrath; one sudden Thought shall in a Moment discolour, poison, inflame, swell, distort, distort, and agitate the whole Body of a Man. Whence also is it, that a diseased Body infects the Air, or that malignant Air infects a healthful Body? Is it not because there is and must be an inseparable Qualifying, Mixing, and Uniting betwixt Nature and those Creatures that live in it? Now all Diseases and Malignities, whether in Nature or Creature, all proceed from the sinful Motions of the Will and Desires of the Creature. This is as certain, as that Death and all that leads to it is the sole Product of Sin; therefore it is a certain Truth, that all the Disorder that ever was, or can be in Nature, arises from that Power which the Creature hath in and upon Nature; and therefore as sure as a whole Host of Heavenly Beings raised up a fiery, wrathful, dark Nature in themselves, so sure is it, that the same wrathful, fiery, dark Disorder was raised up in that Kingdom, or Nature, in which they had their Being.

6. Now the Scriptures no where say in express Words, that the Place of this World was the Place of the Angels that fell, and that their fallen, spoiled, and disordered Kingdom, was by the Power of God, changed or created into this temporary State of Things in which we live; this is not expressly said, because it is plainly implied, and fully signified to us by the most general Doctrines of Scripture ; for if we know, both from Nature and Scripture, that this World is a Mixture of Good and Evil, do not we enough know, that it could only be created out of That which was Good and Evil ? And if we know that Evil cannot come from God, if we know that the Devil had actually brought it forth before the Creation of this World, are we not enough told, that the Evil which is in this World, is the Evil that was brought forth into Nature by the Devil, and that therefore the Matter of this World is that very Materiality which was spoiled by the fallen Angels ? How can we need a particular Text of Scripture to tell us, that the Place of this World was the Place of the Angels before their Fall, when the whole Tenor of Scripture tells us, that it is the Place of their Habitation now ? For how could they have, or find Darkness, but in that very Place where they had extinguished the Light ? What could they have to do with us, or we with them, but that we are entered into their Possessions, and have their Kingdom made over to us ? How could they go about amongst us as roaring Lions, seeking whom they may devour, but that our Creation has brought us among them ?

them? They cannot possibly be any where but where they fell, because they can live no where but in the Evil which they have brought forth; they can have no Wrath and Darknes but where they broke off from Light and Love; they can communicate with no outward Nature but that which fell with them, and underwent the same Change as they did: Therefore, though St. Jude saith with great Truth, that they left their own Habitation, yet it is only as they left their own Angelical Nature, not departed from it into a distant Place, but deformed and changed it; so that the Heaven that was within them and without them is equally left, because both within them and without them they have no Habitation but a fiery Darknes broken off from the Light of God.

And therefore as Man by his Creation is brought into a Power of Commerce with those fallen Angels, who must live, and could only act in that Part of Nature which they had deformed, it is plain, that this Creation placed him in that System of Things, which was formed and created out of their fallen Kingdom, because they can act, or be acted upon no where else.

7. And this is the one true and only Reason, why there is Good and Evil throughout all temporal Nature and Creature ; it is because all this temporary Nature is a Creation out of that Strife of Evil against Good, which the fallen Angels had brought into their Kingdom. No subtle evil Serpent could have been generated, no Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil could have sprung out of the Earth, but because Nature in this World was that Part of Eternal Nature which the fallen Angels had corrupted, and therefore a Life made up of Good and Evil could be brought forth by it. Evil and Good were in the Angelical Kingdom as soon as they set their Wills and Desires contrary to God, and the Divine Life. Had God permitted them to go on, their whole Kingdom had been like themselves, all over one unmixed Evil, and so had been incapable of being created into a redeemable State : But God put a Stop to the Progress of Evil in their Kingdom, he came upon it whilst it was in Strife, and *compact*ed or created it all into a new, temporary, material State and Condition ; whence these two Things followed : First, That the fallen Angels lost their Power over it, and could no farther kindle their own Fire in it, but were as chained Prisoners in an Extent of Darknes, which they could neither get out of, nor extend any farther : Secondly, This new Creation, being created out of this beginning Strife, stood as yet in the Birth of Life, and so became capable of being assisted and blessed by God, and finally, at the End of Time; restored to its first heavenly State.

Now the Good and Evil that is in this World is that same Good and Evil, and in the same Strife, that it was in the Kingdom of the fallen Angels, only with this happy Difference, there it was under the Devil's Power, and in a Way to be wholly evil; here it is in a new compacted, or created State, under the Providence and Blessing of God, appointed to bring forth a new kind of Life, and display the Wonders of Divine Love, till such Time as a new Race of Angelical Creatures, born in this Mixture of Good and Evil, shall be fit to receive the Kingdom of Lucifer restored to its first Glory?

Is there any Part of the Christian Religion that does not either suppose, or speak this great Truth, any Part of outward Nature that does not confirm it? Is there any Part of the Christian Religion that is not made more intelligible, more beautiful, and edifying by it? Is there any Difficulty of outward Nature that is not totally removed and satisfied by it?

How

How was the Philosophy of the Antient Sages perplexed with the State of Nature? They knew God to be all Goodness, Love, and Perfection, and so knew not what to do with the Misery of Human Life, and the Disorders of outward Nature, because they knew not how this Nature came into its present State, or from whence it was descended. But had they known that temporal Nature, all that we see in this whole Frame of Things, was only the sickly defiled State of Eternal Things put into a temporary State of Recovery, that Time and all transitory Things were only in this War and Strife, to be finally delivered from all the Evil that was brought into Eternal Nature, their Hearts must have praised God for this Creation of Things as those Morning Stars did, that shouted for Joy when it was first brought forth.

8. From this true Knowledge of the State, and Nature, and Place of this Creation, what a Reasonableness, Wisdom, and Necessity does there appear in the hardest Sayings, Precepts, and Doctrines of the Gospel? He that thus knows what this World is, has great Reason to be glad that he is born into it, and yet still greater Reason to rejoice, in being called out of it, preserved from it, and shewn how to escape with the Preservation of his Soul. The Evils

Evils that are in this World are the Evils of Hell, that are tending to be nothing else but Hell; they are the Remains of the Sin and Poison of the fallen Angels: The Good that is in this World are the Sparks of Life that are to generate Heaven, and gain the Restoration of the first Kingdom of Lucifer. Who therefore would think of any Thing, desire any Thing, endeavour any Thing, but to resist Evil in every Kind, under every Shape and Colour? Who would have any Views, Desires and Prayers after any Thing, but that the Life and Light of Heaven may rise up in Himself, and that God's Kingdom may come, and his Will be done in all Nature and Creature?

Darkness, Light, Fire and Air, Water and Earth, stand in their temporary created Distinction and Strife, for no other End, with no other View, but that they may obtain the one Thing needful, their first Condition in Heaven: And shall Man that is born into Time for no other End, on no other Errand, but that he may be an Angel in Eternity, think it hard to live as if there was but one Thing needful for him? What are the poor Politicks, the earthly Wisdom, the Ease, Sensuality, and Advancements of this World for us, but such Fruits as must be eaten in Hell? To be swelled with Pride,

Pride, to be fattened with Sensuality, to grow great through Craft, and load ourselves with earthly Goods, is only living the Life of Beasts, that we may die the Death of Devils. On the other hand, to go starved out of this World, rich in nothing but heavenly Tempers and Desires, is taking from Time all that we came for, and all that can go with us into Eternity.

9. But to return to the farther Consideration of Nature. As all temporary Nature is nothing else but eternal Nature brought out of its kindled, disordered Strife, into a created or compacted Distinction of its several Parts, so it is plain that the Whole of this World, in all its working Powers, is nothing else but a Mixture of Heaven and Hell. There cannot be the smallest Thing, or the smallest Quality of any Thing in this World, but what is a Quality of Heaven or Hell discovered under a temporal Form: Every Thing that is disagreeable to the Taste, to the Sight, to our Hearing, Smelling, or Feeling, has its Root and Ground, and Cause, in and from Hell, and is as surely in its Degree the Working or Manifestation of Hell in this World, as the most diabolical Malice and Wickedness is: The Stink of Weeds, of Mire, of all poisonous corrupted Things, Scrieks, horrible Sounds, wrathful ful Fire, Rage of Tempests, and thick Darkness, are all of them Things that had no Possibility of Existence, till the fallen Angels disordered the State of their Kingdom; therefore every Thing that is disagreeable and horrible in this Life, every thing that can afflict and terrify our Senses, all the Kinds of natural and moral Evil, are only so much of the Nature, Effects, and Manifestation of Hell: For Hell and Evil are only two Words for one and the same Thing: The Extent of one is the Extent of the other, and all that can be ascribed to the one must be ascribed to the other. On the other hand, all that is sweet, delightful, and amiable in this World, in the Serenity of the Air, the Fineness of Seasons, the Joy of Light, the Melody of Sounds, the Beauty of Colours, the Fragrance of Smells, the Splendor of precious Stones, is nothing else but Heaven breaking through the Veil of this World, manifesting itself in such a Degree, and darting forth in such Variety so much of its own Nature. So that Heaven and Hell are not only as near you, as constantly shewing and proving themselves to all your Senses, as Day and Night, but Night itself is nothing else but Hell breaking forth in such a Degree, and the Day is nothing

thing else but a certain Opening of Heaven, to save us from the Darkneſs that ariſes from Hell.

O Man ! conſider thyſelf, here thou ſtandeſt in the earneſt perpetual Strife of Good and Evil, all Nature is continually at work to bring about the great Redemption ; the whole Creation is travelling in Pain, and laborious Working, to be delivered from the Vanity of Time ; and wilt thou be aſleep ? Every thing thou heareſt, or ſeeſt, ſays nothing, ſhews nothing to Thee, but what either eternal Light, or eternal Darkneſs, hath brought forth ; for as Day and Night divide the whole of our Time, ſo Heaven and Hell divide all our Thoughts, Words, and Actions. Stir which way thou wilt, do, or deſign what thou wilt, thou muſt be an Agent with the one or with the other. Thou canſt not ſtand ſtill, becauſe thou liveſt in the perpetual Workings of temporal and eternal Nature ; if thou workeſt not with the Good, the Evil that is in Nature carries thee along with it : Thou haſt the Height and Depth of Eternity in Thee, and therefore be doing what thou wilt, either in the Cloſet, the Field, the Shop, or the Church, thou art ſowing That which grows, and muſt be reaped in Eternity. Nothing of thine can vaniſh away ; but every Thought, Motion, and Deſire of thy Heart, has its Effect, either in the Height of Heaven, or the Depth of Hell: And as Time is upon the Wing to put an End to the Strife of Good and Evil, and bring about the last great Separation of all Things into their Eternal State, with such Speed art Thou making Haste, either to be wholly an Angel, or wholly a Devil: O! therefore awake, watch and pray, and join with all thy Force with that Goodness of God, which has created Time and all Things in it, to have a happy End in Eternity.

10. Temporal Nature, opened to us by the Spirit of God, becomes a Volume of holy Instruction to us, and leads us into all the Mysteries and Secrets of Eternity: For as every Thing in temporal Nature is descended out of that which is eternal, and stands as a palpable visible Out-birth of it, so when we know how to separate the Grossness, Death, and Darkness of Time from it, we find what it is in its eternal State. Fire, and Light, and Air in this World, are not only a true Resemblance of the Holy Trinity in Unity, but are the Trinity itself in its most outward lowest kind of Existence or Manifestation; for there could be no Fire, Fire could not generate Light, Air could not proceed from both, these three could not be thus united, and thus divided, but because they have their Root and Original in the Trinity of the Deity. Fire compacted, created, separated from Light and Air, is the Elemental Fire of this World : Fire uncreated, uncompacted, unseparated from Light and Air, is the heavenly Fire of Eternity : Fire kindled in any material Thing is only Fire breaking out of its created compacted State ; it is nothing else but the awakening the Spiritual Properties of that Thing, which being thus stirred up, strive to get rid of that material Creation under which they are imprisoned : Thus every kindled Fire, with all its Rage and Fierceness, tears and divides, scatters and consumes that Materiality under which it is imprisoned ; and were not these Spiritual Properties imprisoned in Matter, no material Thing could be made to burn. And this is another Proof, that the Materiality of this World is come out of a higher, and spiritual State, because every Matter upon Earth can be made to discover Spiritual Properties concealed in it, and is indeed a Compaction of nothing else. Fire is not, cannot be a material Thing, it only makes itself visible and sensible by the Destruction of Matter : Matter is its Death and Imprisonment, and it comes to Life but by being able to agitate, divide, shake off, and consume that Matter which held it in Death and Bondage ; so that every Time you see a Fire kindled, you see Nature striving in a low Degree to get rid of the Grossness of this material Creation, and to do that which can alone be done by the last Fire, when all the inward spiritual Properties hid in every Thing, in Rocks, and Stones, and Earth, in Sun, and Stars, and Elements, shall by the last Trumpet be awakened and called forth : And this is a certain Truth, that Fire could no where now be kindled in any material Thing, but for this Reason, because all material Nature was created to be restored, and stands by Divine Appointment in a Fitness and Tendency to have its Deliverance from this created State by Fire ; so that every Time you see a Piece of Matter dissolved by Fire, you have a full Proof, that all the Materiality of this World is appointed to a Dissolution by Fire ; and that then (O glorious Day!) Sun and Stars, and all the Elements, will be delivered from Vanity, will be again that one eternal, harmonious, glorious Thing which they were, before they were compacted into material Distinctions and Separations.

II. The Elements of this World stand in great Strife and Contrariety, and yet in great Desire of mixing and uniting with each other ; and hence arise both the Life and Death of all Temporal Things: And hereby we plainly know that the Elements of this World were once one undivided Thing; for Union can no where be desired, but where there has first been a Separation: As sure therefore as the Elements desire each other, so sure is it, that they have been parted from each other, and are only Parts of some one Thing that has been divided. When the Elements come to such a Degree of Union a Life is produced; but because they have still a Contrariety to each other, they soon destroy again that same Life which they had built, and therefore every four-elementary Life is short and transitory.

Now from this undeniable State of Nature we are told these following great Truths: 1. That the four Elements are only four Parts of That, which before the Creation of this World was only a one Element, or one undivided Power of Life. 2. That the Mortality of this Life is wholly and solely owing to the divided State of the Elements. 3. That the true immortal Life of Nature is only there to be found, where the four Elements are only one Thing, mere Unity and Harmony; where Fire and Air, Water and Earth, have a much more glorious Union than they have in Diamonds monds and precious Stones : For in the brightest Diamonds the four Elements still partake of their divided State, though to our Eye they appear as only one glorious Thing ; but the Beauty of the Diamond is but a Shadow, a low Specimen of that Glory which will shine through all Nature, when Fire and Air, Water and Earth, shall be again that one Thing which they were before the Fall of Angels and the Creation of this World. 4. That the Body of Adam (being formed for Immortality) could not possibly have the Nature, or be made out of the divided State of the Elements. The Letter of Scripture absolutely demonstrates this; for if Sickness, Sorrow, Pain, the Trouble of Heat and Cold, all so many Forerunners of Death, can only be where the Elements are in Division and Contrariety ; and if, according to Scripture, these Calamities did not, could not possibly touch Adam till he fell, then it is plain from Scripture that before his Fall, the Division and Contrariety of the Elements was not in him: And that was his Paradisical Nature, in and by which he stood in a State of Superiority over all the Elements of this World. 5. That the Body of Adam lost its one Elementary Glory and Immortality, and then first became gross, dark, heavy Flesh and Blood, under der the Power of the four Elements, when he lusted to eat, and actually did eat of that Tree, which had its Good and Evil from the divided State of the Elements. 6. Hence we also know with the greatest Certainty, the Mystery of the Resurrection of the Body, that it consists wholly and solely in the reducing the four-elementary Body of this World to its first one Elementary State, and then every one has that same Body raised again that died, and all that Adam lost is restored. For if the Body is mortal, and dies because it is become a Body of the four Elements, it can only be raised immortal, by having its four Elements reduced again into one: And here lies the true Sameness of the Body that died and that which rises again. But to proceed:

12. As all the four Elements, by their Desiring, and wanting to be united together, prove, that they are only four grossly divided Out-Births of That which before was only one heavenly harmonious Element, so every single Element fully demonstrates the same Thing; for every single Element, though standing in its created Contrariety to every other, has yet in its own divided State all the four Elements in itself: Thus the Air has every Thing in it that is in the Earth, and the Earth has in itself every thing that is in Fire, Water and Air, only in a different Mixture and Compaction ; were it not so, had not every Element in some Degree the whole Nature of them all, they could not possibly mix, and qualify with one another ; and this may well pass for a Demonstration, that That out of which the four Elements are descended, was one harmonious Union of them all, because every one of the four, has now, and must have in its divided State, all the four in itself, though not in Equality ; for if the four must be together, though unequally lodged in every single Element, it is plain the four must have been one harmonious Thing, before they were brought into four unequal Separations : And therefore as sure as there are four warring disagreeing Elements in Time, so sure it is that That which is now in this fourfold Division, was and is in Eternity one, in an heavenly harmonious Union, keeping up an Eternal, joyful, glorious Life in Eternal Nature, as its four broken Parts bring forth a poor, miserable, transitory Life in temporal Nature.

13. All Matter in this World is only the Materiality of Heaven thus altered. The Difference between Matter in this World, and Matter in the other World, lies wholly and solely solely in this; in the one it is dead, in the other it is living Materiality. It is dead Materiality in this World, because it is gross, dark, hard, heavy, divisible, &c. It is in this State of Death, because it is separated, or broken off from the Eternal Light, which is the true Life or the Power of Life in every Thing.

In eternal Nature or the Kingdom of Heaven, Materiality stands in Life and Light; it is the Light's glorious Body, or that Garment wherewith Light is cloathed, and therefore has all the Properties of Light in it, and only differs from Light, as it is its Brightness and Beauty, as the Holder and Displayer of all its Colours, Powers, and Virtues. But the same Materiality in this World, being created or compacted into a Separation from Fire united with Light, is become the Body of Death and Darkness, and is therefore gross, thick, dark, heavy, divisible, &c. for Death is nothing else but the shutting up, or shutting out the united Power of Fire and Light: This is the only Death that ever did, or can happen to any Thing whether earthly or heavenly. Therefore every Degree of Hardness, and Darkness, Stiffness, &c. is a Degree of Death; and herein consists the Deadness of the Materiality of this World. When it shall be raised to Life, that is when the United Power of Fire and Light shall kindle itself through all temporal Nature, then Hardness, Darkness, Divisibility, &c. will be all extinguished together.

That the Deadness of the Earth may, and certainly will be brought to Life by the united Power of Fire and Light, is sufficiently shewn us by the Nature and Office of the Sun. The Sun is the united Power of Fire and Light, and therefore the Sun is the Raiser of Light out of the Deadness of the Earth; but because Fire and Light as united in the Sun is only the Virtue of temporary Fire and Light, so it can only raise a short and fading transitory Life. But as sure as you see, that Fire and Light united in the Sun can change the Deadness of the Earth into such a beautiful Variety of a Vegetable Life, so sure are you, that this dark gross Earth is in its State of Death and Darkness, only for this Reason, because it is broken off from the united Power of Fire and Light: For as sure as the outward Operation of the Fire and Light of the Sun can change the Deadness of the Earth into a Degree of Life, so sure is it that the Earth lies in its present Deadness, because it is separated from its own Eternal Fire and Light: And as sure as you see that the Fire and Light of the Sun can raise a temporal Life out of the Earth, so sure is it that the united Power of Eternal Fire and Light can, and will turn all that is earthly into its first State of Life and Beauty. For the Sun of this World, as it is the Union of temporal Fire and Light, has no Power, but as it is the outward Agent, or Temporary Representative of Eternal Fire and Light, and therefore it can only do that in part, and imperfectly in Time, which by the Eternal Fire and Light will be wholly and perfectly done in Eternity. And therefore every Vegetable Life, every Beauty, Power, and Virtue which the Sun calls forth out of the Earth, tells us, with a divine Certainty, that there will come a Time, when all that is hid in the Deadness, Grossness, and Darkness of the Earth, will be again called up to a Perfection of Life, and Glory of Beauty.

14. How has the Philosophy of the Schools been puzzled with the Divisibility of Matter ! It is because human Reason, the Mistress of the Schools, partakes of the Deadness of the Earth; and the Soul of Man must first have the Light of Eternal Life rise up in it, before he can see or find out the Truths of Nature. Human Reason knew nothing of the Death of the Matter, or the Nature and Reason of its temporary Creation, and so thought

Death and Divisibility to be essential to Matter ; but the Light of God tells every Man this infallible Truth, that God made not Death in any Thing, that he is a God of Life, and therefore every Thing that comes from him, comes into a State of Life. Matter is thick, hard, heavy, divisible, and the like, only for a Time, because it is *compact*ed or created into Thickness, Hardness, and Divisibility only for a Time: These are only the Properties of its temporal created State, and therefore are no more essential to it than the Hardness of Ice is essential to Water. Now, that the Creation of the Matter of this World is nothing else but a Compaction, that all the Elements are separated Compactions of That which before was free from such a Compaction, is plain from Scripture. For we are told, that all the Material Things and Elements of this World are to have their created State and Nature taken from them, by being dissolved or melted: But if this be a Scripture Truth, then it is equally true from Scripture, that their Creation was only a Compaction, and a Compaction of something that stood before, according to its own Nature, absolutely free from it. Mortality, Corruptibility, and Divisibility, are not essential Properties, but temporary Accidents, they

they are in Things, as Diseases and Sicknesses are, and are as separable from them; and that is the true Reason, why this Mortal can put on Immortality, this Corruptible can put on Incorruptibility, and this Divisible put on Indivisibility: For when the four Elements shall be dissolved and loosed from their separate Compaction from one another, when Fire and Air, Water and Earth, shall be a one much more glorious and harmonious Thing than they are now in the brightest Diamond, then the Divisibility of this redeemed Materiality will be more impossible to be conceived, than the Distance between Fire and Water in a Diamond.

15. The Reason why all inanimate Things of this World tend towards their utmost Perfection in their Kind, lieth wholly and solely in this Ground; it is because the four Elements of this World were once the one Element of the Kingdom of the fallen Angels; and therefore Nature in this World is always labouring after its first Perfection of Life, or as the Scripture speaks, the whole Creation travaileth in Pain, and groaneth to be delivered from its present Vanity: And therefore it is, that all Vegetables and Fruits naturally grasp after every Kind and Degree of Perfection they can take in; endeavouring, with all their Power, after that first

Perfection of Life which was before the Fall of the Angels. Every Taste, and Colour, and Power, and Virtue, would be what it was before Lucifer kindled his dark, fiery, wrathful Kingdom; but as this cannot be, so when every Fruit and Flower has worked itself as far towards a heavenly Perfection as it can, it is forced to wither and rot, and become a Witness to this Truth, that neither Flesh nor Blood, nor Fruit, nor Flower, can reach the Kingdom of God.

16. All the Misery and Imperfection that are in Temporary Nature arise from the divided State of the Elements: Their Division is that which brings all Kinds and Degrees of Death and Hell into this World, and yet their being in a certain Degree in one another, and always endeavouring after their first Union, is so much of the Nature and Perfection of Heaven still in them. The Death that is in this World consists in the Grossness, Hardness, and Darkness of its Materiality. The Wrath that is in this World consists in the kindled Division of its Qualities, whence there arise a contrary Motion and Fermentation in all its Parts, in which consist both the Life and Death of all its Creatures. This Death and this Wrath are the Nature of Hell in this World, and are the

Manifestation of the Disorders which the fallen Angels have occasioned in Nature. The Heaven in this World began when God said, Let there be Light, for so far as Light is in any Thing, so much it has of Heaven in it, and of the Beginning of a heavenly Life: This shews itself in all Things of this World, chiefly in the Life-giving Power of the Sun, in the Sweetness and Meekness of Qualities and Tempers, in the Softness of Sounds, the Beauty of Colours, the Fragrance of Smells, and Richness of Tastes, and the like; as far as any Thing is tinctured with Light, so far it shews its Descent from Heaven, and its partaking of something heavenly and paradifical. Again, Love or Desire of Union is the other Part of Heaven that is visible in this World. In Things without Life it is a senseless Desire, a friendly mixing and uniting of their Qualities, whereby they strive to be again in that first State of Unity and Harmony, in which they existed before they were kindled into Division by Lucifer. In rational Creatures, it is Meekness, Benevolence Kindness, and Friendship among one another: And thus far they have Heaven and the Spirit of God in them, each in their Sphere, being and doing that to one another, which the Divine Love is and does to all.

Again, the Reason why Man is naturally taken with beautiful Objects, why he admires and rejoices at the Sight of lucid and transparent Bodies, and the Splendor of precious Stones, why he is delighted with the Beauty of his own Person, and is fond of his Features when adorned with fine Colours, has this only true Ground, it is because he was created in the greatest Perfection of Beauty, to live among all the Beauties of a glorious Paradise: And therefore Man, though fallen, has this strong Sensibility, and reaching Desire after all the Beauties that can be picked up in fallen Nature. Had not this been his Case, had not Beauty and Light, and the Glory of Brightness been his first State by Creation, he would now no more want the Beauty of Objects, than the Ox wants to have his Pasture enclosed with beautiful Walls, and painted Gates. Every Vanity of fallen Man shews our first Dignity, and the Vanities of our Desires are so many Proofs of the Reality of that which we are fallen from. Man wants to see himself in Riches, Greatness, and Power, because human Nature came first into the World in that State; and therefore what he had in Reality in Paradise, Paradise, that he is vainly seeking for, where he is only a poor Prisoner in the Valley and Shadow of Death.

17. All Beings, that are purely of this World, have their Existence in and Dependence upon temporal Nature. God is no Maker, Creator, or Governor of any Being or Creature of this World, immediately, or by himself, but he creates, upholds, and governs all Things of this World, by, and through, and with temporal Nature: As temporary Nature is nothing else but Eternal Nature separated, divided, compacted, made visible, and changeable for a Time, so Heaven is nothing else but the beatifick Visibility, the Majestick Presence of the abyssal, unsearchable, Tri-une God: It is that Light with which the Scripture saith, God is decked as with a Garment, and by which he is manifested and made visible to heavenly Eyes and Beings; for Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, as they are the Tri-une God, deeper than the Kingdom of Heaven or Eternal Nature, are invisible to all created Eyes; but that beatifick Visibility and outward Glory, which is called the Kingdom of Heaven, is the Manifestation of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, in, and by, and through the glorious Union of Eternal Fire, and Light, and Spirit. In the Kingdom of Heaven these are three and one, because their Original, the Holy Trinity, is so; and we must call them by the Names of Fire, and Light, and Spirit, because all that we have of Fire, and Light, and Spirit in this World, has its whole Nature directly from them, and is indeed nothing else but the Fire, and Light, and Spirit of Eternity, brought into a separated, compacted, temporal State. So that to speak of a heavenly Fire has no more Grossness and Offence in it, than when we speak of a heavenly Life, a heavenly Light, or heavenly Spirit; for if there is a heavenly Light and Spirit, there must of all necessity be a heavenly Fire; and if these Things were not in Heaven in a glorious State of Union, they never could have been here in this gross State of a temporal Compaction and Division: So that as sure as there are Fire, and Light, and Air in this World, in a divided, compacted, imperfect State, in which consists the Life of temporary Nature and Creatures, so sure is it, that Fire, and Light, and Spirit, are in the Kingdom of Heaven, united in one Perfection of Glory, in which consists the beatifick Visibility of God, the Divine Nature as communicable to heavenly Beings.

18. The Kingdom of Heaven stands in this threefold Life, where three are one, because it is a Manifestation of the Deity, which is three and one; the Father has his distinct Manifestation in the Fire, which is always generating the Light; the Son has his distinct Manifestation of the Light, which is always generated from the Fire; the Holy Ghost has his Manifestation in the Spirit, that always proceeds from both, and is always united with them.

It is this Eternal Unbeginning Trinity in Unity of Fire, Light, and Spirit, that constitutes Eternal Nature, the Kingdom of Heaven, the heavenly Jerusalem, the Divine Life, the beatifick Visibility, the Majestick Glory and Presence of God. Through this Kingdom of Heaven, or Eternal Nature, is the invisible God, the incomprehensible Trinity eternally breaking forth, and manifesting itself in a boundless Height and Depth of blisful Wonders, opening and displaying itself to all its Creatures in an infinite Variation and endless Multiplicity of its Powers, Beauties, Joys, and Glories. So that all the Inhabitants of Heaven are for ever Knowing, Seeing, Hearing, Feeling, and variously enjoying all that is great, amiable, infinite, and glorious in the Divine Nature.

Nothing ascends, or comes into this Kingdom of Heaven, but that which descended, or came out of it, all its Inhabitants must be innate Guests, and born out of it.

19. God considered in himself, as distinct from this Eternal Nature or Kingdom of Heaven, is not the immediate Creator of any Angels, Spirits, or Divine Beings; but as he creates and governs all temporal Beings in, and by, and out of temporal Nature, so he creates and governs all Spiritual and Heavenly Beings in, and by, and out of Eternal Nature: This is as absolutely true, as that no Being can be temporal but by partaking of temporal Nature, nor any Being eternal but by partaking of the eternal divine Nature; and therefore whatever God creates, is not created immediately by himself, but in and by, and out of that Nature in which it is to live, and move, and have its Being, temporal Beings out of temporal Nature, and eternal Beings out of the heavenly Kingdom of Eternal Nature: And hence it is, that all Angels, and the Souls of Men, are said to be born of God, Sons of God, and Partakers of the Divine Nature, because they are formed out of that Eternal Nature, which is the unbeginning Majesty of God, the Kingdom of Heaven, or Visible Glory of the Deity. In this Eternal Nature, which is the Majestick Cloathing, or Glory

Glory of the Tri-une God, manifested in the glorious Unity of divine Fire, Light, and Spirit, have all the created Images of God, whether they be Angels or Men, their Existence, Union and Communion with God; because Fire and Light, and Spirit, have the same Union and Birth in the Creature as in the Creator: And hence it is, that they are so many various Mirrors of the Deity, penetrated with the Majesty of God, receiving and returning back Communications of the Life of God. Now in this Ground, that is, in this Consideration of God, as manifesting his Holy Trinity through Nature and Creature, lieth the solid and true Understanding of all that is so variously said of God, both in the Old and New Testament, with Relation to Mankind as to their Creation, Fall, and Redemption. God is to be considered throughout as the God of Nature, only manifesting himself to all his Creatures in a Variety of Attributes in and by Nature, creating, governing, blessing, punishing, and redeeming them according to the Powers, Workings and Possibilities of Nature. Fire, Light, and Spirit in harmonious Union, are the substantial Glory, the beatifick Manifestation of the tri-une God, visible and communicable to Creatures formed out of it. All intelligent holy Beings were by God formed and created out of, and for the Enjoyment of this Kingdom of Glory, and had Fire and Light, and Spirit, as the Tri-une Glory of the created Being: And herein consisted the infinite Love, Goodness, and Bounty of God to all his Creatures: It was their being made Creatures of this Fire, Light, and Spirit, Partakers of that same Nature in which the Holy Trinity had stood from all Eternity gloriously manifested. And thus they were Creatures, Subjects, and Objects of the Divine Love; they came into the nearest, highest Relation to God; they stood in, and partook of his own manifested Nature, so that the outward Glory and Majesty of the Tri-une God was the very Form, and Beauty, and Brightness of their own created Nature. Every Creature which thankfully, joyfully, and absolutely gave itself up to this blessed Union with God, became absolutely fixed in its first created Glory, and incapable of knowing any thing but Love, and Joy, and Happiness in God to all Eternity: Thus in this State all Angels and Men came first out of the Hands of God. But seeing Light proceeds from Fire by a Birth, and the Spirit from both, and seeing the Will must be the Leader of the Birth, Lucifer and Adam could could both do as they did, Lucifer could will strong Might and Power, to be greater than the Light of God made him, and so he brought forth a Birth of Might and Power, that was only mighty Wrath and Darkness, a Fire of Nature broken off from its Light. Adam could will the Knowledge of temporal Nature, and so he lost the Light and Spirit of Heaven for the Light and Spirit of this World: And had Man been left in this State of temporary Nature, without a Redeemer, he must, when the Light of this World had left him, have found himself in the same absolute Wrath and Darkness of Nature, which the fallen Angels are in.

20. Now after these two Falls of two Orders of Creatures, the Deity itself came to have new and strange Names, new and unheard of Tempers and Inclinations of Wrath, Fury, and Vengeance ascribed to it. I call them new, because they began at the Fall; I call them strange, because they were foreign to the Deity, and could not belong to God in himself: Thus God is in the Scriptures said to be a Consuming Fire. But to whom? To the fallen Angels, and lost Souls. But why, and how is he so to them? It is because those Creatures have lost all that they had from God but Fire; and therefore God can only be found and manifested in them them as a Consuming Fire. Now is it not justly said, that God, who is nothing but infinite Love, is yet in such Creatures only a Consuming Fire, and that though God be nothing but Love, yet they are under the Wrath and Vengeance of God, because they have only that Fire in them, which is broken off from the Light and Love of God, and so can know, or feel nothing of God, but his Fire in them? As Creatures they can have no Life but what they have in and from God; and therefore that wrathful Life which they have is truly said to be a Wrath of God upon them. And yet it is as strictly true, that there is no Wrath in God himself, that he is not changed in his Temper towards the Creatures, that he does not cease to be one and the same infinite Fountain of Goodness, infinitely flowing forth in the Riches of his Love upon all and every Life; but the Creatures have changed their State in Nature, and so the God of Nature can only be manifested in and to them, according to their own State in Nature: And this is the true Ground of rightly understanding all that is said of the Wrath and Vengeance of God in and upon the Creatures. It is only in such a Sense, as the Curse or Unhappiness of God may be said to be upon them, not because any Thing

cursed or unhappy can be in, or come from God, but because they have made that Life, which they must have in God, to be mere Curse and Unhappiness to them : For every Creature that lives must have its Life in and from God, and therefore God must be in every Creature ; this is as true of Devils, as of Holy Angels : But how is God in them ? Why only as he is manifested in Nature. Holy Angels have the Tri-une Life of God in them, therefore God is in them all Love, Goodness, Majesty, and Glory, and theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. Devils have nothing of this Triune Life left in them, but the Fire of Eternal Nature broken off from all Light and Joy ; and therefore the Light that they can have in and from God is only a Life of Wrath and Dark- ness, and theirs is the Kingdom of Hell : And because this Life is a Strength of Life which they must have in and from God, and which they cannot take out of his Hands, therefore is their cursed, miserable, wrathful Life truly and justly said to be the Curse, and Wrath, and Vengeance of God in and upon them, though God himself can no more have Wrath and Vengeance, than he can have Mischief and Malice in him : for this is a glorious twofold Truth, that from God, considered as in himself,

himself nothing can come from Eternity to Eternity but infinite Love, Goodness, Happiness, and Glory; and also that infinite Love, Goodness, Happiness, and Glory, are and will be for ever and ever flowing forth from him in the same boundless, universal, infinite manner; he is the same infinitely overflowing Fountain of Love, Goodness, and Glory after, as before the Fall of any Creatures; his Love, and the infinite Workings of it, can no more be lessened, than his Power can be increased by any outward Thing; no Creature, or Number of Creatures can raise any Anger in him; it is as impossible, as to cast Terror, or Darkness and Pain into him, for nothing can come into God from the Creature, nothing can be in him, but that which the Holy Trinity in Unity is in itself. All Creatures are Products of the infinite Tri-une Love of God; nothing willed, and desired, and formed them, but infinite Love; and they have all of them all the Happiness, Beauty, and Excellency that an infinitely powerful Love can reach out to them: The same infinite Love continues still in its first creating Goodness, willing, desiring, working, and doing nothing with regard to all Creatures but what it willed, did, and desired in the Creation of them: This God over Nature and . Creature

Creature darts no more Anger at Angels when fallen, than he did in the Creation of them: They are not in Hell because Father, Son, and Holy Ghost are angry at them, and so cast them into a Punishment which their Wrath had contrived for them; but they are in Wrath and Darkness, because they have done to the Light, which infinitely flows forth from God, as that Man does to the Light of the Sun, who puts out his own Eyes: He is in Darkness, not because the Sun is darkened towards him, has less Light for him, or has lost all Inclination to enlighten him, but because he has put out that Birth of Light in himself, which alone made him capable of seeing in the Light of the Sun. It is thus with fallen Angels; they have extinguished in themselves that Birth of Light and Love, which was their only Capacity for that Happiness, which infinitely and every where flows forth from God; and they no more have their Punishment from God himself, than the Man who puts out his Eyes has his Darkness from the Sun itself.

21. God, considered in himself, as the Holy Tri-une God, is not the immediate Fountain and Original of Creatures; but God, considered as manifesting himself in and through Nature, is the Creator, Father, and Producer of all Things. The hidden Deity of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, is from Eternity to Eternity, manifested, made visible, perceivable, sensible, in the united Glory of Fire, Light, and Spirit; this is the beatific Presence, the glorious Out-birth of the Holy Trinity; this is that eternal, universal Nature, which brings God into all Creatures, and all Creatures into God, according to that Degree and Manner of Life which they have in Nature: For the Life of Creatures must stand in Nature, and Nature is Nothing else but God made manifest, visible, and perceptible; and therefore the Life of every Creature, be it what it will, a Life of Joy or Wrath, is only so much of God made manifest in it, and perceptible by it, and thus is God in some Creatures only a God of Wrath, and in others, only a God of Glory and Goodness.

No Creature can have Life, or live, and move and have its Being in God, but by being formed out of, and living in this Manifestation of Nature. Thus far Hell and Heaven, Angels and Devils, are equally in God, that is, they equally live, move, and have their Being in that Eternal Nature, which is the Eternal Manifestation of God: the one have a Life of Glory, Majesty, and Love, and Bliss; the other a Life of Horror, Fire, Wrath, Misery, and Darkness.

Darkness. Now all this could not possibly be, there could be no Room for this Distinction between Creatures standing in Nature, the one could not possibly have a Life of Majestick Bliss and Glory, the other of fiery Horror and Darkness, but because the Holy Tri-une God is manifested in the united Glory and Bliss of Fire, Light and Spirit. For the Creatures could only divide That which was in Nature to be divided, they could only divide That which was united and divisible; and therefore, as sure as Heaven is a splendidous Light of blissful Majesty, as sure as Hell is a Place of fiery Wrath and Darkness, so sure is it from the Scriptures, that the Eternal Nature, which is from God, or a Manifestation of God, is a Nature of united Fire, Light, and Spirit, otherwise, some Creatures could not have the blissful Glory of Light, and others a horrible fiery Darkness for their separate Portions.

All therefore that has been said of an Eternal Nature or Kingdom of Heaven, consisting of united Fire, Light, and Spirit, is not only to be looked upon as an Opinion well grounded, and sufficiently discovered by the Light of Nature, but as a fundamental Truth of revealed Religion, fully established by all that is said in the Scriptures both of Heaven and Hell. For if God was not manifested, visible, perceptible and communicable, in and by this united Fire, and Light and Spirit, how could there be a Heaven of glorious Majesty? If this Fire of Heaven could not be separated, or broken off from its heavenly Light, how could there be a Hell in Nature? Or, how could those Angels which lost the Light of Heaven, have thereby fallen into a State of hellish Darkness or Fire? Is not all this the greatest of Demonstrations, that the holy Tri-unity of God is, and must be manifested in Nature, by the Union of Fire, Light, and Spirit? And is not this Demonstration wholly taken from the very Letter of the most plain Doctrines of Scripture?

Hell and Wrath could have no Possibility of Existence, but because the Light, and Majesty, and Glory of Heaven, must of all necessity have its Birth in and from the Fire of Nature. An Angel could not have become a Devil, but because the Angelick Light and Glory had, and must have its Birth in and from the Fire of Life. And thus as a Devil was found, where angelick Light and Glory had its Existence, so a Hell was found, where heavenly Glory was before; and as the Devil is nothing but a Fire-spirit broken off from its Angelical Light and Glory, so Hell is nothing but the Fire of Heaven separated from its first Light and Majesty.

And here we have plainly found two Worlds in Eternity ; not possible to be two, nor ever known to be two, but by such Creatures, as have in their own Natures, by their own Self-motion, separated the Fire of Eternal Nature from its Eternal Light, Spirit, and Majesty. And this is also the Beginning, or first Opening of the Wrath of God in the Creature ; which is, in other Words, only the Beginning, or first Opening of Pain and Misery in the Creature, or the Origin of a hellish, tormenting State of Life.

22. And here, in this dark wrathful Fire of the fallen Creature, do we truly find that Wrath, and Anger, and Vengeance of God, that cleave to Sin, that must be quenched, attoned, and satisfied, before the Sinner can be reconciled to God ; that is, before it can have again that Tri-une Life of God in it, which is its Union with the holy Trinity of God, or its regaining the Kingdom of Heaven in itself.

Some have objected, that by thus considering the fallen Soul as a dark wrathful Fire-Spirit, for this Reason, because it has lost the Birth of the Son and holy Spirit of God in it, that this casts Reproach upon God the Father, as having the Nature of such a Soul in Him. But this is a groundless Objection ; for this State of the Soul casts no more Reproach upon the first, than upon the second and third Persons of the holy Trinity. The fallen Soul, that has lost the Birth of the Son and holy Spirit of God in it, cannot be said to have the Nature of the Father left in it. This would be blasphemous Nonsense, and is no way founded on this Doctrine. But such a Soul must be said to have a Nature from the Father left in it, though a spoiled one, and this because the Father is the Origin, Fountain, and Creator of all kind of Existence: Hell and the Devils have their Nature from Him, because every Kind of Creature must have what it has of Life and Being from its Creator; but Hell and the Devils have not therefore the Nature of the Father in them. If it be asked what the Father is, as he is the first Person in the sacred Trinity, the Answer must be, that as such He is the Generator of the Son and holy Spirit: This is the Nature of the Father; where this generating is not, there is not the Nature of the Father. Is it not therefore highly absurd to charge this Doctrine with ascribing the Nature of the Father to the fallen Soul, which asserts the Soul to be fallen, for this Reason, because it has quite lost and extinguished all Power and Ability for the Birth of the Son and holy Spirit in it? How could it be more

roundly affirmed, or more fully proved, that the fallen Soul hath not the Nature of the Father left in it. But to proceed :

The Reader ought not to wonder, or be offended at the frequent mention of the Word Fire, which is here used to denote the true Nature and State of the Soul. For both Nature and Scripture speak continually the same Language. For wherever there is mention of Life, Light, or Love in the Scriptures, there Fire is necessarily supposed, as being that in which all Life, and Light, and Love, must necessarily arise; and therefore the Scriptures speak as often of Fire, as they do of Life, and Light, and Love, because the one necessarily includes the other: For all Life, whether it be vegetable, sensitive, animal, or intellectual, is only a kindled Fire of Life in such a Variety of States; and every dead insensitive Thing is only so, because its Fire is quenched, or shut up in a hard Compaction. If therefore we will speak of the true Ground of the fallen State of Men and Angels, we are not at Liberty to think of it under any other Idea, or speak of it in any other manner, than as the darkened Fire of their Life, or the Fire of their Life unable to kindle itself into Light and Love. Do not the Scriptures strictly confine us to this Idea of Hell?

So that it is not any particular Philosophy, or affected Singularity of Expression, that makes me speak in this manner of the Soul, but because all Nature and Scripture force us to confess that the Root of all and every Life stands, and must necessarily stand in the Properties of Fire.

The holy Scriptures also speak much of Fire, in the Ideas which they give us both of the divine Nature, and of created Spirits, whether they be saved or lost; the former as becoming Flames of heavenly Light and Love, the latter as dark Firebrands of Hell*.

No Description is or can be given us either of Heaven or Hell, but where Fire is necessarily signified to be the Ground and Foundation both of the one and of the other. Why do all Languages, however distant, and different from one another, all speak of the Coldness of Death, the Coldness of Insensibility? Why do they all agree in speaking of the Warmth of Life, the Heat of Passions, the Burnings of Wrath, the Flames of Love? It is because it is the Voice or Dictate of Universal Nature, that Fire is the Root or Seat of Life, and that all the Varieties of human Tempers only the various Workings of the Fire of Life.—It ought to be no Reason why we should think grossly of Fire, because it is seen in so many gross Things of this World? For how is it seen in them? Why only as a Destroyer, a Consumer, and Refiner of all Grossness; as a Kindler of Life, and Light, out of Death and Darkness. So that in all the Appearances of Fire, even in earthly Things, we have Reason to look upon it as something of a heavenly, exalting, and glorious Nature; as that which disperses Death, Darkness, and

Grossness,

S. Dionis. Arcop. de cœlesti Hierarchia, 56.

Grossness, and raises up the Power and Glory of every Life.

If you ask what Fire is in its first, true, and unbeginning State, not yet entered into any Creature, It is the Power and Strength, the Glory and Majesty of eternal Nature ; it is that which generates, enriches, brightens, strengthens, and displays the Light of Heaven. It is that which makes the eternal Light to be majestick, the eternal Love to be flaming: For the Strength and Vivacity of Fire, must be both the Majesty of Light, and the Ardour of Love. It is the glorious Out-birth, the true Representative of God the Father, eternally generating his only Son, Light, and Word.

If you ask what Fire is in its own spiritual Nature, it is merely a Desire, and has no other Nature than that of a working Desire, which is continually its own Kindler. For every Desire is nothing else, but its own striking up, or its own kindling itself into some Kind and Degree of Fire. And hence it is that Nature (though reduced to great Ignorance of itself) has yet forced all Nations and Languages to speak of its Desires, as cool, warm, or burning, &c. because every Desire is, so far as it goes, a kindled Fire. And it is to be observed, that Fire could have no Existence or Operation in material Things, but because all the Matter of this World has in it more or less of spiritual and heavenly Properties compacted in it, which continually desire to be delivered from their material Imprisonment. And the stirring up the Desire of these spiritual Properties is the kindling of that Heat, and Glance, and Light, in material Things, which we call Fire, and is nothing else but their gloriously breaking, and triumphantly dispersing that hard Compaction in which they were imprisoned. And thus does every kindled Fire, as a Flash or transitory opening of heavenly Glory, shew us in little and daily, but true Instances, the Triumph of the last Fire, when all that is spiritual and heavenly in this World shall kindle and separate itself from that, which must be the Death and Darkness of Hell.

Now the Reason why there are spiritual Properties in all the material Things of this World, is only this, it is because the Matter of this World is the Materiality of the Kingdom of Heaven, brought down into a created State of Grossness, Death, and Imprisonment, by occasion of the Sin of those Angels, who first inhabited the Place or Extent of this material World.

Now these heavenly Properties, which were brought into this created Compaction, lie in a continual Desire to return to their first State of Glory ; and this is the groaning of the whole Creation to be delivered from Vanity, which the Apostle speaks of And in this continual Desire lieth the kindling, and all the Possibility of kindling any Fire in the Things of this World. Quench this Desire, and suppose there is nothing in the Matter of this World that desires to be restored to its first Glory, and then all the breaking forth of Fire, Light, Brightness, and Glance, in the Things of this World, is utterly quenched with it, and it would be the same Impossibility to strike Fire, as to strike Sense and Reason out of a Flint.

24. You will perhaps say, though this be a Truth, yet it is more speculative than edifying, more fitted to entertain the Curiosity, than to assist the Devotion of Christians. But stay a while, and you shall see it is a Truth full of the most edifying Instruction, and directly speaking to the Heart.

For if every Desire is in itself, in its own Effence, the kindling of Fire, then we are taught this great practical Lesson, that our own Desire is the Kindler of our own Fire, the Former and Raiser of that Life which leads us. What our Desire kindles, that becomes the Fire of our Life, and fits us either for the majestic Glories of the Kingdom of God, or the dark Horrors of Hell : So that our Desire is all, it does all, and governs all, and all that we have and are must arise from it, and therefore it is that the Scripture saith, Keep thy Heart with all Diligence, for out of it are the Issues of Life.

We are apt to think that our Imaginations and Desires may be played with, that they rise and fall away as nothing, because they do not always bring forth outward and visible Effects. But indeed they are the greatest Reality we have, and are the true Formers and Raisers of all that is real and solid in us. All outward Power that we exercise in the Things about us, is but as a Shadow, in comparison of that inward Power that resides in our Will, Imagination, and Desires ; these communicate with Eternity, and kindle a Life which always reaches either Heaven or Hell. This Strength of the inward Man makes all that is the Angel, and all that is the Devil in us, and we are neither good nor bad, but according to the Working of that which is spiritual and invisible in us. Now our Desire is not only thus powerful and productive of real Effects, but it is always alive, always working and creating in us, I say creating, for it has no less Power, perpetually generates either Life or Death in us: And here lies the Ground of the great Efficacy of Prayer, which when it is the Prayer of the Heart, the Prayer of Faith, has a kindling and creating Power, and forms and transforms the Soul into every Thing that its Desires reach after: It has the Key to the Kingdom of Heaven, and unlocks all its Treasures, it opens, extends, and moves that in us, which has its Being and Motion in and with the Divine Nature, and so brings us into a real Union and Communion with God.

Long Offices of Prayer founded only from the Mouth, or impure Hearts, may Year after Year be repeated to no Advantage; they leave us to grow old in our own poor, weak State: These are only the poor Prayers of Heathens, who, as our Lord said, think to be heard by their much speaking. But when the Eternal Springs of the purified Heart are stirred, when they stretch after that God from whence they came, then it is that what we ask we receive, and what we seek we find. Hence it is, that all those great Things are by the Scriptures attributed to Faith, that to it all Things are possible; that it heals the Sick, saves the Sinner, can remove Mountains, and that all Things are possible to him that believeth; it is because the Working of Will and Desire is the first Eternal Source of all Power,

Power, that from which every Thing is kindled into that Degree of Life in which it standeth ; it is because Will and Desire in us are Creaturely Offsprings of that first Will and Desire which formed and governed all Things ; and therefore when the Creaturely Power of our Will, Imagination, and Desire leaves off its Working in Vanity, and gives itself wholly unto God in a naked and implicit Faith in the Divine Operation upon it, then it is that it does nothing in vain, it rises out of Time into Eternity, is in Union and Communion with God, and so all Things are possible to it. Thus is this Doctrine so far from being vainly speculative, that it opens to us the Ground, and shews us the Necessity and Excellence of the greatest Duties of the Gospel.

25. Now as all Desire throughout Nature and Creature is but one and the same Thing, branching itself out into various Kinds and Degrees of Existence and Operation, so there is but one Fire throughout all Nature and Creature, standing only in different States and Conditions. The Fire that is in the Light of the Sun is the same Fire that is in the Darkness of the Flint : That Fire which is the Life of our Bodies is the Life of our Souls ; that which tears Wood in Pieces is the same which upholds the beauteous Forms of Angels: It is the same Fire that burns Straw, that will at last melt the Sun; the same Fire, that brightens a Diamond, is darkened in a Flint: It is the same Fire that kindles Life in Animal, that kindled it in Angels: In an Angel it is an Eternal Fire of an Eternal Life, in an Animal it is the same Fire brought into a temporary Condition, and therefore can only kindle a Life that is temporary: The same Fire, that is mere Wrath in a Devil, is the Sweetness of flaming Love in an Angel; and the same Fire, which is the Majestick Glory of Heaven, makes the Horror of Hell.

C H A P. III.

The true Ground of all the Doctrines of the Gospel discovered. Why Adam could make no Atonement for his Sins. Why and how Jesus Christ alone could make this Atonement. Whence the Shedding of Blood for the Remission of Sins. What Wrath or Anger it is, that is quenched and atoned by the Blood of Christ. Of the last Sufferings of Christ. Why and how we must eat the Flesh and drink the Blood of Jesus Christ.

1. WE have now, worthy Reader, so far cleared the Way, that we have nothing to do but to rejoice in the most open Illustration, and full Proof of all the great Doctrines of the Gospel, and to see all the Objections, which Deists, Arians, and Socinians, have brought against the first Articles of our Faith, dashed to Pieces: For as soon as we do but begin to know, that the holy Tri-une Deity, from Eternity to Eternity, manifests itself in Nature by the Tri-une Birth of Fire, Light, and Spirit, and that all Angels and Men must have been created out of this Nature, there is not a Doctrine in Scripture concerning the Creation, Fall, and Redemption of Man, but becomes the most plainly intelligible, and all the Mysteries of our Redemption are proved and confirmed to us, by all that is visible and perceptible in all Nature and Creature.

Here we have the plain Foundation of the whole Oeconomy of all Religion, from the Beginning to the End of Time; why the In-carnation of the Son of God, who is the Light of the World, must have before it the fiery Dispensation of the Father delivered from Mount Sinai; and after it the pouring out, or proceeding forth of the Holy Spirit upon all Flesh; it is because the Tri-une Life of the fallen Race must be restored according to the Tri-une Manifestation of the Holy Deity in Nature.

Here we know what the Love, and what the Anger of God is, what Heaven and Hell, an Angel and a Devil, a lost and a redeemed Soul are. The Love, and Goodness, and Blessing of God known, found, and enjoyed by any Creature, are nothing else but the Holy Trinity of God known, found, and enjoyed in the blissful, glorious, Tri-une Life of Fire, Light, and Spirit, where Father, Son, and Holy Ghost perpetually communicate their own nameless, numberless, boundless Powers, Riches, and Glories to the created Image of their own Nature.

Nature. The Hell in Nature, and the hellish Life in the Creature, the Wrath of God in Nature and Creature, are nothing else but the Triune holy Life broken and destroyed in some Order of Creatures, only the Fire of Heaven separated from its heavenly Light and Spirit. This is that Eternal Anger, and Wrath, and Vengeance, that must be atoned, satisfied, and removed, that eternal Fire that must be quenched, that eternal Darkness that must be changed into Light, or there is no Possibility in Nature that the Soul of fallen Man should ever see the Kingdom of God: And here all the Doctrines of the Socinians are quite torn up by the Roots. For in this Ground appeareth the absolute Necessity of the Incarnation, Life, Sufferings, Death, Resurrection and Ascension of the Son of God. Here lieth the full Proof, that through all Nature there could no Redeemer of Man be found, but only in the Second Person of the adorable Trinity become Man. For as the Light and Spirit of Eternal Life are the Light and Spirit of the Son and Holy Ghost manifested in Heaven, so the Light of Eternal Life could never come again into the fallen Soul, but from him alone, who is the Light of Heaven. He must be again in the Soul, as he was in it when it was first breathed forth from the Holy Trinity, he must be manifested in the Soul, as he is in Heaven, or it can never have the Life of Heaven in it.

The Socinians therefore, or others, who think they pay a just Deference to the Wisdom and Omnipotence of God, when they suppose there was no absolute Necessity for the Incarnation of the Son of God ; but that God, if he had so pleased, could as well have saved Man some other Way, shew as great Ignorance both of God and Nature, as if they should have said, that when God makes a blind Man to see by opening or giving him Eyes, there was no Necessity, in the Thing itself, that Sight should be given in that particular Way, but that God, if he had so pleased, could have made him become a seeing Man in this World without the Eyes, or Light of this World.

For if the Son of God is the Light of Heaven, and Man only wants to be redeemed, because he has lost the Light of Heaven ; is it not absolutely impossible for him to be redeemed any other Way, or by any other Thing, than by a Birth of this Son of God in him ? Is not this Particularity the one only Thing that can raise fallen Man, as seeing Eyes are the one only Thing that can take away Blindness from the Man ?

2. If Adam had been able to undo in himself all that he had done, if he could have gone back into that State from whence he was fallen, if he could have raised up again in himself that Birth of the Holy Trinity in which he was created, no Saviour had been wanted for him; but because he could not do any Thing of this, but must be That which he had made himself to be, therefore the Wrath of Nature, or the Wrath of God manifested in Nature, abode upon him, and this Wrath must of all necessity be appeased, atoned, and satisfied, that is, it must be kindled into Light and Love, before he could again find, and enjoy the God of Nature, as a God of Light and Love.

Could Adam himself have done all that which I have just now mentioned, then his own Actions had atoned and satisfied the Divine Wrath, and had reconciled him to God: For nothing lost him the Love of God, but That which separated him from God; and nothing did, or ever can separate him from God, but the Loss of that Tri-une Life, in which alone the Holy Trinity of Divine Love can dwell. If therefore Adam could have raised again in himself that Tri-une Life, then his Sin, and the Wrath of God upon him, had been only transitory; but because he did That, which according to all the Possibilities of Nature was unalterable, therefore he became a Prisoner of an eternal Wrath, an Heir of an everlasting painful Life, till the Love of God, who is greater than Nature, should do That for him and in him, which he could by no Powers of Nature do for himself, nor the highest of Creatures do for him.

3. And here we see in the plainest Light, that there was no Anger in God himself towards the fallen Creature, because it was purely and solely the infinite Love of God towards him, that did, and alone could raise him out of his fallen State: All Scripture, as well as Nature, obliges us to think thus of God. Thus it is the whole Tenor of Scripture, that God so loved the World, that he sent his only-begotten Son into it, that the World through him might be saved: Is not this saying more than if it had been said, that there was no Anger in God himself towards fallen Man: Is he not expressly declared to be infinitely flowing forth in Love towards him? Could God be more infinite in Love, or more infinitely distant from all Possibility of Anger towards Man, when he first created him, than when he thus redeemed him? God out of pure and free Love gave his Son to be the Life of the World, first, as a Word of Life, reserved and treasured treasured up in the Soul, as the Bruiser of the Serpent, given to all Mankind in their Father Adam. This Word of Life and Bruiser of the Serpent was the Extinguisher of that Wrath of God that lay upon fallen Man. Now will the Scriptures, which tell us that the Love of God sent his Son into the World, to redeem Man from that hellish Wrath that had seized on him, allow us to say, that it was to extinguish a Wrath that was got into God himself, or that the Bruiser of the Serpent was to bruise, suppress, or remove something that Sin had raised in the Holy Deity itself? No surely, but it was to bruise, alter, and overcome an Evil in Nature and the Creature, that was become Man's Separation from the Enjoyment of the God of Love, whose Love still existed in its own State, and still followed him, and gave his only Son to make him capable of it. Do not the Holy Scriptures continually teach us, that the Holy Jesus became incarnate to destroy the Works of the Devil, to overcome Death and Hell that had taken Man captive? And is not this sufficiently telling us, what that Wrath was, and where it existed, which must be atoned, satisfied, and extinguished, before Man could again be alive unto God, or reconciled unto him, so as to have the Tri-une Life of Light and Love in him? It was a Wrath of Death, a Wrath of Hell, a Wrath of Sin, and which only the precious powerful Blood of Christ could change into a Life of Joy and Love: And when this Wrath of Death and Hell are removed from Human Nature, there neither is, nor can be any other Wrath of God abiding on it. Are not the Devils and all lost Souls justly said to be under the eternal Wrath of God, and yet in no Wrath but that which exists in Hell, and in their own Hellish Nature.

4. They therefore who suppose the Wrath and Anger of God upon fallen Man, to be a State of Mind in God himself, to be a political kind of just Indignation, a Point of Honourable Resentment, which the Sovereign Deity, as Governor of the World, ought not to recede from, but must have a sufficient Satisfaction done to his offended Authority, before he can consistently with his Sovereign Honour receive the Sinner into his Favour, hold the Doctrine of the Necessity of Christ's atoning Life and Death in a mistaken Sense. That many good Souls may hold this Doctrine in this Simplicity of Belief, without any more Hurt to themselves, than others have held the Reality of Christ's Flesh and Blood in the Sacrament under der the Notion of the Transubstantiation of the Bread and Wine, I make no Manner of Doubt: But when Books are written to impose and require this Belief of others, as the only saving Faith in the Life and Death of Christ, it is then an Error that ceases to be innocent: For neither Reason nor Scripture will allow us to bring Wrath into God himself, as a Temper of his Mind, who is only infinite, unalterable, overflowing Love, as unchangeable in Love, as He is in Power and Goodness. The Wrath that was awakened at the Fall of Man, that then seized upon him as its Captive, was only a Plague, or Evil, or Curse, that Sin had brought forth in Nature and Creature; it was only the Beginning of Hell: It was such a Wrath as God himself pitied Man's lying under it; it was such a Wrath as God himself furnished Man with a Power of overcoming and extinguishing, and therefore was not a Wrath that was according to the Mind, Will, and Liking, or Wisdom of God; and therefore it was not a Wrath that was in God himself, or which was exercised by his Sovereign Wisdom over his disobedient Creatures: It was not such a Wrath, as when Sovereign Princes are angry at Offenders, and will not cease from their Resentment till some political Satisfaction, or valuable Amends be made to their slighted Authority. No, no; it was such a Wrath as God himself hated, as he hates Sin and Hell, a Wrath that the God of all Nature and Creature so willed to be removed and extinguished, that seeing nothing less could do it, he sent his only-begotten Son into the World that all Mankind might be saved and delivered from it. For seeing the Wrath that was awakened and brought forth by the Fall, and which wanted to be appeased, atoned, and quenched, 'was the Wrath of eternal Death and eternal Hell, that had taken Man captive, therefore God spared not the precious, powerful, efficacious Blood of the Holy Jesus, because that alone could extinguish this eternal Wrath of Death and Hell, and re-ignite Heaven and Eternal Life again in the Soul. And thus all that the Scriptures speak of the Necessity and powerful Atonement of the Life and Death of Christ, all that they say of the infinite Love of God towards fallen Man, and all that they say of the Eternal Wrath and Vengeance to which Man was become a Prey, have the most solid Foundation, and are all of them proved to be consistent harmonious Truths of the greatest Certainty, according to the plain Letter of Scripture.

5. It is the Foundation of the Law and the Gospel, that without shedding of Blood there is no Remission of Sins; and that the precious Blood of Christ could alone do this, could alone reconcile us to God, and deliver us from the Wrath to come. How and why Blood, and only the Blood of Jesus Christ could do this, will appear as follows: Adam was created with a twofold Respect, to be himself a glorious, living, eternal Image of the Holy Triune God, and to be a Father of a new World of like Beings, all descended from himself: When Adam fell, he lost both these Conditions of his created State; the Holy Image of God was extinguished, his Soul lost the Light and Spirit of Heaven, and his Body became earthly, bestial, corruptible Flesh and Blood, and he could only be a Father of a Posterity partly diabolical, and partly bestial.

Now if the first Purpose of God was to stand, and to take Effect; if Adam was still to be the Father of a Race that were to become Sons of God, then there was an absolute Necessity that all that Adam had done in and to himself, and his Posterity, by the Fall, should be undone again; the Serpent and the Beast, that is, the serpentine Life, and the bestial Life in Human Nature, must both of ! them be overcome, and driven out of it. This was the one only possible Salvation for Adam, and every Individual of his Posterity.

Adam had killed that which was to have been immortal in him, he had raised that into a Life which never should have been alive in him, and therefore that which was to be undone and altered, both in himself and his Posterity, was this, it was to part with a Life that he had raised up into Being, and to get another Life, which he had quite extinguished.

And here appears the true infallible Ground of all the Sacrifice, and all the Blood-shedding that is necessary to redeem and reconcile Man to God. It is because the earthly, fleshly, bestial, corruptible Life under the Elements of this World, is a Life raised and brought into Man by the Fall, is not that Life which God created, but is an Impurity in the Sight of God, and therefore cannot enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; it is a Life, or Body of Sin, brought forth by Sin, and the Habitation of Sin, and therefore it is a Life that must be given up, its Blood must be poured out, before Man can be released from his Sins: This is the one only Ground of all the Shedding of Blood in Religion. Had not a Life foreign to the Kingdom of God, and utterly incapable of it,

been introduced by the Fall, there had been no possible Room for the Death of any Creature, or the pouring out any Blood, as serviceable and instrumental to the raising fallen Man.

6. But now this bestial animal Life which is thus to be given up, and its Blood poured out, is but the half, and lesser half of that which is required to deliver Man from all that the Fall has brought upon him. For the heavenly Life, the Birth of the Light and Holy Spirit of God, which Adam had quite extinguished, was to be kindled or regenerated again; also his first, glorious, immortal Body was to be regained, before he could become an Inhabitant of the Kingdom of Heaven: But for all this Adam had no Power. See here again the true and dreadful State of the Fall; it was the Fall into such a Life, as must be slain and sacrificed before the fallen Soul could come to God; and yet this Death and Sacrifice of the Body, which was thus absolutely necessary, was the most dreadful Thing that could happen to Man, because his own Death, come when it would, would only remove him from the Light of this World into the Eternal Darkness, and hellish State of fallen Angels: And here we find the true Reason, why Man's own Death, though a Sacrifice necessary to be made, made, had yet nothing of Atonement or Satisfaction in it; it was because it left the eternal Wrath of Nature, and the Hell that was therein, unquenched and unextinguished in the Soul, and therefore made no Reconcilement to God, no Restoration to the Creature of its first State and Life in God, but left the Soul in its dark wrathful Separation from the Kingdom of Light and Love.

But here the amazing Infinity of divine Love appeared, such a Mystery of Love as will be the universal Song of Praise to all Eternity. Here God, the second Person in the holy Trinity, took human Nature upon him, became a suffering, dying Man, that there might be found a Man, whose Sufferings, Blood, and Death, had Power to extinguish the Wrath and Hell that Sin had brought forth, and to be a Fountain of the first heavenly Life to the whole Race of Mankind.

It was human Nature that was fallen, that had lost its first heavenly Life, and got a bestial diabolical Life in the stead of it. Now if this human Nature was to be restored, there was but one possible Way, it must go back to the State from whence it came, it must put off all that it had put on, it must regain all that it had lost: But the human Nature that fell could do nothing thing of this, and yet all this must be done in and by that human Nature which is fallen, or it could never, to all Eternity, come out of the State of its Fall; for it could not possibly come out of the State of its Fall, but by putting off all that which the Fall had brought upon it. And thus stood Man, as to all the Powers of Nature and Creature, in an utter Impossibility of Salvation, and had only a short Life of this World betwixt him and Hell.

7. But let us now change the Scene, and behold the Wonders of a new Creation, where all Things are called out of the Curse and Death of Sin, and created again to Life in Christ Jesus; where all Mankind are chosen and appointed to the Recovery of their first glorious Life, by a new Birth from a second Adam, who, as an universal Redeemer, takes the Place of the first fallen Father of Mankind, and so gives Life and Immortality and Heaven to all that lost them in Adam.

God, according to the Riches of his Love, raised a Man out of the Loins of Adam, in whose mysterious Person the whole Humanity and the Word of God were personally united; that same Word which had been reserved and treasured up in Adam at his Fall, as a secret Bruiser of the Serpent, and real Beginning of his Salvation;

tion; so that in this second Adam God and Man were one Person. And in this Union of the divine and human Nature lies the Foundation and Possibility of our Recovery. For thus the holy Jesus became qualified to be the second Adam, or universal Regenerator of all that are born of Adam the first. For being himself that Deity, which as a Spark or Seed of Life was given to Adam, thus all that were born of Adam had also a Birth from him, and so stood under him, as their common Father and Regenerator of a heavenly Life in them. And it was this Word of Life which was preserved and treasured up in Adam, that makes all Mankind to be the spiritual Children of the second Adam, though he was not born into the World till so many Years after the Fall. For seeing the same Word that became their perfect Redeemer in the Fullness of Time, was in them from the Beginning as a Beginning of their Redemption, therefore he stood related to all Mankind as a Fountain and Deriver of an heavenly Life into them, in the same universal manner as Adam was the Fountain and Deriver of a miserable Mortality into them.

And seeing also this great and glorious Redeemer had in himself the whole Humanity, both as it was before and after the Fall, viz.

in his inward Man the Perfection of the first Adam, and in his outward the Weakness and Mortality of the fallen Nature; and seeing he had all this, as the Undoer of all that Adam had done as the Overcomer of Death, as the Former and Raiser of our heavenly Life, therefore it was that all his Conquests over this World, Sin, Death, and Hell, were not the Conquests of a single Person that terminated in himself, but had their real Effect and efficacious Merit through all human Nature, because he was the appointed Father and Regenerator of the whole human Nature, and as such had that same Relation to it all as Adam had: And therefore as Adam's Fall, Sin, and Death, did not, could not terminate in himself, because he was our appointed Father, from whom we must have such a State and Condition of Life as he had; so the Righteousness, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Christ into the Kingdom of Heaven, did not terminate in himself, but became ours, because he is our appointed second Adam, from whom we are to derive such a State and Condition of Life as he had; and therefore all that are born again of him are certainly born into his State of Victory and Triumph over the World, Sin, Death and Hell.

8. Now here is opened to us the true Reason of the whole Process of our Saviour's Incarnation, Passion, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension into Heaven: It was because fallen Man was to go through all these Stages as necessary Parts of his Return to God; and therefore if Man was to go out of his fallen State, there must be a Son of this fallen Man, who as a Head and Fountain of the whole Race, could do all this, could go back through all these Gates, and so make it possible for all the Individuals of human Nature, as being born of him, to inherit his conquering Nature, and follow him through all these Passages to eternal Life. And thus we see, in the strongest and clearest Light, both why and how the holy Jesus is become our great Redeemer.

Had he failed in any of these Things, had he not been all that he was, and did all that he did, he could not have made one full, perfect, sufficient Atonement and Satisfaction for the Sins of the whole World, that is, he could not have been and done that, which in the Nature of the Thing was absolutely necessary, and fully sufficient to take the whole human Race out of the Bondage and Captivity of their fallen State. Thus had he not really had the divine Nature in his Person, he could not have begun to be our second Adam from the Time of the Fall, nor could we have stood related to him as Children, that had received a new Birth from him. Neither could he have made a Beginning of a divine Life in our fallen Nature, but that he was that God who could make Nature begin again where it had failed in our first Father. Without this Divinity in his Person, the Perfection of his Humanity would have been as helpless to us as the Perfection of an Angel. Again, had he not been Man, and in human Nature overcome Sin and Temptation, he could have been no Saviour of fallen Man, because nothing that he had done had been done in and to the fallen Nature. Adam might as well have derived Sin into the Angels by his Fall, as Christ had derived Righteousness into us by his Life, if he had not stood both in our Nature and as the common Father and Regenerator of it; therefore his Incarnation was necessary to deliver us from our Sins, and accordingly the Scripture saith, He was manifest in the Flesh to destroy the Works of the Devil. Again, if Christ had not renounced this Life, as heartily and thoroughly as Adam chose it, and declared absolutely for another Kingdom in another World; if he had not sacrificed the Life he took up in and from this World, he could not have been

our Redeemer; and therefore the Scripture continually ascribes Atonement, Satisfaction, Redemption, and Remission of Sins to his Sufferings and Death. Again, had not our Lord entered into that State of eternal Death which fallen Man was eternally to inherit: had he not broke from it as its Conqueror, and rose again from the Dead, he could not have delivered us from the Effects of our Sins, and therefore the Apostle saith, If Christ be not risen, ye are yet in your Sins. But I must enlarge a little upon the Nature and Merits of our Saviour's last Sufferings. It is plain from Scripture that that Death, which our blessed Lord died on the Cross, was absolutely necessary for our Salvation; that he as our Saviour, was to taste Death for every Man;—that as the Captain of our Salvation, he was to be made perfect through Sufferings;——that there was no Entrance for fallen Man into Paradise, till Christ had overcome that Death and Hell, or that first and second Death which stood between us and it.

Now the absolute Necessity of our Saviour's doing and suffering all this plainly appears, as soon as we consider him as the second Adam, who, as such, is to undo all the Evil that the first Adam had done in human Nature, and therefore must enter into every State that belonged to this fallen Nature, restoring in every State that which was lost, *quicken*ing that which was extinguished, and overcoming in every State that by which Man was overcome. And therefore as eternal Death was as certainly brought forth in our Souls, as temporal Death in our Bodies, as this Death was a State that belonged to fallen Man, therefore our Lord was obliged to taste this dreadful Death, to enter into the Realities of it, that he might carry our Nature *vic*toriously through it. And as a fallen Man was to have entered into this eternal Death at his giving up the Ghost in this World, so the second Adam, as reversing all that the first had done, was to stand in this second Death upon the Cross, and die from it into that Paradise out of which Adam the first died into this World.

Now when the Time drew near that our blessed Lord was to enter upon his last great Sufferings, viz. the Realities of that second Death through which he was to pass, then it was that all the anguishing Terrors of a lost Soul began to open themselves in him; then all that eternal Death, which Adam had brought into his Soul when it lost the Light and Spirit of Heaven, began to be awakened and stirring ring in the second Adam, who was come to stand in the last State of the fallen Soul, to be encompassed with that eternal Death and Sensibility of Hell, which must have been the everlasting State of fallen Man.

The Beginning of our Lord's Entrance into the terrible Jaws of this second Death, may be justly dated from those affecting Words, My Soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto Death, tarry ye here with me and watch. See here the Lord of Life reduced to such Distress, as to beg the Prayers, Watching, and Assistance of his poor Disciples! A plain Proof that it was not the Sufferings of this World, but a State of dreadful Dereliction that was coming upon him. O holy Redeemer, that I knew how to describe the anguishing Terrors of thy Soul, when thou wast entering into eternal Death, that no other Son of Man might fall into it.

The Progress of these Terrors are plainly shewn us in our Lord's Agony in the Garden, when the Reality of this eternal Death so broke in upon him, so awakened and stirred itself in him, as to force great Drops of Blood to sweat from his Body. This was that bitter Cup which made him withdraw himself, prostrate himself, and thrice repeat an earnest Prayer,

Prayer, that if it were possible it might pass from him, but at the same Time heartily prayed to drink it according to the divine Will.

This was that Cup he was drinking from the sixth to the ninth Hour on the Cross, nailed to the Terrors of a two-fold Death, when he cried out, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

We are not to suppose that our Lord's Agony was the Terrors of a Person that was going to be murdered, or the Fears of that Death which Men could inflict upon him ; for he had told his Disciples, not to fear them that could only kill the Body, and therefore we may be sure he had no such Fears himself. No, his Agony was his Entrance into the last eternal Terrors of the lost Soul, into the real Horrors of that dreadful eternal Death, which Man unredeemed must have died into when he left this World. We are therefore not to consider our Lord's Death upon the Cross as only the Death of that mortal Body which was nailed to it, but we are to look upon him with wounded Hearts, as fixed and fastened in the State of that two-fold Death which was due to the fallen Nature, out of which he could not come, till he could say, It is finished; Father, into thy Hands I commend my Spirit.

In that Instant he gave up the Ghost of this earthly Life; and as a Proof of his having overcome all the Bars and Chains of Death and Hell, he rent the Rocks, opened the Graves, and brought the Dead to Life, and triumphantly entered into that long shut up Paradise, out of which Adam died, and in which he promised the Thief he should that Day be with him.

When therefore thou beholdest the Crucifix, which finely represents to thy Senses the Saviour of the World hanging on the Cross, let not thy Thoughts stay on any Sufferings or Death, that the Malice of Men can cause; for he hung there in greater Distress than any human Power can inflict, forsaken of God, feeling, bearing, and overcoming the Pains and Darknes of that eternal Death, which the fallen Soul of Adam had brought into it. For as Adam by his Fall, or Death in Paradise, had nothing left in his Soul but the Nature, Properties, and Life of Hell, all which must have awakened in him in their full Strength, as soon as he had lost the Flesh, and Blood, and Light of this World, as this eternal Death was a State that belonged to Man by the Fall, so there was an absolute Necessity that the Saviour of Man should enter into all these awakened Realities of the last eternal Death, and come victoriously out of them, or Man had never been redeemed from them. For the fallen Nature could no way possibly be saved, but by its own coming victoriously out of every Part of its fallen State; and therefore all this was to be done by that Son of Man, from whom we had a Power of deriving into us his victorious Nature.

Lastly, if our blessed Lord was not ascended into Heaven, and set on the Right Hand of God, he could not deliver us from our Sins; and therefore the Scripture ascribes to him, as ascended, a perpetual Priesthood in Heaven: If any Man sin, saith St. John, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous, and he is the Propitiation for our Sins.

All these Things therefore are so many equally essential Parts of our Saviour's Character, as he is the one Atonement, the full Satisfaction for Sin, the Saviour and Deliverer from the Bondage, Power, and Effects of Sin: And to ascribe our Deliverance from Sin, or the Remission of our Sins, more to the Life and Actions, than to the Death of Christ, or to his Death more than to his Resurrection and Ascension, is directly contrary to the plain Letter and Tenor or the Scripture, which speaks of all these Things as jointly qualifying our Lord to be the all-sufficient Redeemer of Mankind; and when speaking separately of any of them, ascribes the same Power, Efficacy, and redeeming Virtue to one as to the other.

And all this is very plain from the Nature of the Thing; for since all these Things are necessary Parts or Stages of our Return to God, every one of them must have the same necessary Share in delivering us from our sinful State; and therefore what our Saviour did, as living, dying, rising from the Dead, and ascending into Heaven, are Things that he did as equally necessary, and equally efficacious to our full Deliverance from all the Power, Effects, and Consequences of our Sins.

And here we may see, in the plainest Light, how Christ is said to bear our Iniquities, to be made Sin for us, and how his Sufferings have delivered us from the Guilt and Sufferings due to our Sins, and how we are saved by him. It is not by an arbitrary discretionary Pleasure of God, accepting the Sufferings of an innocent Person as a sufficient Amends or Satisfaction for the Sins of Criminals. This is by no means the true Ground of this Matter. In this View we neither think rightly of our Saviour, nor rightly of God's receiving us to Salvation through him.

him. God is reconciled to us through Jesus Christ, in no other Sense than as we are new born, new created in Christ Jesus. This is the only Merit we have from him. Jesus Christ was made Sin for us, he bore our Iniquities, he saved us, not by giving the Merit of his innocent unjust Sufferings as a full Payment for our Demerits, but he saved us because he made himself one of us, became a Member of our Nature, and such a Member of our Nature as had Power to heal, remove, and overcome all the Evils that were brought into our Nature by the Fall. He bore our Iniquities and saved us, because he stood in our Nature as our common Father, as one that had the same Relation to all Mankind as Adam had, and from whom we can derive all the conquering Power of his Nature, and so are enabled to come out of our Guilt and Iniquities by having his Nature derived into us. This is the whole of what is meant by having our guilty Condition transferred upon him, and his Merit transferred upon us: Our Guilt is transferred upon him in no other Sense, than as he took upon him the State and Condition of our fallen Nature, to bear all its Troubles, undergo all its Sufferings, till he had healed and overcome all the Effects of Sin. His Merit or Righteousness is imputed or derived into us in no other Sense, than as we receive from him a Birth, a Nature, a Power, to become the Sons of God. Hence it appears, what vain Disputes the World has had upon this Subject, and how this edifying glorious Part of Religion has been perplexed and lost in the Fictions and Difficulties of scholastic Learning. Some People have much puzzled themselves and others with this Question, How is it consistent with the Goodness and Equity of God, to permit or accept the Sufferings of an innocent Person as a Satisfaction for the Guilt and Punishment of criminal Offenders? But this Question can only be put by those, who have not yet known the most fundamental Doctrine of the Gospel Salvation; for according to the Gospel, the Question should proceed thus, How is it consistent with the Goodness and Equity of God, to raise such an innocent mysterious Person out of the Loins of fallen Man, as was able to remove all the Evil and Disorder that was brought into the fallen Nature? This is the only Question that is according to the true Ground of our Redemption, and at once disperses all those Difficulties which are the mere Products of Human Invention. The Short of the Matter is this: Man, considered as created, or fallen, or redeemed, is That which he is because of his State in Nature; he can have no Goodness in him when created, but because he is brought into such a Participation of a Goodness that there is in Nature; he can have no Evil in him when fallen, but because he is fallen from his good State in Nature; he can no way be redeemed, but by being brought into his first State of Perfection in Nature; and therefore this is an eternal immutable Truth, that he can be redeemed by the God of Nature, only according to the Possibilities of Nature: And here lies the true Ground, the whole Reason, of all that our Saviour was, and did, and suffered on our Account: It was because in and through all Nature there could be no other Relief found for us: It was because nothing less than such a Process of such a Mysterious Person could have Power to undo all the Evils that were done in and to the Human Nature; and therefore it is not only consistent with the Goodness and Equity of God to bring such a Mysterious Person into the World, but is the most infinite Instance of his most Infinite Love to all Mankind, that can possibly be conceived and adored by us. To proceed:

Man,

9. By the Fall of our first Father we have lost our first glorious Bodies, that eternal celestial Flesh and Blood which had as truly the Nature of Paradise and Heaven in it, as our present Bodies have the Nature, Mortality, and Corruption of this World in them : If therefore we are to be redeemed, there is an absolute Necessity that our Souls be cloathed again with this first paradisaical, or heavenly Flesh and Blood, or we can never enter into the Kingdom of God. Now this is the Reason, why the Scriptures speak so particularly, so frequently, and so emphatically of the powerful Blood of Christ, of the great Benefit it is to us, of its Redeeming, Quickening, Life-giving Virtue ; it is because our first Life, or heavenly Flesh and Blood, is born again in us, or derived again into us from this Blood of Christ.

Our Blessed Lord, who died for us, had not only that outward Flesh and Blood which he received from the Virgin Mary, and which died upon the Cross, but he had also an holy Humanity of heavenly Flesh and Blood veiled under it, which was appointed by God to quicken, generate, and bring forth from itself, such an holy Offspring of immortal Flesh and Blood, as Adam the first should have brought forth before his Fall.

If our Lord Christ had not had a heavenly Humanity, consisting of such Flesh and Blood as is not of this World, he had not been so perfect as Adam was, nor could our Birth from him raise us to that Perfection which we had lost, nor could his Blood be said to purchase, ransom, redeem, and restore us; because, as it is heavenly Flesh and Blood that we have lost, so we can only have it ransomed and restored to us by that Blood, which is of the same heavenly and immortal Nature with that which we have quite lost. Our common Faith therefore obliges us to hold, that our Lord had the Perfection of the first Adam's Flesh and Blood united with, and veiled under that fallen Nature, which he took upon him from the Blessed Virgin Mary. Had he not taken our fallen Nature upon him, nothing that he had done could have been of any Advantage to us, or brought any Ransom or Redemption to our fallen Nature; and had he not taken our Nature as it was before the Fall, he could not have been our second Adam, or a Restorer to us of that Nature, which we should have had from Adam if he had not fallen.

Now what our Common Faith thus fully teaches, concerning a heavenly as well as earthly Humanity, which our Lord had, is also,

also plainly signified to us by several clear Texts of Scripture; as where he saith of himself, I am from above, ye are from beneath; again, I am not of this World; and further, No one ascends into Heaven, but He that came down from Heaven, even the Son of Man, who is in Heaven: These and other Texts of the like Nature, which plainly speak of something in our Blessed Lord which can neither be understood of his Divinity, nor of that Flesh and Blood which he received from the Virgin Mary, has forced some Scholastick Divines to hold the Pre-existence of our Saviour's Soul, which is an Opinion utterly inconsistent with our Redemption; for it is as necessary that our Lord should have a Soul, as well as a Body derived from Adam, in order to be the Redeemer of Adam's Offspring: But all these Texts, which a Learning, merely literal, has thus mistaken, do only prove this great, necessary, and edifying Truth, that our Blessed Lord had a heavenly Humanity, which cloathed itself with the Flesh and Blood of this World in the Womb of the Virgin; and from that heavenly Humanity, or Life-giving Blood it is, that our first heavenly immortal Flesh and Blood is generated and formed in us again; and therefore his Blood is truly the Atonement, the Ransom, som, the Redemption, the Life of this World, because it brings forth and generates from itself the paradifical immortal Flesh and Blood, as certainly, as really, as the Blood of fallen Adam brings forth and generates from itself the sinful, vile, corruptible Flesh and Blood of this Life.

Would you farther know what Blood this is, that has this atoning, Life-giving Quality in it? It is that Blood which is to be received in the Holy Sacrament. Would you know why it quickens, raises and restores the inward Man that died in Paradise? The Answer is from Christ himself, He that eateth my Flesh and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me and I in him, that is, he is born of my Flesh and Blood. Would you know why the Apostle saith, That he hath purchased us by his Blood, Acts xx. 28. That we have Redemption through his Blood, Ephes. i. 7. Why he prays the God of Peace — through the Blood of the Everlasting Covenant, to make us perfect in every good Work to do his Will? It is because the Holy Jesus saith, except we drink his Blood, we have no Life in us, and therefore the Drinking his Blood, is the same Thing as receiving a Life of heavenly Flesh and Blood from him: And all this is only saying, that our Saviour, the second Adam must must do that for us and in us, which the first Adam should have done ; his Blood must be that to us by way of Descent, or Birth from him which the Blood of our first Father, if he had not fallen, would have been to us ; and as this Blood of an immortal Life is lost by the Fall, so he from whom we receive it again, by a secondary Way, is justly and truly said to purchase, to redeem, and ransom us by his Blood.

Now there is but one redeeming, sanctifying, Life-giving Blood of Christ, and it is that which gave and shed itself under the Veil of that outward Flesh and Blood that was sacrificed upon the Cross ; it is that Holy and Heavenly Flesh and Blood which is to be received in the Holy Sacrament ; it is that holy immortal Flesh and Blood which Adam had before the Fall, of which Blood if we had drank, that is, if we had been born of it, we had not wanted a Saviour, but should have had such Flesh and Blood as could have entered into the Kingdom of Heaven ; had we received this holy immortal Flesh and Blood from Adam before his Fall, it had been called our being born of his Flesh and Blood ; but because we receive that same Flesh and Blood from Jesus Christ, our second Adam, by our Faith, our Hunger, and

And here we have another strong Scripture Proof, that our Saviour had heavenly Flesh and Blood veiled under that which he received from the Virgin Mary. For does not the Holy Sacrament undeniably prove to us, that he had a heavenly Flesh entirely different from that which was seen nailed to the Cross, and which was to be a heavenly substantial Food to us; that he had a Blood entirely different from that which was seen to run out of his mortal Body, which Blood we are to drink of, and live for ever?

Now that Flesh and Blood cannot enter into the Kingdom of God is a Scripture Truth; and yet it must be affirmed to be a Truth according to the same Scriptures, that Flesh and Blood can, and must enter into the Kingdom of God, or else neither Adam, nor any of his Posterity could enter in there; therefore it is a Scripture Truth, that there is a Flesh and Blood that has the Nature, the Likeness, and Qualities of Heaven in it, that is as wholly different from the Flesh and Blood of this World, as Heaven is different from the Earth. For if the Flesh and Blood that we now have cannot possibly enter into the Kingdom of Heaven,

Heaven, and yet we must be Flesh and Blood, and Christ our Lord must be Flesh and Blood for ever in Heaven, then it follows, that there is a real Flesh and Blood that has nothing of this World in it, that neither arises from it, nor is nourished by it, but will subsist eternally when this World is dissolved and gone. Now, if this Flesh and Blood is lost by the Fall of our first Father, and if the Blood which we derive from him is the Cause, the Seat, and Principle of our mortal, corruptible, impure Life; if from the Blood of this first Father, all our Unholiness, Impurity, and Misery is derived into us, then we may clearly understand what is meant by our being redeemed by the Blood of Christ, and why the Scriptures speak so much of his atoning, quickening, Life-giving, cleansing, sanctifying Blood; it is because it is to us the Reverse of the Blood of Adam, it is the Cause, the Seat, the Principle of our Holiness and Purity of Life; it is that from which we derive an immortal holy Flesh and Blood in the same Reality from this second Adam, as we inherit a corrupt, impure, and earthly Flesh and Blood from our first Adam: And therefore that which would have been done to us by our Birth, if we had been born of the holy Blood of Adam unfallen, that that we are to understand to be done to us in and by the Holy Blood of Christ. For the Blood of Christ is that to us in the Way of Redemption, which the Blood of our first Father should have been to us in the Order of the Creation; for the Redemption has no other End, but to raise us from our Fall, to do that for us which we should have had by the Condition of our Creation, if our Father had kept his State of Glory and Immortality; and this is a certain Truth, that there would have been no eating the Flesh, and drinking the Blood of Christ in the Christian Scheme of Redemption, but that the Flesh and Blood, which we should have had from Adam, must of all necessity be had before we can enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

10. Here therefore is plainly discovered to us the true Nature, Necessity, and Benefit of the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's-Supper; both why, and how, and for what End, we must of all necessity eat the Flesh, and drink the Blood of Christ. No figurative Meaning of the Words is here to be sought for, we must eat Christ's Flesh, and drink his Blood in the same Reality, as he took upon him the real Flesh and Blood of the Blessed Virgin: We can have no real relation to Christ, can be no true Members of his mystical Body, but by being real Partakers of that same kind of Flesh and Blood, which was truly his, and was his for this very End, that through him the same might be brought forth in us: All this is strictly true of the Holy Sacrament, according to the plain Letter of the Expression; which Sacrament was thus instituted, that the great Service of the Church might continually shew us, that the whole of our Redemption consisted in the receiving the Birth, Spirit, Life, and Nature of Jesus Christ into us, in being born of him, and cloathed with a heavenly Flesh and Blood from him, just as the whole of our Fall consists in our being born of Adam's sinful Nature and Spirit, and in having a vile, corrupt, and impure Flesh and Blood from him.

But what Flesh and Blood are we to eat and drink? Not such as we have already, not such as any Offspring of Adam hath, not such as can have its Life and Death by and from the Elements of this World: and therefore, not that outward, visible, mortal Flesh and Blood of Christ, which he took from the Virgin Mary, and was seen on the Cross, but a heavenly immortal Flesh and Blood, which came down from Heaven, which hath the Nature, Qualities, and Life of Heaven in it,

According to which our Lord said of himself, that he was a Son of Man come down from Heaven, that he was not of this World, that he was from above, &c. that very Flesh and Blood which we should have received from Adam, if he had kept his first glorious and immortal Nature. For as the Flesh and Blood which we lost by his Fall, was the Flesh and Blood of Eternal Life, so it is the same Flesh and Blood of Eternal Life which is offered to us in the Holy Sacrament, that we may eat, and live for ever: This is the adorable Height and Depth of this Divine Mystery, which brings Heaven and Immortality again into us, and gives us Power to become Sons of God. Woe be to those who come to it with the Mouths of Beasts, and the Minds of Serpents! who, with impenitent Hearts, devoted to the Lusts of the Flesh, the Lusts of the Eyes, and the Pride of Life, for worldly Ends, outward Appearances, and secular Conformity, boldly meddle with those Mysteries that are only to be approached by those that are of a pure Heart, and who worship God in Spirit and in Truth. Justly may it be said of such, that they eat and drink Damnation to themselves, not discerning, that is, not regarding, not reverencing, not humbly adoring the Mysteries of the Lord's Body.

If you ask how the eating and drinking the Body and Blood of Christ is the receiving that Flesh and Blood of Eternal Life, which we should have had from Adam himself, it is for this plain Reason, because the same kind of Flesh and Blood is in Christ that was in Adam, and is in Christ as it was in Adam for this very End, that it might be derived into all his Offspring: So that we come to the Sacrament of the Blessed Body and Blood of Christ, because he is our Second Adam, from whom we must now receive that eternal celestial Flesh and Blood which we should have had from our first Father; and therefore it is that the Apostle saith, the first Adam was made a living Soul, that is, had a Life in itself which could have brought forth an eternal ever-living Offspring; but having brought forth a dead Race, the last Adam, as the Restorer of the Life that was lost, was made a quickening Spirit, because quickening again that Life which Adam, as a living Soul, should have brought forth.

And thus we have the plain and full Truth of the most mysterious Part of this Holy Sacrament delivered from the tedious Strife of Words, and that Thickness of Darkness which learned Contenders on all Sides have brought into it. The Letter and Spirit of Scripture are here here both preserved, and the Mystery appears so amiable, so intelligible, and so beneficial, as must needs raise a true and earnest Devotion in every one that is capable of hungering and thirsting after Eternal Life. And this true and sound Knowledge of the Holy Sacrament could never have been lost, if this Scripture Truth had not been over-looked, namely, that Christ is our second Adam, that he is to do that for us which Adam should have done; that we are to have that Life from him, as a Quickening Spirit, which we should have had from Adam as a living Soul; and that our Redemption is only doing a second Time, or in a second Way, that which should have been done by the first Order of our Creation: This plain Doctrine attended to, would sufficiently shew us, that the Flesh and Blood of Eternal Life, which we are to receive from Christ, must be that Flesh and Blood of Eternal Life which we lost in Adam. Now if we had received this immortal Flesh and Blood by our Descent from Adam, we must in the Strictness of the Expression have been said to partake of the Flesh and Blood of Adam; so seeing we now receive it from Christ, we must, in the same Strictness of the Expression, be said to be real Partakers of the Flesh and Blood of Christ, because he hath the same heavenly Flesh and Blood which Adam had, and for the same End that Adam had it, namely, that it may come by and through him into us. And thus is this great Sacrament, which is a continual Part of our Christian Worship, a continual Communication to us of all the Benefits of our Second Adam; for in and by the Body and Blood of Christ, to which the Divine Nature is united, we receive all that Life, Immortality, and Redemption, which Christ, as living, suffering, dying, rising from the Dead, and ascending into Heaven, brought to Human Nature; so that this great Mystery is that, in which all the Blessings of our Redemption and new Life in Christ are centered. And they that hold a Sacrament short of this Reality of the true Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, cannot be said to hold that Sacrament of Eternal Life, which was instituted by our Blessed Lord and Saviour.

Doctor Trap's REPLY.

AD I the Spirit of an Adversary, or was I inclined to find Entertainment for the Satirical Reader, it would not be easy for me to overlook the Opportunity which Dr. Trap's Reply has put into my Hands ; but as I do not want to lessen any Appearance of Ability which the Doctor has shewn on this Occasion, or have any Wish that his Pen had not all its Advantages, so whatever personally concerns him, either as a Writer, a Scholar, a Disputant, a Divine, or a Christian, shall have no Reflection from me ; and though by this means some sort of Readers may be less pleased, yet the more Christian Reader will be glad to find, that

thus I must leave two Thirds of his Reply untouched; and as I neither have, nor (by the Grace of God) ever will have any personal Contention with any Man whatever, so all the Triumph which the Doctor has gained over me by that flow of Wrath and Contempt which he has let loose upon me, I shall leave him quietly to enjoy.

It would be no Pleasure to me, nor Benefit to the World, to discover that Malignity of Spirit, that undistinguishing Head, that diabolical Calumny, that shameful Ignorance, that unthinking Temper, that blundering Mind, that perverse Disposition, that indecent Sufficiency, that unbecoming Presumption, that nauseous Dulness, that Ignorance of Logic, that Insensibility of Argument, that want of Grammar, which he has so heartily laid to my Charge; and if he has any Readers that thank him for this, I shall make no Attempt to lessen their Number.

As I desire nothing for myself, or the Reader, but good Eyes, and a good Heart, seriously attentive to Things useful and edifying, and always open to the Light and Influence of the Holy Spirit of God, so I shall endeavour to say nothing but what is suitable to such a State of Mind, both in myself and the Reader.

The Doctor, by way of Plea for a certain Freedom in Drinking, had appealed to our Saviour's Miracle at the Marriage Feast, where he turned Water into Wine at a Time when the Guests had already drank enough, and had indulged something to Pleasure and Chearfulness. Therefore more Wine, or a Continuance of Drinking, when Men have already indulged something to Pleasure and Chearfulness, has Authority from our Saviour's Conduct at the Feast.

One would imagine no one need be helped to look with a just Indignation at this Abuse and Prophanation of our Lord's Miracle. Did the Saviour of the World mean, or intend to teach any Thing like this, in what he did? Was this the Spirit of his Mind when he thus timed this Miracle, did he intend to convey this Instruction to them? Now if our Lord had not this Spirit, did not mean thus to instruct the Feasters by thus timing his Miracle, is it not a great Profanation of it to appeal to it for that Instruction, which was not meant or intended by it? Had any one of those Guests then present come up to our Lord, and said, Sir, we have heard indeed a Report that you require a Man to deny himself, to hate even his own Life in this World, and to forsake all that he hath in order to be your Disciple, but now we perceive, not by Words but by your miraculous Actions, that you are no Enemy to these kind of Pleasures and Indulgences, since you have worked a Miracle to help us to more Wine when we had already drank enough, and had indulged something to Pleasure and Chearfulness; What would our Lord have said to so sagacious an Observer? Would he have told him, that Flesh and Blood had not revealed so great a Truth unto him? Would he have acquiesced in the Propriety and Justness of his Observation, and pronounced him rightly disposed to be one of his Disciples? But if such an Observation could not have been approved by our Lord as a Sign of a good Mind, how is the Doctor to be excused, who not only looks thus at it himself, but proposes it to the World to be considered in that View? In order to vindicate our Saviour's Conduct in this Matter, I ventured, without any Help from Commentators or Schoolmen, to tell the Doctor, "That the Wine here spoken of was not common Wine, and therefore had no Relation to our common Drinking;—that it was not Wine from the Juice of the Grape;—that it had nothing in it but what came from a heavenly Hand;—that it must have in it the Purity and Vir-

“ture of him that made it ;—that it had as “ good Qualities in it, and was fitted to have “ the same Effect upon some that drank it, as “ the Clay which he moistened with his Spit“ tle had upon the Eyes of the Blind ;—that “ it was Water only so altered, and endued “ with such Qualities, as he pleased to put in-
 “ to it ; and therefore we may be sure it was “ Water as highly blessed for their Use as they “ were capable of ; we may be sure it was fitter to “ allay the Heat and Disorder of their Drinking, “ than if it had been Water unaltered by our “ Saviour. How suitable was this Miracle to “ a Feast ? How worthy of so divine a Person !
 “ to make them cooler by giving them Water “ made fitter for that Purpose, and to raise “ their Faith by its miraculously seeming to be “ the best of Wine. *”

Now how can it be proved that this Interpretation is not a true one, not a safe one, not a good one ? That our Saviour could do all this which is here mentioned, that he could convert Water into Wine of this Nature, is undeniable ; therefore if it had not this Nature and Qualities in it, it could only be because he chose to make it as bad as that Wine, which has

has the Curse of the Earth in it. But who will undertake to prove that Wine thus brought forth by a divine Power, must have the Nature of Wine that is squeezed from the Grape under the Curse of Sin?

The Doctor confutes my Interpretations, by calling it a senseless, impious, profane, ridiculous Nostrum, a Whimsy of my own Brain, diluting the glorious Miracle into nothing. He has also accepted the Help of a learned Assistant, one Philoclericus, who backs this Confutation by saying, that it has evaporated the Miracle into nothing. They both agree that I have brought it to nothing, and only differ in my Manner of doing it. The one holds it to be by Dilution, and the other by Evaporation.

To set this Matter therefore in a clear Light, let it be supposed, that the Ruler of the Feast should have come to our Saviour, and said, Sir, having been surprized at the extraordinary Difference between the last Cup of Wine that was brought to me, and that which had been used in the Feast before, I called the Bridegroom to tell him my Wonder at that extraordinary Wine which he had kept to the last; but being since informed by them that drew it, that this Wine was by thy Word of Power drawn from Vessels brim full of Water, I now come to fall down before thee, and confefs that thou art come from God, and haft given me a Wine that has not the Nature of the earthly Grape in it: But as God gave our Fathers Manna to eat, which was juftly called Angels Food, and Bread from Heaven, fo this Wine, which thou by a divine Power haft given us, muft be looked upon, not as the poor Juice of the Grape, but as Wine given us from Heaven.

Now had the Doctor and his learned Affiftant been there, and had been fuch Christians as they are now, they muft both have fallen upon the Ruler of the Feaft, as a fenfelefs, impious, profane, ridiculous Wretch, that had diluted and evaporated our Lord's glorious Miracle into nothing: Though it was impoffible, in the Nature of the Thing, for all the Difciples of our Lord, though ever fo full of Faith in him, to make higher Profefion of the Reality of this glorious Miracle than the Ruler here has done; and yet he has faid nothing but what is faid in the Account which i have given of the Wine. And indeed it muft be ftangely abfurd for any one to fuggelt, that the Reality of the Miracle is hurt by this Account of the Wine. For is not as great a divine Power required to change Water into a Wine, that has a better Nature and Qualities than common Wine, as to make it

have no more Goodness and Virtue in it than is in the ordinary Juice from the Grape? Or is it not rightly called Wine by those that drew it, or by him that drank it, because it was Wine in Perfection, in such Perfection, as the Grape could never give since Adam brought the Curse into the World?

The Doctor says, he believes it was just the same sort of Wine as if it had been from the Juice of the Grape, and his Reason is, because it is a Part of his Faith that our Saviour had the Power of creating, p. 56. Now this is the very worst Reason the Doctor could possibly have thought of. For the Doctor, I will venture to say, is so orthodox a Schoolman as to hold the common Notion of Creating, viz. that it is a Power of making something to be out of nothing. But Wine thus created is the last Thing the Doctor should have had Recourse to; first, because it is directly contrary to the Letter of the Text, which expressly saith, the Water was made Wine, therefore not a created Wine. Secondly, because Wine so created, could not possibly be just the same Sort of Wine, as if it had been from the Juice of the Grape, because as the Grape and every earthly Thing stands in a State of Evil, Corruption, and Curse through the Sin of the fallen Creatures, it is absolutely impossible impossible that any Thing immediately created by God out of Nothing should have any Thing of that Evil, Corruption, or Curse in it, which Sin alone has brought into the Creatures.

The Truth of this Matter is, here was no more a Creation of Wine in this Miracle, than Wine is created every Time the Vine has ripe Grapes upon it. Water together with Earth is every year turned into the Juice of the Grape by the Power of the Sun, from God's eternal Word, first saying, Let the Earth bring forth the Fruit-Tree yielding Fruit, &c.

This same eternal, ever speaking, ever operating Word of God, being become Man, could as well turn Water into Wine in a quicker Way by his own Power, as by the Help of the Vine once in a Year. Seeing therefore this Wine was not raised from Water and Earth, according to the common Course of Vegetation in fallen Nature, but by the immediate Agency of the God of Nature upon Water alone, it is reasonable, and absolutely necessary to suppose, that it was Wine very much freed from all that Evil, Wrath, and Curse, which is inseparable from the ordinary Workings of the present State of Nature. Hence it appears, that the Interpretation here given is so far from being a profane, fane, impious, senseless Nostrum, is so far from having any Thing of Force, or Fiction in it, that it is the first, most easy, natural, and direct Sense, in which the Miracle can be justly understood. And therefore every sober Christian ought to reject the Doctor's Use of this Miracle, as inconsistent with Piety. Great Intemperance, we all know, is carried on by such as pretend not to exceed the lawful Bounds of Pleasure and Indulgence. And is it consistent with Christian Piety, or Prudence, to furnish such People with a Pretext for what they do, from our Saviour's Example and Conduct? Or is he to be blamed who by a just, innocent, and safe Interpretation of the Miracle, leaves such People no Claim to its Authority? Surely it is a sad Mistake to draw Arguments for sensual Indulgence from him, who came to teach and save the World by every Kind and Degree of possible Self-denial.

But I shall add but one Argument more, which is sufficient of itself to shew how unjustly the Doctor draws an Argument from our Saviour's turning Water into Wine, when more than was necessary had been already drank, and something, as he says, had been indulgent to Pleasure and Chearfulness; and my Argument is this: It is undeniably plain from the whole

Story of this Matter, that there was no more Water turned into Wine than that one Cup, which was carried to the Ruler of the Feast; and therefore neither Foundation nor Excuse for the Doctor's Argument from it.

When the Vessels were empty, our Lord ordered them to be filled, and to be filled up to the Brim with Water. Such an Order as this must, at least in the Execution of it, draw the Eyes and Attention of many that were present. Not a Syllable is ever mentioned of any Wine in the Vessels; they are only represented to us as standing brim-full of Water. Our Lord only bids a Servant to draw from these Pots thus full of Water; and what he drew and carried to the Ruler, from Vessels full of Water, was such Wine as strangely surprized him with its peculiar Excellency. The Wine was only found in that Cup into which our Saviour ordered the Servant to draw, and bear to the Ruler; and as he gave this Command but once, so it is certain there was but this one Cup of miraculous Wine. A hasty Reader, that has his Eye upon the Increase of the Liquor, and wants to have an Argument for his Purpose from it, may hurry himself into a Fancy, that our Saviour made all the Water Pots stand brim-full of Wine. But the Story itself plainly represents quite another Matter, and is only a Relation of one Cup of miraculous Wine. The Care that our Lord took that all the Vessels should be filled with Water up to the Top, was not that the Guests might have all the Wine these Vessels could hold, but that all the Vessels being filled up to the Top, and made visible to all Beholders, might be so many plain Proofs that the Wine which he ordered to be drawn, could only be drawn from one of those Vessels which so many Beholders saw to be brim-full of Water, both before and after the Drawing of the Cup of Wine. And herein lay the Strength, and Certainty, and Glory of the Miracle, that so many Witnesses were forced to see and own, that by the Word of our Lord Wine was drawn from Pots just filled, and still remaining full to the Top with Water. And when this Miracle had thus incontestably manifested itself, the whole Affair was over, and the Guests were left, not to rejoice over full Pots of Water turned into Wine, but to make sober Reflections upon the Divinity of that Person, who had put such an astonishing End to their Drinking. Great and holy Jesus! How like thyself, the Saviour of the World, hast thou acted at this Feast! How couldst thou more sink the Value, extinguish the Desire, suppress all Thoughts of Pleasure and Indulgence in earthly Wine, than by shew-

ing the Feasters, that from the poorest of the Elements thou couldst call forth such Wine as no Grape could give? How couldst thou more effectually take from them their sensual Joy, or more powerfully call them to deny themselves and come after thee, than by thus miraculously shewing them, that the richest Delights of sensual Gratifications were far short of what thou couldst give to those, that would leave all earthly Delights for thee?

The next Thing of Importance which I shall speak to, shall be with Regard to what I have said to the Clergy. The miserable State of Religion, and the great Corruption of Manners, so incontestably apparent in this Island, gave me a just Occasion to desire all the Clergy, from the highest to the lowest in the Order, to consider their Conduct, and see how free they were from the common Corruption, and how justly every one could clear himself from having any Share in this general Depravity of Manners. I was not insensible that this was a dangerous Attempt, that would expose me to the Resentment of not a few of my Brethren: But as I wrote for no other End, but to do as much Good as I could to those who were capable of it, so I had no Care but how to speak disagreeable Truths, in as Christian and inoffensive a manner as I could; how I have succeeded in this, is left to the World to judge. And as it is but too apparent, that the Root of all the Evil, which but too much spreads itself through the whole Body of the Clergy, is owing to a worldly, trading Spirit, too visible from the Top to the Bottom of the Order, so I pointed at it in the softest and most affecting manner that I could, in the following Words, grounded on a plain Apostolical Doctrine and Practice.

St. Paul, I had observed, had said, it was lawful for those that preach the Gospel to live by the Gospel, and yet makes it Matter of the greatest Joy and Comfort to himself that he had wholly abstained from this lawful Thing; and he declares, it were better for him to die, than that this Rejoicing should be taken from him. He appeals to his daily and nightly working with his own Hands, that so he might preach the Gospel freely, and not be chargeable to those that heard him. And this he said he did, not for want of Authority to do otherwise, but that he might make himself an Example unto them to follow him. Here, I say, “ What fine and awakening Instructions are “ here given to us of the Clergy, in a practical Matter of the greatest Moment? How “ ought every one to be frightened at the “ Thoughts

 “ ing, or of rejoicing at great Pay where there “ is but little Duty, when the Apostle’s rejoi- “ cing consisted in this, that he had passed “ through all the Fatigues and Perils of preach“ ing the Gospel without any Pay at all?
 “ How cautious, nay, how fearful ought we
 “ to be, of going so far as the secular Laws “ permit us, when the Apostle thought it “ more desirable to lose his Life, than to go so “ far as the very Law of the Gospel would “ have suffered him?

“ It is looked upon as lawful to get several “ Preferments, and to make a Gain of the “ Gospel by hiring others to do Duty for us
 “ at a lower Rate.—It is looked upon as “ lawful to quit a Cure of Souls of a small In“ come, for no other Reason, but because we “ can get another of a greater.—It is looked “ upon as lawful for a Clergyman to take the “ Revenues of the Church, which he serves, to “ his own Use, though he has more than a suf“ ficient Competency of his own, and much “ more than the Apostle could get by his La“ bour.—It is looked upon as lawful for “ the Clergy to live in State and Equipage, to “ buy Purple and fine Linnen out of the Re“ venues of the Church.—It is looked upon

“ as lawful for Clergymen to enrich their Fa“ milies, to bring up their Children in the fa“ shionable Vanities, and corrupting Methods
 “ of a worldly and expensive Life, by Money “ got by preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
 “ But now supposing all this to be lawful,
 “ what Comfort and Joy might we treasure
 “ up to ourselves, what Glory and Honour “ might we bring to Religion, what Force
 “ and Power might we give to the Gospel,
 “ what Benefit and Edification should we do
 “ to our Neighbour, if we wholly abstained
 “ from all these lawful Things, not by work“ ing Day and Night with our own Hands, “ as the great Apostle did, but by limiting our “ Wants and Desires according to the plain “ Demands of Nature, and a religious Self-“ Denial?”

Now there are but two possible Ways of justly replying to this; first, either by shewing that these Observations are falsely drawn from the Apostle's Doctrine and Practice, that I have mistaken the Spirit of St. Paul, and the Genius of the Gospel, that I am here doing what the Apostle would not do, was he here in Person, and representing such Things as Corruptions, which the Apostle would be glad to see flourishing in the Church of Christ: Or, se-

condly, that though these Things are plainly condemnable from the Apostle's Doctrine and Practice, yet they are not chargeable upon the Spirit, Temper, and Practice of the Clergy of this Land. Now, though not a Word to the Purpose could possibly be said, but by one of these two Ways, yet the Doctor shut his Eyes to both of them, and then pronounced the following Sentence upon Me, That a Quaker, or Infidel, could not well have reflected with more Virulence upon the Clergy of our Church, than I have done in these Expressions.

Must I then suppose, that the Doctor in his Sermons never mentions any Failings that concerns his Auditors, or lays before them any of their unchristian Ways of Life? If he does, I desire to know how he clears himself from virulently reflecting upon them and their Christianity? The Quakers, and Infidels, are ready enough, and able enough to shew, that most Congregations of Christians are sadly fallen away from the Religion of the Gospel: And does the Doctor forbear this Charge, is he ashamed to call his Flock to a more Christian Life, or afraid to remind them of their Departure from the Gospel, lest he should seem to join with Quakers and Infidels, who make great Complaints of the Corruptions of Chr stians? Or, how can the Doctor desire to be thought to have any true Love, or just Esteem for those Christians, whom he is so often reminding of the Corruption and Depravity of their Manners, so contrary to the Religion of Jesus Christ? Now if the Doctor knows how to untye this Knot, and to extricate himself from the Charge of virulent reflecting upon his Parishioners, as Quakers and Infidels do, then he has dissolved his Charge against me into a mere nothing.

If it was a Thing required of me, I know no more how to raise in myself the least Spark of Rancour, or Ill-will towards the Clergy, as such, than I know how to work myself up into a Hatred of the Light of the Sun. It is as natural to me, to wish them all their Perfection, as to wish Peace and Happiness to myself both here and hereafter; and when I point at any Failings in their Conduct, it is only with such a Spirit as I would pluck a Brother out of the Fire.

In that Part of my Answer, which is address'd to the younger Clergy, I said, " Lay
 " this down for an infallible Principle; that " an entire absolute Renunciation of all
 " worldly Interest is the only possible Foun" dation of that exalted Virtue, which your
 " Station

 “ after an exemplary Piety are in vain : ”
And then by way of Limitation and Explication of this, it thus immediately follows: “ If you
 “ and instead of converting, you corrupt the “ Hearts of those that are about you. De-
 “ rence, all Desires of making your Fortunes,
 “ and let it be your only Ambition to stand
 “ at the Top of every Virtue, as visible Guides

Now one would imagine there was no Part of the Christian World, however corrupted by Division, where this Doctrine would not be admitted at least in Theory, or that the Gospel of Christ should be thought to be reproached, where such Advice as this was given to young Divines: And yet it is of this very Advice, that Dr. Trap says, he hopes they will have more Grace and Sense than to follow it ;
that it is false Doctrine, tending to the Reproach and Scandal of the Christian Religion,
 p. 87.

Is it then come to this, that unless young Divines chuse to serve Mammon as well as God, their Profession is a renouncing of Grace and Sense, and a Reproach to Religion? And must they that pretend to act in Christ's Name, as Successors in his Office, take Care that they renounce not the Politics of the Kingdom of this World? For my part, I thought it as safe, as Christian, as consistent with the Honour of the Gospel, to give this Advice thus to suppress all worldly Views, as to resist all the Temptations of the Devil.

Had Martin Luther, when he gave his Reasons and Motives for withdrawing from Communion with the Pope, been able to have added this, that the Advice here given, had been formally condemned by the Pope in a great Council, the Defenders of that Church would have found it as hard to have made such a Decree consistent with the Gospel, as the selling of Indulgencies: And it may well be supposed that no Protestant Writer, when setting forth the Marks of Antichrist, and the Beast in that Church, would have forgot to have made this Condemnation to be one of them.

For who can shew it to be so contrary to the whole Spirit of the Gospel, to call in the Assistance

Assistance of the Saints, or to deny the Cup to the Laity in the Manner the Church of Rome does, who can shew this to put so entire a Stop to the Salvation by the Gospel, as to condemn the Advice here given to young Divines as a Scandal and Reproach to Christianity? For all the Ends and Designs of the Gospel may be pursued, and Men may arise out of the Corruption of their Nature, notwithstanding these two Mistakes: But to condemn it as an Error inconsistent with Grace and Sense, a Scandal and Reproach to Christianity, for young Divines to renounce worldly Views, and devote themselves wholly to God, is striking at the whole Root of all Holiness of Life, and no less than a Denial of the whole Spirit of the Gospel.

Our Church requires all its Candidates for Holy Orders, to make Profession of their being moved and called by the Holy Ghost to enter into the Service of the Church: This, I should think, is Proof enough, that the Spirit of this World ought not to be alive in them when they make this Profession; and yet, if any young Persons should come to be ordained, thus dead to all worldly Views, thus wholly devoted to God, as I have here recommended, they ought, according to the Doctor, to be rejected by the Bishop, as being led by a Spirit that has lost all Grace and Sense, and is a Scandal and Reproach to the Christian Religion.

It is needless to quote particular Texts of Scripture, teaching the same that I have here taught; as that our Saviour assures us, that we cannot serve God and Mammon: That St. Paul requires us, having Food and Raiment, to be therewith content, for this Reason, because they that will be rich, fall into divers Temptations of the Devil: That St. John forbids us to love the World or the Things of the World, for this Reason, because all that is in the World, the Lust of the Flesh, the Lust of the Eyes, and the Pride of Life, is not of the Father, but is of the World. It is needless to have Recourse to particular Texts of this kind, because the whole Nature and Reason of our Redemption is a standing plain Proof of the same Thing; for we want to be redeemed for no other Reason, but because we are born Children of this World, and have by Nature only the Life, Spirit, and Temper of this World in us: This is our Fall, our Curse, our Separation from God; and therefore we can have no Redemption, but by a Renunciation of all the Workings of the Life of this World in us, by a total dying to, and denying ourselves; because all that we are, as to our State, Spirit, and Life in this World, is a Life that carries us from God, a Life that should not have been raised up in us; it is a Life begun by the Fall, a Life of Sin and Corruption, which cannot enter into Heaven. The Life that we have in this World, from the Fall of Adam, is not to be naturally destroyed or murdered, nor are the Necessaries and Conveniencies of Life to be rejected, nor is any one to renounce his Share in the Employments that are necessary and useful to social Life: The Renunciation of this World reaches no farther than the renouncing the Spirit, Temper, and Inclinations of this worldly Life: We may stand in our Stations, when we stand in them as the Servants of God, as Citizens of the new Jerusalem, who have among earthly Things our Conversation in Heaven: We may keep our Possessions, when we possess them as the Things of God, and use them not as Nature, but as the Spirit directs us; when we do thus, we have the Poverty of Spirit which the Gospel requires, and come up to the very Letter of that Command given to the young Man, to sell all that he had, and give to the Poor.

bolical Life brought forth by the Fall, if we want to be redeemed because we have this State of Life in and from this World, if we want to be born again of the Son of God, born again of the Holy Spirit, because our natural Birth is according to the Spirit of this World; if nothing of the Beast, or the Devil, no kind or degree of Selfishness, Envy, Pride, and Vanity, can enter into the Kingdom of God, then it is plain, from the Nature of the Thing, that all Religion which leaves this Nature alive and unrenounced, which lets Selfishness, Pride, Wrath, and Vanity subsist in us, which bring us to our Graves in the same Nature in which we were born, is not the Religion that can save us. If this Nature in all its most secret Workings is not renounced and denied, it matters not what we are, or what we have been doing; it signifies little in what Chair we have sat, whether in Italy, or England, how long we have been Preachers, how many Hereticks and Schismaticks we have opposed, or how many Books we have wrote in Defence of Orthodoxy; it is as vain to appeal to this, as to our having preached and professed in the Name of Christ, in the Streets and Fields: For if this Nature is allowed to live in us, all our good Works have been governed by it, they

they have sprung from Selfishness, are animated with Pride, and only serve to gratify our own natural Passions. When therefore the Doctor calls upon young Divines to have more Grace and Sense than to be driven from Thoughts of advancing themselves by Preferments and rich Marriages, he would do well to consider, how little short this is of calling them to break their very Baptismal Vow, of renouncing the Pomps and Vanities of the World. And if young Candidates for Holy Orders, looking only at their Baptismal Vow, should be led into this Degree of Self-denial and Detachment from the World, does the Doctor think that the Apostles, from whom this Baptismal Vow is descended, will rise up in the Day of Judgment, and condemn such gross Ignorance and Abuse of it? Does he think that there are any departed Saints that will join with him in saying, that such a Spirit is a Scandal and Reproach to the Gospel? What more favourable Disposition could the Adversary of Mankind wish to see, either in young or old Divines, than a wanting and desiring to have Figure in the World, either by Preferments or rich Marriages? Would he find it difficult to enter into those Hearts, where the Lust of the Flesh, the Lust of the Eyes, and the Pride of Life had thus entered?

entered? Or would he look upon such as but half fitted for him, in Comparison of those who entered into holy Orders in a Spirit of Self-denial, and Renunciation of the Poms and Vanities of the World? Does the Doctor think that these gross Instances of worldly Ambition have no Affinity with those Poms and Vanities, which must be renounced in Baptism?

John the Baptist was but the Preparer of the Way for evangelical Purity of Life: But does the Doctor think that if the Baptist was now to come among us, as some have thought he will come again before the End of the Church, that he would look at Things as the Doctor does, that he would see such Perfections and such Corruptions, such Orthodoxy and such Enthusiasm, as the Doctor sees; that this burning and shining Light would see no Generation of Vipers but where the Doctor sees them; that he would preach no where but in Churches; that he would spare no Clergy, nor any Church, but that which is established in this Island; that he would complain of the Hardships of our Clergy, and the suffering Spirit which they are forced to practise, as the Doctor does; that he would plead for a priestly Liberty of coveting Preferments and rich Marriages, as the Doctor doth;

doth, that he would condemn the Treatise upon Christian Perfection among the most pernicious Books of the Age; that he would recommend Wharton's Defence of Pluralities, and the Doctor's Discourse of the Folly, Sin, and Danger of being righteous over-much, as the true Fruits of that Spirit which first preached the Gospel? He that can believe this, must believe that the Baptist was come to confess the Errors and Mistakes of his first Appearance in the World.

I shall therefore proceed to tell young Divines, that a total Renunciation of the Spirit, Temper, and Inclinations of this Life, is the one Thing necessary to consecrate them to their holy Office; that as sure as the Church of Christ is not a Kingdom of this World, as sure as Jesus Christ came to deliver us from this evil World, as sure as he requires us to be born again from above, to hate even our own Life in this World, and to forsake all and follow him, so sure is it that no one has the Call of the Holy Spirit to the Ministry of the Gospel, nor the least Ground of hoping to be led and governed by it in his Ministry, till he at least prays, desires, and heartily endeavours to have all that Disregard of worldly Prosperity, Figure, and Distinction, which the Spirit of Jefus Christ, the Maxims of the Gospel, and the Practice of the Apostles, set before him. Till this Renunciation of the World is made, we cannot enter into the Ministry at his own Door, but like Thieves and Robbers climb over its Walls; and then it will be no Wonder if we do no more Good to the Church than Thieves do to the House they break open and plunder. If a young Minister wants to act the Part, and have the Appearance of a fine Gentleman, to go on in the common Spirit of the World, to cover a secular Spirit with an ecclesiastick Garb, and make his Fortunes in the Church, he must be told, that it is much safer to be a Publican and a Sinner, than to be a Trader in spiritual Things; that he who with un sanctified Hands attends at the Altar is farther from the Kingdom of God, than he who has not yet made one Step towards it.

Covetousness is Idolatry; it is a heathenish, Antichristian Vice, though only trafficking in worldly Matters; but when it takes Possession of the Altar, and makes a Trade of the Mysteries of Salvation, and turns Godliness into Gain, it has a Blackness of Vice and Depravity which much exceeds that of the worldly Miser. The Spirit of an Ecclesiastick should be the Spirit of Heaven, knowing nothing of this World, World, but how to escape its Snares and Temptations, burning in the Love of God, and holding out Light and Direction to all that aspire after every Perfection of the Christian Life.

It is too commonly thought, that when a young Student has taken his Degree, and shewn some Signs of a Genius for Learning, that he is well prepared to enter into the Service of the Church. But, alas! all the Accomplishments of human Learning are but the Ornaments of the Old Man, which leave the Soul in its Slavery to Sin, full of all the Disorders and Corruptions of the fallen Nature, and under the Blindness and Perverseness of some of its Passions. If it were not thus, how could the Errors of all Churches have the greatest Scholars for their Champions? All the learned Catholick World is amazed at the Prejudice, the Blindness, the Perverseness, the Partiality, the Weakness, the Sophistry, the Unfairness of Protestant Critics. All the Potestant World is in the same Degree of Wonder at the same Disorders in Catholick Disputants. Is not this a Demonstration of the Nature, Power, and Place of human Learning, of its great Usefulness and Benefit to Religion? Does not this enough shew, that it is the Effect and Offspring of the old Man, has his Nature and Qualities, dwells in him, and is governed by him? Is not this a Demonstration, *that the greatest Degrees of historical, verbal, critical Knowledge are no real Hindrance of spiritual Blindness? Is not this a Demonstration, that human Learning is as different from divine Light, as Heaven is from Earth, the new from the old Man; and that, considered in itself, it leaves us in our first State of Slavery to blind and corrupt Passions? Now nothing can deliver a Man from this State, but a Spirit born into him from above, a Light from the Spirit of God derived into his Soul, which alone can bring forth a new Man created in Christ Jesus. Nothing can make way for this new Birth from above, but a total Renunciation and Dying to all that we are by our natural Birth in this World. 'Tis only this Separation from Things below that can make us Partakers of the Truth and Light that comes from above. Take away all Selfishness from the Papist and the Protestant, or let them both be dead to the Workings of this Spirit, and then they will be as fully agreed about Gospel Truths, as they are in the Form of a Square and a Circle. For nothing stands in the way of divine Truth, or hinders its plain and full Entrance into us, but this Partiality

tiality or Selfishness, which adheres to every one who does not make it his first Maxim, Prayer, and Endeavour, to die to and deny himself in all the Tempers and Inclinations of our fallen Nature. This Self-denial is the continual Doctrine of our Lord; it is by him made the Beginning of all Conversion to God, and he that cannot or will not begin there, can make no Beginning of that Life, Light, and Salvation, to which he is called in Christ Jesus: Therefore he that offers himself for holy Orders without this Spirit of Self-denial, is a miserable Intruder into the Mysteries of Salvation; he only hardens and fixes himself in the Corruptions of his own Nature, and instead of becoming an Instrument of saving others, his very Office makes his own Salvation more dangerous.

I doubt not but some will here charge me with pleading for Poverty in the Ministry, and with Enmity to that Maintenance which they have both from the Law and the Gospel. But this is so far from being true, that I wish every good Minister, whom the Spirit of God has called to his Office, and governs in it, had much more of this World's Goods than are needful for his own reasonable Subsistence; because it is certain, that such a one's Money would all be put into the Poor's Bag, and he would as gladly and liberally administer to their temporal, as to their spiritual Necessities. I write against nothing but Avarice, Selfishness, Pride, and Ambition, and the making the Provisions of the Church subservient to these Tempers. A Provision arising from the Gospel is consecrated by the Gospel, and is profaned by being touched and used by a worldly Spirit. And he who turns this Provision of the Gospel into a Support and Gratification of worldly Passions, sins against the Nature and Law of the Gospel, more than he that pays his Tithes with Reluctance.

I can easily believe there are Clergy in this Land, who labour in the Gospel without having a sufficient Subsistence from it; but if much of this Evil was to be charged upon Pluralities, Commendams, and such like spiritual Trading, there would be no Injustice in it. And if the inferior Clergy had their Labours only undervalued by the Laity, they would be in much better Condition than they are,

When it is complained by what shameful Qualifications, empty Titles, and unworthy Pretences, Numbers of Persons get loaded and dignified with Variety of Preferments; it is answered, in Excuse of this great Evil, That if Pre

Preferments might not be thus crowded together, great Learning, distinguished Abilities, and eminent Labours for the Service of Religion, must go unrewarded.

As this Answer is not fetched from the Gospel, or the Primitive Church, so I shall shew, that it is as little supported by Reason. For if this great Learning is truly Gospel Learning, if this eminent Labour is truly pious Labour, what State of Life can so little want to be rewarded? How can Imagination itself place a Man more above the Thoughts and Desires of worldly Advancement? If such a one is full of the Light and Spirit of the Gospel, if his Labours have been like those of an Apostle, must he not like an Apostle be dead to the World? Can such a one look upon his Labour as a Hardship, because it has left him as low, and as far from the Pomp of the World, as it found him? Can he repine because the Gospel has not proved a good worldly Bargain to him? If the Spirit of God has begun, and directed all his Labours, animated all his Studies and Designs, can such a one think it hard that he has not by such Labours purchased to himself a Share in the State and Pride of Human Life.

If by a great Divine is only meant a Person well skilled in Critical Contention, who can artfully, plausibly, scholastically defend a Set of Notions, amongst which he happened to be born and bred, such a Divine, I own, may be very impatient, and much cooled in his Zeal, unless he finds himself well rewarded; but if an eminent Divine is to be understood in a Sense suitable to the Gospel, he is that particular Person that must needs have the greatest Contempt and Dislike of every Thing, that has but the Appearance of the Pomp and Vanity of this World in it. If therefore it was urged, that this Conjunction of Preferments and dignifying Rewards was necessary to bring ambitious Scholars into the Church, or to keep them in it, there would be some Sense, though no Gospel in the Pretence; but to talk of them as necessary to be the Rewards of eminent Piety and Apostolick Labour, is as absurd as to say, that those who have truly put on Christ, who stand in the highest Degree of a renewed Nature, who best know and feel the Blessing of a mortified, heavenly Spirit, have less Reason to be content with Food and Raiment, than those who stand in a lower Degree of the Christian Life; it is saying, that a Bishop, because having most of the Spirit and Office of an Apostle in him, may well desire more of the Pride and Figure of this World, than the

To want to stand in some Degree of worldly Figure is the State of a Babe in the Christian Life, that hath hardly tasted the Milk of Evangelical Nourishment, and therefore can no way become those, who are to lead and compel others to the Perfection and Fulness of the Stature in Christ Jesus.

A great Divine is but a cant Expression, unless it signifies a Man greatly advanced in the Divine Life, whose own Experience and Example are a Demonstration of the Reality of all the Graces and Virtues of the Gospel. No Divine has any more of the Gospel in him, than that which proves itself by the Spirit, Actions, and Form of his Life; the rest is but Hypocrisy, not Theology: If therefore Poverty of Spirit, a Disregard of worldly Figure, a total Self-denial, are any Part of the Gospel, an eminent Divine, or one advanced in the Spirit and Life of Jesus, can have no Wish with regard to the Figure, Pride, and Pomp of this Life, but to be placed out of every Appearance of it: And if the first and highest in Divine Knowledge are not the foremost in Poverty of Spirit, and the outward Humility of Christ and his Apostles; if eminent Divines want and desire to have a Dignity of worldly Figure, to have Respect by any other Means than by the Divine Virtues and Graces of an Evangelical Spirit and Conversation, and are not content with all the Contempt that such a Life can expose them to, they may be great Scholars, but they are little Divines, and must be thought to be much wanting in that which is the chief Part of the Ministers of Jesus Christ. But to proceed :

The next Thing I said to the young Clergy was this; “ Consider yourselves merely as the “ Messengers of God, that are sent into the “ World solely on his Errand; and think it “ Happiness enough that you are called to the “ same Business for which the Son of God was

Now I thought what I here said was as unexceptionable, as pious, as unfit to be condemned by a Professor of Christian Theology, as if I had only recommended the loving of God with all our Heart and Soul, and Mind and Strength; and that if any Clergyman disliked it, he would be forced to keep his Dislike to himself: But the Doctor is very open in his Indignation at it; the same Answer, he says, is to be given here, as before, viz. that it is false

Our Blessed Lord, when he sent the first Preachers of the Gospel into the World, said unto them, As my Father hath sent me, so send I you;—go ye and teach all Nations;—and lo I am with you to the End of the World. Now let it be supposed, that these first Preachers of the Gospel fully believed, that from the Time of their Appointment to this high Office they were to consider themselves merely as the Messengers of God, sent into the World solely on his Errand, and that it was Happiness enough for them to be called to that Business, for which the Son of God was born into the World; if they had this Belief, what follows? Why, according to the Doctor, it follows, that they set out from the very first in one of the greatest Errors, had mistaken the Nature and Intent of their Mission, and had gone into the World upon a Principle that was false in itself, and scandalous and reproachful to the Christian Religion.

But if this Belief is not to be condemned in the first Clergy, as a false Opinion of their Office, scandalous and reproachful to the Christian Religion, I desire to know why those Clergy, who claim their Succession from the first, and expect the Presence of Christ in and

with their Ministry, are not to be called upon to be of the same Spirit and Belief with the first of their Order ; or how can it be a Scandal to the Gospel, for the modern Clergy to be as wholly devoted to the Service of God as the Apostles were : Surely there is something so extravagant in the Doctor's Condemnation of the Advice here given to young Divines, as must shock even the common Reader ; and if it could be supposed, that there are others among the learned Clergy who are in this like minded with the Doctor, and glad to see this Advice condemned in this manner ; if it could be supposed that there are not Numbers among them of Rank and Eminence that want and desire to bear their Testimony against it, have we not too much Reason to fear that, which God threatened to the Angel of the Church at Ephesus, namely, the Removal of our Candlestick out of its Place ?

The Doctor sets it out as an extraordinary Presumption, in such a Man as I am, to pretend to give Advice to young Divines, when it is so sufficiently done already by the Offices of our Church, the Charges, Instructions, and Exhortations of our Bishops at their Visitation, and so many excellent Ordination and Visitation Sermons, p. 87. Now granting the Plenty and Excellence of all these, yet I have some hope, that my Presumption may be found to be only like that of the poor Widow, who after so many rich Oblations of great People presumed to put her little Mite into the Treasury. And if it be true, that the Things here suggested by me are only such as have been already fully set forth by so many great Bishops and excellent Preachers, how will the Doctor come off for condemning it, as false Doctrine, scandalous, and reproachful to the Christian Religion?

Dr. Trap gives a Reason for his condemning this Advice, which is thus expressed: It is, says he, false to say, that Clergymen ought to mind nothing, in any Degree, but their Profession and Duty, as Clergymen; they are Husbands, Parents, Men, as well as Clergymen, and must in some measure be concerned in the Affairs of the World, p. 88.

Part of this I own to be very true, viz. that they are Men, and have the Wants of Human Nature which must be supplied; and for a full Proof of this, the Doctor might have justly appealed to St. Paul, who, though miraculously called to be an Apostle, and separated from the World to be merely a Messenger and Apostle of Jesus Christ, yet, after this high Apostleship, worked at his Trade, and often spent spent some Part of the Day and the Night in making Tents : Therefore if all those, whom I have exhorted to consider themselves as so highly set apart for the sole Service of God, should shew such a Degree of worldly Care as St. Paul did when he worked at his Trade, they might yet justly be said to act suitably to their Station, as the Ministers of God, that are wholly devoted to his Service : For if they should refuse to live, how could it be their Desire to live wholly to the Service of God ; or who can say that St. Paul departed from his Character, as a Minister of God, when he laboured with his own Hands, that he might gloriously and freely preach the Gospel ? For it was for the Sake of the Gospel, to promote and recommend the Gospel, to make his Preaching the more successful ; it was to shew that he had fully renounced the World, desired nothing from it, but for the Glory and Love of God would preach Salvation freely to the World : And thus have all the Ministers of the Gospel an Example in St. Paul, how they may make their Care of a Livelihood a Part of their Service to God.

But when the Doctor says, that Clergymen are Husbands and Parents, I must object a little ; because no Scripture, or Antiquity shews

me, that these Characters must belong to a Preacher of the Gospel; and therefore, when a Clergyman excuses himself from any Heights of the Ministerial Service, by saying, he has married a Wife, and therefore cannot come up to them, it seems to be no better an Excuse, than if he had said, he had hired a Farm, or bought five Yoke of Oxen.

I know very well that the Reformation has allowed Priests and Bishops, not only to look out for Wives, but to have as many as they please one after another: But this is only to be considered as a bare Allowance, and perhaps granted upon such a Motive, as Moses of old made one to the Jews, for the Hardness of their Hearts, though from the Beginning it was not so; and therefore when Elogiums are sometimes made from the Pulpit on this Matter, I think they had better been spared; an Allowance granted to Weakness is but an indifferent Subject to be made a Matter of Glory.

The Doctor should also have observed, that my Address was made to the young Clergy, and such as are only upon entering into holy Orders, nine in ten of which may be supposed to be neither Husbands nor Fathers. He should also have remembered, that our Universities are full of Clergy who are obliged to live un- married, that they may have proper Leisure and Freedom to attend their Studies without Impediment from worldly Cares. And therefore if I pointed at such a Dedication of the Clergy to the Service of God, as Husbands and Fathers cannot enter into, yet the Matter is not blameable, because there are so many that have not yet entered into this State of Subjection to the World, but are at Liberty to devote themselves wholly to the Service of the Gospel. And therefore if to such as these I can so represent the Weight, the Duties, the heavenly Nature of the Priesthood, as to prevent or extinguish in them all Thoughts and Desires of being thus married to the World, what hurt have I done them, or the married Clergy, or the Gospel of Jesus Christ?

Virginity or Celibacy, when entered into from a Principle of divine Love, from a Heart burning with the Desire of living wholly and solely to God, is a State that gives Wings to all our Endeavours, and truly fits the Soul for the highest Growth of every heavenly Virtue: And if he that is consecrated to the Service of the Altar desires not to keep his Heart from carnal Love, if he feels not such an Ascent of his Soul towards Heaven, as to have no Wish, but that his whole Body, Soul, and Spirit, may be

be presented to God in its utmost Degree of Purity, he must be said to have his Lamp much less kindled, than many of the Laity, both Men and Women, have had in all Ages of the Church. Custom or common Practice has too great a Power over our Judgments, and reconciles us to any Thing; but if a Christian, who lived when Christianity was in its Glory, when the first Apologists for it appealed to the Numbers of both Sexes devoted to the Chastity of the single Life, as an invincible Proof of the Power and Divinity of the Gospel; if a Christian of those Days was now to come into the World, he must needs be much more shocked at Reverend Doctors in Sacerdotal Robes, making Love to Women, than at seeing a Monk in his Cell kissing a wooden Crucifix.

The Knowledge and Love of the Virgin State began with Christianity, when the Nature of our Corruption, and the Nature of our Redemption, were so fully discovered by the Light of the Gospel. Then it was, that a new Degree of heavenly Love was kindled in the human Nature, and brought forth a State of Life that had not been desired till the Son of the Virgin came into the World. John the Baptist may be looked upon as the Beginner of the Gospel Dispensation; this burning and shining

Light was in his Person the Figure of Judaism ending in Christianity. In his outward Birth and State he was a Jew, in his inward Spirit and Character he belonged to the Gospel. He came out of the Wilderness burning and shining, to preach the Kingdom of Heaven at Hand. This may shew us that Heat and Light from above, kindled in a State of great Self-denial, are necessary to make us able Ministers of the Gospel; and that if we pretend to the Ministry without these Qualifications, and come only burning and shining with the Spirit of this World, we are only as well fitted to hinder, as the Baptist was to prepare the Way to the Kingdom of Heaven. Look at this great Saint, all ye that desire to preach the Gospel. He came forth in the highest Degrees of Mortification and Chastity of Life. But why did he so come? It was to shew the World that these two great Virtues must form the Spirit of every Preacher of the Gospel. His Character does not call you to a Wilderness beyond Jordan, or to be cloathed with Camels Hair, &c. Such Circumstances are particular to himself; but it calls you to his inward Spirit of Self-denial, to stand in his State of Death to the World, and all carnal Love, if you would not only preach, but prove the Perfection of the Gospel: For if the Baptist was to be thus dead to the Flesh and the World, that he might only preach thus much, that the Kingdom of Heaven was at Hand; can a less Self-denial be required of those, who are to preach that which is much more, namely, that the Kingdom of Heaven is come?

Now if this holy Baptist, when he came to Jerusalem, and had preached a-while upon Penitence, and the Kingdom of Heaven at hand, had made an Offering of his Heart to some fine young Lady of great Accomplishments, had not this put an End to all that was burning and shining in his Character? And if those Clergy who date their Mission from Jesus Christ himself, who claim being sent by him as he was by his Father, to stand as his Representatives, applying the Means and Mysteries of Salvation to all that desire to be born again from above, if they, whether they be Vicars, Rectors, Arch-Deacons, Deans, or Bishops, should look upon their Office to be as sacred, and their Station as high in the Kingdom of God as the Baptist's was; if they should look upon Love-Addresses to the Sex, as unbecoming, as foreign, as opposite to their Character, as to the Baptist's; could any one say, that they took too much upon them, or paid too great a Reverence to the Holiness and Pu- riety of that Priesthood, which they derived from the very Person and Office of Jesus Christ.

Our blessed Lord improved upon these two Articles of Mortification and Chastity, and set them before every Preacher of the Gospel in a yet fuller Light. It is needless to shew how much he speaks of the Nature and Necessity of a total Self-denial; but what he says of the Virgin-Life, as to be chosen by those who are able to chuse it, for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake, Matth. xix. 12. is more than a Volume of human Eloquence in Praise of it. What Wonder is it, if after this, great Numbers both of Men and Women were found in the first Ages of the Church, that chose to know no Love, but that of God in a single Life?

St. Paul has done every thing to hinder a Minister of Jesus Christ from entering into Marriage, except calling it a sinful State, when he says, He that is married, careth for the Things of the World, how he may please his Wife; and how could he more powerfully press the Virgin Life upon the Clergy, than when he says, He that is unmarried, careth for the Things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord. Now who would imagine, that after this Determination of the Matter by

fo great an Apoftle, there fhould be any need of Church Authority to reftain any one in Holy Orders from seeking after a Wife? Yet it muft be fupposed, that even in the primitive Church there was fome Fear at leaft, that fuch a ReftRAINT would foon be needful; becaufe the twenty-feventh Apoftolical Canon orders, that none amongst the Clergy be permitted to enter into Wedlock, except thofe who have no higher an Office in the Church than that of mere Singers and Readers.

When our Bleffed Lord fent the firft Preachers of the Gofpel into the World, he took them from amongst married Men, Fishermen, Publicans, and Tentmakers; and there was no more Reason to look upon a Perfon as unfit to be an Apoftle, becaufe he had a Wife, than becaufe he had a Trade: And therefore St. Paul does not tell Timothy and Titus to ordain no married Perfon, for then no Elders could have been ordained in the Church, but he only enjoins them to lay Hands only on fuch as were in the moft perfect Condition of the married Life, who had been the Hufbands but of one Wife, and whole whole Family was a Proof of their Wifdom and Piety.

Hence it was, that the primitive Church made fo great a Difference between a married

Clergyman, and a Clergyman that married; the former was allowed for the Reasons above-mentioned, but the latter always censured as a thing highly reproachful, as a departing from that Self-denial, Devotion, and Consecration to God, in which every one in Holy Orders ought to live: But when Christianity had breathed a while in the World, there soon became less Occasion to ordain Persons that were married; for the Apologists appeal to the Numbers of both Sexes consecrated to God in a Virgin Life, as one great Proof of the Divinity of the Christian Religion. But when such Arguments as these were used, to set forth the Glory of the Gospel, need any one be told, that it must have been highly shameful, in those Days for a Priest of such a Religion, to be looking out for a Wife? There is scarce a Saint, or eminent Father of the first Ages, who did not write set Discourses, and preach entire Homilies, in Praise of this Virgin Perfection of Life; but surely this was enough telling the World, that that Order of Men who officiated in the Mysteries of this Divine Religion, and were Teachers of its Perfection, were Persons devoted to God in a Holy Virginity of Life: And if it be asked, Why among all our modern fine Sermons we have none upon the Perfection

fection and Advantage of a holy Virginity? the Reason can be only this, because our Priests and Bishops marry as often as the Common People of the World. In the Primitive Church, if a Subdeacon married a Widow he was degraded from his Office; and the Reason was, because he who tempted a Woman to marry a second Time, was looked upon to be a Corrupter of Human Nature: These were the Sentiments of the Church, when it might be truly called the Spouse of Jesus Christ.

I shall conclude this Matter with a Passage taken from the Serious Call to a devout and Holy Life; it is a Quotation from the great and learned Eusebius, who lived at the Time of the first general Council, when the Faith of our Nicene Creed was established: His Words are these, “ There have been, saiſt he, instituted “ in the Church of Christ two Ways or “ Manners of Living; the one, raised above the “ ordinary State of Nature, and common Ways “ of Living, rejects Wedlock, Possessions, and “ Worldly Goods, and being wholly separated
 “ and removed from the ordinary Conversation “ of Common Life is appropriated and de“ voted solely to the Worship and Service of “ God, through an exceeding Degree of hea- “ venly Love: They who are of this Order

“ of People seem dead to the Life of this “ World, and having their Bodies only upon “ Earth, are in their Minds and Contemplations “ dwelling in Heaven; from whence, like so “ many heavenly Inhabitants, they look down “ upon Human Life, making Intercessions and “ Oblations for the whole Race of Mankind, and “ this, not with the Blood of Beasts, or the Fat, “ or Smoak and burning of Bodies, but with “ the highest Exercises of true Piety, with “ cleansed and purified Hearts, and with a whole “ Form of Life strictly devoted to Virtue: These “ are their Sacrifices, which they are continually “ offering unto God, and implore his Mercy
 “ and Favour for themselves and their fellow
 “ perfect Manner of Life.

“ The other is of a lower Form, and suiting “ itself more to the Condition of Human Na“ ture, admits of chaste Wedlock, the Care of “ Children and Families, of Trade and Busi“ ness, and goes through all the Employments “ of Life under a Sense of Piety and Fear of “ God: Now they who have chosen this “ Manner of Life have their set Times for “ Retirement and Spiritual Exercises, and par“ ticular Days are set apart for their hearing
 “ Order

“ Order of People are considered as in the *second State of Piety.” Here you see the Perfection of the Christian Life plainly set out, and how it was, that Numbers of private Persons, Men and Women, who had no Share in the Ecclesiastical Office, yet by this Perfection of Life, made themselves holy and heavenly Intercessors for the whole Race of Mankind. Now are we not here obliged to suppose, that in this Father’s Days the Clergy were in this Number of People, that were thus heavenly in the whole Form of their Life, thus devoted to God and the Edification of the Church, by embracing the perfect Life of Christianity? If they were not, do they not stand plainly condemned by the Religion of the Gospel, since this Father assures us, that Christianity held this to be the perfect Manner of Life? I shall only add thus much here, that till such a Degree of heavenly Love, such a Sense of the Purity, Holiness, and heavenly Nature of the sacred Calling, till such a Desire of Perfection is awakened in the Clergy, as shuts out all carnal Love and worldly Tempers from their Hearts, they cannot be such Priests and Intercessors with God, such Patterns of Purity and Holiness, such Kindlers of divine Love and heavenly Desires among Men, as the Nature of their Office both intends and requires of them. If

If a Candidate for Holy Orders dares not make this total Donation of himself to God, to be an Instrument of his good Pleasure only in the Service of the Gospel, if it is not the real State of his Heart, to wish nothing for himself in this World but the most perfect Purification of his Nature, the highest Advancement in all Divine Virtues; if he desires any thing in and by his Office, but a Concurrence with Jesus Christ in the Salvation of Souls; if he has any Reserves of Self-seeking, or Self-advancement in the World, any fleshly Passions which he hopes to make consistent with the Duties of his Profession; if he is not separated in Will and Desire from all that is not God and the Service of God, he must be said to want the best Proofs of his being called by the Holy Ghost.

Dr. Trap's violent Condemnation of what I said to the young Clergy, and Candidates for Holy Orders, made it necessary for me to enter thus far into this Subject. If any thing that I have said to these Persons, concerning the Excellence, the Advantage, the Purity, the Necessity of a Virgin Life, in order to their own Perfection and the full Edification of the Church, gives offence to any of the married Clergy, it can only be to those, who do not wish to see the

the Church in a better State than that in which they found it; and to such there need no Apology be made.

But to turn to another Matter; I had said, that “ Salvation wholly consists in the Incarnation of the Son of God in the Soul or Life of Man; that which was done and born in the Virgin Mary, must be done and born in us: As our Sin and Death is Adam in us, so our Life and Salvation is Christ in us. ———As we are earthly corrupt Men, by having the Nature and Life of Adam the first propagated in us, so we must become new and heavenly Men, by having the Life and Nature of Adam the second regenerated in us: But if we are to be like him in Nature, as we are like to Adam in Nature, then there is an absolute Necessity, that that which was done and born in the Virgin Mary be also, by the same Power of the Holy Ghost, done and born in us. The Mystery of Christ’s Birth must be the Mystery of our Birth, we cannot be his Sons but by having the Birth of his Life derived into us: The new Paradisiacal Man must be brought forth in the same Manner in every individual Person. That which brought forth this Holy Birth in the first Adam at his

 “ Virgin Mary, that alone can bring it forth
 “ in any one of their Offspring*.” Now there seems to be nothing in all this, but what is easily to be apprehended, and fully believed by every one that knows any thing of the Christian Life ; but the Doctor makes two Replies to this Doctrine: The first is this, Were such Words, says he, ever heard among Christians before? † Yes, good Sir, they have often been heard before, by such as have Ears to hear ; for they are the very Words which Christ and his Apostles have as plainly spoke, as they have spoke any one Article of the Apostles Creed :
 They are only as different from the Words of Christ and his Apostle, as the English Words of the Bible are different from those Greek Words in which the Gospels were written.
 When the Scripture saith that Christ must be formed in us, does it not say that Christ must be born, or become incarnate to us ? When it saith, Christ was born of the Virgin Mary, doth it not say, that Christ was incarnate of the Virgin Mary? Or is there any thing to fright a learned Divine, who has for forty Years been told that Christ must be formed in us,

us, revealed in us, that he must put on Christ, to be told that Christ must become incarnate in us, that he must bring forth himself in us, and have such a Birth in our Soul and Life as he had in the Virgin Mary? For where-ever he is born, must he not be born in the same Manner? Was it not the Word of God, that by the Power of the Holy Ghost became Man in the Virgin Mary? And is there any Thing in this Birth on this wise, that is inconsistent with the Birth of our new Man in Christ Jesus? Must not the same Word of God, by the same Operation of the Holy Spirit, bring forth that in us which is the new Man in Christ Jesus, or Christ formed in us? When our Lord saith, that we must be born again from above, of the Word of God, is it more or less than saying, that that Word which was born in the Virgin Mary, and was incarnate in her, must be born and incarnate in us? When the Apostle saith, that we must be born again of the incorruptible Seed of the Word, is not this expressly saying, that that must be done and born in us, which was done and born in the Virgin Mary? If he says, that Christ must be formed in us, does he not say, that he must have such a Birth and Form in us as he had in

in the Virgin Mary; only with this Difference, that in the Birth of Christ, the Fulness of the Deity, or eternal Word became Man, and dwelt personally in him; but in us, only a Spark, or Seed of the Word, is formed and raised up into a new heavenly Man. Is there now any Thing in all this but the most comfortable, substantial Part of our Redemption set out in the plainest Words of Scripture? Reject this Doctrine, say that you cannot, you will not, you desire not to have Christ thus born and formed in you, and then you reject all that Salvation which the Word of God, born of a Virgin, hath brought into the World. For the Scripture is absolutely plain in telling us, that lost Man cannot be made alive again unto God, but solely by this way, by being born again of the Word and holy Spirit of God; if therefore we desire not, but reject such a Birth, as was brought forth by the Word and holy Spirit of God in the Virgin Mary, do we not plainly reject that Birth in which all our Salvation consists? And therefore to say that that must be done and born in us, which was done and born in the Virgin Mary, is as plain, as scriptural, as to say, that we must be born again of the Word and holy Spirit of God. And on this Ground it is, that Christ in us is said to be our Hope of Glory.—And that the Kingdom of Heaven is within us,—that we must be in Christ new Creatures,—that we must put on Christ,—that he must be formed in us, revealed, manifested in us,—that he is our Life,—that he brings us forth out of himself, as the Vine does its Branches,—that unless we eat his Flesh and drink his Blood, we have no Life in us. These, and many other the like Sayings of Scripture, which are the strongest, deepest Expressions of the Nature and Manner of our Salvation, are all grounded on this Truth, viz. That the Mystery of Christ's Birth is the Mystery of our New Birth; that that must be done and born in us, which was done and born in the Virgin Mary, namely a new Man brought forth in the Likeness of Christ, by a Birth from the Word and holy Spirit of God.

But the Doctor has a second Reply to this Matter, which stands thus expressed. Whether, says he, you consider the Divinity, or the Sense of this, could George Fox himself have out-done it? p. 48. This Reply, considered in itself, might have its Place among those algebraic Quantities that are some Degree less than nothing; but with Regard to the Doctor's Purpose, it has something in it; for it is an Appeal

peal to that which is very powerful, which has suppressed many a good Truth; it is an Appeal to vulgar Prejudice, and shews that the Doctor is not without his Expectations from that Quarter. And thus it is, that the Catholic Artist in his Country plays a Martin Luther, when he wants to reproach that which he knows not how to confute. What Degree of Sense, or Divinity, George Fox was possessed of, I cannot pretend to say, having never read any of his Writings; but if he has said any good and divine Truths, I should be as well pleased in seeing them in his Books, as in any of the Fathers of the primitive Church. For as the Gospel requires me to be as glad to see Piety, Equity, strict Sobriety, and extensive Charity in a Jew, or a Gentile, as in a Christian; as it obliges me to look with Pleasure upon their Virtues, and be thankful to God, that such Persons have so much of true and sound Christianity in them; so it cannot be an unchristian Spirit to be as glad to see Truths in one Party of Christians, as in another; and to look with Pleasure upon any good Doctrines, that are held by any Sect of Christian People, and be thankful to God, that they have so much of the genuine saving Truths of the Gospel among them. For if we have no Anger or

Complaint against those that are divided from us, but what proceeds from a Christian Fear, that what they bold and practise will not be so beneficial to them; as our Religion will be to us, must we not have the utmost Readiness and Willingness to find, own, and rejoice in those good Doctrines and Practices, which they still retain and profess? If a poor Pi'grim, under a Necessity of travelling a dangerous and difficult Road by himself, had, through his own Perverseness lost the Use of a Leg, and the Sight of one Eye, could we be said to have any charitable Concern for his Perverseness and Misfortune, unless we were glad to see, that he had one good Leg, and one good Eye still left, and unless we hoped and desired they might bring him at last to his Journey's End. Now let every Part of the Church, which takes itself to be sound and good, and is only angry at every other Part because they have lessened the Means of their own Salvation; let her but have thus much Charity in her Anger, and then she will be glad to see, in every perverse Division, something like the one good Leg, and the one good Eye of the Pilgrim, and which she will hope and wish may do them the same Good.

Selfishness and Partiality are very inhuman and base Qualities, even in the Things of this

World, but in the Doctrines of Religion they are of a baser Nature. Now this is the greatest Evil that the Division of the Church has brought forth; it raises in every Communion a selfish partial Orthodoxy, which consists in courageously defending all that it has, and condemning all that it has not. And thus every Champion is trained up in Defence of their own Truth, their own Learning, and their own Church, and he has the most Merit, the most Honour, who likes every Thing, defends every Thing among themselves, and leaves nothing uncensured in those that are of a different Communion. Now how can Truth, and Goodness, and Union, and Religion be more struck at, than by such Defenders of it? If you ask why the great Bishop of Meaux wrote so many learned Books against all Parts of the Reformation, it is because he was born in France, and bred up in the Bosom of Mother Church. Had he been born in England, had Oxford, or Cambridge, been his Alma Mater, he might have rivalled our great Bishop Stillingfleet, and would have wrote as many learned Folio's against the Church of Rome as he has done. And yet I will venture to say, that if each Church could produce but one Man a-piece, that had the Piety of an Apostle, and the impartial Love of the first first Christians in the first Church at Jerusalem, that a Protestant and a Papist of this Stamp, would not want half a Sheet of Paper to hold their Articles of Union, nor be half an Hour before they were of one Religion. If therefore it should be said, that Churches are divided, estranged, and made unfriendly to one another, by a Learning, a Logic, a History, a Criticisim in the Hands of Partiality, it would be saying that which every particular Church too much proves to be true. Ask why even the best amongst the Catholicks are very shy of owning the Validity of the Orders of our Church; it is because they are afraid of removing any Odium from the Reformation. Ask why no Protestants any where touch upon the Benefit or Necessity of Celibacy in those, who are separated from worldly Business to preach the Gospel; it is because that would be seeming to lessen the Romish Error of not suffering Marriage in her Clergy? Ask why even the most worthy and pious among the Clergy of the established Church, are afraid to assert the Sufficiency of the Divine Light, the Necessity of seeking only to the Guidance and Inspiration of the holy Spirit; it is because the Quakers, who have broke off from the Church, have made this Doctrine their Corner Stone.

If we loved Truth as such; if we sought it for its own Sake; if we loved our Neighbour as ourselves; if we desired nothing by our Religion but to be acceptable to God; if we equally desired the Salvation of all Men; if we were afraid of Error only because of its hurtful Nature to us and our Fellow-Churches, then nothing of this Spirit could have any Place in us.

There is therefore a Catholick Spirit, a Communion of Saints in the Love of God and all Goodness, which no one can learn from that which is called Orthodoxy in particular Churches, but is only to be had by a total Dying to all worldly Views, by a pure Love of God, and by such an Unction from above, as delivers the Mind from all Selfishness, and makes it love Truth and Goodness with an Equality of Affection in every Man, whether he be Christian, Jew, or Gentile. He that would obtain this Divine and Catholick Spirit in this disordered, divided State of Things; and live in a divided Part of the Church without partaking of its Division, must have these three Truths deeply fixed in his Mind: First, that universal Love, which gives the whole Strength of the Heart to God, and make us love every Man as we love ourselves, is the Noblest, the most Divine, the God-like State

State of the Soul, and is the utmost Perfection to which the most perfect Religion can raise us; and that no Religion does any Man any Good, but so far as it brings this Perfection of Love into him. This Truth will shew us, that true Orthodoxy can no where be found, but in a pure disinterested Love of God and our Neighbour. Secondly, That in the present divided State of the Church, Truth itself is torn and divided asunder; and that therefore he can be the only true Catholic, who has more of Truth, and less of Error, than is hedged in by any divided Part. This Truth will enable us to live in a divided Part unhurt by its Division, and keep us in a true Liberty and Fitness to be edified and assisted by all the Good that we hear or see in any other Part of the Church. And thus uniting in Heart and Spirit with all that is holy and good in all Churches, we enter into the true Communion of Saints, and become real Members of the Holy Catholic Church, though we are confined to the outward Worship of only one particular Part of it. It is thus that the Angels, as ministring Spirits, assist, join, unite, and co-operate with every Thing that is holy and good in every Division of Mankind. Thirdly, he must always have in Mind this great Truth, that it is the Glory of the divine Justice to have no Respect of Parties or Persons, but to stand equally disposed to that which is right and wrong, as well in the Jew, as in the Gentile. He therefore that would like as God likes, and condemn as God condemns, must have neither the Eyes of the Papist nor the Protestant; he must like no Truth the less because Ignatius Loyola, or John Bunyan were very zealous for it; nor have the less Aversion to any Error, because Dr. Trap or George Fox had brought it forth. Now if this universal Love and impartial Justice is the Spirit which will judge the World at the last Day, how can this Spirit be too soon, or too much in us? Or what can do us more Hurt than that which is an Hindrance of it? When I was a young Scholar of the University, I heard a great Religioneſt say in my Father's House, that if he could believe the late King of France to be in Heaven, he could not tell how to wish to go there himself. This was exceeding shocking to all that heard it: Yet ſomething of this kind of Temper must be supposed to be more or less in those, who have, as a Point of Orthodoxy, worked themselves up into a hearty Contempt and Hatred of those that are divided from them. He that has been all his Life long used to look with great Abhorrence upon those whom whom he has called superstitious Bigots, dreaming Visionaries, false Saints, canting Enthusiasts, &c. must naturally expect they will be treated by God as they have been by him; and if he had the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, such People would find it hard to get a Place in it. But it stands us greatly in Hand to get rid of this Temper before we die: For if nothing but universal Love can enter into the Kingdom of God, what can be more necessary for us, than to be full of his Love before we die?

We often hear People of great Zeal and Orthodoxy declaring, on their Death-beds, their strict Attachment to the Church of England, and making solemn Protestations against all other Churches; but how much better would it be, if such a Person was to say? “ In this “ divided State of Christendom I must con-
 “ and therefore I have chosen to live and die
 “ in outward Communion with the Church “ of England; fully believing, that if I wor“ ship God in Spirit and in Truth in this di“ vided Part of the Church, I shall be as ac“ ceptable to him, as if I had been a faithful “ Member of the one whole Church, before it “ was broken into separate Parts. But as I am “ now going out of this disordered Division

“ into a more universal State of Things ; as I “ am now falling into the Hands of the great “ Creator and Lover of all Souls ; as I am go“ ing to the God of all Churches, to a King“ dom of universal Love, which must have “ its Inhabitants from all People, Nations, and “ Languages of the Earth ; so in this Spirit of “ universal Love, I desire to perform my last “ Act of Communion in this divided Church, “ uniting and joining in Heart and Spirit with “ all that is Christian, Holy, Good, and Ac- “ ceptable to God in all other Churches ; pray“ ing, from the Bottom of my Soul, that “ every Church may have its Saints, that “ God’s Kingdom may come, his Will be done “ in every Division of Christians and Men, and “ that every Thing that hath Breath may praise the “ Lord.”

Need any one now be told the superior Excellence of this Spirit, or its Fitness to be admitted into the Kingdom of universal Love ?
 Need we any Proof, that nothing but this Ca- tholic Spirit will carry us unhurt by Schism through all those Divisions which the Devil, the World, and fleshly Wisdom have brought into the Church ? Again, We have often seen learned Protestants very zealous in pulling to Pieces the Lives of the Saints of the Romish Church,

Church, and casting all the Reproach and Ridicule they can upon their wondrous Spirit; though the Lives of the Saints of the primitive Church, written by the Fathers of the greatest Name and Authority, are as fit to be exposed in the same Manner. Now whence does this proceed? Why from a secret Truth of that Spirit which could not bear to have the late King of France in Heaven; it proceeds from a partial, selfish Orthodoxy, which cannot bear to hear, or own, that the Spirit and Blessing of God are so visible in a Church from which it is divided, and against which it has so much preached: But if a Person be of this Spirit, what does it signify where he has his outward Church? If a Romish Priest in the North of England could not bear the Splendor of a Life so devoted to God, so fruitful in all the Works of Piety and Goodness, as was that of the late Lady Elizabeth Hastings, if he should want to fully the Brightness of her Christian Graces, and prove her to have been no Saint, lest it should appear, that the Spirit of God was not confined to the Romish Church, would not such a Zeal shew a worse Spirit than that of Superstition, a greater Depravity of Heart than the saying now and then an Ave Mary?

The more we believe or know of the Corruptions and Hindrances of true Piety in the Church of Rome, the more we should rejoice to hear, that in every Age so many eminent Spirits, great Saints, have appeared in it, whom we should thankfully behold as so many great Lights hung out by God to shew the true Way to Heaven, as so many joyful Proofs that Christ is still present in that Church, as well as in other Churches, and that the Gates of Hell have not prevailed, or quite overcome it. Who that has the least Spark of Heaven in his Soul, can help thinking and rejoicing in this manner at the Appearance of a St. Bernard, a Teresa, a Francis de Sales, &c. in that Church? Who can help praising God, that her invented Devotions, superstitious Use of Images, Invocation of Saints, &c. have not so suppressed any of the Graces and Virtues of an Evangelical Perfection of Life, but that among Cardinals, Jesuits, Priests, Friars, Monks, and Nuns, Numbers have been found, who seemed to live for no other End, but to give Glory to God, and Edification to Men, and whose Writings have every Thing in them, that can guide the Soul out of the Corruption of this Life into the highest Union with God. And he who through a partial Orthodoxy is diverted from feeding in these green Pastures of Life, whose just Abhorrence of Jesuitical Craft and worldly Policy keeps him from knowing and reading the Works of an Alvares du Pas, a Rodrigues, a Du Pont, a Guillorce, a Pere Surin, and such like Jesuits, has a greater Loss than he can easily imagine : And if any Clergyman can read the Life of Bartholomeus a Martyribis, a Spanish Archbishop, who sat with great Influence at the very Council of Trent, without being edified by it, and desiring to read it again and again, I know not why he should like the Lives of the best of the Apostolical Fathers : And if any Protestant Bishop should read the Stimulus Paflorum wrote by this Popish Prelate, he must be forced to confess it to be a Book, that would have done Honour to the best Archbishop that the Reformation has to boast of. O my God, how shall I unlock this Mystery of Things ; in the Land of Darkness, over-run with Superstition, where Divine Worship seems to be all Shew and Ceremony, there both among Priests and People thou hast those, who are fired with the pure Love of thee, who renounce every thing for thee, who are devoted wholly and solely to thee, who think of nothing, write of nothing, desire nothing but the Honour, and Praise, and Adoration that is due to thee, and who call all the World to the Maxims of the Gospel, the Holiness and Perfection of the Life of Christ. But in the Regions where Light is sprung up, whence Superstition is fled, where all that is outward in Religion seems to be pruned, dressed, and put in its true Order, there a cleansed Shell, a whited Sepulchre, seems too generally to cover a dead Christianity.

The Error of all Errors, and that which makes the blackest Charge against the Romish Church, is Persecution, a religious Sword drawn against the Liberty and Freedom of serving God according to our best Light, that is, against our worshipping the Father in Spirit and in Truth: This is the great Whore, the Beast, the Dragon, the Antichrist. Now, though this is the frightful Monster of that Church, yet even here, who, except it be the Church of England, can throw the first Stone at her? Where must we look for a Church that has so renounced this persecuting Beast, as they have renounced the Use of Incense, the Sprinklings of Holy Water, or the extreme Unction of dying Persons? What Part of the Reformation abroad has not practised and defended Persecution? What Sect of Dissenters at home has not, in their Day of Power, dreadfully condemned Toleration?

When

When it shall please God to dispose the Hearts of all Princes in the Christian World entirely to destroy this Antichristian Beast, and leave all their Subjects in that religious Freedom which they have from God, then the Light of the Gospel, the Benefit of its Faith, the Power of its Ministers, the Usefulness of its Rites, the Benediction of its Sacraments, will have proper Time and Place to shew themselves; and that Religion which has the most of a Divine Power in it, whose Offices and Services do most good to the Heart, whose Ministers are most of all devoted to God, and have the most Proof of the Power and Presence of Christ with them, will become, as it ought to be, the most universal; and by this Destruction of the Beast, nothing but the Errors, Delusions, Corruptions, and Fictions of every Religion, will be left in a helpless State. All that I have said on this Matter has been occasioned by the Doctor's Appeal to vulgar Prejudice; and all that I have said is only to intimate thus much, that the greatest Evil which the Division of the Church brings forth is a Señtarian selfish Spirit, that with the Orthodoxy of the Old Jews would have God to be only their God, and themselves only his chosen People. If therefore we would be true Christians of the

Catholick Church, we must put off this Selfishness and Partiality of the carnal Jew, we must enter into a Catholick Affection for all Men, love the Spirit of the Gospel wherever we see it; not work ourselves up into an Abhorrence of a George Fox, or an Ignatius Loyola; but be equally glad of the Light of the Gospel wherever it shines, or from what Quarter it comes; and give the same Thanks and Praise to God for an eminent Example of Piety, where-ever it appears, either in Papist or Protestant.

To return. Dr. Trap supposing the World running into a Charity that would ruin Wife and Family, asks his charitable Half-thinker thus; “ Did you never hear that Charity begins “ at home? Did you never read that of St. “ Paul, If any provide not for his own, and “ especially those of his own House, he hath “ denied the Faith, and is worse than an In- “ fidel.” The Doctor’s Proverb I meddled not with, but the Text of St. Paul I rescued from his gross Misapplication of it. That Text has no more Relation to an excessive Charity, the Sin the Doctor was opposing, than to an excessive Fasting. The Apostle neither thought of this Sin in this Place, nor in any other Part of his Writings; nor does he ever give the smallest Hint of the Danger of falling into it.

The one Thing in Question was this, whether poor Widows, who had near Relations that could supply their Wants, should be maintained by the Charity of the Church : The Apostle determines the Matter thus ; that if such Persons, who were thus able, did not thus provide for, that is, supply the Wants of their poor Kindred, they were so far from having the Faith of Christians, that they wanted a Goodness that was to be found among Infidels : This is the whole of the Apostle's Doctrine in this Text. He speaks of providing for those of our own House or Family, in no other Sense, than as it signifies our Charity to them when they fall into Distress : But the Doctor, either led away with, or trusting to the Sound of the English Word, provide, grafts all these following Errors upon this plain Text. When it is said, a Person has provided well for his Family, every one supposes that he has laid up well in Store, or got an Estate to be divided among them for their future Subsistence ; from this Use of the English Word, provide, in the Text, the Doctor would have it believed, that the Apostle teaches every Head of a Family to be carefully and continually laying up in Store, and making some fixed Provision for the future Maintenance of his Kindred. But the Apostle is as infinitely distant from this Thought or Direction, as from teaching them to get their Cellars well filled with strong Liquors: When he here says, provide, he says only thus, Shut not your Eyes to the Wants of your poor Kindred, but provide them with what they have need of, and do not let them fall to the Charge of the Church. The Doctor's second Error is this; that, according to this Text, a Christian ought not to hinder himself from thus laying up in Store for his Family, or leave them to live by their Labour and Industry, through an Extent of Charity to his poor Neighbours. Though the Apostle has not one single Syllable about this Matter, and is as far from saying any Thing like it, as from saying that a Christian, when he makes a Feast, should only invite his rich Kindred and Acquaintance. The one has as much of the Apostle and the Gospel for it as the other. The Doctor's third Error is this; that, according to this Text, he, who by a daily continual Charity, has incapacitated himself to lay up in Store a fixed Provision for the future Maintenance of his Family, is condemned by the Apostle, as denying the Faith, and being worse than an Infidel: Though the Apostle speaks no more here of such a Person, or any more condemns him, than he speaks in the

Praise of Ananias and Saphira, who kept back Part of the Price of the Land they had sold.

The Person here condemned is not he who through a continual Charity, or loving his Neighbour as himself, is hindered from laying up in Store; not he who, through a Christian Love of relieving the distressed Members of Christ, is content with helping his own Family to Food and Raiment, such a Person is not thought of, much less condemned by the Apostle; but it is that Christian, who being able, is yet unwilling to support his near Relations that are fallen into Poverty, but through a sordid Selfishness leaves them to be maintained by the Church; this is the only Christian the Apostle here condemns, as having put off the Piety of the Gospel, and wanting even the Virtue of good-natured Infidels.

I said further, Had the Apostle known a Parent in his Days, who, through his great Charity for others, had reduced his own Family to a want of Relief, he would have been so far from rebuking him as an half-thinking Fool, or exposing him to others as guilty of Madness, that he would have told them, that such a one had consecrated himself and Family to the Church, as the proper Objects of their Care. To which the Doctor gives this Answer, This he affirms, and this I deny; and as he produces no other Proof, so I give no other Answer, p. 69. Had the Doctor said as his Affirmation has no Sense in it, so there need be no Sense in my Denial of it, he had answered as well as he has here done. What I affirmed did not consist, as the Doctor's Denial doth, only of two Words, but was a large Proposition that carried its own Proof along with it, because I said nothing of the Apostle, but what the Nature of the Thing obliged me to say of every sober Christian. For if any Christian could be supposed to want Compassion and Affection for such a Sufferer from his own Charity to others, he must be such a one as the Apostle affirms to have denied the Faith, and to be worse than an Infidel. But to shew the Doctor what I said has its Proof from the common Voice of Christianity in the Apostles Days, may sufficiently appear from the following Passage of St. Clement, who was a Companion and Fellow-labourer of the Apostle, and Bishop of no less a Church than that of Rome. "We have known many among us " (says St. Clement) who have delivered themselves into Bonds and Slavery, that they " might restore others to their Liberty; many " who have hired out themselves Servants unto " others,

Will the Doctor now say, that this is no Proof of that which I affirmed of the Apostle, that he would have had a Love for those who were become Sufferers by their own Charity to others? does not this Apostolical Bishop make it his Boast, and the Glory of Christianity, not that they had some, but many such among them?

It was not only in the first Church at Jerusalem, that the Christians had all Things common. For St. Barnabas, writing to some converted Jews, teaches them to have all Things common, to call nothing their own in this World, because they were called to the common Enjoyment of the Things of Eternity. Communicabis in omnibus rebus proximo tuo; nihil dices quicquam tibi proprium, si enim Communicatis in vicem, in bonis incorruptilibus, quanto magis in corruptilibus †.

An Age after this, Justin Martyr thus glories of the Power of the Gospel-Faith; We, says he, who before we became Christians loved our Wealth and Possessions above all Things, now gave up all Propriety in them, that they may be in common for all that want them. Qui

Pecuniarum & Possessionum Fructus ac Proventus præ rebus omnibus adamabamus, nunc etiam quæ habemus in Commune conferimus, & cum indigentibus quibuscunque communicamus *.

What a lean beatbenish Figure must the Doctor's Proverb, of Charity beginning at home, have made in the Days of St. Barnabas, Clement, or Justin Martyr? Or who durst then have made such an Use of the Text of St. Paul, as the Doctor has done, or coupled it with such a Proverb? Were any of these first Saints to judge of this Matter, the Doctor might, for ought I know, have a worse Reprimand from them for so doing, than if he had only coupled Cardinals with Pluralists.

In order to shew the Doctor that he was very unseasonably preaching against the Sin and Folly of an excessive Charity, when yet every Part of the Church wanted to be shewn how they were fallen from the Gospel-degree of it, I set before him an imaginary Bishop of Winchester, yet drawn according to the Model of the Holy Bishops of ~~the~~ first Ages. I supposed this Bishop so born again from Above, so filled with the Spirit of Jesus Christ, that he looked upon all the Revenues of his See with no other Eyes, than as our Saviour looked at that that Bag that was carried along with him by his Disciples, as so much for his own Necessities, and the Necessities of others. I supposed, that in this Spirit he so expended his yearly Income, that he chose to bring up his Children as much Strangers to all worldly Figure, and in as low a State of Labour, as that to which our Lord and his Apostles had been used. I supposed, that by a Piety of Life and Conversation, equal to his exalted Charity, he had instilled such an heavenly Spirit into his Wife and Children, as made them highly thankful for their Condition, and full of Praise to God for the Blessing of such a Relation. Dr. Trap, though an antient Divine, seems to start back with Fright at the Sight of this Apostolical Bishop, and supposes, that if such a Monster of a Man was now to get into a Bishoprick, he must needs make his Children extraordinary wicked, fill them with Abhorrence of his Memory, and spread Infidelity in the World, by making Christianity a Jest to Infidels, p. 71.

I say, says the Doctor, very clearly and plainly, that such a Bishop must be a Mad-man, p. 70. Now if the Doctor will prove from the Scriptures this Bishop to be a Mad-man, it must be for the following Reasons; First, because he had so mean a Spirit, as to suffer the Son of a Bishop to work under a Carpenter, as the Redeemer of Mankind had done. Secondly, because he taught himself and his Family to believe that which St. Paul believed, that having Food and Raiment we ought to be therewith content. Thirdly, because he came up to the very Letter of the great Commandment, of loving our Neighbour as ourselves. Fourthly, because he seemed to imitate the Spirit of the first Christians at Jerusalem, who accounted nothing to be their own that they possessed. Fifthly, because he had turned himself and Family from all the Vanity of this World, the Lust of the Flesh, the Lust of the Eyes, and the Pride of Life. Sixthly, because he seemed to have this of the Apostle fixed in his Mind, He that saith, he abideth in Christ; ought so to walk as he walked. Seventhly, because his Life was fashioned according to this Doctrine of the Holy Jesus, Learn of me, for I am meek, and lowly of Heart: I am among you, as he that serveth: Whosoever will be great among you, let him be your Minister; even as the Son of Man came not to be ministred unto, but to minister. For it may be said with the greatest Certainty, that if the Doctor will have any Proof from the Scripture of the Madness of this Bishop,

Come we now to consider this Bishop according to the Spirit, Practice, and Laws of the Church in all Ages. Any one, versed ever so little in the History of the Church, must see at the first Sight, that this supposed Bishop is a true Copy of the first Apostolical Fathers. And if this Bishop was to be accounted a Madman, because of the Manner of his Life, we must come down several Ages after Constantine, to the Mitre and Triple Crown, before we could find a Bishop in his Senses. The Clements, the Polycarps, the Ignatius's, the Irenæus's, the Cyprians, the Gregory's, the Basils, the Ambrose's, the Chrysostoms, the Hilary's, the Augustin's, and a Number that have long graced our Calendars, as Saints, must take their Place among Bedlamites; for they were all of them, to a Tittle, the very Man I have supposed at Winchester. They considered every Penny that was brought in by the Gospel as a Provision for the Poor, and themselves as only entitled to their common Share out of it. They durst no more raise any of their Relations into a Splendor of Life, or give them any Figure from the Revenues of the Church, than commit Sacrilege. They gloried as much

But we have much more than primitive Example for our Bishop of Winchester; the Doctrine and Laws of the Church have unanimously, from Age to Age, to the very Council of Trent, required every Bishop to be of the same Spirit of which we have supposed him. The Church, both by the Doctrine of Fathers, and the Canons of Councils, constantly maintains; First, that the Clergy are not Proprietors, but barely Stewards of the Benefices they enjoy; having them for no other End, but for their own necessary frugal Subsistence, and the Relief of the Poor. Secondly, that a Clergyman using his Benefice for his own Indulgence, or the enriching his own Family, is guilty of Sacrilege, and is a Robber and Murderer of the Poor. Thirdly, that if a Clergyman has a reasonable Subsistence of his own, and is not in the State of the Poor, that then, let his Benefice be what it will, he has no Right to use any Part of it for himself, nor for his Kindred, unless they be fit to be considered amongst those Poor that are to be relieved by the Church. Fourthly, that every Bishop and Clergyman is to live in an humble, lowly, frugal, gal, outward State of Life, seeking for no Honour or Dignity in the World, but that which arises from the Distinction and Lustre of his Virtues. Fifthly, that a Beneficed Clergyman, using the Goods of the Church for his own Indulgence, or raising Fortunes for his Children, or their expensive Education, is sacrilegious, and a Robber of the Poor. Sixthly, that every Clergyman is to die out of the Church as poor as he entered into it. Seventhly, that a Clergyman dying, cannot leave or bequeath any Thing to his Children or Friends, but barely that which he had independently of the Church.

May it not therefore well be wondered what could provoke Dr. Trap to censure our Bishop as a Madman, whose whole Form of Life, and Use of his Bishoprick, are not only after the Model of the first and greatest Saints that ever were Bishops, but also such as the whole Church from the Beginning, both in Council and out of Council, from Age to Age, hath absolutely required required of every beneficed Clergyman, who would not be condemned by her, as sacrilegious, and a Robber of the Poor. They who would see the whole of this Matter set in a clear Light, may read an excellent Treatise of the learned Dupin, written near the End of his Life, where this Truth is by him asserted and incontestably proved, viz. That whatever Changes have been made in the Nature and Tenure of the Goods and Revenues of the Church, or however they have been variously divided among Ecclesiasticks, yet this has remained always unchangeable and undeniable, That a Clergyman was no Proprietor of his Benefice; that he could only take so much of it to his own Use, as was necessary to his Subsistence, and then the Remainder, be it what it would, belonged to the Poor. This, says he, is strictly maintained by the Canons of Councils, both before and after the Division of ecclesiastical Revenues. C'est ce que portent précisément les Canons, & avant, & après la Partition des Biens ecclesiastiques *.

But now if this be the Case, if this be an incontestable Doctrine, supported by every Authority that can be brought for any one Doctrine of the Gospel, have we not here an ut- ter Condemnation of Pluralities? Is it not an Affront to the Gospel, to the plainest Maxims of Right and Wrong, the whole Authority of the Church, to offer one single Word in Defence of them? Logical scholastic Distinctions and Definitions of the Nature of Parishes and Residence can signify no more here, where the whole Nature of the Thing is to be avoided, than the same Art of Words, when used by Jesuitical Casuists, can justify the Violation of moral Duties. And if Dr. Trap was only to look at this one Doctrine, he would have no reason to think it so sad a Thing, to see Pluralists coupled with Cardinals. See, says the learned Dupin, Rules which will appear hard to many of the beneficed Clergy, but yet, says he, they are true, conformable to natural Equity, the Laws, Custom, and Tradition of the Church, and the Practice of the most holy Bishops; and wo be to those that observe them not, Malheur a ceux qui ne les suivent pas *. And therefore he concludes thus, There may be many among the beneficed Clergy who err in this Matter, through an Ignorance of that which is required of them; therefore what I have said ought to be taken in good Part, as proceeding from Charity, and a sincere Love of Truth.

I come

* Ibid. p. 442.

I come now to that which the Doctor says of Enthusiasm and Enthusiasts. Speaking to the younger Clergy of the Means of attaining divine Knowledge, I had these Words, “ The “ Book of all Books is your own Heart, in “ which are written the deepest Lessons of di- “ vine Instruction ; learn therefore to be deep- “ ly attentive to the Presence of God in your “ Hearts, who is always speaking, always in- “ structing, always illuminating that Heart “ that is attentive to him.” Now can any Thing be conceived more scriptural, or more inoffensive than all this? Is there any thing to suppress or hurt the Piety and Devotion of that Heart, which would place its all in God, which desires to be moved and guided in all Things by his holy Spirit? How can we worship God in Spirit and in Truth, how can we pray unto him, turn to him, how can we raise any Act of Faith, or Hope in him, Resignation unto him, or Dependance upon him, but by thus thinking of him? Take any Thing from God that I have here ascribed to him, suppose him not to be thus inwardly speaking, instructing, illuminating, and then tell me why my Heart should seek him, or how it can find him? A Page or two after this, to shew the deep and intimate Union the Soul

has with its Creator, I said, “ God is an all-speaking, all-working, all-illuminating Essence, possessing the Depth, and bringing forth the Life of every Creature according to its Nature. Our Life is out of this divine Essence, and is itself a creaturely Similitude of it ; and when we turn from all Impediments, this divine Essence becomes as certainly the true Light of our Minds here, as it will be hereafter.” Now is there any Thing here to shock, or fright, or delude the Piety of any Christian ? Is it a monstrous Thing to be told, that the Light of Heaven reaches us in this World ; that we have this Communion with God ; that when we turn rightly to him, he dwells in us and we in him ; that we receive his Operation and Light upon us in this Life, as we shall do in the next, only with this Difference, that now what is done in Faith, will then be in open Vision ? How can we believe any thing that is said of the Light and holy Spirit of God in the Scripture, without believing this ? If this be not true, how can we believe that Jesus Christ is the Light which lighteth every Man that cometh into the World ? Or is there any Thing here more said of God, than when the Apostle saith, that in him we live, move, and have our Being ? If the Word of God was not an ever-speaking Word, how could Nature and Creature speak forth any Thing? If God was ever silent could any Thing else speak? Again, if Nature is constantly at Work; if there could be no Nature but because there is a continual stirring and working which cannot cease; is not this a sufficient Proof that there is an all-working Deity? And if we are told, that, in the Kingdom of Heaven, there shall be no Sun, nor Moon, but the Lamb shall be the Light thereof, is not this telling us, that God himself is the uncreated Light, always in the same State of Infinity, and therefore an all-illuminating Being? And if there is always Light in Nature, a Light that cannot be extinguished, must it not come from the all-illuminating Being? Yet Dr. Trap says all this is Enthusiasm, if ever there was any in the World; that they are the Words of Falshood and Phrenzy *. If the Doctor had been clear in this Matter, it had been very easy for him to have shewn his Reader wherein this Enthusiasm and Frenzy lay; and it was also very necessary for him to have here said something very plain and clear concerning the Nature and Ground of Enthusiasm: For if his Reader, without any clear and distinct Notion of

of Enthufiasm, is taught to cry out againft a Doctrine, which only teaches that God is always fpeaking, inftructing, and illuminating that Heart that is in great Purity turned to him; if he is taught boldly and blindly to condemn this as Enthufiasm and Frenzy; how fhall fuch a one be able to defend himfelf, when he is told by others, that two Thirds of the New Teftament is Enthufiasm? As where it is faid, I am the Light and Life of the World. —The Kingdom of Heaven is within you. —Except ye eat my Flefh and drink my Blood, ye have no Life in you.—If any Man loveth me, my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our Abode with him——No Man can come unto me, except the Father draweth him.—The natural Man cannot receive and know the Things of the Spirit of God.—He breathed on them, and faid, Receive ye the Holy Ghoft.—The Spirit of Truth, he dwelleth in you, and fhall be with you.—No Man can fay, Abba Father, or that Jefus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghoft. —As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the Sons of God. In our Liturgy we pray that God would prevent us in all our Doings, and further us with his continual Help: —That we may obey the godly Motions of the

the Spirit in Righteousness and true Holiness ;
 —That by his holy Inspiration we may think those Things that be good, and by his merciful guiding may perform the same :—
 That his Holy Spirit may in all Things direct and rule our Hearts, &c. Now what must the unlearned Reader, or the learned Doctor himself, do with these and the like Places of Scripture, and Prayers of the Church, if it be Enthusiasm, Falsehood, and Frenzy to say, that God is intimately present in the Depth of our Souls, always speaking, instructing, enlightening that Heart which is truly turned to him ? Or how can these Scriptures and Prayers have the least Truth or Reasonableness in them, but upon this Supposition that God is an all-speaking, all-knowing, all-illuminating Being, out of whom we are born, and in whom we live, and move and have our Being. But I shall here speak a Word or two of the true Ground and Nature of Enthusiasm.

In Will, Imagination, and Desire, consists the Life, or fiery Driving of every intelligent Creature. And as every intelligent Creature is its own Self-mover, so every intelligent Creature has Power of kindling and inflaming its Will, Imagination, and Desire as it pleases, with Shadows, Fictions, or Realities ; with Things carnal or spiritual, temporal or eternal. And this kindling of the Will, Imagination, and Desire, when raised into a ruling Degree of Life, is properly that which is to be understood by Enthusiasm: And therefore Enthusiasm is, and must be of as many Kinds, as those Objects are which can kindle and inflame the Wills, Imaginations, and Desires of Men. And to appropriate Enthusiasm to Religion, is the same Ignorance of Nature, as to appropriate Love to Religion; for Enthusiasm, a kindled, inflamed Spirit of Life, is as common, as universal, as essential to human Nature, as Love is? it goes into every Kind of Life as Love does, and has only such a Variety of Degrees in Mankind as Love hath. And here we may see the Reason, why no People are so angry at Religious Enthusiasts, as those that are the deepest in some Enthusiasm of another Kind.

He whose Fire is kindled from the Divinity of Tully's Rhetoric, who travels over high Mountains to salute the dear Ground that Marcus Tullius Cicero walked upon; whose noble Soul would be ready to break out of his Body if he could see a Desk, a Rostrum from whence Cicero had poured forth his Thunder of Words, may well be unable to bear the Dulness of those, who go on Pilgrimages only to visit the Sepulchre

Sepulchre whence the Redeemer of the World rose from the Dead, or who grow devout at the Sight of a Crucifix, because the Son of God hung as a Sacrifice thereon.

He whose heated Brain is all over painted with the ancient Hieroglyphics; who knows how and why they were this and that, better than he can find out the Customs and Usages of his own Parish; who can clear up every Thing that is doubtful in Antiquity, and yet be forced to live in Doubt about that which passes in his own Neighbourhood; who has found out the Sentiments of the first Philosophers with such Certainty, as he cannot find out the real Opinion of any of his Contemporaries; he that has gone thus high into the Clouds, and dug thus deep into the Dark for these glorious Discoveries, may well despise those Christians, as brain-sick Visionaries, who are sometimes finding a moral and spiritual Sense in the bare Letter and History of Scripture-Facts.

It matters not what our Wills and Imaginations are employed about; wherever they fall and love to dwell, there they kindle a Fire, and that becomes the Flame of Life, to which every Thing else appears as dead, and insipid, and unworthy of Regard. Hence it is that even the poor Species of Fops and Beaux have a right to be placed among Enthusiasts, though capable of no other Flame, than that which is kindled by Taylors, and Peruke-Makers. All refined Speculatists, as such, are great Enthusiasts; for being devoted to the Exercise of their Imaginations, they are so beated into a Love of their own Ideas, that they seek no other summum bonum. The Grammarian, the Critick, the Poet, the Connoisseur, the Antiquary the Philosopher, the Politician, are all violent Enthusiasts, though their Heat is only a Flame from Straw, and therefore they all agree in appropriating Enthusiasm to Religion. All ambitious, proud, self-conceited Persons, especially if they are Scholars, are violent Enthusiasts; and their Enthusiasm is an inflamed Self-Love, Self-Esteem, and Self-Seeking. This Fire is so kindled in them, that every Thing is nauseous and disgustful to them, that does not offer Incense to that Idol, which their Imagination has set up in themselves. All Atheists are dark Enthusiasts; their Fire is kindled by a Will and Imagination turned from God into a gloomy Depth of Nothingness, and therefore, their Enthusiasm is a dull burning Fire, that goes in and out through Hopes and Fears of they know not what that is to come. All professed Infidels are remarkable Enthusiasts; they have kindled a bold Fire from a few faint Ideas, and therefore they are all Zeal, and Courage, and Industry, to be constantly blowing it up. A Tyndal and a Collins are as inflamed with the Notions of Infidelity, as a St. Bennet and St. Francis with the Doctrines of the Gospel.

Enthusiasts therefore we all are, as certainly as we are Men; and consequently, Enthusiasm is not a Thing blameable in itself, but is the common Condition of human Life in all its States; and every Man that lives either well or ill, is that which he is, from that prevailing Fire of Life, or driving of our Wills and Desires, which is properly called Enthusiasm. You need not then go to a Cloyster, the Cell of a Monk, or to a Field Preacher, to see Enthusiasts, they are every where, at Balls and Masquerades, at Court and the Exchange: They sit in all Coffee-houses, and cant in all Assemblies. The Beau and the Coquet have no Magick, but where they meet Enthusiasts. The Mercer, the Taylor, the Bookseller, have all their Wealth from them; the Works of a Bayle, a Shaftsbury, and Cicero, would lose four Fifts of their astonishing Beauties, had they not keep Enthusiasts for their Readers.

That which concerns us therefore is only to see with what Materials our prevailing Fire of Life is kindled, and in what Species of Enthufiasts it truly places us. For either the Flesh or the Spirit, either the Wisdom from above, or the Wisdom of this World, will have its Fire in us; and we must have a Life that governs us, either according to the Sensuality of the Beast, the Subtilty of the Serpent, or the Holiness of the Angel. Enthusiasm is not blameable in Religion, when it is true Religion that kindles it. We are created with Wills and Desires for no other End, but to love, adore, desire, serve, and co-operate with God; and therefore the more we are inflamed in this Motion of our Wills and Desires, the more we have of a God-like, divine Nature, and Perfection in us. Religious Enthusiasm is not blameable, when it is a strong Persuasion, a firm Belief of a continual Operation, Impression, and Influence from above, when it is a total Resignation to, and Dependance upon the immediate Inspiration, and Guidance of the holy Spirit, in the whole Course of our Lives; this is as sober and rational a Belief, as to believe that we always live, and move, and have our Being in God. Both Nature and Scripture demonstrate this to be the true Spirit of a Religious Man. Nature tells every one, that we can only be heavenly by a Spirit derived from Heaven, as plainly as it tells us, that we can only

only be earthly by having the Spirit of this World breathing in us. The Gospel teaches no Truth so constantly, so universally as this, that every good Thought and good Desire are the Work of the holy Spirit. And therefore both Nature and Scripture demonstrate, that the one only Way to Piety, Virtue, and Holiness, is to prepare, expect, and resign ourselves up wholly to the Influence and Guidance of the holy Spirit, in every Thing that we think, or say, or do. The Moment any one departs from this Faith, or loses this Direction of his Will and Desire, so far, and so long, he goes out of the one only Element of all Holiness of Life. There is nothing that so sanctifies the Heart of Man, that keeps us in such habitual Love, Prayer, and Delight in God; nothing that so kills all the Roots of Evil in our Nature, that so renews and perfects all our Virtues, that fills us with so much Love, Goodness, and good Wishes to every Creature, as this Faith, That God is always present in us with his Light and Holy Spirit. When the Heart has once learnt thus to find God, and knows how to live every where, and in all Things, in this immediate Intercourse with him, seeing him, loving him, and adoring him in every Thing, trusting in him, depending upon him for his continual Light and holy Spirit ; when it knows that this Faith is infallible, that by thus believing, it thus possesses all that it believes of God ; then it begins to have the Nature of God in it, and can do nothing but flow forth in Love, Benevolence, and good Will towards every Creature ; it can have no Wish towards any Man, but that he might thus know, and love, and find God in himself, as the true Beginning of Heaven and the heavenly Life in the Soul.

On the other hand, no Error is so hurtful to the Soul, so destructive of all the Ends of the Gospel, as to be led from this Faith and entire Dependance upon the holy Spirit of God, or to place our Recovery in any Thing else, but in the Operation of the Light and holy Spirit of God upon the Soul. It is withdrawing Men not only from the easiest, the most natural, the most fruitful, but the only possible Source of all Light and Life. For every Man, as such, has an open Gate to God in his Soul ; he is always in that Temple, where he can worship God in Spirit and Truth : Every Christian, as such, has the first Fruits of the Spirit, a Seed of Life, which is his Call and Qualification to be always in a State of inward Prayer, Faith, and holy Intercourse with God.

All

All the Ordinances of the Gospel, the daily sacramental Service of the Church, is to keep up, and exercise, and strengthen this Faith; to raise us to such an habitual Faith and Dependence upon the Light and holy Spirit of God, that by thus seeking and finding God in the Institutions of the Church, we may be habituated to seek him and find him; to live in his Light, and walk by his Spirit in all the Actions of our ordinary Life. This is the Enthusiasm in which every good Christian ought to endeavour to live and die.

I come now to an Enthusiast which the Doctor has accidentally met with, from whom, it seems, I have borrowed some of my strange Notions, and would put them off as my own, p. 119. The Doctor has this Intelligence from his trusty Assistant, who says, What else can be expected from those, who read Jacob Behmen, Dr. Pordage, and Mrs. Lead, with almost the same Veneration and implicit Faith that other People read the Scripture? ibid. Two of these Writers I know very little of, yet as much as I desire to know; but J. Behmen, called the Teutonic Theosopher, I have read much, and much esteem: But the Design of putting off some of his strange Notions, as my own, is as well

The illustrious Sir Isaac Newton, when he wrote his Principia, and published to the World his great Doctrine of Attraction, and those Laws of Nature by which the Planets began, and continue to move in their Orbits, could have told the World, that the true and infallible Ground of what he there advanced, was to be found in the Teutonic Theosopher, in his three first Properties of Eternal Nature; he could have told them, that he had been a diligent Reader of that wonderful Author, that he had made large Extracts out of him, and could have referred to him for the Ground of what he had observed of the Number Seven. Now why did not this great Man do thus? Must we suppose that he was loth to have it thought, that he had been helped by any Thing that he had read? No: It is an unworthy Thought. But Sir Isaac well knew, that Prejudice and Partiality had such Power over many People's Judgments, that Doctrines, though ever so deeply founded in, and proved by all the Appearances of Nature, would be suspected by some as dangerous, and condemned by others even as false and Wicked, had he made any References

Dr. Trap may take himself for an eminent Example and Proof of this. He has here shewn with what Speed Matters may be determined by Prejudice. For here a Stranger, a Layman, not so much as known to the Doctor by Name, who, for ought he can tell, may be some small Retailer of Infidelity, or Snuff-Candle in the Play-house, who has gained upon the Doctor by no other Marks of Ability and Judgment, but his Compliments to him, and his Scurrility upon me; from the Authority of this Informer, the Doctor immediately puts J. B. into his List of Enthusiasts. Is not this a Proof of what Sir Isaac Newton must have met with from some great Scholars, and to what a speedy Confutation he must have exposed himself, and the plainest Appearances of Nature, had he ever referred to the Teutonic Theosopher? Now am I here to suppose, that this Censure of the Doctor's relating to J. B. is a Rashness that has here first seized upon him by Chance, that he never before in his Life allowed himself to treat any Man, or any Book in this manner; that if he took the Judgment of another, it was of somebody that he knew; if he condemned an Author, he always staid till he had read something thing of him, at least an Index, or a Title Page or two of his Works? Or am I to suppose, that this has been the Doctor's Method upwards of thirty-seven Years; calling one Man an Enthusiast, another a Fanatic, this a monstrous, that the most pernicious Book of the Age, as rashly, as hastily, regarding no more of Right or Wrong in that which he affirms of these Matters, than he has here done with regard to J. B.? But I hope the Doctor is singular in this Spirit; for if it could be supposed, that it was common among learned Men, to get their Knowledge of antient and modern, foreign and domestic Enthusiasts, as hastily and slightly as the Doctor here doth, must it not be very dangerous for the Unlearned to take any Opinions of this kind from them? Must it not be said, that one Grain of Equity, good Sense, and real Knowledge, is more to be desired than an hundred Weight of such Learning?

When I considered the fallen Soul, as a Fire-Spirit deprived of its proper Light, and therefore become of a Diabolical Nature, I could have directed to J. B. for the deep and infallible Ground of it: But what need was there for that, when I could make the plainest Principles of Nature, the plainest Doctrines of Scripture, Scripture, every thing that was said of the Fall, of Heaven, of Hell, and the like, to be undeniable Proofs of it? What I said in the Second Proposition of the Discourse upon Regeneration, concerning the Holy Tri-unity of God in Man, stands not in that Form of Expression any where that I know of; but for the true Ground and Certainty of it, I could have referred to the Teutonic Theosopher, to many ancient and modern Writers of the greatest Name, and to a venerable Record of Antiquity, ascribed even to St. Peter himself; where he asserts, even upon the same Ground as I have done, that because we were created in the Image and Likeness of God, therefore the tri-une Life arises in us as it does in God, and we have in us, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. *

But what Occasion was there for these References, when I had so much better Proof, when I could shew, that all which the Scriptures say of the whole Nature and Manner of our Redemption, of the whole Nature and Form of Baptism, all that they say of the Necessity of the

the Word and Holy Spirit of God having again a Birth in us, are absolute decisive Proofs of it? * I knew also very well, that the most essential, fundamental, and joyful Doctrines of the Gospel would be questioned, or received with Difficulty, had I referred to a poor Shoemaker for any Proof of them: And it may well be believed, that the Doctor would have been among the first and loudest of those, who would have cried out at my Folly and Presumption in directing to an Author, whom all the World knew to be an illiterate Enthusiast; and yet, if all the World knows it as the Doctor knows it, all the World may be said to know nothing about it.

Dr. Trap has a Fling at my Want of Taste for his Virgil's, Horace's, and Terence's: I own, when I was about Eighteen, I was as fond of these Books as the Doctor can well be now, and should then have been glad to have translated the Sublime Milton, if I had found myself able; but this Ardour soon went off, and I think it as good a Proof of the Sublime, to desire the Death of all that is Diabolical and Serpentine in my own Nature, as to be charmed with those Speeches which the Devils make in Milton. Had the Doctor been more conversant in the Writings of a Set of Men called

* See Regeneration, p. 22—33.

Mystical Divines, than he appears to have been, he had been better able to have charged me with humble Plagiary than he is at present, and might have done more Service to what he calls the Noble Science of Theology, than by all that Light which he has got from his Poets, which he acknowledges to have somewhat of Wantonness in them, p. 38. Of these Mystical Divines, I thank God, I have been a diligent Reader, through all Ages of the Church, from the Apostolical Dionysius the Areopagite, down to the great Fenelon Archbishop of Cambray, the illuminated Guion, and M. Bertot. Had the Doctor read St. Cassian, a Recorder of the Lives, Spirit, and Doctrine of the Holy Fathers of the Desarts as often as he had read the Story of Æneas and Dido, he had been less astonished at many Things in my Writings: But I apprehend the Doctor to be as great a Stranger to the Writers of this kind, with which every Age of the Church has been blessed, and to know no more of the divine Rusbrochius, Thaulerus, Suso, Harphius, Johannes de Cruce, &c. than he does of J. B. For had he known any Thing of them, he had known that I am as chargeable with the Sentiments of all of them, as with those of J. Behmen. For though I never wrote upon any Subject, till I could call it my own, till I was so fully possessed of the Truth of it, that I could sufficiently prove it in my own Way, without borrowed Arguments, yet Doctrines of Religion I have none, but what the Scriptures and the first-rate Saints of the Church are my Vouchers for.

Writers, like those I have mentioned, there have been in all Ages of the Church, but as they served not the Ends of Popular Learning, as they helped no People to Figure and Preferment in the Word, and were useless to scholastic controversial Writers, so they dropt out of publick Use, and were only known, or rather unknown, under the Name of Mystical Writers, till at last some People have hardly heard of that very Name. Though if a Man was to be told what is meant by a Mystical Divine, he must be told of something as heavenly, as great, as desirable, as if he was told what is meant by a real, regenerate, living Member of the Mystical Body of Christ, for they were thus called, for no other Reason than as Moses and the Prophets, and the Saints of the Old Testament may be called the Spiritual Israel, or the true Mystical Jews. These Writers began their Office of Teaching as John the Baptist did, after they had passed through every kind of Mortification and Self-denial, every kind.

kind of Trial and Purification, both inward and outward. They were deeply learned in the Mysteries of the Kingdom of God, not through the Use of Lexicons, or meditating upon Critics, but because they had passed from Death unto Life. They highly reverence, and excellently direct the true Use of every thing that is outward in Religion, but like the Psalmist's King's Daughter, they are all glorious within: They are truly Sons of Thunder, and Sons of Consolation; they break open the whited Sepulchres; they awaken the Heart, and shew it its Filth and Rottenness of Death, but they leave it not till the Kingdom of Heaven is raised up within it. If a Man has no Desire but to be of the Spirit of the Gospel, to obtain all that Renovation of Life and Spirit which alone can make him to be in Christ a new Creature, it is a great Unhappiness to him to be unacquainted with these Writers, or to pass a Day without reading something of what they wrote. For though the Scriptures are an inexhaustible Source of Spiritual Instruction, leading the Heart to the deepest Knowledge of all the Mysteries of the inward new Life in God, with the greatest Plainness and Openness of Expression, yet a worldly Spirit, the Schools, Criticism,

Criticism, and Controversy have so dried, and deadened every Thing into an outward Letter and figurative Expression, that much of their Use is lost, till these Holy Writers, who interpret them by the same Spirit which wrote them, guide us to the true Use and Understanding of them; for in these Writers, the Spirit of God speaks a second Time, and every Thing that can awaken, convert, instruct, and inflame the Heart with the Love of God, and all Holiness and Purity of Life, is to be found in the most irresistible Degree of Conviction. You will perhaps say, Do I then call all the World to these Spiritual Books? No, by no means. But I call all those, whom our Saviour called to himself in these Words; Come unto me all ye that labour, and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you.

But to return to the Doctor's Enthusiast.

Jacob Behmen, in his natural Capacity and outward Condition of Life, was as mean and illiterate as any one that our Lord called to be an Apostle, but as a chosen Servant of God he may be placed among those who had received the highest Measures of Light, Wisdom, and Knowledge from Above. He was no more a human Writer, spoke no more from Opinion, Conjecture,

Conjecture, or Reason, in what he published to the World, than St. John did, when he put his Revelation into Writing. He has no Right to be placed among the inspired Pen-men of the New Testament, he was no Messenger from God of any Thing new in Religion, but the Mystery of all that was old and true both in Religion and Nature was opened in him. This is the Particularity of his Character, by which he stands fully distinguished from all the Prophets, Apostles, and extraordinary Messengers of God. They were sent with occasional Messages, or to make such Alterations in the Oeconomy of Religion as pleased God; but this Man came on no particular Errand, he had nothing to alter, or add, either in the Form, or Doctrine of Religion; he had no new Truths of Religion to propose to the World, but all that lay in Religion and Nature, as a Mystery unsearchable, was in its deepest Ground opened in this Instrument of God. And all his Works are nothing else but a deep Manifestation of the Grounds and Reasons of that which is done, that which is doing, and is to be done, both in the Kingdom of Nature, and the Kingdom of Grace, from the Beginning to the End of Time. His Works therefore, though immediately from God, have not at all the Nature of the Holy Scriptures, they are not offered to the World, as necessary to be received, or as a Rule of Faith and Manners, and therefore no one has any Right to complain, either of the Depths of his Matter, or the Peculiarity of his Stile : They are just as they should be, for those that are fit for them ; and he that likes them not, or finds himself unqualified for them, has no Obligation to read them.

The whole System of Christianity has generally been looked upon as a Mystery of Salvation solely founded in the Divine Pleasure ; and to be such a Scheme of Redemption, as is wholly to be resolved into the Contrivance of the Will and Wisdom of God ; and therefore Men can think as differently of it, can fall into as many Opinions about it, as they can of the Will and Wisdom of God. Hence has arisen all the speculative Opposition to the Gospel : It is because Reason, human Speculation, and Conjecture, are always imagining they can form a Religion more worthy of the Wisdom and Designs of the Supreme Being than the Christian is, and would be thought to oppose the Gospel only for the Honour of God, and the Divine Attributes. This is the great prevailing Idolatry of the present Heathen World, or that Part of Mankind who are Infidels or Deists. Hence also is risen another Species of Idolatry, even among Christians of all Denominations; who, though receiving and professing the Religion of the Gospel, yet worship God not in Spirit and in Truth, but either in the Deadness of an outward Form, or in a Pharisaical carnal Trust and Confidence in their own Opinions and Doctrines. This Body of People whether they be Clergy or Laity, are but nominal Christians, because they have little more than the Name of every Mystery of the Gospel: Historical Christians, because satisfied with the History of Gospel-Salvation: Literal Christians, because looking only to, and contending only for, the Letter of the Institutions and Mysteries of Jesus Christ. For the Letter, for the federal Rite, and the figurative Expression of Regeneration, they are all Zeal and Industry; but the Reality of it, the true Life of the New Birth, they oppose and reject as heartily as the Deist does the outward Form and Letter. Now this two-fold Idolatry of the present Heathen and Christian

Christian World has its full Discovery and Confutation in the Mystery opened in J. B. which, when understood, leaves no Room for any Man either to disbelieve the Gospel, or to content himself with the Letter of it. For, in the Revelation made to this Man, the first Beginning of all Things is opened, the whole State, the Rise, the Workings, and the Progress of all Nature are revealed, and every Doctrine, Mystery, and Precept of the Gospel are found, not to have sprung from any arbitrary Appointment, but to have their eternal unalterable Ground and Reason in Nature; and God appears to save us by the Methods of the Gospel, because there was no other possible Way to save us in all the Possibility of Nature. And therefore the idolatrous Confidence of the Deist in his own Reason, and of the nominal Christian in the outward Letter of their Religion, have equally their full Confutation.

To those who confine Idolatry to the Worship of such Idols, as the old Heathens and Jews worshipped, it may seem a Paradox to talk of the Idolatry of the present World, either amongst Deists or Christians. But if we consider Things more than Words, we shall find that Idolatry is no where, but where the Heart has set up Something in the Place of God, and therefore is every-where, and in every Thing, where the Heart places that Repose, Trust, and Delight, which should be placed in God alone. For God is only owned, and confessed to be our God, by these Acknowledgments and Dispositions of our Hearts towards Him. It is an infallible Truth, That all Sin has its Beginning and Continuance in and from Idolatry: This alone debauched the former and the latter Ages of the World, and is the one Source of all the Corruption of Manners, from the Beginning to the End of Time. You do not make a Golden Calf, as the Jews did, to worship it; but if Mammon is your God, if your Life is devoted to Pride, Ambition, and Sensuality, your Idolatry is not so sensible, but it is as real as theirs, who danced about a Golden Calf. You fancy that Venus is not your Goddeſs, because you are not worshipping a figured Image of her, in a Temple called by her Name; but if you look at the Odes, the Hymns, the Songs, which you love, which Lust has inspired, then you may know that Venus is the Goddeſs of your Heart. It is thus with every Object, and in every Course of Life,

Life, that which possesses and governs our Heart has usurped the Right and Place of God in it, and has that Worship, Trust, and Devotion of the Heart, which is due to God alone : And therefore the Idolatry of the present World is only of a different Kind from that of the antient, it is less seen, and less confessed, but not less real, than when carved Images and figured Idols were adored.

Deism, or the Religion of human Reason, set up in Opposition to the Gospel, is direct Idolatry, and has every Grossness and Vanity of Image Worship. For to put our Trust in our own Reason, to be content with its Light, to resign ourselves up to it, and depend upon it as our Guide, is a Mistake that has every Grossness and Vanity of the Adoration of an Idol. Now this Kind of Idolatry has over-run all the last Ages of the World ; it is the last Effort of human Vanity ; it is the utmost that Idolatry can do, both to hide and propagate itself, and is the Devil under the Appearance of an Angel of Light. The Gospel has no Enemy but this Idolatry, and it is as visible in the Church, as out of it : Hence it is, that the State of the Church is so sadly described in the Revelation of St. John, for so many Ages, as a spiritual Whore-

Whoredom. When the old Jews left off the Idols of the Heathens, they fell into an Idolatry of another kind, which was this, they idolized the Rites and Ceremonies of their own true Religion; they placed that Confidence in the outward Letter, and expected that Good from their outward Rites, which they should have placed, sought, expected from God alone. This is the Idolatry of the rational Deist, and the nominal Christian. But when the Mystery of all Nature and Grace, which by the Mercy of God has opened itself in the Writings of J. B. shall find its Children, every Idolatry, both within and without the Church, will be ashamed to shew itself.

But it may be asked by some, What warrant have I for all that I have said of J. B. or how can I prove to the World, that his Writings are the Work of the holy Spirit? It is answered, I neither intend, nor desire to prove this to the World. And if any one will dispute or deny every Thing that I have said of him, he will meet with no Opposition from me. I have given notice of a Pearl; if any one takes it to be otherwise, or has neither Skill or Value for Pearls, he is at Liberty to trample it under his Feet. Nothing passes with the World for Proof of a divinely inspired Writer but Mi-

cles; if People can see no other Proof but this, it is not in my Power to give them better Eyes. I suppose the Gospel and all the Writings of the New Testament, have internal Characters of their divine Original, for those that can see them; but if they had been left to those internal Characters, I am apt to think, that the Sons of Cicero, the Disciples of a Bayle, or those who stand the highest in such like Literature, would, of all Men, be the most indisposed and unwilling to see and own them.

Had we no Miracles for Proof of the Inspiration of the Scriptures, they would be still what they are, the true Word and Wisdom of God, and there would be the same Benefit in believing and receiving them as such. But to whom could they be proved to come from the Spirit of God? Not to a Ciceronian, because it is the Character, the Genius, the Greatness of Cicero, to dissemble and personate; and as an Orator, a Statesman, and a Philosopher, to affirm or deny as he pleases, without any Regard to his own Sentiments. And therefore to the Sons of Cicero nothing can be proved, because they depart from his Character, if they discover their own Sentiments, and do not either, as Philosophers, Orators, or Statesmen, affirm

Again; It cannot be proved to a Disciple of Bayle, because he was a Man, whose “ Strength and Clearness of Reasoning can be “ equalled only by the Gaiety, Easiness, and “ Delicacy of his Wit; who, pervading “ human Nature with a Glance, struck into “ the Province of Paradox, — — and had not “ enough of real Greatness, to overcome the “ last Foible of superior Geniuses, the Tempta“ tion of Honour, which the Academick Ex- “ ercise of Wit is supposed to bring to its

And therefore to a true Disciple of Bayle, nothing that is just, sober, or true, can be sufficiently proved; because it is his Genius, his Honour, his Ambition, to maintain the Paradox.

The next Question is, How can this be proved, viz. That the Scriptures have internal Characters of their Divinity? Now this can only be, by an honest Simplicity, and Love of Truth, by Humility and Prayer, and Conversion of the Heart to God in the reading of them. These are the only Dispositions that could possibly bring any Man into a Sense and Belief

* Divine Legation of Moses, B. I. p. 33.

Belief of their Divine Original: And therefore all those critical Scholars, and rationally wise Men, whose Enquiries are animated with a Love of Glory and personal Distinction, and who looked into those Writings for such Ends, and with such Views as they read other Books, would be of all Men the most unable to see, and unwilling to own the very best Truths of the Holy Scriptures; because it is the very Nature and End of the Scriptures, to discover the Vanity and Falseness of that Light and Knowledge, which is got from human Reasoning, and to subdue that Self-sufficiency which is so inseparable from certain Kinds and Degrees of human Learning.
